

GFT

5-24-1983
CHESTER GABBERT, Emanuel F., 68, died Sunday night at the Fort Harrison veterans hospital. Services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. Military rites will follow in the Chester cemetery. Rockman Chapel is in charge of arrangements. Gabbert was born in Marshall, Minn., and moved with his family to Hankinson, N.D. He attended schools there and worked on the family farm. In 1935, he came to the Chester area, where he worked in various farming and ranching jobs. In 1942, he entered the Army and served in Normandy, France, the Rhineland and central Europe. After his discharge, he returned to Chester and lived there since. He married Anna Sneider in 1947 at Great Falls. He worked as a heavy equipment operator for Liberty County for many years and retired in 1976. Survivors include his wife, Chester; three daughters, Diana, Seattle; Donneta Miller, Sidney; Debra Tillo, Helena; a son, Donald, Yakima, Wash.; and five grandchildren.

GFT

27 Aug 1983
HAVRE GAGEL, Roy, 92, died Saturday at the Big Sandy Medical Center. Memorial services will be 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Holland and Bonine Funeral Home chapel in Havre. Cremation has taken place. Gagel was born in Chicago and came to the Havre area as a homesteader in 1912. Survivors include his wife, Ruth, and three brothers, Charles, Big Sandy; Herman, Polson; and Albert, St. Petersburg, Fla.

GFT

Raymond Gabriel

6 Sept
 1983

Raymond Gabriel

Raymond, A. Gabriel, 68, 2615 1st Ave. S., died Tuesday at his home after a lengthy illness. Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel with Rev. John Lewis officiating. Cremation has taken place.

Mr. Gabriel was born Dec. 29, 1914, at Artichoke, Minn., the son of John A. and Constance Gabriel. His family moved to near Havre, and he farmed with his parents in the Box Elder area in the 1950s. He was engaged in trucking for 25 years in California. Since 1971, he owned and operated a roadside inn in Daytona Beach, Fla. until a year ago, when he retired to live in Great Falls.

He was an avid fisherman, hunter and outdoorsman, and a member of B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 214. He was preceded in death by his father and by one brother, Harold.

Survivors include his mother, Constance Gabriel, Great Falls; two daughters, Constance Schulte of Concord, Calif. and Sandra Marshall of Bremerton, Wash.; two sons, Gary Gabriel, Denver, Colo., and Harold Gabriel, Great Falls; two sisters, Eleanor Schultz, Burbank, Calif., and Margaret Jackson, Westlake Village, Calif.; three brothers, John P. Gabriel and Robert Gabriel, both of Great Falls, and Eugene Gabriel, Havre; 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

GFT

^{24 Oct. 1983}
SHELBY - GAGNER, Minnie, 81, died at her home on Monday. No services are planned. Cremation has taken place with the Burns Funeral Home handling arrangements. She was born in Arlington, S.D. Mrs. Gagner is survived by her husband, Ed, whom she married in October 1961 in Las Vegas, Nev. Other survivors include a daughter, June V. Rambo, Lewistown; a brother, Norman Jensen, Mesa, Ariz.; and a stepdaughter, Viola Bourdeau, Great Falls.

GFT

^{23 Dec 1983}
WOLF POINT - GAGNE, Leonard "Doug," 53, died at his home Friday, apparently of natural causes. Rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Clayton Memorial Chapel. Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday in the Immaculate Conception Church. Burial will be in the Greenwood Cemetery with military rites by the Wolf Point VFW. Born in Wolf Point, he was raised at Riverside in McCone County. He attended Circle High School and later joined the Air Force. After his discharge in 1954, he moved to Wolf Point, where he worked for the Roosevelt County Road Department. He is survived by a son, Barry, and a daughter, Mrs. Marcie Seebers, both of Lynwood, Wash.; five sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Dillon, Mrs. Cecil Glendorf, Mrs. Blanch Mahlum, Mrs. Irene Draper, and Mrs. Margaret Eggebrecht, all of Wolf Point, and one grandchild.

GFT

Gardner services
^{2 Nov 1983}
Memorial service for V. Vietta Gardner, 71, 1622 3rd Ave. N., will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Chapel of Chimes with the Rev. Richard Dion officiating.
She died Wednesday at her home. Born in Clifton, Kan., she spent much of her childhood in Pillager, Minn., and received her education at a school for the deaf in Fairbault, Minn.
During her adult life she lived with her grandmother in Clifton, Kan., and a sister, Ornietta Olsen, in Billings. She enjoyed hand crafts and had penpals.

GFT

^{31 Oct. 1983}
SHELBY - GARDIPEE, Thomas, 65, Shelby, died Monday at a Shelby hospital. Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the Burns Funeral Home, Shelby, with burial in Mountainview Cemetery, Shelby. Gardipee was born at Gold Butte, north of Shelby, and attended school there. He moved to Shelby in 1935, where he worked as a painting contractor. During World War II, he worked in the Bremerton, Wash., shipyards. He married Nina Lewis in 1944 in Bremerton. After the war, Gardipee returned to Shelby, where he has lived since. Survivors include his wife, Nina; two sons, Julian, of Bremerton, and Robert, Shelby; a daughter, Grace Harris, Portland, Ore.; five grandchildren; and three sisters and two brothers.

GFT

^{5 Nov. 1983}
OUTLOOK - GARRICK, Gerald "Slim," 83, died Saturday afternoon in a Plentywood hospital. Services will be 2 p.m. Monday in Highland Lutheran Church in Outlook with burial in the Outlook Cemetery. He was born in Iowa. He moved to Montana with his parents at the age of 9. They settled on a farm southeast of Outlook. He was raised and educated there. After his schooling he worked in North Dakota, Iowa and Montana. He married Mae Tutty in Plentywood in 1927. They had made their home in Outlook since then. He worked at the Outlook Garage for 40 years, starting as a mechanic and later owned and operated the business. He retired in 1967. He is survived by his wife; son Irwin "Bud" of Missoula; three grandchildren; three brothers, Cecil "Red" of Outlook, Lyle "Shavey" of Antelope and Floyd "Pete" of Laurel.

D1

Harry Gabrielson, 88

9 May 1983

Harold L. "Harry" Gabrielson, 88, Immanuel Lutheran Home, died Monday at the Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Feb. 3, 1895, in LaCrosse, Wis., the son of Bernt and Louise Gabrielson. When he was 11 years old, his family moved to Montana. His mother and oldest brother homesteaded in Richland County, eight miles south of Culbertson. Later, Mr. Gabrielson bought the family homestead and farmed it until 1946.

He lived in Lodi, Calif., for 30 years before moving to Kalispell.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James (Jeannine) Hartry, Marion; one granddaughter, Wanda Tubl, Hamilton, Wash.; one grandson, Warren Hartry, Marion; two great-grandsons and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Immanuel Lutheran Home, with Chaplain Marshall Moen officiating. Interment will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home.

TVN

Glenn Garrison, 58

24 Aug 1983

TROY — Glenn Garrison, 58, died Wednesday at Bonner General Hospital in Sandpoint after an extended illness.

He was born Jan. 26, 1925, at Bonners Ferry to Roscoe and Selma Garrison. He attended schools in Bonners Ferry, Troy and Libby.

On Jan. 8, 1954, he married Betty Lou Potter at Coeur d'Alene.

He worked for the J. Neils Lumber Co. in Libby and as a house mover. Later he was a construction worker at Libby Dam, and owned and operated the Troy Mobil station from 1971-1975. He was a Spokesman Review motor route driver until retiring because of ill health.

He is survived by his wife, Betty Troy; five sons, Glenn, Robert, David and Orville, Troy, and Charles, Broken Arrow, Okla.; a daughter, Renee, Troy; his mother, Selma, Troy; a brother, Dan, Troy; four sisters, Ida Templin and Marie McNeill, both of Troy, Gladys Garrison, Athol, Idaho, and Leota Eimoges, Coeur d'Alene; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Troy Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Nathan Locke officiating. Burial will be in Milner Lake Cemetery under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home of Libby.

D1

Esther F. Gaswint, 84

Esther F. Gaswint, 124 Cobler Village Road, died Wednesday evening at her home.

She was born May 2, 1899, in Germantown, Ohio, the daughter of Frank and Anna Bachart. She married Albert C. Gaswint in Middleton, Ohio, on her birthday in 1919. Mr. Gaswint was a carpenter, and the couple moved a great deal. Mrs. Gaswint had lived with a daughter in Kalispell since January 1962. She was of the Methodist faith.

She is survived by six sons, Aldon, Kalispell; Don, Vallejo, Calif.; Ray, Eugene, Ore.; Lem, Clarkston, Wash.; Albert, Lewiston, Idaho; and Jerry, Everett, Wash.; five daughters, Anna, Cobler, Kalispell; Laverne, Schneider, Clarkston, Wash.; Pauline, Moon, Wadena, Duffer, and Brenda, Graesser, all of the Seattle area; more than 100 grandchildren; numerous great- and great-great-grandchildren; one brother, Benjamin, Bachart, Poison.

Funeral services will be Monday at 10:30 a.m. at the Epworth United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Herbert A. Cies officiating. Burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home.

D1

Joe E. George, 79

401 1983

Joe E. George, 79, 124 Seventh Ave. W., died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital Monday afternoon.

He was born Aug. 28, 1903, in Virginia Dale, Colo., a son of Joseph and Carrie George. He was an electrician and had traveled to various places following his employment.

He is survived by his wife, Dorthy George, at home, and several distant relatives.

Private graveside rites and burial were held in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. Gary Reller of the Risen Christ Parish officiating. Arrangements were under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

GFT

^{17 Dec 1983}
HINSDALE — GASPAR, Bernard, 75, died Saturday in a Great Falls hospital. His funeral will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in St. Albert's Catholic Church in Hinsdale, with burial to follow in Hinsdale. Born in Helena, he moved with his family to Hinsdale in 1918. He had attended schools in Helena and Hinsdale. Gaspar was associated with his father in the grocery business and remained in that business until his retirement in 1976. He and Evelyn Landaker were married in January 1941. She survives with two sons, Joseph of Great Falls and Stephen of Poplar; four daughters, Jeanette Day and Margaret Kay Gaspar, both of Great Falls; Cecile Gentile, Eau Claire, Wis., and Kathleen Gaspar, Missoula, and two brothers, W.E. Gaspar, Green Valley, Ariz. and Robert, Tucson, Ariz.

GFT

Evelyn Gelvick

24 Dec 1983

Evelyn Rose Gelvick

Evelyn Rose Gelvick, 48, 201 Riverview Place, died Saturday at a local hospital after a long illness.

She was born in Sweetgrass, to Edward and Inga Malberg. She attended schools in Sunburst, graduating from North Toole County High School in 1953. She attended Concordia College in Moorhead, Minn., and moved to Great Falls where she worked for Royal Globe Insurance until 1959. Later she worked for Hagarty Motors for a time, and for Casey-Blumfield Inc. She was a Sunday school teacher for several years at the Calvary Community Church.

On May 18, 1957, she married Phil Gelvick in Sunburst. Survivors include her husband, a son, Roger, Great Falls, a daughter, Lynne Gelvick, Great Falls, two brothers, Ken Malberg, Alpine, Calif. and Bob Malberg, Helena, a sister, Thelma Schwoch, Great Falls, her parents, in Sunburst, and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Calvary Community Church with Rev. Mark Haines officiating. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery. O'Connor Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

GFT

^{5 Sept. 1983}
HELENA — GELSINGER, Madge Mary, 66, of Augusta, died early Monday at the home of her daughter in Augusta following an extended illness. Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at the Augusta Community Church, with interment at the Augusta Cemetery. Hager Mortuary is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Gelsinger was born April 1, 1917, in Glasgow. She moved from Bainville after graduation from high school in 1935. She attended Great Falls Commercial College, and worked at the Wise Cafe in Great Falls and later moved to Helena where she worked at the Gerald Cafe and the 4Bs Cafe. Moving to Augusta in 1957, Mrs. Gelsinger leased the Lazy B Cafe for three years. On Oct. 8, 1960 she married Lee A. Gelsinger. He preceded her in death May 5, 1976. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Dan (Susan) Butler, of Augusta, and Mrs. Ron (Bobbie) Guerechit of Billings; and a sister, Mrs. Lorraine F. Berwick of Minot, N.D.

TVN

27 Jan. 1983

John Gehre, 67

EUREKA — John H. Gehre, 67, died Thursday as a result of injuries received in a fire at his home on Grave Creek Road southeast of Eureka.

He was born Oct. 2, 1915, at Fortine, the son of Otto and Mary Gehre. He was raised in the Grave Creek area and attended school at Grave Creek, Fortine and Eureka.

He spent his life working as a rancher at Grave Creek, where he and his brother owned and operated the Gerhre Brothers Ranch.

He was a member of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church in Eureka.

Survivors include a brother, Moritz of Eureka; a niece, five nephews and several great-nieces and great-nephews.

Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated Monday at 11 a.m. at Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church, with the Rev. Thomas Fenlon as celebrant. Rosary will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. at the church.

Burial will be in Fortine Cemetery under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home of Eureka.

KN

PEARL GINGERICH

22 June 1973

Pearl Gingerich, 69, died at North Valley Hospital June 15 after an extended illness. She was born April 23, 1914, in Lambert, to Oral and Nettie Kronkright. The family moved to western Montana, settling in Columbia Falls for a short time, and then to Priest River, Idaho. On Oct. 9, 1937, she married Willis T. "Hap" Gingerich in Thompson Falls. They lived in various areas of western Montana before going to Alaska where they lived for several years. After her husband's death in 1963, she returned to Polson and then to the Florence-Stevensville area until 1974 when she moved to Columbia Falls where she resided until the time of her death. She worked for the Bureau of Land

Management and the Atlantic Richfield Oil Co. in Alaska. T&W Chevrolet in Missoula, and was employed by the North Valley Building Center in Columbia Falls. She is survived by one brother, Oral "Cy" Kronkright of Salem, Ore.; one sister, Effie Neubauer of Spokane, Wash.; many nieces and nephews, including Flip, Vic and Pete Darling of Columbia Falls; and many great and great-great-nieces and nephews. Funeral services were June 18 in Columbia Falls with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery. Mrs. Gingerich requested that memorials be made to the North Valley Search and Rescue or the Columbia Falls Ambulance Association. KN

GFT

28 Nov 1983
BROWNING — GERMUNDSON,
 Oscar, 52, died Monday in Browning. Services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Church of the Little Flower, followed by burial in the Willow Creek Cemetery. Riddle Funeral Home is handling arrangements. A native of Browning, Germundson had worked as a carpenter.

GFT

26 Sep 1983
SACO — GILLETTE, Kimberly
 Fay, 17, died Monday in a Billings hospital after a car accident west of Glasgow. Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the Saco United Methodist Church. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery in Saco. She was born in North Dakota. She was a senior at Saco High School where she was on the annual staff and was a cheerleader for three years. Survivors include her father, Wilson, of Crescent City, Calif.; mother, Mrs. Roy (Eva) Squires, Saco; two sisters, Suzanne Simpson and Angela Gillette, both of Saco; and grandmothers, Edna Gillette, in Arizona and Alice St. Germaine, Wolf Point.

M. 20 APR. 1983

David Allyn Gilbert
DEER LODGE — David Allyn Gilbert, 16-month-old son of Marvin and Cindy Gilbert, died Wednesday at the Children's Hospital in Denver, Colo.
 He was born on Dec. 17, 1981, in Denver.
 Survivors include his parents, Marvin and Cindy Gilbert, Aurora, Colo.; paternal grandparents, Cliff and Marie Gilbert, Deer Lodge; maternal grandfather and stepgrandmother, Darrell and Bonnie Farmer, Helena; maternal grandmother, Martha Farmer, Helena.
 Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the Beck Funeral Home with Jack Sharpe and the Rev. Gregory Burke officiating. Burial will follow at the Hillcrest Cemetery.
 The family suggests memorials to the donor's choice. Beck Funeral Home in Deer Lodge is in charge of arrangements.

GFT

21 Oct 1983
Russell M. Gates, 33
 Russell M. Gates, 33, Lincoln, died Wednesday from injuries received in a logging accident Tuesday near Lincoln.
 He was born June 16, 1950, at Grass Valley, Calif., to Robert and Thelma Gates.
 On June 28, 1969, he married Regina Smith. The couple lived at Grass Valley, Calif., for a year before moving to Missoula in 1970. They moved to Lincoln in 1976 where Mr. Gates was employed by Champion International Corp. as a district land manager for the Lincoln district.

He was very active in logging sports competition and had competed nationally and internationally for 10 years. This year he won the distinction of all-round logger in five logging shows throughout the western United States.

He was a member of Kiwanis International, Blackfoot Valley Medical Services Volunteer Ambulance Service and was a Lincoln School Board trustee. He also was a member of the Lincoln Masonic Lodge 157 AF&AM and the Algeria Shrine of Helena.

Survivors include his wife, Regina, and two sons, Bradford Gates and Colin Gates, all at the family home in Lincoln; his parents, Robert and Thelma Gates, Grass Valley, Calif.; a brother, David M. Gates, Hollister, Calif.; a sister, Marilyn Eckman, Reno, Nev.; maternal grandmother, Phyllis Butz, North San Juan, Calif.

Memorial services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Lincoln School gym in Lincoln with the Rev. Steven Fawcett officiating. Cremation has taken place under the direction of Livingston-Mallett and Geraghty Funeral Home. Friends or family who wish flowers delivered to the services may have them sent to the funeral home in Missoula. The family has suggested memorials to Blackfoot Valley Medical Services, Lincoln, 59639.

GFT

16 Nov 1983

BILLINGS - GILLIS, Thelma
K., 79, died Wednesday at a local hospital of cancer. Rosary will be recited at Dahl Funeral Chapel at 7 p.m. Friday. Cremation has taken place; remains will be buried in Highland Cemetery in Great Falls. Born in Great Falls, she was the daughter of Wesley and Ora Belle Keating. She attended Great Falls schools and married Albert Gillis in 1927 in Choteau. They moved to Billings in 1945 where they operated the Gillis Aviation Service. Survivors include her husband, Billings.

GFT

Vera Goebel 7 Oct 1983

Vera M. Goebel, 85, a former Great Falls resident, died Oct. 7 in Portland, Ore.

She was the daughter of pioneer railway engineer for the Great Northern Railroad, John T. Campbell. She attended Franklin Elementary School and graduated from Great Falls High School and the Great Falls Commercial College.

She was a bookkeeper for the Robert B. Noble Mercantile Store for a number of years.

She married Conrad H. Goebel in Great Falls in 1917.

Survivors include two sons, Ray W. of Portland, Ore., and Robert, Kirkland, Wash., and two daughters, Marybeth Jurkin, Lansing, Mich., and Donna Martin, Bonita, Calif., and a brother, Ray C. Campbell, Great Falls, and eight grandchildren.

Services and interment were in Portland on Monday.

GFT

Peter Golie

17 Nov 1983

Peter Golie

Peter Golie, 84, Sunrise Bluffs Estates, Fort Benton, died Thursday in a Fort Benton hospital.

Born in Sacred Heart, Minn., Golie moved to Canada in 1906 and came to Great Falls in March 1908 in a covered wagon with his father and three brothers. He served in the U.S. Navy during both World War I and World War II.

Golie had worked for F.J. Gies and the Anaconda Co., leaving that company because of a war disability. For the past seven years he had lived in Fort Benton. He was a life member of VFW Post 1087 in Great Falls and belonged to the World War I Barracks.

Surviving are two brothers, George and Richard, and a sister, Alice Jacoby, all of Great Falls.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Monday in the O'Connor Memorial Chapel followed by burial with military graveside honors in Highland Cemetery.

GFT

16 Dec 1983

Margot Gluck

Margot K. Gluck, 84, died Friday at her residence in Ramsey.

Services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Duggan Dolan Mortuary in Butte. Graveside services will be held at Mount Olivet Cemetery in Great Falls at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

A native of Germany, she came to the United States in 1923, settling in New York. She married George Gluck in 1930. In 1940 they moved to Ramsey, where they had resided since. Survivors include her husband, George, Ramsey; two sisters in Germany; a niece in Great Falls, Rosa McDermott; and two other nieces.

M
Mathew Geiger, 92

8 Nov 1985
GLEN DIVE — Mathew Geiger of Glendive died Nov. 18.

He was born in Odessa, Russia on July 10, 1891. He came to the United States with his mother, grandfather, five brothers and one sister. He lived in North Dakota, where he married Cecilia Kuntz in 1913. She preceded him in death in 1916.

In 1917, he married Katherine Wetsch and they homesteaded near Bloomfield, Mont., until 1923. They then moved to Canada where he farmed and worked in a coal mine. In 1940 they moved back to the United States and he worked for the Northern Pacific Railroad until his retirement in 1956.

After his retirement, they moved to Missoula, where his wife, Katherine, preceded him in death in 1966. He then returned to Glendive.

Surviving are his children, Elizabeth Winhofer, Glendive, Margaret Woods, Butte, Micheal and Anthony, both of Glendive, John, Missoula, Math, Bozeman, and James, Kalispell, 31 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren, a brother, Frank, Glendive, and numerous nieces and nephews.

M
8 Apr 1983
Celia C. Gordon

HAMILTON — Celia C. Gordon, 55, died early Friday morning at Marcus Daly Memorial Hospital of natural causes.

She was born Sept. 16, 1927, in Santa Fe, N.M., to the late Salome and Delmiria Roybal Lujan. She received her formal education in the Santa Fe area. She worked for the telephone company in Santa Fe, later moving to Denver where she worked for the Speers Chiropractic Hospital.

She married Gerald Gordon Feb. 12, 1953, in Kaiserslautern, Germany, where he was serving with the U.S. Air Force. They lived in Germany until 1954 when they moved to Denver, Colo. In 1958 they moved to Colorado Springs, Colo. and then to Seattle in 1959. In 1960 they went to Libya where they lived until moving to Washington, D.C., in 1963.

In 1966 they moved to Grand Forks, N.D., and transferred to Great Falls in 1968. Mr. Gordon retired in 1969 from the Air Force at Malmstrom AFB and the couple moved to Hamilton where they had since resided.

She was a member of the Hamilton Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Gerald "Gerry" Gordon, Hamilton; a son, Michael, Albuquerque, N.M.; three sisters, Clara Phillips, Los Alamosa, N.M., Della Riviera, Poaque, N.M., and Mary Padilla, Los Angeles; three brothers, Isaac Lujan and Celedon Lujan, both of Santa Fe, N.M., and Benjamin Lujan, White Rock, N.D.; and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Tillie Lopez.

Private funeral services will be held. The family suggests memorials be made to the Hamilton Seventh Day Adventist Church. Funeral arrangements are by the Dowling Chapel, Hamilton.

GFT

Alexander Gordon

26 Nov
1983

Alexander
Gordon
in 1974

Alexander Gordon, 81, 2412 2nd Ave. S., the former owner of the Glass Art Shop, died Saturday morning at a local hospital.

Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Gerald K. Poole officiating. Private committal services will be held before the memorial services, under the direction of the Chapel of Chimes.

Gordon was born in Maybole, Ayrshire, Scotland and moved with his parents to Ontario, Canada, when he was four years old. Two years later the family moved to Great Falls, where he received his education. He married Dorothy Carlson at Great Falls in 1926.

He opened the Glass Art Shop in 1930, and his early sales were primarily glass for store fronts and windows. That business was later phased out in favor of art supplies and picture frames. He sold the shop in 1974 upon retirement. As an art collector, Gordon was known for his paintings by O.C. Seltzer.

He had served as a trustee and elder to the First Presbyterian Church. He also was past president of the Lions Club, past master of Cascade Masonic Lodge No. 34, past master of the Scottish Rite, and had been a pipe major for 30 years with the Great Falls Shrine Club Bagpipe Band. He was also a member of the Order of Scotland and was an avid fisherman.

He is survived by his wife in Great Falls; a daughter, Mrs. John (Sandra) White, St. Paul, Minn.; two sisters, Mrs. Gene (Jean) Dunning and Margaret Gordon, both of Great Falls, and a brother, George W., also of Great Falls.

GFT

^{3 Oct. 1983}
CONRAD - GOOKIN, Corda H., 93, died Saturday at a Conrad nursing home, where she had lived since 1979. Graveside services will be conducted 2 p.m. Tuesday at Hillside Cemetery. She was born at Greensboro, Ky., and lived in that area for several years before moving to Hysham, Forsyth and later to Miles City. She married Ralph Gookin at Miles City in 1931. He worked construction at Fort Peck Dam and later in Alaska before they moved to Conrad in the early 1950s. They moved into the nursing home in 1979. He died in 1981. Survivors include son Ahler Hopkins, Conrad; daughter Mable Strauss, Washington; and two grandsons. Wyse Funeral Home of Conrad is in charge of arrangements.

GFT

^{16 Oct. 1983}
LEWISTOWN - GORE, Irma E., 87, died Saturday in a Lewistown nursing home. Her funeral will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. in St. Leo's Church, followed by burial in the Lewistown City Cemetery. Rosary will be recited Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Creel Morrison Retz Chapel. Born in Billings, Irma Schuster received her education there and was married in February 1912 to Floyd W. Maxwell in Billings. They homesteaded near Broadview after their marriage. In August 1941, she and Emmett E. Gore were married in Lewistown. They moved to a ranch on Cottonwood Creek, southwest of Lewistown, where she lived until entering the rest home. For many years they operated a dairy and Mrs. Gore had been executive secretary of the Montana Dairy Association for several years. She had also been active in the Central Montana Cow-Belles, serving as treasurer for that organization. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Charles (Edith) Freeman, Billings; and two sons, James F. Maxwell, Melstone, and Floyd W. Maxwell Jr., Lewistown.

HN

Gary Gongaware

11 Aug 1983

"Gunnex" Gary G. Gongaware, 43, of Trego, died Sunday near Billings, as the result of a bee sting he received.

He was born Feb. 15, 1940 in San Diego, Calif., to George O. and Mildred A. Gongaware.

He was raised and educated in Folsom, Calif. He met Nola Y. (Block) Brown in 1964 in the Sacramento-Folsom area and they moved to Eureka in 1970, and for the past five years had lived in Trego.

He was employed with the Ksanka Lumber Co. in Fortine as a mill worker.

They were married Aug. 5, 1978 in Glacier Park.

He was a member of the Brothers M.C. Club and Ryder M.C. Club.

He is now survived by his wife Nola of Trego; one brother George Gongaware of Bridgeport, Wash.; two sisters, Diane Darling, Lansing Mich., and Irene McDonald of Corvallis, Ore.; two sons, Mark and Blake, both of California and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Cremation will follow the services.

Viewing will be from 5 to 9 p.m. Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

DI

Louis E. 'Jack' Gore, 85

10 Aug 1983

Louis E. "Jack" Gore, 85, Columbia Heights, died Sunday morning at the Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born June 16, 1897, near Peck, Idaho, to Forrest and Lillie Gore. He was raised and educated in Peck.

He worked on his parents' farm before joining the Army in 1917. He served in France during World War I. He worked as a butcher in several places for many years. He worked on the Hungry Horse Dam and the Anaconda Aluminum plant during construction. He owned and operated the Glacier Trail Restaurant in Columbia Heights.

He married Vernighta Christenson Nov. 1, 1942, in Sandpoint, Idaho.

He was a life member of the VFW Post in Hungry Horse and Martin City.

He is survived by his wife, Vernighta, at the family home; one sister, Margaret L. Reid, San Jose, Calif.; one son, Darel E. Gore, Seattle, Wash.; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Herbert Cies of the Epworth United Methodist Church will officiate. Cremation has taken place.

TVN

Blanche Goucher, 78

12 Aug 1983

LIBBY — Blanche Goucher, 78, died Monday of a heart attack in Valley General Hospital in Spokane.

Mrs. Goucher was born March 30, 1905, in Stanberry, Mo., a daughter of Levi and Ollie Murphy. She was raised and educated in Missouri and also attended college there.

On Jan. 30, 1932, she married Albert Goucher in Maryville, Mo. She taught school in Missouri for several years before the couple moved to Oregon. They lived at Gresham, Ore., until moving to Libby in 1966. Her husband, Albert, died in 1973.

Survivors include three sons, Douglas, Libby; Newell, Fairbanks, Alaska; and Ellis, Scappoose, Ore.; four brothers, Wesley and Harold Murphy, both of Hood River, Ore., and Marvin and Ralph Murphy, both of Stanberry, Mo.; a sister, Lola Mapes, Winterset, Iowa; 15 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, with Art Thoene officiating. Friends may call at the Vial Funeral Home from 1 to 9 p.m. today and Friday. Burial will be at a later date in the Libby cemetery.

The family suggest memorials to a charity of the donor's choice.

DI

Robert H. Gorsline

31 Jan. 1983

Robert H. Gorsline died in Milford, Mich. on Jan. 31.

He lived in of Kalispell from 1924 to 1928 where he taught school and ranched.

He was a World War I Army veteran and received the Purple Heart. He was superintendent of schools in Milford, Mich. from 1933 to 1949 and postmaster of Milford from 1958 to 1962.

He is survived by his wife Jessie and three children, Margaret Gorsline of Silver Springs

Md., Robert Gorsline, Cambridge, Mass., and Nancy Lenhoff of Youngstown, Ohio; a brother, James Gorsline of Lakeland, Fla.; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be Thursday in Milford at 2 p.m. at St. George's Episcopal Church. Burial will be in Milford Memorial Cemetery. Memorials may be made to St. George's Episcopal Church.

DI

Earl A. Goheen Sr., 84

4 Feb. 1983

Earl Albert Goheen Sr., 84, died Feb. 4 in Topeka, Kan. He was a resident of Eventide Convalescent Center, Topeka.

He was born at McCook, Neb., Feb. 8, 1898, the son of Samuel, Albert and Gertrude Higby Goheen.

Mr. Goheen was a veteran of World War I. Before retiring, he was an engineer for the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad for 25 years. He was a member of Seward Avenue Baptist Church and Phillip Billard Post 1650 of the VFW, both of Topeka.

He married Erma E. Robbins on March 21, 1922.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Violet Griffin of Topeka and Mrs. Hilma Hickey Hoyt, Kan.; four sons, Earl Jr., Topeka; Leo C., Springfield, Miss.; Marion D., Pueblo, Colo.; and David E. Somers; two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Morris Abilene, Kan., and Mrs. Minnie Lockwood, Horton, Kan.; 20 grandchildren; and many great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were Feb. 7 at the Parker-Price Mortuary, Topeka. Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery, Topeka.

DI - Sept. 1983

Erle W. Goulet, 66

Erle W. Goulet, 66, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Tuesday morning after a long illness.

He was born Feb. 5, 1917, in Flaxville, a son of Joseph and Nellie Goulet. He was educated in Flaxville, and moved to Kalispell as a young man. He was employed with O'Neil Lumber Co. for a time before entering the drywall business for himself, which he continued until his retirement.

He was of the Catholic faith, and was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

On March 23, 1968, he married Olga Dunkin in Coeur D'Alene, and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by three daughters, Vera Morrell of Medford, Ore., Mona Nydam of Olympia, Wash., and Mary Kay Mackey of Helena; four stepchildren, Dale Dunkin of Joliet, Wyo., Larry Dunkin of Youngsville, La., Bruce Dunkin of New Iberia, La., and Terry Roberts of Lemoore, Calif., a brother; Raymond Goulet of Aurora, Calif., six sisters, Amanda Barge and Doris Johnson both of Kalispell, Pearl Tiegen of Troy, Cora Safty and Jeannette Cavanaugh both of Scobey, and Gerry Lindsay of Denver, Colo.; five grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Rosary for Mr. Goulet will be recited in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel at 8 tonight. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Emmett O'Neill of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Hays MT.

8 Sept. 1983

James G. Granger

James G. Granger Sr., 80, Cascade, died Thursday in a local hospital. Services will be 1 p.m. Monday at Croxford's, with burial in the Cascade Cemetery.

Born in Hays, Granger was schooled in Harlem. He went into the construction business and was foreman for WPA school projects throughout Montana, building about 10 schools. Moving to Fort Benton in 1944, he operated the Missouri River Lumber Co. for five years, then worked 10 years in his own construction business. He worked with the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Wolf Point as a construction consultant until his retirement in 1959.

Survivors include sons, James Gordon Granger Jr., Fort Benton, and Earl Granger, Great Falls; daughters, Mrs. William (Virginia) Vischer, Great Falls, and Betty "Mitzi" Tucker, Cascade; brothers, Alfred Granger, Harlem, and Pat Granger, Smith River, Calif.; sisters, Katherine Barton, Bigfork, and Ameretta Kelly, Orofino, Idaho; 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

KN

10 June 1983

Lillie Granmo, 71

Lillie Elizabeth Granmo, 71, 145 Fourth Ave. W. died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Friday evening.

She was born July 21, 1911, in Missoula to Oscar and Mary Sjolholm. She attended elementary school in Bonner and graduated from Missoula High School.

On July 7, 1930, she married Andrew Granmo in Missoula. They lived in Missoula until 1946, moved to Kalispell, then returned to Missoula in 1958. Her husband died in 1973.

She continued to live in Missoula until 1979, then returned to Kalispell.

She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and the Sons of Norway, both in Missoula.

She is survived by two sons, Lauren of Kalispell and Delmar of Whitefish; a daughter, Dianne Hall of Atlanta; four grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

Funeral services will be at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Missoula with the Rev. Joseph Wahlin officiating. Burial will be in Missoula City Cemetery. Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation Sunday and Monday until 7 p.m.

The family suggests memorials to the Flathead Hospice in lieu of flowers.

KN

DONAL GRANT 22 June 1983

Donal Alverd Grant, 80, died on June 19 at his home in Hot Springs, following an extended illness. He was born Feb. 17, 1903, in Kalispell, a son of Duncan A. and Mabel D. Grant. His early years were spent at his father's homestead, Grants Meadows, near Proctor. He received most of his education at Bigfork and Kalispell. He worked summers on fishing boats out of Seattle in the Aleutian Island vicinity. On December 3, 1926, he was married to Edith Serles of Kalispell. They lived at Sonora, Ca., and Bellingham, Wa., before returning to Montana. They had lived at Proctor, Kalispell and Hot Springs, where Mr. Grant had worked at logging, ranching, and carpentry. They had made their home in Hot Springs since 1971. He is survived by his widow, Edith, at home; two daughters, Dorothy Holmberg and Donaldean Mountjoy both of Hot Springs; five grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. John Linn of Missoula, and a number of other relatives. Memorial services will be at 10 a.m. on Thursday, June 23, in the Hot Springs Presbyterian Church with Rev. John McKinley officiating. Funeral services will be 3 p.m. on Thursday, June 23 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel in Kalispell with Rev. John McKinley officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery where military graveside rites will be conducted by the local veterans organizations. The family suggest memorials be made to the Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch or the Hot Springs Senior Citizens.

KN

X

Anthony J. Gallo 2 June 1983

Anthony J. (Tony) Gallo, 60, died May 11, 1983, in St. Paul, Minn. He was born June 2, 1922 to Paul and Gaetana Gallo. He was raised in Whitefish and graduated from Whitefish High School in 1941.

On December 28, 1941, he joined the Armed Forces and received his honorable discharge in 1945. Shortly after his discharge he moved to St. Paul, Minn. He married Rose Lonetti in 1947 and is now survived by her. He is also survived by one daughter, Paula, one son, Steve, and two grandchildren, all of St. Paul, and one brother, Carlo, of Whitefish.

Services were held May 14 in St. Paul.

GFT

15 Dec 1983

HAYS — GRANT, Viola M., 74, died Thursday at a Havre nursing home, where she lived since 1980. Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Friday at the new Hays senior citizens' center. Funeral Mass will be 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Paul's Mission Catholic Church in Hays, with burial in the mission cemetery. Adams Funeral Home in Malta is in charge. Born in 1909 near Hays, she spent all of her lifetime in the Hays area. She cooked for many years at the Hays school and Fort Belknap hospital. She retired in 1954. Survivors include one son, Bruce "Zeke" Grant, Hays; one stepson, George Grant, Great Falls; two daughters, Mrs. Wallace (Carol) Doney and Lorna Sorrell, both of Hays; two brothers, Bruce Doney, Hays, and Sam Doney, Great Falls; and 14 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

GFT

16 Nov 1983

CONRAD — GRANDE, Emma, 93, died Wednesday in a Conrad nursing home. Services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. in the Wyse Funeral Chapel, followed by burial in Hillside Cemetery. Born at Twin Valley, Minn., she came to Montana in 1915 and was married later that year to Gilbert Grande in Choteau. They homesteaded near Pendroy, moving in 1928, and farmed at various locations before buying a farm west of Dupuyer. In the 1950s they moved to Deer Lodge where he died in 1957. Mrs. Grande had lived at Clancy and Helena before moving to a Conrad nursing home 20 years ago. Survivors are three sons, Peter of Dupuyer, Clarence and Gilbert, both of Helena; and three daughters, Lois Rowland, Freeport, Fla.; Grace McKnight, Las Vegas, Nev. and Lorraine Kerr, Lame Deer.

GFT

6 Oct. 1983

Lottie Gray

Lottie W. Gray, 54, of San Angelo, Texas, died Thursday at a local hospital. Graveside services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at Hillside Cemetery in Cascade. Croxford and Sons is in charge of arrangements.

Born in Skay City, Okla., Mrs. Gray grew up in San Angelo and moved to Spokane, Wash., in about 1943. In November 1947, she married Galen E. Gray of San Angelo in Spokane and then moved to eastern Washington and later Alaska, where the family lived about 20 years. Since then, she has maintained a home in San Angelo while traveling.

She was a member of the Catholic Church.

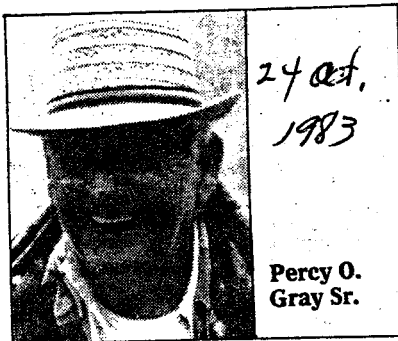

Survivors include her husband, Galen, San Angelo; two sons, Gary Gray and Arle Gray, Homer, Alaska; five daughters, Mrs. John (Karma) VanGelder, Palmer, Alaska; Mrs. Sidney (Sabia) Wieder, Cascade; Mrs. Maryam Gray, Anchorage, Alaska; Mrs. John (Tawna) VanAllen, Abilene, Texas, and Mrs. Tami Gray, San Angelo, Texas; three brothers, William Jolly, Glenrose, Texas; Martin Jolly, Kilgore, Texas, and Fred Jolly, Englewood, Colo.; two sisters, Peggy Rateau, Mesquite, Texas, and Pat Jolly, Fort Worth, Texas; and six grandchildren.

GFT

10 54 1983

POPLAR — GRAY HAWK, Henry George, 17, died Saturday near Poplar of an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound. A wake is set for Tuesday evening at the Cultural Center in Poplar. Services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Center, with burial in Poplar city cemetery. Clayton Memorial Chapel is in charge. Born at Poplar, he attended schools there and married Lori Leinen this summer. He is survived by his wife; parents Benjamin and Rose Ann Gray Hawk, both of Poplar; eight brothers, Terry, Llewallyn, Bradley, Leonard, Benjie, Justin, Jason and Peter, all of Poplar, and four sisters, Mary Ellen Martell and Jolene Walles, both of Salt Lake City, Terrie Lee Boyd, Wolf Point, and Myra Gray Hawk of Brockton.

GFT
Percy Gray Sr.

Rosary will be recited for Percy O. Gray Sr., 83, 3909 9th Ave. S., at 8 p.m. Thursday in the O'Connor Memorial Chapel. Services will be at 11:15 a.m. Friday in Sts. Peter and Paul Church, followed by burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Gray died Monday in a local rest home, after being ill the past six months. He was born at Belhaven, N.C. His family moved to the Green Sea area of Virginia when he was a child and later to Chesapeake, Va., where they had an apple and pear orchard.

He spent 19 years working as a merchant seaman, stationed in several civilian ports, and working as a ship's carpenter. After leaving the sea he worked as a carpenter in the Norfolk, Va. area.

Gray came to Great Falls in June 1982. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose and had recently become a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Church.

He and Mary Bullock were married in the early 1950s in Virginia. She died in 1981. Surviving are two sons, Percy "Neal" Gray Jr., Great Falls, and Charles Gray, Chesapeake, Va.; a stepdaughter, Wilma Martin, Chesapeake, Va.; nine grandchildren and one great grandchild; and a brother, Vernon Gray, Chesapeake, Va.

GFT

18 Nov. 1983
LEWISTOWN - GREENSLATE,
Coral, O., 78, died Friday in a Lewistown hospital following a lengthy illness. Services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Creel-Morrison-Retz Chapel. Burial will follow in Sunset Memorial Gardens. Born in Illinois, she came to Montana in 1912 with her family and was educated here. She had made her home in Lewistown since 1942. She married J. Victor Greenslate in LaMar, Colo., in 1927. He died in 1971. She had worked as a cook. Survivors include two daughters, Twila Greenslate and Betty L. Miller, both of Lewistown; and one sister, Golda Cathell of Missouri.

GFT

22 Sep. 1983

HAVRE - GREGOIRE, Lenora
C., 56, died Thursday at her home in Havre after a long illness. Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Sunday at Holland and Bonine Chapel. Funeral will be 11 a.m. Monday at St. Jude's Catholic Church in Havre. Burial will follow in the Havre Cemetery. Born and raised in Hingham, she graduated from the Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Havre in 1947. She worked at the Sacred Heart Hospital for several years. She married Giles Gregoire in 1948 at Hingham. They made their home on a farm south of Havre. Survivors include her husband; three sons, Gary and Wayne, both of Havre, and Vernon, Woodland Hills, Calif.; four daughters, Shirley Kratochvil, San José, Calif.; Patricia Seidel, Billings, and Karen and Mary Gregoire, both of Havre; her father, William Horinek, Hingham; a sister, Margaret Plowson, Havre; two brothers, Richard and Robert Horinek, both of Hingham; and four grandchildren.

X
22 July 1983

Lewistown woman dies in once-car accident

LEWISTOWN — Gail Lee Gremaux, 19, died Thursday morning on the Denton Road about 13 miles northwest of Lewistown when her truck went off the road, hit an approach, landed in a ravine and burned, the Montana Highway Patrol reported.

She was alone in the vehicle at the time.

Miss Gremaux was born in Lewistown to Bernard and Bunny Gremaux, who both survive. She was educated in schools at Warm Springs Creek and Lewistown, graduating Fergus High School in 1982.

She lived in Warm Spring Creek area near Lewistown all her life. She was a 10-year member of 4-H, senior class president and prom queen, a past president of FFA, and a state officer of the organization in 1982-83. She attended one year at Montana State University, and was a delegate to the National Institution for Cooperative Education at Purdue University in 1982. Currently she was Montana Angus Queen and was involved with Cowboy Christian Fellowship. She helped on the ranch during the school year.

She was also active in horseback riding, swimming and girl's softball.

She was employed by a Lewistown roofing company at the time of her death.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Doug (Kim) Norman, Cut Bank; Mrs. Dick (Diane) McLean, Havre; Mrs. Steven (Linda) Buck, Fort Benton; two brothers, Dee and Jay, both of Lewistown; maternal grandparents, Vern and Dee Knerr, Lewistown; a great-grandmother, Mrs. Harold (Gladys) Graham, Nehalem, Ore., and numerous aunts and uncles.

Funeral services for Miss Gremaux will be 10:30 a.m. Saturday at First Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in the Lewistown City Cemetery. The Creel-Morrison-Retz Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

GFT

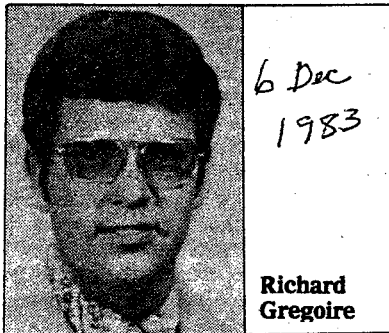

14 July 1983
POPLAR — GREYBULL, Annie, 72, died Wednesday in a Billings hospital. A wake will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Assembly of God Church in Poplar. Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday at the church, with burial in Chelsea Cemetery. Clayton Memorial Chapel is in charge. Born at Poplar, she attended boarding school there and married Thomas Greybull in 1937. He died in 1982. Survivors include two sons and a daughter, Milo and Melvin, and Mrs. June Greybull Hawk, all of Poplar; 13 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

GFT

4 July 1983
PLENTYWOOD — GRIFFIN, Charles F. Jr., 45, died Monday evening in a Plentywood hospital after a long illness. Services will be at 10 a.m. Friday in the Plentywood Assembly of God Church, followed by burial in Plentywood Memorial Cemetery with Fulkerson Funeral Home handling arrangements. Born at Burwyn, Neb., he was raised in Nebraska and worked most of his life there as a truck driver. He married Linda Wood at Kearney, Neb., in 1976. They lived at Humphrey, Neb., before moving to Plentywood in May 1982. Griffin worked at Ray's Exxon until failing health forced him to stop working last November. His wife survives with his father, Charles F. Griffin Sr., Cushing, Neb.; four children, including Anna of Plentywood; four brothers and six sisters.

GFT

Richard Gregoire

Richard G. "Rick" Gregoire, 32, 216 Glenwood Court, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound Tuesday evening at his residence, according to deputy Cascade County Coroner Dick Donovan.

Born in Great Falls, he grew up here and attended local schools, graduating in 1969 from Great Falls High School. He then attended Montana State University for a short time.

Gregoire and Terry Funk were married in December 1971 in Great Falls. They were later divorced.

He joined the U.S. Air Force and was stationed for three years at Tampa, Fla. During that time he earned a B.S. degree from the University of Tampa.

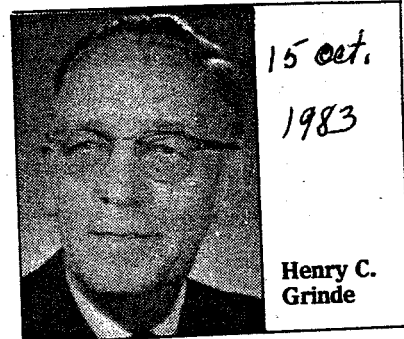

After his discharge from the Air Force, he returned to Great Falls where he had worked as state representative for the Fram Corp. For the past two months he had been in a manager trainee program at Ernst Home Center.

Surviving are a daughter, Nikki; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gregoire, and a grandmother, Florence Gregoire, all of Great Falls; his sister, Diane Gregoire, Eugene, Ore.; and a stepbrother, Jim Westermeyer, Vaughn.

Services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. in the O'Connor Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Joseph Tobin officiating.

GFT

Henry Grinde

Henry C. Grinde, 85, 1501 9th St. S., a machinery dealer for many years, died Saturday in a local nursing home.

Private services will be held for the family under the direction of Chapel of Chimes.

He was born near Colton, S.D., and attended schools in Colton and Sioux Falls. He served in the Army during World War I. In 1922 he married Lillian Peterson at Colton. They had their 60th wedding anniversary last November.

He was postmaster at Colton for 13 years and in 1934 they moved to Great Falls, where he joined his bother Martin in the machinery business. In 1938, after his brother died, he acquired the local Allis-Chalmers machinery dealership, which he owned and managed until 1959 when he sold the business and retired.

Grinde was a member of the Masonic Lodge for more than 50 years and was affiliated with the Scottish Rite and the Algeria Shrine. He was interested in music and was a member of the original Treasure Statesmen Barbershop Chorus. He also sang in the Scottish Rite Chorus. He had been a member of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps and had played in the Algeria Shrine Band. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife; daughter Mrs. Leslie (Virginia) Peters and son H. Clay, both of Great Falls; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

DI

Austin E. Green, 83

28 Mar. 1983

Austin E. Green, 83, died Monday at the Immanuel Lutheran Home in Kalispell.

He was born Sept. 4, 1899, in Rosemount, Neb., the son of John and Laura Shirley Green. He attended the public schools, first in Nebraska, and then in Colorado, where he family moved to homestead in 1907. At age 24, he moved to California where he worked as a mechanic and at farming. He later farmed with his father and brother in Colorado, eventually taking over the family farm.

On Aug. 27, 1938, he married Ava Driver in Chehalis, Wash., and in 1948 they moved to Charlo. After her death in 1970, he began farming near Pablo, and then moved closer to Polson in 1975. He retired because of ill health in 1979, and had been a resident at Immanuel Lutheran Home since 1981.

He was a member of the Christian Church at Pablo.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Max (Nila) Lauder and Mrs. Lou (Nina) Savik, both of Kalispell, and Jolynn Green of Missoula; one son, David Green, Stevensville; seven grandchildren; two brothers, Elmer of Chehalis and Roy of Deming, Wash.

The body has been forwarded from the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell to St. Ignatius for funeral services Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Fearon Funeral Home, with the Rev. Herbert Cies, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church in Kalispell officiating. Burial will be in Pleasant View Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the Immanuel Lutheran Home, Buffalo Hill, Kalispell.

TVN

Ella Dierman Gwynn, 56

26 May 1983

EUREKA Ella Dierman Gwynn, 56, died of cancer Thursday in a Seattle hospital.

She was born April 6, 1927, in Eureka to Clarence and Inez Dierman. She was raised and attended schools in Eureka, where she and her family later operated the Dierman's Cabins. She was employed at Montana Market in Eureka at the time of her death.

Mrs. Gwynn was participated in the Eureka Volunteer Ambulance service and was a member of the Lincoln Rebekah Lodge in Eureka.

Survivors include two sisters, Clara Belle Dierman, Eureka, and Viola Lyons, Chewelah, Wash.; six aunts; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Tobacco Valley Cemetery with the Rev. David Davis officiating. Memorials may be made to the Eureka Volunteer Ambulance, Box 736, Eureka, 59917. Funeral arrangements are by Vial Funeral Home.

DI

Louise Grier, 74

27 Nov. 1983

Louise Grier, 74, Bigfork, died Sunday of natural causes at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

She was born Feb. 22, 1909, in Whitlash, Mont., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Amez-Droz. She grew up in Whitlash and attended public schools there through the eighth grade, when she moved to Kalispell. She graduated from Flathead County High School.

On June 5, 1927, she married Max Grier at the Ballenger farm in the Lower Flathead Valley, and the couple made their home in Kalispell. In 1929, they moved to Conrad, and Mrs. Grier worked as a licensed practical nurse at the Conrad Hospital from 1941 until 1948, when they moved to Cut Bank. In 1972, they moved to Bigfork.

She was a past matron of Flathead Lake Chapter 128, Order of the Eastern Star, and belonged to many related organizations.

Surviving are her husband, Max, at the family home in Bigfork, a sister, Mrs. Duncan (Lucille) McCarthy of Apache Junction, Ariz., two nieces, Mrs. William (Grace) Hathaway of Kalispell, and Mrs. Cliff (Blanche) Cyr of Bigfork, a cousin, Mrs. Sterling (Janel) Wardell of Chester, and several other cousins in Nebraska.

Mrs. Grier was preceded in death by a sister and a brother.

Visitation is today until 8 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Memorial services with Eastern Star Rites will be Wednesday at 3 p.m. at the Bigfork Masonic Temple with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey and the Rev. Ron Pierce officiating. Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell. Interment will take place at Lonepine Cemetery in Bigfork at a later date.

DI 16 Aug 1983

William Groose, 62

William R. Groose, 62, died at his home at 207 Fourth Ave. E. on Tuesday evening following a short illness.

He was born Dec. 2, 1920, in Waseca, Minn., a son of Cleo and Emma Groose.

He received his education in Winona, Minn., and in 1942 he joined the Army Air Corps, serving as a command pilot during World War II in Italy and Corsica. He flew 62 combat missions and received the Distinguished Flying Cross. He was a flight training instructor and test pilot for the Air Force at Mather Air Force Base.

At Tachikawa Air Force Base, Japan, during the Korean conflict, he served as information staff supervisor for the Far East Material Command. He was commander of the recruiting detachment in Phoenix, Ariz., which for three years won the distinction of the top recruiting detachment in the nation. He completed his Air Force career at Mather in California, working as training and sales supervisor for the Air Force. He recruited in the eight western states and retired after 21 years in 1963.

He then established his home in Kalispell where he owned and operated the Typewriter Supply Business and the Quick Copy Shop for 14 years. After selling these businesses, he worked for several years as office manager for Wallace-Colville Freight Co.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, serving as trustee and elder, Kalispell Rotary Club of which he served as president, and a member of the V.F.W.

On June 25, 1949, he was married to Dorothy Orser in Kalispell, and is survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by four daughters, Robin Marvel and Gretchen Harrington, Kalispell, Karen Empie of Bozeman and Becky King of Seattle, two brothers, Al Groose of Marquette, Wisc., and Fred Groose of Green Bay, Wisc., a sister, Anita Jenkinson of Minocqua, Wisc., four grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Monday in the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Dr. Odin A. Baugh officiating. The family suggests memorials be made to the First Presbyterian Church or the organization of donor's choice. Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

DI

31 Jan 1983 Poincare D. 'Frenchie' Guinard, 69

Poincare D. 'Frenchie' Guinard, 69, 305 Fourth Ave. W., died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Monday.

He was born July 8, 1913, in the Flathead Valley, a son of William H. and Martha Guinard. He had attended local schools and served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He worked for O'Connor Construction Co. for 20 years and was employed with the State of Montana Forestry Department for 10 years prior to his retirement.

He married Ruth Kramer Sykes on Nov. 3, 1945, and is survived by her at the family home.

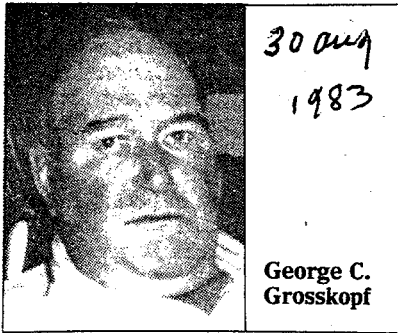

He is also survived by two stepdaughters, Edna

Carter, Kalispell, and Iola Breneman, Coram, four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation at the Johnson Chapel will be until 8 p.m. today. Graveside services and burial will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in the Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Ron Paulson, pastor of Our Saviors Lutheran Church, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

GFT

George Grosskopf

George C. Grosskopf, 71, Belt died Tuesday in a Great Falls hospital.

Funeral services will be 2:30 p.m. Friday at Hillcrest Mausoleum Chapel, with burial in Highland Cemetery. Chapel of Chimes is in charge of arrangements.

Born June 5, 1912, he ranched in the Belt and Raynesford areas all of his life. He married Agnes Bartlett on June 27, 1942 in Choteau.

He was active in cooperative movements, including local cooperative oil companies, Rural Electrification Association, livestock co-ops and the National Farmers Organization.

He served as a director of Farmers Union Oil Co. for 25 years and served on the board of directors of Sun River Electric for 29 years. He had recently been active with Senior Citizens Lobby and was a past master in the Masonic Lodge.

He was elected president of the National Farmers Organization of Cascade County in 1969 and was elected president of the Sun River Electric Cooperative in 1966 and was re-elected in 1968.

Survivors include his wife, Agnes; a son, Dick, Billings; two daughters, Mrs. Walter H. (Betty) Kortum, Belt, and Mrs. Kenneth (Gayle) Lorenz, Lavina; a half-brother, Russell Brooks, Raynesford; and a half-sister, Gladys Woods, Portland, Ore., and six grandchildren.

GFT

28 Aug 1983
 BROWNING — GUARDIPEE, Agnes, 99, died Wednesday at the Blackfeet Nursing Home. Services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Heart Butte. Burial will be in the Heart Butte Cemetery. She was born on the Blackfeet Indian Reservation on Oct. 25, 1883. She went to the Willow Creek School in Fort Shaw. She was married to Charlie Guardipee, who preceded her in death. She worked at the Museum of the Plains Indian and had also taught at the Heart Butte School. She is survived by one daughter, Mary Little Bull, Browning; one sister, Katie Home Gun, Browning; four grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; 41 great-great-grandchildren; and three great-great-great-grandchildren. Ten children preceded her in death. The Riddle Funeral Home is in charge.

GFT

16 Aug 1983
 BROWNING — GUARDIPEE, Theodore Alvin, 62, died Tuesday at Fort Harrison. Services will be 10 a.m. Monday at the Church of the Little Flower in Browning with burial in the Willow Creek Cemetery. He was born in Browning and attended schools in Browning and Chemawa, Ore. He managed the Browning boxing teams in 1947 and 1948. He was a veteran of World War II and the Korean war. He was a chief petty officer in the Navy in World War II and a staff sergeant in the Marine Corps in the Korean War. He received three Silver Stars. He had lived in Los Angeles, Great Falls and Seattle. While living in Los Angeles, he appeared in several movies and also was in several movies filmed in the Glacier Park area. Survivors include sons Theodore Jr., Lansing, Mich.; Desmond, Tacoma, Wash.; Lyle, Jay, Alvin, and James, Great Falls, and Ernest, Browning; daughters Donna King, Peggy DeCelles and Sherry Guardipee, Great Falls; Cheryl Guardipee, Colorado, and Deidri Kipp, Seattle; one brother, Melvin, Vancouver, Wash.; three sisters, Gloria McLean, Browning, and Wilma Oglesby and Vivian Kochonan, both of Portland, Ore.; and 26 grandchildren. Riddle Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

GFT

11 Nov. 1983

Frances Guynn

Frances Guynn, 71, 3624 9th Ave. S., died of natural causes Friday at her residence.

She was born March 9, 1912 in North Battleford, Sask. She moved to the Lewistown area about 1914. In 1934, she married Paul Guynn. She and her husband owned and operated Paul's Park Inn on Central Avenue from 1941 to 1948. More recently she was in business with her husband and son at the Happy House in Holiday Village.

Survivors include her husband, Paul, and a son, Gary Guynn, both of Great Falls. No services are planned.

GFT

20 Sep. 1983

SACO - GOODFELLOW, Lila V.,

76, died Tuesday at her residence in Saco. Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the United Methodist Church in Saco. Burial will follow in Scotville, Neb. on Monday. She was born in Gregory, S.D. She was raised in Scotville. She taught school for many years, retiring in 1965 in Nebraska. She married Guy L. Hull in 1925 in Nebraska. He preceded her in death in 1973. She married Emerson Goodfellow Oct. 7, 1976 in Butte, Neb. They had lived in Saco most of their married life. Survivors include her husband, Emerson, Saco; one son, Guy Hull, Hillsboro, Ore.; one daughter, Dorothy Johnson, Inman, Neb.; two sisters; and five grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. Adams Funeral Home of Malta is in charge of arrangements.

GFT

26 Dec 1983

Elizabeth Gust

Elizabeth Gust, 80, 2621 5th Ave. S., died early Monday at a local rest home following an extended illness.

Services will be noon Wednesday at the College of Great Falls Chapel. Burial will be at the Mount Olivet Cemetery. Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel.

Born in Lebanon, Gust moved with her family to the United States when she was 13 years old. They settled in Ohio, where she attended school.

In 1915 she married Nathan Azar, and they resided in New Mexico. He died in 1923. She remained in New Mexico and in 1937 married James Gust there.

Following his death in 1945, she came to Great Falls to be near her daughter's family, the Jim Zadicks. She had been a member of the Holy Family Church, the Altar Society and the Legion of Mary. She was also a member of the College of Great Falls Chapel.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jim (Lee) Zadick, Great Falls; a son, Richard N. Azar, El Paso, Texas; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren; a sister, Rose Skaff, Del Norte, Colo., and a brother, Nick Macaron, Raton, New Mexico.