

Marshall Mach, 25

18 Jan 1980
Marshall Lawrence Mach, 25, a former resident of Jackson, Wyo., most recently of Whitefish, died as a result of a snow avalanche while skiing on Big Mountain Friday.

He was born July 16, 1954 in Yankton, S.D., a son of Dr. Edward and Marion Mach. He graduated from high school at Yankton and then moved to Logan, Utah, where he graduated from Utah State University. He then moved to Jackson where he was a bartender and a ski instructor. In September 1979 he moved to Whitefish and purchased the Palace Lounge.

He is survived by his parents Dr. and Mrs. Mach of Phoenix, Ariz., and two brothers, Warren Mach, Albuquerque, N.M., Brian Mach, Fullerton, Calif.

Memorial services are planned for Tuesday at 10 a.m. at Austin Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to the U.S. Olympic Ski Team.

Agnes MacKay, 84

1 Nm 1980
Mrs. Agnes L. MacKay, 84, of 145 Fourth Ave. W., died Saturday.

She was born March 12, 1896, in Klufeld, south Russia, a daughter of David and Katharina Hiebert, the third of nine children.

She came to America with her family in 1901, and settled in Henderson, Neb. In 1913, they homesteaded north of Chinook.

On May 10, 1933, she married John Archie MacKay in Butte. They lived in Chinook until 1966 when they moved to Great Falls. Mrs. MacKay moved to Kalispell in November 1972.

She was a 50-year member of the American Legion auxiliary of Chinook and the Chinook United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, John, in October 1969; and two brothers, Henry and William.

She is survived by her daughter, Mina K. Anderson of the east lakeshore, Bigfork; three grandchildren, Scott Eric, Bonnie Laurie and James Jay Anderson; two brothers, Dave Hiebert of Tenaha, Texas, and Peter Hiebert of Havre; four sisters, Sara Nystrand of Seattle, Wash., Lena Klick of Los Angeles, Katharina Olson of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Louise Crumley of Lincoln.

The body will lie in state for visitation at the Johnson Funeral Home from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday. The body will be forwarded to Chinook where services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Burial will follow in Cooper Cemetery in Chinook.

12 Jan 1980

Glen T. Maddux, 62

TROY — Glen T. Maddux, 62, died Saturday at St. John's Hospital, Libby. He was born June 15, 1917, at Lloyd, Blaine County. He came to Whitefish as a child and received his education here.

He married Arlene Chase Jan. 29, 1937, in Whitefish. He worked for the Great Northern Railway until moving to Troy in 1941 where he was railway clerk until retiring in 1972 after more than 36 years service.

He made his home in Troy and at the time of his death had owned the Fairview Heights development.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of Airlines and Railway Clerks Union, and the Troy Businessmen's Association.

He is survived by his wife at the family home; one daughter, Kay Collogan, Libby; one son, Rodney, Libby; one brother, Roger, Whitefish; one sister, Dorothy Theroux, Klamath Falls, Ore.; and five grandchildren. One son, Robert, died in 1964.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Troy Methodist Church with Rev. Tom Boller officiating. Burial will be in Troy Cemetery. Memorials have been suggested to St. John's Lutheran Hospital Guild Fund.

28 Oct. 1980

Kenneth A. Madsen, 61

MEDFORD, Ore. — Kenneth A. Madsen, 61, of Kalispell and Mesa, Ariz., died Tuesday of a heart attack in Medford, Ore.

He was born Nov. 21, 1918, in St. Ignatius, a son of Henry and Florence Madsen.

He moved with his family to the Flathead Valley and attended local schools. He graduated in the 1936 class from Flathead County High School.

On May 29, 1941, he married Bernice "Bee" Carr in Kalispell. He entered the Navy Air Force in October 1942, at Seattle, Wash., where he served as a lieutenant. He was discharged Jan. 18, 1946, in Camp Wallace, Texas.

Madsen returned to Kalispell and was a rural mail carrier for the U.S. Postal Service until his retirement. He was a member of the Retired Rural Mail Carriers Association.

He is survived by his wife, Bee; one son, Kenneth Madsen Jr. of Minneapolis, Minn.; one daughter, Mrs. Tim (Vicki) Berg of Kalispell; three grandsons; one granddaughter; and a sister, Patricia Holmquist of Kalispell.

The body has been cremated. Services will be held at 10 a.m. in Johnson Funeral Home with the Rev. Eugene Mockabee, pastor of the Central Christian Church, officiating.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Heart Fund in lieu of flowers.

Earl E. Maken, 77

31 July 1980

LIBBY — Earl E. Maken, 77, died at his home 20 miles south of Libby Thursday.

He was born July 3, 1903, in Eureka. He received his schooling in the Flathead Valley and came to Libby in 1927. His first wife, Mabel, preceded him in death in 1964.

He married Mildred Bostic on Oct. 19, 1965, in Sandpoint, Idaho.

He was an equipment operator in the logging industry until his retirement in 1968.

Survivors include his wife at the family home; five stepdaughters; one stepson; and numerous grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. Copeland Bradley officiating.

The Vial Funeral Home in Libby is in charge of arrangements.

Richard Mansfield, 22

8 Oct. 1980

Richard Michael Mansfield, 22, died Wednesday

as the result of injuries received in a tractor accident while working in the Ferndale area.

He was born March 25, 1958, in Manhattan, Kan., a son of Marion Frances and Byjo Mansfield. As a young boy he moved with his family to Texas where he received his education. He then served for three years in the U.S. Marine Corps.

About three years ago he came to Bigfork and had lived at 2051 Swan Highway. He was employed as a tractor driver for the Snowline Tree Company at the time of his death.

He was preceded in death by his father and is now survived by his mother, in Dallas, Texas; two brothers, William John Mansfield of Dallas and Tim Mansfield of Bigfork; one sister, Karan Jo Mansfield of Dallas; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rhoades of Cawker City, Kan., and Rose Mansfield of Clay Center, Kan.

The body has been forwarded by the Johnson Funeral Home to the Waconda Funeral Home of Cawker City, where funeral services and burial are planned for a later date.

Jaunita Markus, 56, a former resident of Whitefish died Tuesday at Sacramento, Calif.

She was born Dec. 31, 1924 in Kalispell, a daughter of Charlie and Myrtle Johnson.

She received her schooling in Kalispell and Whitefish. She was employed at Markus Grocery for several years. She later moved to Sacramento, where she was employed with Miles n' Miles. She is survived by her former husband Raymond Markus of Whitefish; one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Shelly) Love, Columbia Falls and a son, Kurt Markus, Colorado Springs, Colorado; two grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Ivan (Darlene) Ibsen, Whitefish.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister Inez Parks.

A memorial service was held in Sacramento following cremation. A memorial service was conducted from the Austin Funeral Home Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. with Rev. Father Patrick Brown officiating.

Juanita Markus

MARGARET MARSH 12 Nov 1980

Margaret E. Marsh, 74, Hot Springs resident for 34 years and native of western Montana, died Nov. 3rd at the Clark Fork Valley Hospital after a lingering illness. Graveside services were held Thursday at the Whitepine Cemetery. She was born Aug. 26, 1906 in Kila, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turk. She was married to Russell

Belknap in Thompson Falls. Belknap died a year and a half after the wedding and she was married to Dan Disbrow who also preceded her in death in 1945. She later married Emil Marsh. Survivors include her husband, in Hot Springs, a daughter, Doris Lobe, Kirkland, WA; five stepdaughters, including Jean Crismore, Kalispell.

Steven Marsh, 34

9 Aug 1980

ABERDEEN, Wash. — Steven C. Marsh, 34, a roofer from Aberdeen, drowned Aug. 9 in the Chehalis River.

He was born in Kalispell, moved to Kennewick, Wash., in 1968, and recently to Aberdeen.

Survivors include his wife, Patricia; four sons, Travis and Tyrone, both of Longview, Wash., and Brent and Charlie Marsh, both of Pasco, Wash.; three daughters, Stacy and Regina Marsh, both of Longview, and Stephanie Marsh, Pasco; his mother, Marie Enger, Kennewick; father, Earl, of Phoenix, Ariz.; two brothers, Dennis, Federal Way, Wash., and Lonnie, Harrison, Ore.; three sisters, Virginia Radford, Robin Norris and Linda Proffitt, all of Kennewick; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins in the Kalispell area. His brother, Gary, died in 1972 and his sister, Mary, died in 1952.

Services were held in Mueller's Chapel of the Falls, and burial was in Riverview Heights Cemetery.

George V. Marshall, 70

29 Nov 1980

SPOKANE — George V. Marshall, 70, of Post Falls, Idaho, died Saturday in Sacret Heart Medical Center in Spokane. He is survived by his wife at the family home; by a son, Robert Gene Marshall, Kalispell; two daughters, Rochelle Crawford, San Bernardino, Calif., and Georgia Riehl, Kalispell; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; a brother, Thomas Marshall, Carson, Calif.; and a sister, Claudia Ferry, Sacramento. He was preceded in death by one son, John Marshall, in 1957.

He was born July 31, 1910, in Belle Fourche, S.D. On Dec. 22, 1945, he married the former Dorothy Schoeder in Polson. He moved to northern Idaho in January 1978 from Fair Oaks, Calif. He had worked as a journeyman lineman for Aero Jet General Corporation.

Mr. Marshall was a member of the Scottish Rite of Sacramento, Calif., and the Willits Masonic Lodge 365, AF & AM, Willits, Calif.

Masonic services were conducted Tuesday by Kootenai Lodge 24 in the English Funeral Chapel in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

29 Dec 1980 John Perry Martin, 86

KELLOGG, Idaho — John Perry Martin, 86, of Noxon, died Dec. 29 in the Good Samaritan Nursing Center in Silverton, Idaho.

He was born Mar. 21, 1894, in Hamburg, Iowa, son of Walter and Louisa Martin. He had worked for the Montana State Forest Service and prior to that was a farmer and had homesteaded in Denton. Before moving to Kalispell he lived in Pahrump, Nev., then settled in Noxon in 1976 and finally came to Kellogg in 1979.

He married Annabelle Hill June 29, 1923, in Denton.

Survivors include his wife in Silverton and one son, Bill Martin of Noxon; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be at the Wallace Funeral Chapel Jan. 2 at 11 a.m. with graveside services to be held at Glacier Memorial Gardens in Kalispell Jan. 3 at 2 p.m.

Memorials may be given to the Good Samaritan Nursing Center.

NORA MARTIN

Nora Marie Martin, 82, a resident of Kalispell since 1884, died in her home at 337 Second St. W., Aug. 16th. She was born Aug. 11, 1898, in Arne Township, Banson County, ND, the daughter of Sjurs and Bertha Kanikkeberg. She received her schooling in North Dakota and in 1925 she married William Martin in Chinook. The couple lived throughout Montana and Washington where Mr. Martin was a railroad worker. She was a member of the Kalispell

Senior Citizens, the Sunshine Chorus and the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. Her husband died Feb. 11, 1971. Survivors include two sons, Donald, Longview, WA, and Albin, Kendrick, ID; four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were Wednesday with the Rev. John Allen, Bethlehem Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery in Kalispell.

29 Mar. 1980

J. Clark Mason

J. Clark Mason, 66, former manager of the Kalispell Chamber of Commerce, died in Phoenix, Ariz., Saturday.

He was born Nov. 22, 1913, in Joplin, Mo. He received his education and spent his early life there. In September 1940, he married Evelyn Brown in Savannah, Ga. In 1947, they moved to Kalispell where Mason was manager and public relations supervisor for the Kalispell Chamber of Commerce for 21 years before retiring due to ill health. Since that time, he and his wife have resided at Echo Lake, Bigfork, during the summer months and have spent their winters at Mesa, Ariz.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church for 33 years and was a member of the church choir. He also was a member of the Kalispell Masonic Lodge 42 A.F. & A.M.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Marie

Clark Marquardt; a sister, Marjorie, and a brother, Bobby Lee. He is survived by his widow, Evelyn; one stepson, Gene LaMar Mason; a sister, Alice MacArthur of Gibson, Ga.; a brother, Edgar Mason of Watertown, N.Y.; five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mason will be conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday in the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Dr. Odin A. Baugh officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home. The family suggests memorials be made to the First Presbyterian Church.

J. CLARK MASON

GILFORD MARVIN

16 April 1980

Gilford S. "Bud" Marvin, 58, of Somers, died April 13th, in Kalispell Regional Hospital. He was born Jan. 16, 1922, in Sumatra, a son of Gilford M. and Lura Marvin. He attended school in Sumatra, and in 1926 moved to the Flathead Valley and attended Flathead County High School. He married Edith Whitehead Wolfe Oct. 28, 1946. He was employed by S.I. Rapson, Valley Oil and Services and Valcon for 34 years. Marvin is survived by his wife, Edith, at the family home; a son, Bud Marvin Jr. of Missoula; two daughters, Janet Mack of Libby and Wanda Marvin of Kalispell; three brothers, Newton of Kila, Wayne and Charlie Marvin, both of Kalispell; one sister, Frances Sathre of Portland, OR; and four grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating. Burial was in the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery where military graveside rites were conducted by the local veterans organizations. The family suggest memorials be made to the Lakeside Chapel or the Intensive Care Unit of the Kalispell Regional Hospital.

17 Aug 1980

Mary Mason, 50

LIBBY — Mary F. Mason, 50, of Libby, died Sunday in St. John Lutheran Hospital.

She was born July 5, 1930, in Mount Rainier, Md. She received her schooling in Maryland and came to Libby in 1952. She married Walter Mason Oct. 23, 1976, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Mrs. Mason worked as a dispatcher for the Lincoln County sheriff's office for about 10 years.

Survivors include her husband in Libby; two daughters, Diane Moles, Great Falls, and Linda Sharp, Kalispell; three sons, Walter, Portland, Ore., David Bitterman, Port Townsend, Wash., and Mark Bitterman, Libby; two sisters, two brothers and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Vial Funeral Home in Libby with the Rev. Sheridan Erickson officiating. Burial will be in the Libby Cemetery.

17 Sept. 1980

Joan Mathews, 66

SAN FRANCISCO — A memorial service will be held Monday for Joan Mathews, a retired Red Cross worker who devoted more than 30 years to helping American armed forces personnel throughout the world.

Miss Mathews, who had been ill with leukemia for the past year, died Sept. 17 at Presbyterian Hospital in San Francisco. She was 66.

Her career included service in the United States, Guam, Japan, Korea, Europe and, lastly, as area director of all Red Cross operations in Vietnam.

Upon her retirement in 1973, she made her home in San Francisco and continued to serve as a volunteer for the Red Cross, UNICEF and other charitable organizations.

A native of Montana,

Miss Mathews attended Montana State University and earned her master's degree from the University of California at Berkeley.

She lived in Kalispell and worked for the Flathead County Welfare Department before joining the American Red Cross in 1943. She spent several years in the Far East and Korea, where she helped wounded soldiers to communicate with their families by writing their letters, arranging ham radio messages or taking snapshots for anxious relatives.

Miss Mathews is survived by five sisters, Marie Mathews and Betty Neides of San Francisco; Jane of San Francisco; Jane of Oakland, Calif., formerly of Kalispell; Isobel Dickinson of Missoula, formerly of Kalispell; and Nileen McDonnell of Lewistown.

The memorial service will be held at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, of which she was a member, at 2 p.m.

Phyllis Prior Mattison

SEATTLE, WASH. — ^{1 Oct. 1980} Immanuel Lutheran Home, Kalispell; a daughter, Kathleen Stair, Seattle; a son, Jack Williams, Jackson, Miss.; five grandchildren and one great-granddaughter; a sister, Marjorie Emblen, Missoula. Her father, Albert V. Prior, died in 1975.

Phyllis Prior Mattison, 69, died Oct. 1 in Seattle after an illness of several months. She was born Sept. 29, 1911, in London and came to Kalispell in 1920 with her parents. She graduated from Flathead County High School in 1929.

After graduation from Kinman Business College in Spokane, she was a secretary for the Kalispell Chamber of Commerce. During the war she worked for Marquardt Aircraft Company in Los Angeles. She married James Mattison, who preceded her in death in 1966.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Ray Duffy,

Funeral services were held Oct. 7 at Yarington White Funeral Home in Seattle and she is buried at Evergreen-Washelli Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Notations of contributions should be sent to Mrs. Ellis Stair, 4118 S.W. Austin, Seattle, Wash. 98136.

Carl A. Mattson, 81

^{20 Jan 1980} Carl A. Mattson, 81, of 215 Lake View Village, Polson, died Sunday.

He was born Aug. 31, 1898, in Duluth, Minn., the son of Christ and Amelia Christenson Mattson. He attended Duluth Central High School and Duluth Business University and was employed by Oliver Iron Mining and U.S. Steel.

Mattson served in World War I with the Army Expeditionary Forces in France.

On May 28, 1921, he married Evelyn N. Broman in Duluth and is survived by her at the family home in Polson.

Surviving besides his wife are two sons: Richard C. of Lakeside and Donald B. of Tucson, Ariz., daughter: Natalie Hauser of Bartlesville, Okla., brother: Alfred of Duluth; sister, Alice Bilyeau of Portland, Ore., 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Following cremation at the Weatherford

Crematory, services will be held at the Lakeside Chapel, Lakeside, at 4 p.m. Friday with Rev. J. Torrance Harvey officiating.

11, Sept 1980

Mary Ann Maurer, 87

Mary Ann Maurer, 87, formerly of the Evergreen area, died Thursday in Bigfork Convalescent Center.

Mrs. Maurer was born Dec. 21, 1892, in Topeka, Kan., the daughter of George and Christine Hundertfund. She was educated there. She taught school for several years before attending secretarial school. She worked for the Payne Shoe Co. in Topeka for many years.

She married Harley E. Maurer on Jan. 17, 1931, in Topeka. They moved to Opheim, Valley County, where

Mr. Maurer farmed until they moved to the Flathead in 1948. Mrs. Maurer had lived in the Bigfork Convalescent Home for the last seven years.

Mrs. Maurer was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, Kalispell.

Surviving are her husband, Harley, Kalispell; four daughters, Mrs. Robert (Rita) McDowell, Columbia Falls, Mrs. Robert (Marjorie) McDonald, Portland, Ore., Mrs. John (Marilyn) Kroff, Eldridge, N.D., and Mrs. J. P. (Janis) Lowrey, Lake Charles, La.; one son, Glen, Indonesia; a brother, George Hundertfund, Silverlake, Kan.; three sisters in Kansas; 14 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Rosary will be at 8 p.m. today in the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Christian Wake Services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the Weatherford Funeral Home with Rev. Emmett O'Neill officiating. Burial will follow in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

16 Aug 1980

Mary L. Mauritsen, 59

Mary Louise Mauritsen, 59, who had resided at 1112 2nd Ave. E., died in Kalispell Saturday morning.

She was born Oct. 14,

1920, in Sheridan, Wyo., a daughter of Emerson and Minnie Hanson. She had received her early education in Wyoming and graduated from Montana State University in 1941.

On Nov. 26, 1942, she was married to Walter W. Mauritsen in Billings. The couple lived in Laurel for a year before moving to the Flathead Valley where they have lived since.

Mrs. Mauritsen was a charter member of the Centry Club American Home Department. She had been active in community volunteer work for various organizations.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Walter, on July 17, 1967.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Robert (Nancy) McCormick of Redmond, Wash., and two grandchildren, Jeffrey and Ryan Walter McCormick, both of Redmond.

Graveside services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. Dr. Odin A. Baugh, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

The family suggests memorials be made to the cancer fund or the Multiple Sclerosis Fund.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home.

18 July 1980

Thorben Andrew Maurseth, 84

Thorben Andrew Maurseth, 84, of Kalispell, died Friday at his brother Helmer's home in Northwood, N.D.

He was born Nov. 26, 1895, in Northwood, a son of Mikkell and Andrina Maurseth. He married Deborah Land in Maple Bay, Minn., Nov. 5, 1923. The couple lived at Nashua until retiring and moving to Kalispell in 1960.

Maurseth was preceded in death by his wife on May 29, 1962; by a son, Maurice, in infancy; and by one brother, Ingvald.

He is survived by two sons, Arlie of Dublin, Calif., and Donald of Norwalk, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Spud (Dorothy) Snyder of Martin City, Mrs. Lester (Mildred) Nickels of Nashua, and Mrs. Dell (Mary Ann) Thompson of Kalispell; one brother, Helmer of Northwood, N.D.; 22 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church with the Rev. H. Peder Waldum officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home. Friends may call at the Johnson Chapel for visitation until 9 p.m. Tuesday.

3 Jan 1980

Bessie McCartney, 57

CHOTEAU — Bessie Velma McCartney, 57, died at Teteon Medical Center, Choteau, Jan. 3. Memorial services were Jan. 6 in Choteau.

She was born March 17, 1922, in Bainville, the daughter of James and Sarah Schultz.

On May 1, 1943, she married Thomas McCartney in Corpus Christi, Texas.

She was past president of Chinook Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and Choteau Soroptimists. She also was a den mother for Cub Scouts and Sunday school teacher for the United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by twin grandsons, Jason and Naton McCartney, and by her sister, Joyce Traeger. She is survived by her husband, Thomas, and children Michael, Bozeman, Gary, Mandan, N.D., and Timothy, Choteau.

Local relatives include Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison, Columbia Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Traeger, Kalispell, and Marshall McCartney, Somers.

3 Mar. 1980

Guy McCarty, 74

Guy McCarty, 74, Lakeside, died Monday evening in the Veterans Hospital at Fort Harrison.

He was born Jan. 5, 1906, in Belgrade, a son of George and Rebecca McCarty. He received his education at Coffee Creek, and in 1940 he moved to the Flathead Valley from Winnett. He had been employed with the Somers Lumber Co. until his retirement at age 65. Mc-

Carty was a veteran of World War II, having enlisted in the U.S. Army on June 9, 1942, at Wellington, Calif. He had served in Company A, 1393 Engineer Company until his honorable discharge on Oct. 5, 1945, at Fort Lewis, Wash.

He was a single man and was preceded in death by one brother, Don, and a sister, Muriel Day. He now is survived by one brother, Glen McCarty, of Lakeside; and one sister, Marie Sipe, of Great Falls.

Funeral services for McCarty will be conducted at 2 p.m. on Friday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery where military graveside rites will be conducted by the local veterans organizations.

6 Mar. 1980

Myrtle Pansy McClung, 87

Myrtle Pansy McClung, age 87, died in Kalispell early Thursday morning.

She was born Jan. 17, 1893, in Lone Tree, Iowa, a daughter of John and Annie Reed. When she was 12 years of age, she moved to Somers, where she lived until her marriage to Herman McClung on Aug. 4, 1909. The couple then lived in Kalispell until 1917 when they moved to Seattle, Wash. In 1923 they returned to Kalispell and have made their home here since that time.

Mrs. McClung was a member of the Central Christian Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Herman, Sept. 30, 1974; one brother and two sisters. She now is survived by two daughters, Evelyn Hegg and Catherine Thompson, both of Kalispell; eight grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Services for Mrs. McClung will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Dr. M. Eugene Mockabee, pastor of the Central Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Pamela McCully, 25

17 Apr 1980
Pamela Kay McCully, 25, of Trego, died Friday evening at her home in Trego.

She was born Feb. 14, 1955, in Kalispell, a daughter of Alfred and Retha McCully. She was a graduate of the Lincoln County High School in Eureka.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Bobby, in 1977, and is survived by one son, Kurt, 6 months, and a daughter, Crystal Gayle, 2, both at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McCully; three brothers, Bud, Michael and Pat McCully, all of Trego; three half-brothers, Vernon McCully of Libby, Alfred McCully of Troy and Charles McCully in the Air Force in Alaska; one sister, Mrs. Stanley (Barbara) Frost of Eureka; and a half-sister, Mrs. Harold (Frances) Stanton of Troy.

Funeral services for McCully will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Wade Buttler, pastor of the Church of God, officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Alvin McDaniel, 54

20 Jun 1980
PHOENIX, Ariz. — Alvin T. McDaniel, 54, of Chester, died in a Phoenix Hospital Sunday.

Services were Wednesday afternoon at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Chester followed by burial in the Chester Cemetery.

He was born in Hill, attended Laird School north of Chester and graduated from Joplin High School in 1944. He served in the army in the South Pacific from 1944 to 1946. Following his discharge, he spent some time at the Agricultural College at Bozeman. He then returned to the family farm near the Sweetgrass Hills and farmed there since that time.

McDaniel never married. He had been in ill health for several years and had gone to Arizona for the winter.

Survivors include his father, Clarence of Kalispell; three brothers; Charles of Havre, Vern of Chester and Earl of Columbus; two sisters, Joyce Tempel of Chester and Verna Wood of Gildford; two half-brothers, James Wood of Galata and Raymond Wood of Craig; two half-sisters, Ollie Svenson of Joplin and Leora Ness of Lethbridge.

Edward McDevitt, 65

11 Jan 1980
Edward Nichols "Ned" McDevitt Jr., 65, of Somers, died in Kalispell on Friday.

He was born Feb. 28, 1914, in Cloquet, Minn., a son of Edward Nichols and Maude I. Phalon McDevitt. In 1919, he moved with his parents to Somers where his father was general manager of the Somers Lumber Co. McDevitt graduated from Shatteck Military Academy in Fairbault, Minn., in 1931, and was commissioned as second lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He attended the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis, where he married Mary June Kimms.

After returning to Montana he held various positions in the Montana lumber industry. In 1941 he was called to active duty in the U.S. Army and served in various capacities including service in combat in the Aleutian Islands.

After his honorable discharge he returned to Somers in 1945 and continued in the lumber industry until his retirement.

He was active in the Masonic Lodge 262 AF & AM and was an avid sportsman.

He is survived by one son, Richard Edward McDevitt Sr., of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and two grandchildren, Richard Edward McDevitt Jr. of Pittsburgh and Mary Elizabeth McDevitt of Spokane, Wash.

Funeral services for Mr. McDevitt will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday in Christ Church (Episcopal) with the Rev. Father Paul J. Taylor officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with military graveside rites being conducted by the local veterans organizations. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home.

Edna A. McGlaughlin

25 Dec 1980

BOZEMAN — Mrs. (Helen) McCarver, Edna A. McGlaughlin, 81, formerly of Kalispell, died in Bozeman Thursday.

She was born Sept. 29, 1899, in Creston. She was raised in Creston, and on April 27, 1927, she married A. Ray McGlaughlin in Kalispell. The couple had farmed in the Columbia Falls and Creston areas until the death of Mr. McGlaughlin in 1961.

In 1967, Mrs. McGlaughlin moved to Bozeman where she had resided since. She is now survived by her daughter, Mrs. Orville McCarver, three grandchildren, and several nieces, nephews and other relatives. The body has been cremated.

Friends and relatives will meet at the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery at 11 a.m. Monday where graveside services and burial will be held with the Rev. Herbert Cies, pastor of the Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating.

Local arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home.

13 Dec 1980 Archie N. McKean, 63

Archie N. McKean, 63, of 26 Happy Hollow Ave., Somers, died Saturday at his home.

He was born March 26, 1917, in Ennis, Madison County, the son of Charles and Blanche McKean. He received his elementary and high school education in Ennis and then worked at ranching in that area.

On June 13, 1936, he married Mary Tripp in Virginia City and in 1943 they moved to Somers. They had made their home there since that time. In Somers, McKean was employed by Lee Craft Marine as a boat builder for more than 20 years and then by Stan-craft Boats until he retired in 1979.

Surviving besides his wife Mary at the family home in Somers are two sons, George, Kalispell, and Jack, Somers; one daughter, Mary Louise, Polson; one brother, Lester, Libby; and three granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister.

Following cremation, memorial services will be held at the Weatherford Funeral Home Tuesday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating.

Katherine McKean, 82

11 Feb 1980

Mrs. Katherine "Katie" Mae McKean, 82, who had resided at 1340 Willow Glen Drive, died in Kalispell Monday morning.

She was born June 17, 1897, in Pendleton, Ore. She received her education in Oregon and later moved to Montana. She had lived in the Madison Valley and Flathead Valley since then.

She married Frank McKean who preceded her in death Feb. 4, 1957. She also was preceded in death by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Dailey, and three grandchildren. She is survived by five sons, Daniel of Bigfork, Donald and Francis at home, Clarence of Missoula, and Frank McKean of Seeley Lake; two daughters, Mrs. Dick (Betty) Hoyt of Somers and Mrs. Charles (Gladys) Flora of Kewa, Wash., 26 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. McKean are incomplete and will be announced later by the Johnson Funeral Home.