

DI

27 Feb. 1979 Bertha K. Dahl, 84

Mrs. Bertha K. Dahl, 84, died in Kalispell Tuesday morning.

She was born Feb. 3, 1895, in Long Lake, S.D., a daughter of David and Katherine Dufloth. On May 17, 1921, she was married to Selmer F. Dahl in Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Dahl had taught school in North Dakota and at Jordan, Garfield County, for many years. The couple had farmed at Jackle, N.D. for many years. In 1952 they moved to Kalispell, and in September 1976, Mrs. Dahl entered the Bigfork Convalescent Center, where she had resided since.

She was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church, a member of the Jackle Fireside Society, past state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, and a member of the World War I Barracks

Auxiliary of Kalispell. She was preceded in death by three brothers and two sisters, and is now survived by her husband, of Kalispell; one son, Donald Dahl of Sutter, Calif.; one daughter, Joyce D. Thomas of Houston, Texas; six grandchildren and one sister, Ernestine Henne of Alfred, N.D.

Services for Mrs. Dahl will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Johnson Chapel with the Pastor Jerome Jackson of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

DI

Stanley E. Dale, 65

Stanley E. Dale, 65, of Yellow Bay died Wednesday at his home.

He was born Dec. 9, 1913, at Kenyon, Minn., and moved to Rygate as an infant. He attended schools there and graduated from Rygate High School. He moved to Martindale where he worked on construction.

He married Mae Ashdown June 4, 1939, in Helena. The couple moved to Rygate where they farmed until moving to the eastshore of Flathead Lake in 1964.

Mr. Dale did overhaul work on water systems and worked at the state biological station until his retirement.

He was a member of Bigfork Lodge 150 AF&AM, Eastshore Lions Club and was a Republican committeeman and member of the elections board for the last 10 years.

He is survived by his widow at the family home; one son, Maurice of Yellow Bay; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Tode of Yellow Bay and Alice Sundquist of Provo, Utah; three grandchildren and other relatives.

Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday at the Little Brown Church in Bigfork with the Rev. Ron Pierce officiating.

Committal services are under the auspices of Bigfork Lodge 150 at Lone Pine Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of Mosley Funeral Home of Polson.

DI

Carl D. Daniels, 77

Carl D. Daniels, 77, Columbia Falls, died Sunday in Whitefish.

Daniels was born on April 20, 1902, in Archie, Mo., the son of Amos and Fannie Daniels. At age 11 he moved with his parents in a covered wagon to Illinois and later to eastern Montana in 1915. In 1916 the family moved to Columbia Falls.

He worked in the woods as a lumberjack. For eight years he worked at the Carr Elsethagen Department Store now known as Davall Mercantile. He then went back to the woods and worked until 1941 when he moved to Oregon and was associated in business with his father. In that same year he moved back to Columbia Falls and in 1946 started a garbage collection business and operated it until he retired in 1964.

He was married to Valentine Feirstein on Sept. 13, 1924, in Kalispell and was preceded in death by her on May 8, 1977.

Daniels is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Don (Wilma) Doane, Mrs. Don (Charmaine) Davall and Mrs. Charles (Linda) Bailey, all of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Tom (Opal) Easton of Grass Valley, Calif., and Mrs. Virgil (Christine) Hansen of Madras, Ore.; eight grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and numerous other relatives.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Van Leuven Funeral Home with the Rev. Ralph M. Werner of the First Baptist Church officiating. Burial will follow in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

WP

Funeral services conducted Wednesday for Alice Davall, 73

D-30 DEC 1979

Alice P. Davall, age 73, passed away Sunday morning at her home in Columbia Falls.

She was born July 14, 1906 in Belt, Montana, a daughter of George and Anna Jane Larkin. She received her education in Belt and Dillon, Montana. She taught school for several years in Simson, Montana.

She married Homer Davall in November, 1926 in Great Falls, Montana. They lived in Havre, Great Falls and Seattle, Washington before moving to Columbia Falls in 1945, and began the General Mercantile Store and operated it until his retirement.

She was a Past Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star and a member of the Methodist Church in Columbia Falls.

She is preceded in death by a brother, Jess Larkin of Prescott, Arizona. She is survived by her husband, Homer Davall, Columbia Falls; one son, Don Davall, Columbia Falls; four brothers, Vernon Larkin of Apple Valley, California; Albert Larkin of Reno, Nevada; Pat Larkin of Great Falls; and Hank Larkin of Columbia Falls; and one sister Zella Swogger; three granddaughters; and one great granddaughter.

Services were held for Mrs. Davall at the Van Leuven Funeral Home on Wednesday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Howard Hunter of the United Methodist Church officiating. Interment was made in the Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. Memorials are requested to the Shiner's Hospital in Spokane.

WP

Columbia Falls woman died in Kalispell

15 May 1979

Carrie Davidson, age 95, a former resident of Columbia Falls, passed away Tuesday morning in the Flathead County Nursing Home in Kalispell.

She was born January 25, 1884 in Painter Run, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Fredrick and Caroline Nies. She received her education in Penn., and in 1902 was married to Robert L. Davidson in New Mexico. They had lived in Roundup, Montana, from 1914 to 1944 where they homesteaded. In 1946 they moved to Columbia Falls after having lived in Philipsburg, Mont. several years. She was preceded in death her husband in 1950 and for the past eight years had lived in the Flathead County Nursing Home.

She was also preceded in death by two sons Lewis and Ralph. She is now survived by two sons Harry of Columbia Falls and Roy of Portland, Ore., and other relatives.

Graveside services for Mrs. Davidson will be Friday morning at 11 a.m. in the Woodlawn Cemetery with the Rev. Ron Paulson of the Our Saviors Lutheran Church officiating.

Funeral services are under the direction of the Van Leuven Funeral Home.

LENA STAHL DAVIES

Lena Stahl Davies, 91, died in Alhambra, CA Nov. 17, 1979. She was born in Midland, MI Oct. 17, 1888. Her parents were James and Elizabeth Stahl. She moved to Columbia Falls, MT, in 1893 with her parents. After the death of her parents, she made her home with her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Hollensteiner in Kalispell. She graduated from Flathead County High School in 1907. She then taught school at Jennings and Rollins. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin at Madison and then taught school at the old North Side School, now Edgerton. She married Douglas W. Davies in Kalispell August 21, 1919. He passed away April, 1953. She taught school for 37 years and retired from Los Angeles County Schools in 1955. After retiring she made her home at the PEO Home in Alhambra, CA. She is survived by two sons, Douglas of Klamath Falls, Oregon and Robert of Marion, SC, five grandchildren and three great grandchildren, a sister Ruth Stahl of Spokane, WA and several nieces and nephews. Conrad Memorial Cemetery Friday

Memorial services will be held at the Nov. 23rd at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Davies' father and her brothers were stone masons and brick layers. They built the West side school, the old Linderman school, Northside school. They had Kalispell's first brick yard and built the first brick house in the valley which is still standing and in use behind the Snowline Tree Company.

21 Nov. 1979 - KWN

DI

Donald Davis, 40

22 Dec 1979

Donald Michael Davis, 40, formerly of Coram, died in Littleton, Col. Saturday.

He was born Aug. 6, 1939, in Ottumwa, Iowa, the son of Donald C. and Margaret Davis. He received his schooling in Iowa and in 1962 moved with his family to Colorado.

He had served in the U.S. Army from 1961 to 1963, having served in Germany.

In 1976, he moved to Coram and was employed as a truck driver for the City of Kalispell. In 1978, he returned to Colorado where he was employed as a machinist in a factory.

Davis, a bachelor, is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis of Coram, seven brothers, Gary and Dennis of Denver, David and Michael of Kalispell, Bernie of Littleton, Col., John of Coram and Tom of Columbia Falls, five sisters, Donna Piland and Mary Ogden, both of Coram, Linda Davis and Anna Marie Pettinger of Denver and Jeanne Leonard of Fayetteville, N.C.

Rosary will be recited at 7 tonight in St. Richard's Catholic Church. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Thursday in St. Richard's Catholic Church, with the Rev. Father Bernard Sullivan as celebrant. Burial will be in the St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home.

VERNAL LESTER DAVISON

Vernal Lester Davison, born Oct. 18, 1896 in Libertyville, IL, died March 18th at Valley Villa Care Center in Seattle. Services were held in Seattle March 20th and his ashes will be returned to Kalispell for burial in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. He grew up and lived in Kalispell from 1906 until 1940. Served in the Army in W.W. I and worked in a Seattle Shipyard during W.W. II. Surviving him are one brother, William Davison of Seattle and two sisters, Gertrude De Long of Spokane and Dorothy Bertelson of Kalispell.

KWN

DI

Lynn Theodore 'Ted' Day, 85

19 Dec 1979

Lynn Theodore "Ted" Day, 85, died Wednesday evening in the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Sept. 27, 1894, in Lemond, Minn., a son of William and Marian Day. He received his education in Minnesota, having attended the Pillsbury Academy at Owatonna. He then moved to central Montana where he homesteaded at Winifred. On Oct. 4, 1917, he entered the U.S. Army at Lewistown and served until receiving his honorable discharge on May 23, 1919, at Camp Lewis, Wash.

He then returned to his homestead, where he farmed until 1935 when he moved to Kalispell. He operated a dairy farm in Day's Acres until 1944 when he entered real estate business until his retirement.

He spent his summers for the past number of years in Alaska with his family there.

He was a member of the World War I Barracks and the American Legion.

On Dec. 29, 1922, he was married to Eleanor J. Rambeck in Great Falls and was preceded in death by her on Sept. 10, 1967.

He now is survived by three sons, James of Kalispell, Ted Jr. of Rancho Mirage, Calif., and John of Fairbanks, Alaska; one sister, Marian Faucette of Kalispell; 10 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Services for Day will be conducted in the Johnson Chapel at 11 a.m. Saturday with the Rev. John Rieth, pastor of the Faith Free Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens where military graveside rites will be conducted by the local veterans organizations.

MAUDE LOUISE DAY

Maude Louise Day, 76, of Route 1, Bigfork, died May 8th at her home. She was born Dec. 10, 1902, in Montana, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Remington. She came to the Flathead in 1946 from Havre, and has remained in the Bigfork area. She was the great-niece of the famed Indian and Old West painter, Frederick Remington. She was a member of the Lake Chapter Order of the Eastern Star. She is survived by a son, Raymond Kaste of Bigfork, and five grandchildren: Debbie, Diana and William Kaste, all of Bigfork, Teryl Reynolds of Washington and Raymond Kaste of Spokane. Services were Friday in the Little Brown Church in Bigfork with the Rev. Ron Pierce officiating. Burial was in the Lone Pine Cemetery. KW

WP

Sara Donohoe DeLaney buried at Whitefish cemetery

D-24 JAN 1979

Sara Donohoe DeLaney, age 84, died at the Winslow Convalescent Home at Winslow, Wa., January 24.

Mrs. DeLaney was born May 11, 1895, in Omaha, Nebraska, a daughter of Steven Rosser and Ida May Donohoe. She later moved to Virginia with her parents where she received her early schooling, later moving to Washington, D.C., where she became an attorney and worked for the Federal Bureau of Investigation until the 1950s.

She married Lee DeLaney in 1944 in California. Her husband was in the military service. The couple moved to Suquamish, Washington, in the 1950s, where Mr. DeLaney preceded her in death in 1977.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star at Manassas, Virginia.

She is survived by one brother, Ross Donohoe, and one sister, Edra Van Vleck, both of Whitefish, and many nephews and nieces.

She was cremated with graveside services conducted at the Whitefish Cemetery at 2 p.m. Feb. 5. Rev. Ken Peterson of the First United Presbyterian Church presided. Arrangements were in charge of the Austin Funeral Home.

DI

18 Nov. 1979

Lester DeLange, 70

Lester E. DeLange Sr., 70, of Whitefish, died in Whitefish Sunday evening.

He was born Oct. 14, 1909, in Tower City, N.D., a son of Simon and Jennie Swartz DeLange. He received his schooling in North Dakota and later moved to Montana. On Dec. 13, 1930, he married Gladyce Kramer in Miles City. The couple had lived in Miles City for five years before moving to Brown- ing. From 1941 to 1945, they lived in Portland, Ore. They then lived in Kalispell until 1968 when they moved to Orofino, Idaho, for five years.

DeLange had been a carpenter and had been employed with Morrison-Knutson prior to his retire- ment in 1973 when he moved to Whitefish. He has resided there since that time.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Gladyce, June 6, 1973. He is survived by four sons, Richard of Kalispell, Ralph of San Jose, Calif., L.E. (Bun) of Whitefish, and Robert of Everett, Wash., two brothers, Clarence of Miles City and Harley of Terry; two sisters, Leona Mabe of Forsyth, and Ardella Wal- by of Bismarck, N.D.; 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for DeLange will be conducted at 11 a.m. Friday in the Johnson Chapel with burial to follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

DI

Milton Arthur DeLong, 87

Milton Arthur DeLong, 87, former- ly of Somers, died in Tacoma, Wash. Wednesday morning.

He was born Aug. 24, 1891, in Eau Galle, Wis., a son of Willion O. and Minnie Schrader DeLong. He was the last remaining member of his immediate family, which, besides his parents, consisted of seven brothers and four sisters.

DeLong's parents were farmers at Eau Galle, and he lived there until adulthood, attending the Eau Galle public school. On Sept. 21, 1910, he enlisted in the U.S. Army at Columbus Barracks, Ohio, for a term of three years. Part of his Army service was performed at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., and part in the Philippine Islands. He received his honorable discharge on Sept. 20, 1913, at Fort McDowell, Calif.

After a short stay in Montana, he returned to his family home in Wisconsin, where he farmed for several years.

On March 7, 1917, he was married to Ruth Azhmore Tibbets at Wabasha, Minn. The couple con- tinued to farm in Wisconsin for several years, and in 1927 they moved to Somers. DeLong was employed as a locomotive engineer for the Great Northern Railroad un- til his retirement in 1960. He then continued to live at Somers where he maintained his home, gardened, and raised and sold sweet corn until fall 1975, when he entered a convalescent home.

He was a member of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union, Local 1965, of Somers; The American Association of Retired Persons, and the Missoula, Montana, Benefit Society.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth, on Sept. 22, 1965, and is now survived by seven children: Russell R. and Joe A. DeLong, both of Somers; Theoria Engstrom of Tacoma, Wash.; Roy M. DeLong of Hot Springs; Dennis H. DeLong of Veradale, Wash.; Davey C. DeLong of Opportunity; Silver Bow County and Donald G. DeLong of Spokane; 27 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Services for DeLong will be con- ducted at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Chapel. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens, where military graveside rites will be con- ducted by the local veterans organizations.

DI

Farnham Denson, 90

26 July 1979
MILES CITY
Farnham Denson, 90, a resident of Custer County Rest Home and a former resident of Kalispell, died late Thursday afternoon at the rest home.

He was born Jan. 9, 1889, in Savannah, Ga., where he was raised and attended schools.

He moved to Miles City in 1911. He married Wanda Kelly there in 1916.

On July 20, 1941, he married Hazel Bunker in Seattle, Wash. They made their home in Miles City. He retired from the Milwaukee Railroad in 1951. The couple moved to Kalispell in 1959. Mrs.

Denson died in 1974. Services will be Monday at 10 a.m. in the chapel of J.E. Graves Funeral Home, Miles City, with the Rev. Robert Starberg officiating.

Denson served on the Miles City Council for 27 years and was elected mayor for three terms.

He was a member of the Shrine, Order of the Eastern Star, White Shrine, Elks Club and Yellowstone Lodge 26, AM&AM. He was also a member of the First Baptist Church.

He is survived by one son, Leon, and one daughter, Mrs. Allan (Thelma) Ureling, both of Miles City.

Interment, with Masonic graveside services provided by the Yellowstone Lodge, will follow in the Custer County Cemetery. Memorials to the Shriners' Crippled Children's Hospital can be made in Denson's honor.

DI

Jean Sanders Denson, 68

17 Apr. 1979
MISSOULA — Jean Sanders Denson, 68, died Tuesday afternoon in a Missoula hospital following a brief illness.

She was born in Butte May 12, 1911. She was the daughter of prominent Butte attorney L.P. Sanders and was a member of one of Montana's pioneer families.

Her grandfather was Wilbur Fisk Sanders, prosecuting attorney for the Montana vigilantes and the first U.S. senator from Montana.

She graduated from Butte schools and attended the Oak Hill's Girls School in St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Catlin's Schools for Girls in Portland, Ore. She also attended the University of

She was a life-long resident of the Sweet Grass Hills in northern Montana, and, in 1967, married Shade Denson of Shelby. She is survived by her husband, a brother, W.F. Sanders II of Butte, a sister, Louise Sanders Delano of Missoula, and four daughters, Mrs. Natalie Hewitt of Phoenix, Ariz., Melinda Denson of Portland, Shadra Denson of Missoula, and Laurie Denson of Polson, five grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter.

Funeral services will be conducted 11 a.m. Friday at the Community Methodist Church in Shelby. Interment will be Saturday in Polson.

DI

Gertrude O. DeWit, 69

18 Oct. 1979
Gertrude O. DeWit, 69, of 555 S. Ferndale Road died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Thursday.

She was born Sept. 23, 1910 in Hamilton, the daughter of Frank and Grace Jones. She attended grade school in Hamilton and graduated from high school in Missoula, then went to Kinman Business College in Spokane.

On Feb. 10, 1934, she married Klaas DeWit in Deer Lodge. They made their home in Bonner, where he was employed by the Anaconda Co. They moved to Columbia Falls in 1953 and upon his retirement from the Anaconda Co. in 1971 moved to Bigfork.

She was a charter president of the Bonner PTA, past president of the Missoula County Home Demonstration Council, first mother adviser of the Columbia Falls Rainbow Assembly 66 and recipient of the Grand Cross of Colors; past matron of Estella Pomeroy Chapter 68, O.E.S.; past president of Flathead Council of Home Demonstration Clubs; past president and charter member of the Columbia Falls Women's Club; and served on the Flathead County Library board for many years. She also was a member of the Bigfork United Methodist Church.

She is survived by her husband at the family home; two daughters, Mrs. Kent (Marjorie) Lindsey of Penticton, British Columbia, and Mrs. Roger (Grace) Elliot of Columbia Falls; a sister, Mrs. Irene Wilson of Coronado Calif.; a brother, Lamar Jones of Missoula, and six grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Joe Loos of the Bigfork United Methodist Church officiating. Her body was cremated.

The family suggests memorials to the United Methodist Church, Bigfork, or to the charity of the donor's choice.

DI

Frances Louise DiGiovanni, 70

15 June 1979

Mrs. Frances Louise DiGiovanni, 70, died on Friday at her home at 1009 Second Ave. W., Kalispell.

She was born Nov. 14, 1908, in Rossburg, Aitkin County, Minn., a daughter of Henry H. and Katherine Perry. She received her education and spent her early life there.

On Nov. 8, 1930, she married John DiGiovanni. The couple lived at Aitkin, Minn. until early spring 1940 when they came to Montana and settled at Yacht, then a post office on Thompson River. In fall 1941 they moved to Marion. In June 1945, they purchased their present home where they had resided since that time.

Mrs. DiGiovanni was a member of the St. Matthew's Catholic Church and a charter member of the FOE Auxiliary 234.

She is survived by her husband, John, at home; a son, Gerald of Bremerton, Wash.; a daughter, Florence Ring of Spokane; 10 grandchildren; six brothers, John of Wallowa, Ore., George of Albuquerque, N.M., and Harry, Dalton, Richard and Raymond all in Minnesota; and three sisters, Helen, Nancy and Mildred, all in Minnesota.

Rosary for Mrs. DiGiovanni will be recited in the Johnson Chapel at 7 p.m. Sunday. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Monday in the St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Father Juan Diphe as celebrant. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.

DI

Gertrude Dixon, 89

1 Nov 1979

Mrs. Gertrude Viola Dixon, 89, died Thursday afternoon at the Immanuel Lutheran Home where she has resided for the past two years.

She was born June 28, 1890, in Armington, Ill., a daughter of Charles and Isabelle Hanger. She attended schools there and graduated from Hittle Township High School in Armington. On May 4, 1909, she married Homer M.

Dixon. To this union seven children were born, three preceded her in death.

In March of 1918, Mrs. Dixon, her husband and family and other members of the Carr-Hanger families moved to the Flathead Valley. After living in Whitefish for several years, the Dixons moved to Kalispell and later to Rollins. Mrs. Dixon was a resident of the Bigfork Convalescent Center for several years prior to moving to the Immanuel Lutheran Home.

At an early age she had an interest in music which she enjoyed throughout her life, playing for church when she was young and in her later years playing for devotional services at the nursing homes. She was a lifelong member of the Christian Church (Disciples) taking an active interest in all church activities.

She was preceded in death by her husband on April 18, 1954. She is survived by one son, Marion Dixon of Missoula; three daughters, Madeline Peterson of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Tom (Clara Belle) Haynes of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Walter (Shirley) Weaver of Kalispell; eight grandchildren, several great grandchildren; three great great grandchildren; one brother, John H. Hanger of Missoula; a sister, Louise Hanger of Kalispell; and several nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dixon will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Paul Dean Hill, pastor of Central Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens. The family suggest memorials be made to the organ fund of the Central Christian Church.

DI

Agnes Dollahan, 79

13 Feb 1979
BELLINGHAM, WASH. — Agnes M. Dollahan, 79, died here Feb. 13.

She had resided in Bellingham for the past 10 years. She is survived by her husband, Robert; one daughter, Katherine Rude, Bellingham; two grandchildren; two sisters, Sadie Saltness of Dawson, Minn., and Evelyn Becker of St. Paul, Minn.; one brother, Arnold Mikkelsen of Cokato, Minn.

Memorial services were Feb. 15. Mrs. Dollahan and her husband are former residents of Kalispell. They owned and operated the Central Office Supply there.

Vernie F. Dore

28 Jan. 1979

Mrs. Vernie F. Dore, 87, died Sunday in the Immanuel Lutheran Home where she had resided since 1967. She was born Dec. 25, 1891, in Brainerd, Minn., a daughter of Braisier and Sarah Bailey.

In 1900, she moved to Canada and lived on a farm near Dorelee. She had received much of her education in Canada before moving to Kalispell, where on June 24, 1909, she was married to Frank E. Dore. She had lived in Kalispell most of the time since then.

Mrs. Dore was an artist and interested in art work. After the death of her husband she moved to Seattle, Wash., where she was employed as a tinter in a photography shop. She had been an active member of the Central Christian Church and the affairs of the church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank, on May 27, 1943; three sisters and two brothers. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Art (Loretta) Overby of Kalispell and Mrs. Joe (Ruth) Falkner of Mercer Island, Wash.; five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and several nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dore are tentatively planned for 2 p.m. Thursday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Everett Cecil, pastor of the Central Christian Church officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

DI

DOYLE, Pearl, 85, 635 Sixth St. W. Kalispell, died Wednesday. The body was forwarded to Spokane for services and burial.

WEATHERFORD
FUNERAL HOME
 Jim & Patty Weatherford
 George & Rosalind Ainley
 Kalispell 755-3432

14 Feb 1979

Louise Mae Drew, 85

28 Jan. 1979

Mrs. Louise Mae Drew, 85, Somers, died in Kalispell Thursday afternoon.

She was born May 6, 1893, in Butte, a daughter of Bernard and Elizabeth Deeney. She had attended a Catholic Girls' School in Helena. On Oct. 24, 1917, she was married to Ralph Drew in Reed Point. The couple farmed at Reed Point for a number of years, and, in 1925, they moved to Somers, where they made their home since that time.

Mrs. Drew had been employed as a cook for the Flathead County Hospital for 12 years prior to her retirement.

She was a member of the St. Ann's Catholic Church of Somers and the Altar Society of the church. She was also a member of the Daughters of Isabella of Kalispell.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph, on Sept. 19, 1953, and by one daughter, Helen.

She died on April 2, 1978. She is now survived by two sons, Larry Drew of LaGrande, Ore., and James Drew of Somers; one sister, Catherine Friend of Vancouver, Wash.; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held in the Johnson Chapel at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated in St. Ann's Catholic Church of Somers at 10:30 a.m. Monday with the Rev. Father William Morley as celebrant. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggests memorials be made to the St. Ann's Catholic Church or to the Flathead County Nursing Home.

31 Oct. 1979

Doris Dreyer, 52

Mrs. Doris Charlotte K. Dreyer, 52, who had resided at 135 Dogwood Ave., died in Kalispell Wednesday morning.

She was born May 27, 1927, in Eckman, North Dakota, a daughter of Fred and Julia Anderson. She attended elementary school at Eckman and graduated from high school at Minot, N.D. On Oct. 18, 1947, she married Gerald Dreyer at Eckman. The couple lived in Minot until 1968 when they moved to Kalispell.

Mrs. Dreyer was a member of the Zion Lutheran Church of Minot and since coming to Kalispell has been a member of the Calvary Lutheran Church. She also was a member of the Eagles Auxiliary of Minot.

She was preceded in death by her mother in 1974. She is survived by her husband, Gerald, at home; three sons, Dennis Dreyer of Whitefish, Donald Dreyer of Kent, Wash., and Kevin Dreyer at home; her father, Fred Anderson of Minot; a brother, Lester Anderson of Max Bass, N.D.; a sister, Mabel Romine of Minot, and several other relatives.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dreyer will be conducted in the Calvary Lutheran Church at 10 a.m. Saturday with the Rev. Lowell Stordahl officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home.

27 July 1979

Glenn Beltran Drown, 76

Glenn Beltran Drown, 76, of 526 Second St. W. died in Kalispell Saturday afternoon.

He was born May 4, 1903, in Milton, Mich., a son of Robert and Ida Drown. He spent his early life and received his education in Alpena, Mich., and Traverse City, Mich.

On Feb. 23, 1943, he married Vida McDonnell in Jackson, Mich.

They moved to the Flathead Valley in 1946, and in 1948 they moved to Alaska for 14 years. They then lived for several years in Missouri, California and Arizona before returning to Kalispell in 1974 and have lived here since that time.

Drown was a tool maker prior to his retirement. He is survived by his wife, Vida, at home; one son, Frank of Ferndale; one daughter, Barbara Shepherd of Benzonia, Wash.; and four grandchildren.

The body has been cremated.

Private memorial services will be held at a later date. The family suggest memorials be made to the Cancer Fund or to the Heart Fund.

Robert W. Dunlap, 69

6 Dec. 1979

Robert W. Dunlap, 69, of Somers died Thursday in the San Jose Hospital, San Jose, Calif.

Dunlap was born June 1, 1910, in Alberton, the son of Joseph A. and Nellie Riant Dunlap. He attended elementary school in Deer Lodge and graduated from high school in Missoula in 1927.

Sept. 13, 1930, he married Lucile Boggs in Missoula. He worked on installation and maintenance of air conditioning and refrigeration in Missoula and Butte. They operated their own business in Helena from 1932 until 1954 when they sold their business and returned to Missoula where he was employed by Clauson Refrigeration until 1959 at which time they moved to Kalispell. In Kalispell he was employed by Harold Chittim and later by Joe Bergsieker Refrigeration.

In 1966 he took over the maintenance of the three B&B stores and continued until his retirement in 1974. Since that time they had been spending summers at Somers and winters in the south.

Dunlap was a member of Eagles Aerie 234 of Kalispell and of the Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Lucile, at the family home; his mother, Mrs. Nellie Dunlap of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; three sons, Robert E. of Somers, Jerry M. of Missoula and Sgt. Joseph A. Dunlap of Hawaii; one daughter, Mrs. Jerry (Cheryl) Hanson, Gilroy, Calif.; one brother, Walter R. Dunlap of Coeur d'Alene; two sisters, Mrs. Elton (Ruth) Maughn of Coeur d'Alene and Mrs. Robert (JoEllen) Barton of Bellingham, Wash.; seven grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Chauncey Biffle officiating.

Burial will follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Violet Dwelle, 66

25 Jan. 1979

Mrs. Violet Dwelle, 66, died on Thursday morning at her home in Dayton.

She was born March 4, 1912, in Long Pine, Neb., a daughter of George and Mary Alice Petterbaugh. In the 1920s she moved to Montana. On April 4, 1935, she was married to Harry Dwelle in Polson. The couple resided in the Dayton and Proctor area since that time.

Mrs. Dwelle was preceded in death by her husband on Dec. 18, 1966, and is now survived by two sons, Bill Dwelle of Dayton and Lee Roy Dwelle of Seattle, Wash.; one daughter, Helen, former of Fairland, Idaho, and two grandchildren.

Services for Mrs. Dwelle will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Chapel. The Rev. Jerry Roles, pastor of the Dayton Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.