

Lorraine O. Mahrt, 65

10 Feb 1983

LIBBY — Lorraine O. Mahrt, 65, Libby, died of a heart attack Thursday at Durango, Colo., while en route to New Mexico with her husband for a winter vacation.

She was born June 27, 1917, at Portsmouth, Ohio, to Mifflin and Ida Ogden. She attended Portsmouth schools and graduated from Ohio State University. She taught school in West Union, Ohio, until her marriage to George A. Mahrt, Missoula, Dec. 24, 1941, at Corpus Christi, Texas.

They lived at Oakland, Modesto and San Diego, Calif., while her husband completed a tour of duty with the U.S. Navy during World War II. They returned to Montana and his career with the Forest Service until 1946. In 1964, they moved to Libby, where he was supervisor of the Kootenai National Forest until his retirement in 1973.

She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Libby, the Order of the Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile, the Women's Golf Association and P.E.O.

Survivors include her husband, George, Libby; a daughter, Susan Timmons, Junction City, Kan.; a son, G. Robert Mahrt, Kalispell; and three grandchildren.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Libby with the Rev. John Wallace officiating. The family suggests memorials to St. Luke's Episcopal Church.

Lena Katherine Maier, 96

Lena Katherine Maier, 96, died Saturday at the Flathead County Nursing Home where she has lived for several years.

She was born July 29, 1886, in Germany, a daughter of Christoph and Rosa Wurst. She came to the United States at 15 and lived in Iowa.

She later moved to Wibaux where she later married August Maier on July 2, 1914.

The couple homesteaded for several years and later moved to Castleton, N.D. In 1921, they came to the Flathead Valley and farmed in the Fairview area east of Kalispell.

Mrs. Maier was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church. She was preceded in death by her husband, August, in 1964; a son, Earnest, in 1943, and a daughter, Margaret More in 1968.

She is survived by a daughter, Helen Vinje of Kalispell; four grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Darold Reiner, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

24 July 1983

Eugene L. Maillot, 82

Eugene Leon Maillot, 82, Lakeview Village, Polson, died Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital after a lengthy illness.

He was the oldest living pioneer resident of Hot Springs. He was born Sept. 12, 1900, in Hot Springs, the son of George and Susan Schmitz Maillot. He attended grade school in Hot Springs, and high school in Kalispell.

As a young man, Mr. Maillot operated a stock ranch in Hot Springs. During World War II, he served with the US Marine Corps. He worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs as property management officer for many years, and retired in Aberdeen, S.D.

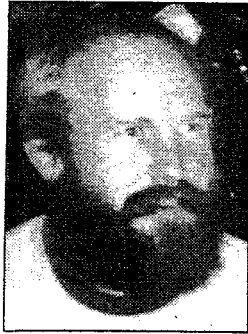

After living for a short time in Missoula, he moved to Polson in 1978.

He married Bernice Dodson Sept. 14, 1938, in Thompson Falls. He was a member of the Polson Elks Lodge, a past president of the Polson Toastmasters Club and the Polson chapter of the National Association of Federal Employees.

He is survived by his wife, Bernice, at the family home in Polson; one brother, Edward Maillot, Hot Springs; a half-brother, Charles Prongua, Hot Springs; 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by three brothers, a son, Eugene, and a step-daughter, Beverly Rudman.

The family has conducted private services and no public services are planned. Interment at the family cemetery in Hot Springs will be at a later date. Cremation and arrangements were by Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell.

Scott MacDonald

1 Oct.
1983

Scott
MacDonald

Scott Dale MacDonald, 27, Bootlegger Trail, died late Saturday, apparently of a self-inflicted gunshot wound. Services will be at the Croxford & Sons Mortuary Rose Room at 11 a.m. Wednesday. Burial will be on the family farm 23 miles northwest of Carter.

Sheriff's deputies, aided by search dogs, found the body in a coulee about half a mile from the farm house. He was found shortly before 1 a.m. Sunday, about two and one-half hours after authorities were notified that he was missing.

MacDonald was born in Great Falls and graduated from Charles M. Russell High School in 1974. He attended Montana State University and was a member of the Presbyterian Church. On Oct. 21, 1978, he married Jackie Smith in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

MacDonald worked on the family farm.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Lindsey Marie of Great Falls; two brothers, Bruce, Great Falls, and Brent, Bootlegger Trail; two sisters, Mrs. Curt (Carol) Moe, Great Falls, and Deanne MacDonald, Billings, and grandparents, Mrs. Lloyd MacDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, all of Great Falls.

12 Oct. 1983
SCOBEEY — MACHART, Ann, 63, Lewistown, died Monday while on a fishing trip in the Malta area. Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday in Scobey Lutheran Church with burial in the Scobey Cemetery. She was born in Portland, Ore. and grew up at Neihart. She married Clarence Machart in 1967 at Wolf Point. They lived in Peerless until 1979, when they moved to Billings. Her husband died in 1980. She operated restaurants in several Montana communities. She is survived by three daughters, Jackie Moberley, Lewistown; Janelle Wichman, Moore, and Lona Porter, Seeley Lake; two brothers, Art Heath, Lewistown, and W.F. Heath, Raynesford; one sister, Florence Goettlich, Hilger; and 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

21 Oct. 1983

LEWISTOWN — MACHLER, George L., 69, died Friday in a Lewistown hospital. Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the First United Presbyterian Church in Lewistown. Burial will be in the Lewistown City Cemetery. Born in Grass Range, he was educated in Lewistown and graduated in 1931 from Fergus High School. He then ranched with his parents at Glen Garry until 1934 when he went to Silverton, Ore. to study diesel mechanics. Machler returned to Lewistown in 1937 and again ranched with his family. In April 1941 he and Judith Carter were married in Lewistown. They moved into Lewistown in 1948. He continued to ranch until 1975 when he went into semi-retirement. Surviving are his wife; two sons, Michael G., Billings and Patrick G., Colstrip; a daughter, Mrs. John (Patricia) Daugherty, Helena; three brothers, Frank, William and John, all of Lewistown; and two sisters, Rose Poole of Great Falls and Catherine McDonald of Louisville, Ky.

20 Nov 1983 Percy Madison

Percy Howard Madison, 401 11th St. S., died Monday in a Cut Bank hospital.

He had spent the last several months in Cut Bank to be near his daughter.

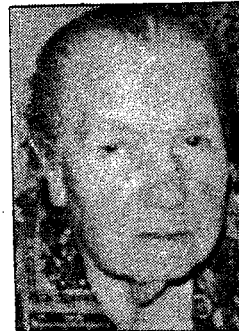

Services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Burns Funeral Home Chapel in Cut Bank with burial to follow in Highland Cemetery of Great Falls.

Born in Toyoisippi, Wis., he came to Montana in 1916 and worked as a salesman for more 50 years. After retiring he worked for several years for APCOA at the Great Falls parking lot.

In 1916, he married Irene C. Johnson at Havre.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. William (Betty) Piper, Cut Bank; a son, Robert H. Madison, Bainbridge Island, Wash.; and five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Ida Magnuson

1 June 1983
GF

Ida
Magnuson

Ida D. Magnuson, 89, 3700 3rd Ave. N., died Wednesday at a local rest home. No services are planned. Private burial will take place at Highland Cemetery, under the direction of the Croxford and Sons Mortuary.

She was born in Toivakka, Finland, and received her education in Finland before immigrating to the United States. She came to New York in 1913. She then came to Great Falls where she lived since. She married John A. Magnuson in Fort Benton in 1917. She made her home for the past several years with her daughter-in-law, Dorothy Magnuson. She was an avid gardener.

Survivors are a sister, Milda Kuitunen-Toivakka, Finland, five grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1945, a son, a daughter and two brothers.

22 Nov. 1983

HAYS — MAIN, Mae, 87, died Tuesday at the Harlem rest home. Services will be Friday at 10 a.m. at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Hays. A wake will be Thursday afternoon at St. Paul's Mission. Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Thursday. Born at Hays, she attended schools at St. Paul's Mission and also at Chemawa Indian School at Salem, Ore. She married Thomas Main in 1920. Her husband died in 1952. Survivors include four daughters, Rose Connor, Marie Chase, Dorothy Kinsey, Verna Walker, all of Harlem; four sons, Elmer, Harlem, James, Big Arm, Gerald, Lodgepole, and Walter, Warm Springs, Ore.; 37 grandchildren and 80 great grandchildren.

6 July 1983

CHESTER — MAKI, Fred W. Jr., 53, died Wednesday at Liberty County Hospital after an extended illness. Services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Rockman Funeral Chapel in Chester with burial in the Chester Cemetery. He was born in Stanford, grew up and was educated in Great Falls. He and his father custom harvested for several years. In the 1950s he moved to Missoula where he worked in the logging industry. He was married in 1951 to Theresa Bourque, in Edmonton, Alberta. He worked in the construction business as a truck driver for a number of years. He came to Chester in 1969 when he went to work on the Tiber Dam project. Maki retired a year ago. Survivors include his wife; a son, Greg of Havre; two daughters, Barbara Reynolds of Great Falls, and Debbie Heimbigner of Missoula; his mother, Helen Franklin, Susanville, Calif.; four grandchildren, and two stepsisters and a stepbrother out of state.

21 Aug 1983

SHELBY — MALLETTTE, Edna M., 85, died Sunday in a Shelby nursing home. Her funeral will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday in the Burns Funeral Home, followed by burial in Daniels Memorial Cemetery. Mrs. Mallette was born at Richmond, Wis. and had lived in Shelby for many years. Survivors include a niece, Mrs. N.J. (Pat) Dougherty, Great Falls, and two nephews, Oral and Dick Nutgens, both of Wolf Point.

4 Oct. 1983

BAINVILLE — MALLORY, Marion, 63, a Bainville ranch hand, died Tuesday at a Culbertson hospital of natural causes. Services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at Everson-Clayton Memorial Chapel in Culbertson. Burial will be in the Bainville Cemetery. He was born and raised at New Castle, Wyo.; he moved to Paoli, Okla., in 1942. Later he worked in Minot, N.D., and Plentywood, before moving to Bainville in 1963, where he worked for the Picard Ranch since. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Bob (Doris) Fullington, Albuquerque, N.

27 May 1983

BILLINGS — Funeral services were held Tuesday in Billings for Carmen Rose Maki, 22, Billings, who died Friday of injuries suffered in an automobile accident near Lewistown. Born in Great Falls, she moved to Billings with her mother, Ruth Maki, in 1961. She attended Billings elementary schools and graduated from Hobson High School. She had attended Montana State University and Denver, Colo., Academy of Court Reporting. Survivors include her mother and a sister, Marcy Maki, both of Billings, and grandparents, Mrs. Impie Maki, Belt, and Mr. and Mrs. S.F. Triplett of Geysers.

12 Dec. 1983

HELENA — MANESS, Joseph, 62, died at his home in East Helena Monday following a brief illness. Rosary will be 7 p.m. Wednesday from Sts. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in East Helena. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Thursday at the church. Military graveside honors will be at St. Ann's Cemetery in East Helena. Hager Mortuary is in charge of arrangements. He was born in Billings, where he attended schools. In 1940 he moved to Helena. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. After his discharge, he worked for Montana Power Co. as a lineman. He retired in December 1975 due to ill health. On March 30, 1946, he married the former Iris A. Rose in East Helena. Survivors include his wife and a son, Daniel J., of East Helena; two sisters, Lorraine Kainu, Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. L.S. (Jo) Champa, Helena; one brother, James Maness of Helena; and four grandchildren.

23 Dec 1983

WESTBY — MANGEL, Charles, 53, died Friday morning in a Minneapolis hospital. He was born in Comertown and graduated from Westby High School in 1948. Mangel served in the Pacific while in the Navy from 1950 to 1954. He married Dolores Elm in Los Angeles in 1954. He and his wife resided for a short time at Watford City, N.D. In 1956 they began farming 10 miles southeast of Westby in Divide County, N.D. He also worked for a number of years at the Farmer's Grain and Trading Co. in Westby and at the John Deere Implement Co. there. He is survived by his wife; five sons, all of Westby: Alan, Darrell, Russell, Doug, and Chad; two grandchildren; four brothers, Steve, Portland, Ore., Woodrow, Bellingham, Minn., and Leslie and Ervin, both of Mesa, Ariz.; and two sisters, Clarice Jones, Havre, and Mrs. Al (Mildred) Durham, Murfreesboro, Tenn. Fulkerson Funeral Home of Plentywood is in charge of arrangements.

Nov 15 1983

LEWISTOWN — MARQUARDT, Jerry, 55, died Tuesday in a Lewistown hospital. Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the Creel-Morrison-Retz Chapel. Born in Wausau, Wis., he was raised in Wallace, Idaho, and graduated from Fergus High School in Lewistown. Following graduation, he helped run his parents' ranch at Grass Range. In 1959, he moved to Polson, where he worked for the U.S. Plywood Co. He moved to Choteau in 1967, where he worked as a parts man for an automobile and implement dealer. He moved back to Lewistown in 1972, where he worked for U.S. Gypsum and the state Home for the Aged. He retired in 1978 due to ill health. Survivors include two sons, Kip and Jay, both of Lewistown; two daughters, Julia Vanek, Whitlash, and Susan Mack, Grass Range; six grandchildren, a sister, Beverly Finn, Roseville, Calif.; a step-mother, Bertha Marquardt, Billings.

Cleo and Alford Maner

25 Feb 1983

LIBBY — Cleo C. Maner, 51, and her husband, Alford J. Maner, 56, died Friday at their home as the result of gunshot wounds in an apparent murder-suicide. Investigation into the incident is continuing.

Mrs. Maner was born Jan. 19, 1932, at Sherwood, N.D., where she attended schools. Mr. Maner was born May 13, 1926, at Hot Springs, Ark., and attended school there.

They were married April 6, 1949, at Sherwood. They moved to the Libby area about 30 years ago. He worked as a self-employed logger and she was a janitor for the General Telephone Co. Mr. Maner served with the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Survivors include six daughters, Kathleen Wolfe, Joanne Serna, Betty French, Nancy Womack and Pamela Maner, all of Libby; and Georgena Green, Greenville, Texas; two sons, Ernest and Ted Maner both of Libby; and nine grandchildren.

Mrs. Maner is also survived by her parents, Edna and Frank Bonneau, Libby; two sisters, Audrey Watt and Kathy Tennison, both of Libby; two brothers, Luallan Ritter, in Washington and Mickey Miller in California.

Mr. Maner is also survived by two sisters, Martha Maner and Helen Bigness, both in Arkansas; and four brothers, Cliff in California, John in Tennessee, and Vern and George both in Arkansas.

Funeral services for the Maners will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Dwayne Price officiating. Burial will be at the Libby Cemetery with military graveside rites under the direction of Vial Funeral Home, Libby.

Donald L. Mansfield, 91

15 Jan 1983

Donald L. Mansfield, 91, a former resident of the Flathead Valley, died Saturday in Redmond, Wash. He was born June 22, 1891, in Kansas and lived in Missoula and Kalispell for many years before moving to Spokane, Wash.

He lived in Spokane until moving to Redmond where he had made his home since.

He is survived by a daughter, Helen Martin of Duvall, Wash.; a son,

Donald Mansfield of San Bernadino, Calif.; a sister, Grave Walroth of Woodinville, Wash.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be Thursday at 1 p.m. at the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with L.B. Slater officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Dr. James R. Markette, 55

22 Jan 1983

Dr. James R. Markette, 55, Whitefish, died Thursday evening in the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

He was born Aug. 15, 1928, in Brookhaven, Miss., a son of Dr. John R. and Myrtis L. Markette.

He was raised and educated in Brookhaven. During the Korean conflict he served in the U.S. Air Force as a jet pilot. After receiving his discharge, he attended the University of Mississippi, and graduated from Harvard Medical School.

In 1959, he moved to Cut Bank and practiced there until 1980 when he moved to the Flathead Valley and entered medical practice in Kalispell with Dr. Loren Vranish.

On April 3, 1951, he married Peggy Towle in Helena and is survived by her at the family home in Whitefish. He is also survived by his daughter, Dr. Catherine Markette, Seattle; a son, David Markette, Amarillo, Texas; and a brother, Dr. Ronald Markette, Atlanta, and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Saturday at 3 p.m. in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Tom Best of the Glacier Unitarian Fellowship of Kalispell officiating. Cremation has taken place.

STRAYER, Glen I., 72, died Wednesday. Funeral service at 2 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home. Burial in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MARSH, Jaine L., 69, died Wednesday. Funeral service and burial in Big Rapids, Mich. on Saturday.

Van Leuven FUNERAL HOME

Austin-Kositzky, Inc.
Dennis and Kenia Schoepp.
Phone 892-4289
Columbia Falls

19 Jan 1983

23 Oct 1983
HAVRE — MARQUARDT, Susan,

28, of Havre, died Friday at a Minot, N.D., hospital from injuries received in a motorcycle accident. Funeral service will be 2 p.m. Tuesday Messiah Lutheran Church in Havre. Cremation has taken place. She was born and reared in Havre and following high school attended and graduated from Eastern Montana College. She then worked in Billings for three years. In 1981 she married Mike Marquardt in Havre. They lived in Tioga, N.D., where he is employed by an oil company. Survivors include her husband in Tioga; father David Eskestrand, Havre; and brother Louis Eskestrand, also of Havre. The Holland and Bonine Funeral Home of Havre is in charge.

Mozell Marsh

18 Dec 1983
Mozell L. Marsh

Services for Mozell L. Marsh, 54, 3209 3rd Ave. N., will be Thursday at 1 p.m. at Croxford & Sons Rose Room with the Rev. John Bullock officiating. Marsh died Sunday in a local hospital. Burial will be in the Highland Cemetery.

Mrs. Marsh was born in Amherst, Texas, and moved to Montana when she was 4 years old. She had worked for National Laundry on occasion since she was 16 years old. In November 1946 she married Clifford Marsh in Great Falls.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Leroy, Great Falls; five daughters, Cora Marsh, Great Falls; Mrs. Jack (Patsy Jean) Blackwell, De-stoo, Texas; Mrs. Dallas (Betty Ann) Traxel, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Howard (Dollice Marie) Holms, Niceville, Fla.; Mrs. Joe (Catherine Louise) Trowbridge, Eitchburg, Mass.; two brothers, Ira Henry, and Malcolm Henry, both of Anchorage, Alaska; a sister, Mrs. Polly Rogers, Portland, Ore., and 10 grandchildren. GF

30 Oct. 1983
CIRCLE — MART, Troy Mitchell, 21, died Sunday of injuries suffered in a car accident two miles southwest of Circle on Highway 200. Services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Circle High School Auditorium. Burial will be in the Brockway Cemetery with Clayton Memorial Chapel in charge of arrangements. Born at Jordan, he was raised near Brockway and graduated from Circle High School in 1980, after which he farmed. He married Deanna Stanton at Jordan in April. She survives along with his father, Melvin Mart of Vaughn; his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goldberg of Brockway; a sister Tammie Mart, Circle; three half-brothers, Philip Mart, San Diego, Calif., Ben Mart, Vaughn, and Mury Goldberg, Brockway; and two half-sisters, Nancy Goldberg, Brockway, and Anne Mart, Vaughn.

16 Aug 1983
CULBERTSON — MARTELL, Max III, 10, died Tuesday at his home in the Blair community. The boy was accidentally strangled while playing. A wake will be held Sunday evening at the Martell home, where services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday. Burial will follow, with Everson-Clayton Memorial Chapel handling arrangements. Born in Wolf Point, he lived in Poplar before moving to the Blair community. Survivors include his parents, Linda and Max Martell Jr., four sisters, Dina, Fallon, Karen and Athena, all of the family home, and grandparents, Violet and Max Martell Sr., Culbertson.

7 Oct. 1983
WOLF POINT — MARTIN, Agnes, 82, died Friday at her home. Services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at First Lutheran Church, with burial in Greenwood Cemetery. Clayton Memorial Chapel is in charge. Born in Iowa, she moved with her parents to the Froid community. In 1925, she married Anfin Martin at Culbertson. They made their home at the Prairie Elk community 30 miles south of here. In 1953, they moved into Wolf Point. Surviving Mrs. Martin are her husband; two sons, Murel of Wolf Point and Robert of Rose Hill, Kan.; three sisters, including Goldie Neubauer, who recently moved to Mesa, Ariz., nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

27 Oct. 1983
HARLEM — MARTIN, Marjorie, 69, died Thursday in a Harlem nursing home. Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the American Lutheran Church in Harlem with burial in the Harlem Cemetery. She was born in North Dakota, where she attended schools, coming to Harlem in 1940. Her husband, Charles, died in 1961. Recently she had resided in Libby. She had worked at the Harlem Rest Home from 1954 to 1969. Survivors include four sons, John, Columbia Falls, Charles, Libby, Clifford of Glendive, and Gary in Fremont, Calif.; four daughters, Stella Good, Libby, Marjorie Mohar, Hogeland, and Dorothy Martin and Joyce Jorgeson, both of Rock Springs, Wyo.; three brothers including John Robinson, Garrison; 29 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

23 Oct. 1983
FORT BENTON — MATLOSZ, Alfonse J., 66, died Sunday in a Great Falls nursing home after a long illness. Services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday in Immaculate Conception Church. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery with Benton Funeral Home handling arrangements. Born in Elizabeth, N.J., he attended schools there and in Hawaii. Matlosz served 22 years in the U.S. Air Force, retiring in 1960. He and Clara Kovach of Malta were married in 1942. She survives with two sons, Frank of Malta and Alfonse Jr., Corona, Calif.; five daughters, Cecelia, Teresa and Vickie Matlosz and Stephanie Riedle, all of Fort Benton, and Barbara White, Townsend; and two sisters, Ann Pryzbylowicz, New York, and Blanche Korab, New Jersey.

20 Dec 1983
HAYS — MARTIN, Rosell Lynn, infant daughter of Gerald and Sheila Martin, died Tuesday at the family home in Hays of sudden infant death syndrome, authorities said. She was born Nov. 9, 1983, in Fort Belknap. A wake will be Friday in the Hays Christian Alliance Church. Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the church with burial in the Martin family cemetery at Hays. Survivors include her parents; a brother, Casey; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin, all of Hays, and Ken Doney, Lewistown. Adams Funeral Home of Malta is in charge of Arrangements.

EMILY MARTIN

10 Aug 1983

Emily Irene Martin, 89, died Wednesday, Aug. 10 at the Colonial Manor in Whitefish. She was born May 8, 1894 in Havre, the daughter of pioneers Adolph and Emma Nelson Stocklin. Her oldest brother was the first registered white birth in Hill County. She was raised near Havre, and there married Guy F. Shanks in 1918. He preceded her in death in 1946. She worked as a telephone operator for many years, as chief operator in Havre until 1935, and then as night operator in Kalispell until retiring at age 65. She had lived in Whitefish in recent years, and had been a resident at the Colonial Manor for less than a year. Surviving are one son, Guy F. Shanks, of Kalispell; two grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. There will be no public services, at the wish of the deceased. Arrangements and cremation are by Weatherford Funeral Home, Kalispell.

Silas Mast, 77

31 Mar. 1983

Silas B. Mast, 77, 1595 Egan Slough Road, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital late Thursday.

He was born April 1, 1905, in Strang, Nebraska, a son of Joseph and Kathryn Mast. He received his education in Nebraska and later moved to White Sulphur Springs.

On Jan. 3, 1926, he married Elma Sutter in Kalispell. The couple lived in White Sulphur Springs until 1929, when they moved to the Flathead Valley west of Kalispell. In 1936 they began farming and ranching at their present home.

He was a member of the Mountain View Mennonite Church in Creston.

He is survived by his wife, Elma; three sons, Frank of Spokane and Larry and Myron, both of Kalispell; three daughters, Priscilla Buller and Martha Boss of Kalispell and Naoma Kauffman of Marion; two brothers, Jake of Bozeman and Paul of Lapwai, Idaho; 21 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by three brothers.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Monday in the Johnson Chapel with Pastor Glenn Roth of the Mountain View Mennonite Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family suggest memorials be made to the Mountain View Mennonite Church or the East Valley Quick Response Unit.

REYNOLDS, Lolita, 41, formerly of Kalispell, died Friday. Graveside services 4 p.m. Monday in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends meet at cemetery for services.

KRUB, Charles, 92, Kalispell, died in Whitefish Saturday afternoon. Arrangements pending.

14 May 1983
Johnson Mortuary
525 Main Street
755-3036
Willard, Lorene and Paul
A Family Concern
Dedicated to Service

GASWINT, Esther, 84, died Wednesday. Funeral services 10:30 a.m. Monday at Epworth Methodist Church. Burial at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

MATTHEWS, Mary Ida, 81, Kalispell Hotel, died Friday. No public services to be held.

13 May 1983
WEATHERFORD
Funeral Home
PATTY WEATHERFORD NICHOLS
WARREN S. LAMOREUX
DIXON B. RICE JR.
1890 Hwy. 93 N.
Kalispell—755-3432

Guy E. Maycumber, 68

Guy E. Maycumber, 68, of Kalispell, died Feb. 11, 1983, of heart failure at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Sept. 30, 1924 in Spokane, Wash., to Guy and Ruth Maycumber. He was raised and educated in Spokane, graduating from North Central High School in 1943. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II, from 1942 to his honorable discharge in 1946.

On Dec. 17, 1949, he married Eileen Kujawa in Spokane, where they lived for four years until moving to Yakima, Wash. The Maycumber lived in Evergreen until 1957. Guy worked for the Bonneville Power Administration for 20 years, retiring in 1970.

He was active in both the local ham radio club and the Montana Mining Association. He was instrumental in establishing a scholarship fund for geology students at Montana Tech in Butte.

Surviving family members include his wife at the family home, sons Frank, Leonard and Steven, all of Kalispell; daughters Marcia Ballowe, of Missoula, and Sharon Simons, of Colorado Springs, Colo.; sister Isobel Cook, of Veradale, Wash.; and seven grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a sister, Gertrude Stranberg.

Friends may call at the Weatherford Funeral Home 1-4 p.m. today for visitation.

Funeral services will be 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Weatherford Chapel, with Rev. Fr. Thomas O'Donnell, pastor of Risen Christ Catholic Church, officiating. Private burial is to be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the Montana Mining Association Scholarship Fund at Montana Tech, or a charity of the donor's choice.

Elsie B. Mathews 29 July 1993

CUT BANK — Elsie B. Mathews, 92, a retired homemaker and former cafe owner, died Thursday in Glacier County Nursing Home.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the First Presbyterian Church in Cut Bank. Graveside services will be 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Memorial Gardens. The Rockman Funeral Chapel of Chester is in charge.

She was born April 2, 1901, in Iowa and received her formal education at Calvin, N.D. In 1919 she married Adam Henderson and they had five children. That marriage ended in divorce.

In 1932, she married John "Harvey" Mathews and they made their home west of Chester where he managed a grain elevator. They moved to Cut Bank in 1936 where they lived and worked for the next 14 years.

In 1950, the couple moved to Couer d'Alene and for 20 years she owned and operated Elsie's Dakota Coffee Shop. Her husband died in 1969.

She remained in Couer d'Alene until 1990 when she moved back to Cut Bank to be near her family.

Survivors include a daughter, Nina Shepherd, of Spokane; four sons, Bill Henderson and Dan Henderson of Cut Bank, Jack Henderson of Phoenix, Ariz., and Pete Henderson of Loring; a stepdaughter, Lilly Zwolla of Lewistown; two sisters, Lena Crummy of Cut Bank, and Frances Hoffman of Dickinson, N.D., 17 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren. 87

7 July 1983
LEWISTOWN MATOVICH,

Matilda, 85, died Thursday morning in a Lewistown nursing home following a long illness. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Monday in St. Leo's Catholic Church. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery. Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in Cloyd Chapel. She was born in Lika, Yugoslavia, and attended schools there. She moved to Canada in 1928. On April 14, 1928, she married ~~Dan Matovich in Hanley, Saskatchewan. They moved to the~~ mouth of the Musselshell River near Winnett where they stayed until 1935 when they moved to Tiber. The ranching there until retiring in 1972. They then moved to Lewistown. He died in 1980. Survivors include two sons, Dewey and Dave, both of Grass Range; two daughters, Mrs. Charles (Mary) Moseman, Christina, and Mrs. George (Eva) Birdwell, of Lewistown; 16 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; a brother, Anton Sarich of Yugoslavia; and four sisters, Eva Lovsin and Frances Persich, both of Edison, Alberta, and Rosie and Jean, both in Yugoslavia.

23 July 1983

RYEGATE — MATSON, John C., 97, died Friday en route to a hospital in Billings. Services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the Perkins Funeral Home in Harlowton. Burial will follow in the Harlowton Cemetery. Born in Clay Center, Kan., he left home at the age of 14. He came to Montana in 1911, and homesteaded north of Two Dot, where he worked until 1936. He married Louise Raifsnnyder in 1929 in Helena. They moved to their ranch on Swimming Woman Creek in 1941. He lived there until his death. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Donna Paugh, Bozeman; a brother; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

4 July 1983
BROCKTON MATTELIN,

Frank L., 93, died Monday in a Culbertson hospital. Services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday in Our Saviors Lutheran Church, Brockton, followed by burial in Riverview Cemetery with Clayton Memorial Chapel handling arrangements. Born at Atkinson, Neb., he was raised and educated in Larimar, Iowa. In 1913 he came to Montana where he worked as a cowboy and farmed, and at one time drove a stagecoach in Glacier National Park. Mattelin and Emmaline Murray were married in Minnesota in 1917. They farmed north of Poplar for several years, then moved to a farm east of Brockton, where they had lived since. His wife survives as do his brother and sister.

14 Oct. 1983

BROWNING — MATT, Esther Margaret, 55, died Friday at Toppenish, Wash. Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the Church of the Little Flower in Browning. Burial will be in the Schildt Cemetery. Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Riddle Funeral Chapel. She was born in Browning and attended Browning schools. In 1948, she married Clarence Matt in Cut Bank. She is survived by her husband, Clarence, Toppenish, Wash.; one daughter, Karen Vael, Bremmerton, Wash.; a son, James Robert, Sunnyside, Wash.; two sisters, Mildred Warren and Elsie Baines, both of Bremmerton; three brothers, John Goss, Ron Goss and Joe Goss, all of Bremmerton.

7 Jan 1983

ST. IGNATIUS — Adelaide Parker Matt, 60, died Friday of natural causes at Arlee.

She was born Dec. 12, 1922, in Arlee to Frank and Mary Catherine Parker, and was a lifetime resident of the Arlee area. She attended school at Urseline Academy. In 1940 she married Stevens Matt in Arlee, and the couple ranched there. Mr. Matt died in 1959.

Mrs. Matt was known for her traditional bead work.

Survivors include Clarence Charlo, Arlee; nine daughters, Mary Valerie Plant, Mary Lucy Parker, Virginia Brazii, Charlene Petet, Genevieve Vinson and Willie Wright, all of Arlee; Margaret Coffy, Camas Praire; Katherine Nick, Usk, Wash.; and Martha Langston, Wellpinet, Wash.; five sons,

Adelaide Parker Matt

Clark Matt and Stevens Matt, Arlee; Marvin Matt and Bob Bigart, both of Missoula; and Steven A. "Sam" Matt, Moiese; and three sisters, Marion Kickingwoman and Barbara Christie, both of St. Ignatius; and Betty Old Horn, Pablo.

Traditional wake services will began Friday evening at the Arlee Senior Citizens Center. Rosary will be recited Sunday, 8 p.m., at the center. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated Monday, 10 a.m., at the Jocko Catholic Church with the Rev. Joe Retzel as celebrant. Burial will be in the Jocko Cemetery. Arrangements are by Fearon Funeral Home of St. Ignatius.

26 July 1983

Baptiste Matt

ST. IGNATIUS — Baptiste "Casey" Matt, 70, a former St. Ignatius resident, died Tuesday of natural causes at his residence in Seattle.

Mr. Matt was born Dec. 17, 1912, in St. Ignatius and attended schools at the Jesuit Fathers School in St. Ignatius and Chemawa School in Oregon.

He moved to Seattle in 1941.

In January 1961, he married Marie Antoinette in Seattle.

He was a retired ironworker and had worked for the Baugh Construction Co. of Seattle and also in various parts of the country.

Survivors include his wife, Marie, Seattle; two sons, Richard and Frederick, both of Seattle; two brothers, Pete, Ronan, and Joe, Big Arm; a sister, Margaret Elsas, Union Gap, Wash.; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the St. Ignatius Catholic Church with the Rev. Gus Schmidt S.J. as celebrant. Burial will be at the St. Ignatius Catholic Cemetery.

Traditional wake services will begin Friday afternoon at the St. Ignatius longhouse. Rosary will be at 8 p.m. Friday at the longhouse.

Arrangements are under the direction of Fearon Chapel.

19 Nov 1983

HELENA — MAY, Leona C., 52, Helena, died Sunday at a Helena hospital following a brief illness. Services will be 11 a.m. Friday at the Evangelical Covenant Church in Helena, with burial in the Sunset Memorial Gardens in Helena. Hagler Mortuary of Helena is in charge of arrangements. Born in Denton, she attended school in Big Sandy and graduated from Big Sandy High School in 1948. She married Robert W. May in 1949 in Havre. They lived in Sidney and also in Great Falls. They moved to Helena in 1975. Survivors include her husband, Robert, Helena; mother, Gina DeWinter, Helena; three daughters, Gina Martin, Helena; Cynthia May, Warm Springs, and Rebecca May, Emporia, Kan.; two brothers, Tenyson DeWinter, Hanson, Mass., and Hugh DeWinter Jr., Havre; two sisters, Bernice Tingloy, Huron, S.D., and Caroline Tichenor, Virginia City.

25 Aug 1983

FAIRFIELD — MAXWELL,

Jeannette, 64, died in a Great Falls hospital Thursday. Rosary will be at 7 p.m. Sunday at St. John's Catholic Church in Fairfield with services at 10 a.m. Monday at the church. Burial will be in Sunset Hills Cemetery, Fairfield. She was born in Tolley, N.D. and in 1930 moved with her parents to Oilmont. She was a 1936 Shelby High School graduate. She moved to Jordan later, where she married Wallace W. Maxwell Dec. 18, 1938. They lived in Jordan until moving to Anaconda in 1941. Two years later they moved to the Fairfield bench to farm and have resided in Fairfield since 1970. She operated a the Maxwell House Cafe for three years in Fairfield. Survivors include her husband; a son, Philip, Deer Lodge; daughters, Mrs. Willis (Sharon) Coffman and Mrs. Jerry (Judy) Loomis, both of Great Falls; brothers, Wilson Eby, Kalispell, and Jerry Eby, in Washington; sisters, Mrs. Gene (Nellie) Fauque of Cut Bank, Mrs. Helmer (Connie) Hinthier of Billings, Mrs. Ken (Maxine) Pruitte of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Russ (Dorla) Sewell of Great Falls. Gorder Funeral Home is charge of arrangements.

2 Nov 1983

CONRAD — MAYLOR, Kenneth, 80, a Conrad resident since 1955, died Wednesday. Masonic services will be conducted Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Wyse Funeral Chapel, Conrad. Services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. in the Pondera Valley Lutheran Church, Conrad. Cremation will follow. Born in Pawnee, Ill., he attended schools there and as a young man worked as a mechanic. He later worked as a heavy-duty mechanic in South Dakota. He married Sophie Jacobson in Aberdeen, S.D. in April 1924. They moved to Lewistown, where he worked as a mechanic at the Ford and Chevrolet dealerships, and later as a construction equipment mechanic before moving in 1955 to Conrad where he opened K's Auto Parts, which he operated with his son, Kay, until his retirement in 1975. Survivors include his wife; son Kay of Conrad; a daughter, Betty Halstrom, Spokane, and two nieces he and his wife raised, Fern Smith, Seattle, and Florence Wood, Roundup.

52 Aug 1983

CUT BANK — McALPINE, Janet Jean, 21, died Monday from injuries suffered in a car accident near Ethridge. Born in Cut Bank, she worked on her father's ranch. Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Survivors include a brother, Mark; father, David, both of Cut Bank, and her mother, Donna McAlpine, Tucson, Ariz. Burns Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

3 mar. 1983
Dorothy McBurney, 84

RONAN — Dorothy McBurney, 84, died Thursday at St. Luke Community Hospital. She was born Nov. 21, 1898, in Stark County, N.D., to Andrew and Julia Shipley.

After completing her primary schooling, she attended Dickinson Normal School in Dickinson, N.D.

She is survived by three sons, Don McBurney, Ronan, Douglas McBurney, Goleta, Calif., and Chad McBurney, Cheyenne, Wyo.; two daughters, Julie Ann Fischer, Lakeside, and Margie Lee Byrne, Providence, R.I.; 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Graveside services were held Saturday afternoon at Lake View Cemetery in Polson with the Rev. Greg Reich officiating. Arrangements are under Shriders Mortuary of Ronan.

Randall McClung

No local services are planned for Randall L. McClung, 30, 1126 4th Ave. S. Cremation has taken place with the Chapel of Chimes handling arrangements.

He died Monday at his home of an apparently self-inflicted gunshot wound, according to Cascade County Deputy Coroner Dick Donovan.

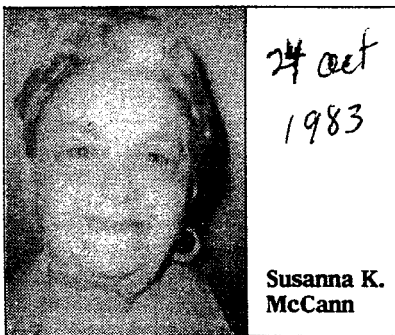

4 July 1983

GF

20 Aug 1983

TOWNSEND — McCoy, Tomisue, 20, was killed in a car accident near McDonald Pass early Saturday morning. Service is 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Holy Cross Church. Burial will be in the Deep Creek Cemetery. She was born in Butte and attended school in Townsend, completing high school in Casa Grande, Ariz., where she moved with her father, former Broadwater County Sheriff Jack McCoy. McCoy graduated from Chaparral Career College at Tucson, Ariz. She was a legal secretary with a Helena law firm. Besides her father, survivors include her mother, Doris Thomas, Wisdom; three brothers, Jack Stewart, Dillon; Doug Stewart, Helena, and Tim McCoy, East Helena; three sisters, Karen Plaster, Lander, Wyo.; Marcia Bieber, Townsend, and Tammy Oyen, Shelby; and her maternal grandmother, Corinne Yauney, Butte.

Susanna McCann

16 Dec 1983
WESTBY — McCall, Aubrey F., 55, died unexpectedly Thursday at his home. Services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Fulkerson Memorial Chapel in Plentywood. Born in Westby, he was reared in Comertown, Mont. where he graduated from high school in 1945. He began working for the Sioux Line Railway in 1947, and on Aug. 30, 1947, he married Lucy Cookson in Plentywood. They lived in a number of communities in North Dakota including five years at Enderlin, where he was a train dispatcher. In 1956, they moved to Outlook and in 1966, to Westby. He was station agent in both towns and became a traveling agent from 1970 until his retirement in 1980, due to failing health. He was a member of the brotherhood of Railway, Airline and Steamship Clerks, Freight handlers, and Express and Station Employees (BRAC). He was a former member of the Westby and Outlook city councils. Survivors include his wife, Lucy; two of his five sons, Tom, Helena, and Mike, Plentywood; two daughters, Mary Barnes, Westby, and Beth Grad, Afton, Wyo.; a brother, Robert, Plentywood; four sisters, Mrs. Larry (Bonita) Olson, Edinburg, N.D.; Mrs. Russell (Barbara) Long, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mrs. Douglas (Vivian) Veazey, Minot, N.D., and Mrs. Kenneth (Phillis) Long, Velda, N.D.

Susanna Kathryn McCann, 73, 316½ Central Ave., died Monday at a local hospital.

She was born in Knoxdale, Pa., and moved to Big Run, Pa., as a child where she was raised and attended schools, graduating from high school in 1928. She attended Kelly's Institute, a business school at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and then worked as advertising manager for a department store there until 1947.

She came to Great Falls in 1952, where she was married that year to Gordon David McCann, who died in 1965. Survivors include two brothers Ralph R. Slausenhaupt, and Jacob C. Slausenhaupt, both of Youngstown, N.Y.; also several nieces and nephews. Her memberships included Eagles Auxiliary and the Church of Christ.

Cremation has taken place, and no funeral services are planned. O'Connor Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

GF

11 Nov 1983

LEDGER — McCracken, David W., 74, died Friday at a hospital in Oregon City, Ore., where he had been a patient for two weeks. Services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Wyse Funeral Chapel in Conrad. Interment will be in the family plot in Hillside Cemetery. He was born at Bow, Wash., and moved with his parents to a homestead east of Ledger in 1910. He attended school in the area and worked construction after he turned 18. He worked in the Bremerton, Wash., shipyards during World War II and was asked to work on war-damaged ships in the Philippines before returning to Bremerton after the war. He worked as a welder and iron worker until moving to Molala, Ore., in 1982. He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers. Survivors include two brothers, Harry, Milbank, S.D., and Tom, Ledger; two sisters, Cora Simons, Whittier, Calif., and Evelyn Dowd, Kennewick, Wash..

31 Dec 1983
D.C. McCahan, 67

Donald Charles "Bud" McCahan, 67, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Saturday evening.

He was born Sept. 17, 1916, at Church's Ferry, N.D., a son of Thompson and Rosine Anderson McCahan. He attended schools in

DONALD 'BUD' MCCAHAN

Havre. In 1935, he moved to Big Sandy, where on Sept. 18, 1938, he married Bertha C. Berg.

He was employed by Northern Implement of Big Sandy until 1941, when he moved to Kalispell and was employed by Lake's Feed and Fuel for six years. He was then employed by Culligan Water Service for three years, McCulloch Saw Services for 17 years and Homelite Chain Saw Sales and Service for eight years prior to his retirement in 1976 due to ill health.

He was a lifetime member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

He is survived by his wife, Bertha, at the family home; two daughters, Mrs. John T. (Cheryl) Keith and Mrs. Ronald H. (Karen) Nichol, both of Kalispell; seven grandchildren; a brother, Harold McCahan of Fort Benton; and a sister, Mrs. Joe (Lila) Sunday of Havre.

Funeral services for Mr. McCahan will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in Bethlehem Lutheran Church with the Rev. Howard Mars officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

The family suggests memorials to Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Immanuel Lutheran Home or to the charity of the donor's choice.

Friends and relatives may call at the Johnson Mortuary until 8 p.m. Wednesday for visitation.

25 Aug 1983
Christian Maynard, 12

Christian Eugene "Chris" Maynard, 12, drowned Tuesday evening in the Kootenai River near Libby.

Chris was born Jan. 4, 1971, in Lodi, Calif., a son of Lloyd and Evelyn Maynard. He attended Libby public schools and was a student at Asa Wood School, Libby.

He was a member and attended Sunday School at the Assembly of God Church and a member of the Royal Rangers. He also belonged to the Boy Scouts of America and had participated in soccer and Little Guy wrestling, taking third place in the state Little Guy Wrestling Championships last year.

Survivors include his parents, Lloyd and Evelyn, Libby; a brother, Jeremy, Libby; his grandparents, Alice and Lloyd Maynard Sr., Libby, Reba Reich, Lodi, Calif., and Alvin Nicholson, Libby; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services were this morning at the Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Raymond Bache officiating. Burial was in the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home.

9 June 1983
Dallas Maynard, 47

Dallas J. Maynard, 47, died Thursday at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Salt Lake City after a short illness.

He was born June 17, 1935, in Shoals, W.Va., to Carl and Velma Maynard. He came to Libby with his family in 1949.

He worked as a cook and maintenance man in Libby and also worked for the Forest Service. He moved to Noxon in 1973 and lived there until his death.

Survivors include his parents, of Noxon; and a brother, Earl, of Spokane.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home in Libby with the Rev. Bud Ling and the Rev. David Antoriso officiating. Burial services will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday at White Pine Cemetery.

Frank McClain, 73

27 Dec 1983
LIBBY — Frank "Mac" McClain, 73, Libby, died Tuesday of an apparent heart attack at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born June 24, 1910, in Crooksville, Ohio, to John and Mabel McClain. He was raised in Ohio and received his education there. After coming to Montana he worked for the Civilian Conservation Corps in the Yaak area and in Libby. He later was employed by the J. Neils Lumber Co. and then the St. Regis Paper Co. until his retirement in 1974.

He was a member of St. John Lutheran Church and the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy McClain, Libby; two uncles, an aunt and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Vial Funeral Home in Libby. The Rev. Michael Flannery will officiate. Burial will be in the City of Libby Cemetery.

LIBBY — McCONNELL, Lois A., 58, was found dead at her residence Friday. She had been dead for about nine days. Services will be 10 a.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home. Burial will follow at 1 p.m. MDT at the Grandview Cemetery at Bonners Ferry, Idaho. She was born in Lingle, Wyo., where she was educated. She married Joe McConnell on Jan. 26, 1946 at Torrington, Wyo. They came to Polson in 1956 and in 1966 they bought a cattle ranch near Troy. She had also cooked for the Forest Service and worked on election boards. After her husband's death in 1981 she moved to Libby. She is survived by one daughter, Connie Simurdak, Libby; two sons, Bruce, Troy, and Tom, Governors Island, N.Y.; four sisters, Mary Dooley, Jane Schultz, and Myrtle Anderson, all of Gurnsey Wyo., and Faye Whitman, Torrington; one brother, Lynville Oliver, Fort Laramie, Wyo.; and six grandchildren.

*Found 23 Sep 1983
about 14 Sep 1983*

Malcolm J. McCrae, 75

18 Feb. 1983
EUREKA — Malcolm J. McCrae, 75, a former Eureka resident, died Feb. 18 at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle.

He was born July 2, 1907, in Canada, to Alexander and Catherine McCrae. He came to Eureka with his family in 1920 and attended schools there. He later worked in construction at Browning and Spokane and moved to Alaska in 1941.

He enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1943 and served in Central Europe during World War II. After his honorable discharge in 1945, he returned to Spokane where he resided until 1950 when he moved to Seattle. He lived in Seattle until the time of his death.

Survivors include five brothers, Angus McCrae, Eureka, Alexander McCrae, Kalispell, Martin McCrae, California, Donald McCrae, Arizona, and Albert McCrae, Alaska; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist Church in Eureka with Rev. David Davis officiating. Burial with military honors will be in Tobacco Valley Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Eureka.

12 Aug 1983 Mary Jane McCready, 48

Mary Jane McCready, 48, Whitefish, died Friday evening in the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

She was born Sept. 7, 1934, in Anaconda, a daughter of Art and Mary Wright.

She was raised and attended school in Anaconda until the eighth grade when she moved with her parents to Kalispell. She graduated from Flathead High School in 1953. She worked for Montgomery Ward in Kalispell for two years.

On Nov. 6, 1955, she married Lewis McCready in Kalispell and has lived in Whitefish since then.

She was a member of the Moose Lodge in Whitefish.

She was preceded in death by her father and a brother, John.

She is survived by her husband at the family home in Whitefish; one son, Kevin McCready, Whitefish; two daughters, Mrs. Kim (Cindy) Peterson, Kalispell, and Mrs. Willie (Linda) Stacy, Whitefish; two grandchildren; her mother, Mary Wright, Kalispell; three brothers, Mike and Art Wright, Kalispell, and Tom Wright, Seattle; two sisters, Pat Melby, Bigfork, and Rose Wright, Kalispell; and a number of other relatives.

Mass of the Resurrection will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Edmond Smith officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens, Kalispell, under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. The casket will not be opened for viewing.

10 Nov, 1983 Retha May McCully, 51

Retha May McCully, 51, Trego, died Thursday morning in the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

She was born April 13, 1932, in West Virginia, a daughter of Richard and Ollie Hammons. She came to Montana as a child and attended schools in Rexford.

On April 11, 1935, she married Alfred McCully.

She had been employed with the Plum Creek Lumber Co. for five years before owning and operating the Trego Service and Country Store for several years.

She was preceded in death by a son, Bobby, in 1977, and a daughter, Pamela, in 1980.

She is survived by her husband, Alfred, in the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls; three sons, Bud and Pat, both of Trego, and Mike of Eureka; a daughter, Mrs. Stanley (Barbara) Frost of Eureka; three stepsons, Alfred McCully Jr. in Florida, Sam of Troy and Vernon of Libby; a step-daughter, Mrs. Harold (Francis) Stanton of Troy; 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Graveside services for Mrs. McCully will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services. Friends and relatives may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until noon Saturday.

Margaret McDowell, 49

23 May 1983
Margaret J. McDowell, 49, Whitefish, died Monday morning in the Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born March 24, 1934, in Whitefish, a daughter of Robert and May Hines. She was raised and educated in Whitefish.

On March 31, 1951, she married Richard C. McDowell in Whitefish.

She was a member of the Moose Home in Whitefish and the Eagles Lodge in Kalispell.

Mrs. McDowell is survived by her husband, Richard, at the family home in Whitefish; two sons, Brian and Leon both of Whitefish; two daughters, Mrs. Patricia Hedrick, Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and Carla McDowell, Whitefish; four grandchildren; her mother, May Hines, Whitefish; a sister, Donna Bastrom, Whitefish, and numerous other relatives.

Rosary will be recited Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated Thursday at 10 a.m. in the St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish with the Rev. John Robertson as celebrant. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens, Kalispell.

24 Feb. 1983
Floyd L. McElroy, 70

Floyd L. McElroy, 70, formerly of Kalispell, died in Tempe, Ariz., Thursday.

He was born Jan. 6, 1913, in Iona Lakes, Minn., a son of George and Margaret McElroy. He moved to Montana with his family and graduated from high school in Broadview. He began cement work and finishing work in the Billings area.

On Aug. 13, 1934, he married Ida Ridenour in Shelby.

During World War II, Mr. McElroy was employed as a cement finisher in Washington and Oregon. In 1946, he returned to Kalispell where he and his father established the Ready Mix Concrete Co., later associating with Fred Wilken Sr. becoming McElroy and Wilken Ready Mix. Mr. McElroy became disabled in 1972 and retired from business. He moved to Echo Lake until 1982 when he moved to Tempe, Ariz.

He was of the Catholic faith; a member of the Knights of Columbus, and had been a member of the Kalispell Lions club.

He is survived by his wife, Ida, at home in Tempe; a daughter, Arlene Adkins, Homer, Alaska; a brother, Joe McElroy, Missoula; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Rosary will be recited in the Johnson Chapel at 8 tonight. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Risen Christ Parish with the Father Gary Reller as celebrant. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

6 Oct. 1983
HELENA — McGUIRE, Mary L., 79, died Thursday at her home after an extended illness. Rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Sunday at the Hagler Chapel. Funeral Mass will be 11 a.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church, with burial in Resurrection Cemetery. Born in 1903 in Lohrville, Iowa, she moved with her family to Ringling as a young girl. In 1922, she married Jay Frank McGuire in White Sulphur Springs. He died in 1971. Survivors include three sons, Jim, Helena; John, Clancy, and William, Missoula; two daughters, Mrs. Dick (Sally) McEldery, Dillon, and Mrs. Orville (Katy) Dodge, Helena; two brothers, E.J. Elliott and Matthew Elliott, both in California; two sisters, Yvette Kopf, in California, and Catherine Bartholomew, Salt Lake City, 19 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Joe McElroy 8 Nov 1983

Joe "Blackie" McElroy, 68, 1020 8th Ave. N., died Tuesday at a local hospital after a long illness.

He was born in Colgate, Okla., and was raised and educated in that state. After moving to Great Falls in 1937, McElroy worked for the Great Northern Railway and later for the Anaconda Co.

In 1941, he married Melba Taconette in Cascade.

He became a Snap-on Tools distributor in 1960, and later went to work for the City of Great Falls as a maintenance man and for the Cascade County road department, retiring in 1977.

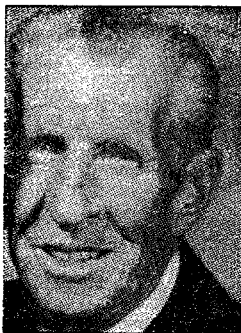

He was a basketball coach for Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Mary's schools, and was active with the Big Sky Gymnastics Booster Club until his illness.

Survivors include his wife, Great Falls; a daughter, Loretta Carlson, Great Falls; a son, Gene McElroy, Kalispell; seven grandchildren; a sister, Francis Cogburn, Talihina, Okla.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel, with the Rev. John Linehan officiating. Burial will be at Mount Olivet Cemetery. GF

5 July 1983
CHINOOK — McDORNEY, James D., 81, died Tuesday in a Havre hospital. Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Friday at Edwards Funeral Chapel. Cremation has taken place. Born in Georgia, he moved as a boy to Chicago, where he was schooled and came to Montana in 1930. He worked in construction and was a supervisor of construction at Fort Belknap until retiring in 1973. After that he had lived in Chinook. He married Frances Read in Sandpoint, Idaho in 1968. She survives, along with a daughter, Sheila Saxby, Oakland, Calif.; a stepdaughter, Ruth Burtchett, Havre; a stepson, Fritz Read, Lloyd; seven grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Harold McKerrow

7 Dec 1983 GF

Harold McKerrow
in 1976

Harold F. McKerrow, 71, 2705 5th Ave. N., who had farmed in the Floweree area, died at his home Wednesday morning after an extended illness.

Born in Blue Mound, Mo., he moved to Montana in the spring of 1913 when his family homesteaded near Floweree. He graduated from high school in Fort Benton in 1930 and started farming.

McKerrow joined the U.S. Army in 1942, serving in France and Germany, until he was wounded in January 1945. He left the Army in July 1945 and returned to Floweree, where he farmed until retiring in 1976.

He was a member of the Elks Lodge, Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, and Shriners.

Survivors include his wife, Marie, to whom he was married in March 1948 in Great Falls; two sons, Donald and Dale, both of Great Falls; six grandchildren; two brothers, Walter of Great Falls and Robert; and a sister, Mable McKerrow.

Private graveside service will be held Friday at the family ranch. Croxford and Sons Mortuary is handling arrangements.

Edith McKamey

22 Dec 1983 GF

Edith McKamey

Eden homesteader Edith Marxer McKamey, 97, died Thursday at a local nursing home.

She was born in St. Paul, Minn. and moved with her family to Neihart in 1891 when she was 5 years old. She was the oldest of 14 children born to Joseph and Katherine Marxer, who homesteaded near Eden.

In 1909 she married Leslie McKamey, who was employed by G.A. Colby of Millegan Route. After he died in 1935, she continued to operate the ranch with assistance from her sons until she retired in 1960.

She was a charter member of the Smith River Home Demonstration Club and was an active member of Our Lady of Lourdes Church and its altar society.

She is survived by sons George, Earl and Donald, Milligan Route; a daughter, Mrs. J.C. (Iva) Wells, Great Falls; a brother, Edward; sisters Bertha Beaher, Kathrine Guentner and Mary Marxer, all of Great Falls; Albertine Wellens, Havre, and Tina Woolcock, Kirkland, Wash.; and 18 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Rosary will be 7 p.m. Monday at O'Connor Funeral Home, with funeral Mass at 11:15 a.m. Tuesday at Our Lady of Lourdes Church. Burial will be at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

15 Sep. 1983
MISSOULA — McINTYRE, Judy Ann, 29, died Thursday night in Missoula of natural causes. Memorial services were held Friday at the family home. She was born in Great Falls and was a long-time Missoula resident. She had traveled in Europe and India, and extensively in South and Central America. Survivors include her husband, Dan McIntyre, Missoula; a daughter, Echo May Lee McIntyre, Missoula, and her mother, Margery Grace Veto, Havre.

Kenneth McGuire, 66

Kenneth Lynn McGuire, 66, of Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Saturday Morning following a lengthy illness.

He was born Jan. 26, 1917 in Tuscola, Ill., a son of Lee and Nelda McGuire. As an infant, he moved with his family to Montana and lived on a homestead near Hogland. He received his education there, and in 1935 moved to Polson.

On Jan. 28, 1937, he married Althea Fialka in Kalispell. The couple then moved to Alberton, and later to Missoula, before returning to Kalispell in 1942.

He worked in the auto and mobile home businesses most of his life.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, the Kalispell Elks Lodge and the Eagles Lodge. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and the outdoors in general. He spent the past several winters in Arizona and California.

He was preceded in death by one brother and two sisters.

He is survived by his wife, Althea, at home; one son, William McGuire, Garden Grove, Calif.; three brothers, Donald McGuire, Hogland, Delbert McGuire, Pablo, and Duane McGuire, Seeley Lake; one sister, Mrs. Albert (Lu) Arndt,

5 Nov 1983

Issaquah, Wash.; and two grandsons, Kenneth McGuire, Kent, Wash. and Michael McGuire, Helena.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Joe Lutz and the Rev. William Reid officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials be made to the First Baptist Church. Friends and relatives may call at Johnson Mortuary until 8 p.m. Monday for visitation.

Alice McKeen, 72

11 Feb 1983
WHITEFISH — Alice Marjorie (Gray) McKeen, 72, Whitefish, died Friday in the Pondera Medical Center in Conrad after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Hinkley, Minn., July 28, 1910, a daughter of Pearl and Earl Gray.

She lived in St. Paul, Minn., until she was married to Lowell R. McKeen in 1937. They eventually settled in Whitefish, where they built and operated the Alamak Resort on Whitefish Lake while he worked as a Great Northern railroad engineer.

She was a member of several organizations, including the Royal Neighbors, Fortnightly, Ladies Bridge, Mountain Trails Saddle Club, Whitefish Lake Golf Club and Whitefish Golden Agers. She was an avid equestrian, golfer, skier and swimmer. She was named Whitefish's first "Golden Lady."

She is survived by her husband, Lowell, of Whitefish; a daughter, Diana Lynn Arnot of Conrad; and three grandchildren.

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Burial will be in the Whitefish Cemetery.

Her family suggests that memorials be made to the Whitefish Golden Agers or to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

8 Aug 1983
William McLaughlin, 71

LIBBY — William J. "Tiny" McLaughlin, 71, Libby, died Monday at St. John's Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born July 1, 1912, at Greenwood, Ark., to William and Myrtle McLaughlin. He was raised and educated in Arkansas and Indiana, and in several other locations in the Midwest. He worked in heavy construction in Colorado before serving with the Army during World War II.

After his discharge he again worked as a heavy equipment operator throughout California, Oregon, Washington, Utah and Montana. He came to Libby in 1966 and worked on the Libby Dam project. He retired several years ago.

He was a member of the operating Engineers Union.

Survivors include two daughters, Patricia Roy, Modesto, Calif., and Myrtle Stewart, Portland, Ore.; a sister, Lela Smith, Tacoma, Wash.; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Friday at 10 a.m. at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating; cremation after services.

GF 9 Dec 1983
Bernard McLeaney

Bernard J. McLeaney, 67, was found dead in his room at 100 Central Ave. Friday morning. Authorities said he possibly died sometime Thursday. Death was from natural causes.

Born in Council Bluffs, Iowa on Jan. 11, 1916, he had lived in Montana for a number of years and for more than 15 years was a custodian at the Meadow Lark Country Club. His wife, Jessie, died in 1975.

Services will be Monday at 1 p.m. at the Croxford & Sons Mortuary. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery.

20 Dec 1983
HAVRE — McLAIN, Eugene Loren, 80, died Tuesday in Salem, Ore. Mass will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. in St. Jude's Church. Rosary service will be Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Holland and Bonine Chapel in Havre. Burial will be in the Havre Cemetery. Born in Austin, Minn., he came with his family to Edmore, N.D. when he was a child. In 1913 they moved to a farm north of Chinoook. He and Etta Sticka were married in Havre in June 1925. He worked for the Coca-Cola Co. in Havre, Great Falls and Shelby, then moved to California in 1940, where he worked in the shipyards during World War II. McLain became a building contractor, returning to Havre in 1953, then returned to California in 1960, where he managed tract housing. In 1973 he moved to Salem, where he managed a mobile home park until his retirement. His wife survives with sons Richard, Havre, and Patrick, Kodiak, Alaska; three daughters, Rita Odle, Redondo Beach, Calif.; Donna Davis, Aurora, Colo., and Shirley McCaw, Sunny-mead, Calif.; a sister, Sabina Becker, Silverton, Ore.; and a brother, Camillus McLain, Aloha, Ore.

19 May 1983
JAMES E. McLAUGHLIN

James Edward McLaughlin, Lt. Col., U.S.A.F. (ret), died in Newport News, Virginia on April 28 after a long illness. Jim McLaughlin attended schools in Dixon, Thompson Falls and Bozeman. He was born in Missoula, November 19, 1916, the son of the late Charles and Lillye McLaughlin. He is survived by his wife, Helen M.; son, Dr. James C.; daughters Diane DeWaters and Cindy Voyles, five grandchildren, brother Hugh ("Bud") and sister, Kate Brock. Lt. Col. McLaughlin saw 22 years of service in the U.S. Air Force during World War II and the Korean and Vietnam Wars. Contributions in his memory may be made to the Riverside Cancer Treatment Center, Riverside Hospital, Newport News, VA. 23601. KWA

E. Roy McMillin

E. Roy McMillin, 79, 3101 2nd Ave. S., died Monday in Hampton Bay, N.Y. 10 Oct. 1983

He was born April 19, 1904 in Elwood, Iowa. At age 7 he moved with his family to Ruthven, Iowa and attended school there. He married Winifred F. Hynes in Ruthven in 1928. They moved that year to Waterloo, Iowa. In 1941 they moved to Endicott, N.Y., where he worked for IBM in the manufacturing department. He retired in 1969.

He is survived by his wife, Winifred, Great Falls; sons Bruce R., Mechanicsberg, Pa. and Dr. Philip W., Lake Charles, La.; a daughter, Mrs. James (Joyce) Everett, Hampton Bay, N.Y.; a sister, Bernice LeCocq, Dubuque, Iowa; and brothers Max, Jefferson, Iowa; Lester, Ruthven, Iowa, and Clifford, Ringsted, Iowa.

Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the Chapel of Chimes. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery.

McMillin survivors

E. Roy McMillin, 79, 3101 2nd Ave. S. died Monday in Hampton Bay, N.Y. He had come to Great Falls in 1969 from New York. Survivors not included in an earlier obituary include his son, Dr. Philip W. McMillin, Richmond, Va., and a sister, Seta McMillin, Chicago, Ill. A brother, Max, preceeded him in death. GF

17 Dec 1983
FLAXVILLE — McPHEE, Richard, 22, died in a one-vehicle accident Saturday morning near Plentywood. Rosary will be recited 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Waller Funeral Chapel in Scobey. Services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday in St. Louis Catholic Church in Flaxville, and burial will be in Flaxville Cemetery. He was born in Minneapolis to Elizabeth and Tony McPhee, and was a graduate of Flaxville High School. He worked as a depot agent for Burlington Northern in Medicine Lake. Survivors include his parents in Flaxville; three sisters, Teresa Unruh, Richey, Barbara Lacina, Gwinner, N.D., and Jane McPhee, Flaxville, and two brothers, Roy, Gwinner, and Scott, Flaxville.

10 Nov 1983
BROWNING — MEDINA, Juanita Marie, 3 months old, died Thursday at her home. Her funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the Church of the Little Flower. Burial will be in Willow Creek Cemetery. Surviving are her father, Joe Games Medina Jr., mother Tammy Lynn Running Crane; grandparents Eddie Running Crane, Sam Rideshorse, Dena McNabb, Cecile Rideshorse, Constance Rogers, Parker, Ariz., and Joe Medina Sr., Dallas, Texas; and great-grandparents Penny Running Crane and Roy McNabb Sr.

Lee Meeds 30 Oct 1983

Lee A. Meeds, 70, a former Great Falls resident, died Friday at his home in San Diego, Calif.

He was born in Dillon, and served in the Army Air Corps during World War Two. He married Leola McNett in Great Falls in 1946. A Anaconda Co. employee from about 1947, Meeds retired from that work in 1975, and then moved to California.

Survivors include his wife Leola, San Diego; three step sons, Clarence and Richard McNett of Great Falls, and John McNett, Seattle, Wash.; three brothers, Dave of Monroe, Wash., Henry of Logan, Utah, and Oliver of Dillon; one sister, Mamie Bays, Dillon.