

Carol Cabbage, 44

^{28 Dec 1984}
Carol Ann Cabbage, 44, Evergreen, died Friday morning in Evergreen.

She was born August 10, 1940, in Jerome, Ariz., the daughter of Ruth and Joseph Derrick. Mrs. Cabbage was raised and attended school in the Sedona and Flagstaff area of Arizona.

She married Walter Nelson Jr., on May 12, 1962, at Las Vegas, Nev., and he preceded her in death.

She married Frank Cabbage on Jan. 20, 1969, at Alamogordo, N.M.

Mrs. Cabbage was fond of homemaking, arts and crafts and quilting. She was an avid reader and took great pride in her spoon and thimble collections.

She was a member of the Church of the Valley in Kalispell.

She is survived by three sons, Derek Nelson, Kalispell, Brian Cabbage, Tempe, Ariz., and Kevin Cabbage, San Jose, Calif.; two daughters, Jamie Nelson and Robin Cabbage, both of Kalispell; her parents, Ruth and Joseph Derrick, Sedona; a sister, Barbara Fish, Sedona; ex-husband Frank Cabbage, Kalispell; and numerous other relatives.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Garris Elkins, pastor of the Church of the Valley, officiating. Burial will follow later in the week at Sedona Memorial Park Cemetery in Sedona.

The family has suggested that memorial contributions can be made to the American Cancer Society.

10 Dec 1984 Wayne A. Cady, 43

Wayne A. Cady, 43, died at his home in Coram Monday evening from heart failure.

He was born Dec. 24, 1940, in Walker, Iowa, to Royal and Marie Cady. When he was 10, the family moved to Mellen, Wis., where he was educated.

He married Mary Landry on Sept. 21, 1963, in Mellen.

In 1971 the family moved to Libby where he worked for St. Regis Lumber Co. They moved to Coram in 1977. He worked as a machinist for Plum Creek Lumber Co.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, at the family home in Coram; four sons, Richard, Kenneth and Chuck of Coram, and Peter of Phoenix, Ariz.; his parents, Royal and Marie Cady of Mellen, Wis.; a brother, Dennis Cady of Libby; five sisters; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Kingdom Hall of the Jehovah's Witnesses in Columbia Falls. Dale Bolz will officiate. Cremation has taken place. Van Leuven Funeral Home of Columbia Falls is in charge of local arrangements.

Pete Cadwell, 72

^{28 Dec 1984}
LIBBY — E. P. "Pete" Cadwell, 72, died Thursday after suffering a heart attack at his home in Libby.

He was born July 16, 1911, at Anaconda, and earned a degree in mining engineering at Montana Tech in 1932. He married Grace Greenman on April 25, 1935, in Butte.

He worked as a mining engineer in Chile, Peru and elsewhere in Latin America until he retired in 1977, when he moved to Libby. After retirement he was an avid painter.

He is survived by his wife, Grace, Libby; two daughters, Sue Schneider of Libby and Kane Dewel of Atlanta; a son, David, in Chile; a sister, Pernina Carraher; a brother, Wilford, in Brazil; and five grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Monday at 11 a.m. at the Vial Funeral Home with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Cremation has taken place.

WILLIAM CALBICK

^{12 Sep 1977}
William "Bill" Charles Calbick 84, died September 9 at the Immanuel Lutheran Home of natural causes. He was born Nov. 9, 1899 in Slim Buttes, South Dakota the son of Alma and George Calbick. As a boy, he moved in 1907 with his family to a ranch in Creston, Montana where he resided for the rest of his life. He married Fern G. Stearns October 29, 1924 in Kalispell and they made their home in the Creston area. Bill was an avid hunter and fisherman and thoroughly enjoyed the outdoors. He is survived by his wife at the family home; three daughters: Janet Beebe in Sonora, California; Della Yenne in Salem, Oregon; and Donna Johnson in Bigfork; nine grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Una Halvorson. At the request of Mr. Calbick, no funeral services will be held. Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell.

A.L. CAIN

¹⁹⁸⁴
A.L. "Tex" Cain, 61, died Thursday, Feb. 16 at his home in Hungry Horse. He was born Sept. 2, 1922, in Crowell, TX, to Robert M. and Edna Cain. He was raised and educated in Colorado City, TX. He worked in construction and in various oil fields for many years. On July 6, 1945, he married Fran S. Key in Colorado City. They moved to Kalispell in 1953, and later to the Canyon area. He is preceded in death by two sisters. Survivors include his wife, Fran, Hungry Horse; a son, Michael, Kalispell; two daughters, Shepri Wendlick, Columbia Falls; and Betty Lucero, Grand Prairie, TX; four sisters and three brothers, all in Texas; and 11 grandchildren. Funeral services were Tuesday, Feb. 21 at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Tod Fox of the Canyon Community Church in Coram officiated. Burial with military graveside honors was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

ELSIE CAMPBELL 1984

Elsie L. Campbell, 75, Whitefish, died Tuesday, Jan. 17 at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. She was born Dec. 9, 1908, in Allentown, OH, a daughter of Sanford E. and Bertha Siders. As a young child, she moved with her parents to Columbia Falls where she attended school. She married Forrest Huntsinger on June 29, 1928, in Columbia Falls and they lived in Whitefish a number of years. On Jan. 31, 1953, she married Ralph Campbell at Polson and they lived in various places in the west. In 1956, they moved to Sandpoint, Idaho. In 1960 she was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph, and since 1971 she has resided in Whitefish. She is survived by three nieces, Mary Lou Putnam and June Barnes, both of Whitefish, and Bernice Lohstroh of Spokane, WA, and a number of other relatives. Funeral services were Thursday, Jan. 19, in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Graveside rites and burial were Friday, Jan. 20 at the Pinecrest Cemetery in Sandpoint, ID, under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home. The family suggests memorials to the Whitefish Volunteer Fire Department.

Max Campbell, 77

14 Jan 1984
Max Campbell, 77, of Libby, died Tuesday afternoon of natural causes at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born June 22, 1907, in Lakin, Kan., to Glenn and Della Campbell. In 1918 he moved with his family to Eureka where he attended the Iowa Flats School.

He married Luella Shiflett Feb. 3, 1930, in Kalispell.

Mr. Campbell worked for the Anaconda Co. as a miner in Butte for several years until moving to Libby in 1947. He was then employed by the J. Neils Lumber Co. and later the St. Regis Paper Co. until his retirement in 1972.

He was a member of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union and Libby Masonic Lodge 85.

Survivors include his wife, Luella, Libby; a sister, Gwendolyn Yoppe, Eureka; a brother, Patrick Campbell, Libby; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services is today at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Libby with Don DeShazer officiating. Cremation will follow.

The family suggest memorials to the American Cancer Society, c/o Route 3, Box 869G, Libby, 59923.

G. Cannavina, 69

12 May 1984
Grace H. Cannavina, 69, Kalispell, died Saturday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital of natural causes.

She was born April 13, 1915, at Fielding, Mont., the daughter of Samuel and Anna Rickard. She attended public schools in the Flathead Valley.

On July 3, 1935, she married A.D. "Dave" Cannavina in Cardston, Alberta, and the couple made their home at Glacier National Park, where Mr. Cannavina was assistant chief ranger from 1938 to 1965. Since Mr. Cannavina's retirement in 1965, they had made their home in Kalispell.

Mrs. Cannavina was a member of the Council on Aging and the A.A.R.P.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother and sister, and her husband on Dec. 31, 1981.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Byron (Lois) Randall and a granddaughter, Serena Randall of Kalispell; three sisters, Mrs. Marvin (Elma) Lanfear and Mrs. Gary (Luella) Scott, both of Kalispell, and Mrs. Keith (Rose) Nelson of Denver, Colo., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be at the Weatherford Funeral Home until 8 tonight after which the casket will remain closed.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Thad Butcher, pastor of St. Patrick's Episcopal Church in Bigfork, officiating. Burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the ALERT Foundation or to Crimestoppers.

LELAND CARIE 1984

Leland Carie, 72, died at his home in Kalispell on Thursday, March 1. He was born June 4, 1911, in Unionville, Mo., a son of David and Sarilda Carie. As a child he moved with his family to Harlem, where he received his early education. On March 1, 1933, he was married to Sylvia Bloomer in Havre. Mr. Carie had been a woods worker and during World War II he was employed as a welder at the Kaiser Plant in Portland. He then returned to Kalispell, where he operated "The Fix-it Shop" on South Main street from 1946 to 1948. He then operated his own tie mill business from 1948 to 1955, when he moved to Kila and operated a cattle ranch until 1974. He moved to Polson in 1974, where he ranched until his retirement in 1978 when he returned to Kalispell. He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, J.D. Carie, and a sister, Mildred Evenson. He is now survived by his wife, Sylvia, at home; a son, Donald L. Carie, of Kalispell; three grandchildren; and one nephew, David Evenson. Funeral services were Monday, March 5 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Ron Pierce, pastor of the Swan Chapel officiating. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

James R. Campbell

James R. Campbell, 74, died Thursday, June 7, at Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 12, at 10:30 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church with Rev. James Stewart officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Tom Coghlan, Tom Derryberry Jr., Walt Riggan, L.J. Baker, K.C. Hickok and Don Bauer.

Born April 7, 1910 in Fosston, Minnesota, he was the son of Frand R. and Alice Mary Campbell.

Raised in Fosston, he graduated from Fosston High School in 1928. During World War II, he worked in Longbeach on shipyards and North America Aviation.

On November 28, 1931, he married Alice Jellum at Crookston, Mn.

He came to Glasgow in 1948 where he owned and operated service stations. In 1960, he worked with Civil Service at the Glasgow AFB until 1965. From 1965-1978 he worked at the Hill AFB in Ogden, Utah where he retired. He had lived at Nemont Manor since 1979.

Survivors include his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Ron (Nancy) Fox of Gilbert, Az. Mrs. Tom (Mary Alice) Hickok and Mrs. Don (JoAnn) Pliley both of Glasgow, 10 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one sister, Helen Lucken of Oakland, Cal.

27 Jan 1984
VALIER — CARROLL, Nellie, V. 86, former Valier resident, died in a Spokane, Wash., hospital where she had been hospitalized for several weeks. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Valier Methodist Church. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery. Wyse Funeral Home in Conrad is in charge. Carroll was born west of Dupuyer. In 1905 she moved with her family to Canada for a time, and late settled in Loon Lake, Wash. She returned to Montana in 1916, when her family took up a homestead west of Valier. She married Edward Carroll in 1924 at Valier. She and her husband farmed on Birch Creek Flats west of Valier until his death in 1957. She has lived in Spokane since that time. She is survived by two sons, John Carroll, Roseburg, Ore., Louis Carroll, Valier; four daughters, Olive Armstrong, Choteau, Ethel McNett, Spokane, Elanore White, Devon, and Edna Carroll, Spokane; one brother, Walter Pond, Fallbrook, Calif. and one sister, Mabel Quad, Spokane.

Red Casey

Milton C. "Red" Casey, 75, 626 13th Ave. S. Apt. A-11, died Sunday at a Great Falls hospital. Services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church.

Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery. Rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Tuesday in the O'Connor Memorial Chapel.

Born in Minneapolis, Casey was educated and employed there before he moved to Wolf Point.

He lived in Wolf Point until 1964 when he moved to Chinook, where he lived for a short time before retiring and moving to Great Falls.

In July 1935 he married Della Larouque. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Ann M. Jolliffe, Great Falls, and Cathy Janikula, Great Falls; six grandchildren, one great-grandchild and several brothers and sisters.

Frank Carter

4 Feb. 1984
Graveside services for World War I veteran Frank E. Carter, 92, 1130 17th Ave. S., will be 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Highland Cemetery.

Carter died in a local rest home Saturday.

He was born in Cooperstown, N.D., and moved to Montana in 1911 when he settled at Lothair. He served in the military during World War I.

He farmed at Lothair until 1925, when he moved to Great Falls. He worked various jobs while in Great Falls.

Carter is survived by a nephew, Earl Wallace, three nieces, Mrs. Edward (Hazel) Becker, Mrs. Elber (Helen) Morris, and Mrs. Richard (Alice) Bley, all of Great Falls.

Rudolph Challenger

2 Jan. 1984
Rudolph Wendall "Wendy" Challenger, 55, a Boulder, Colo. contractor who formerly lived in Great Falls, died Monday of a heart attack at his home in Boulder. Services will be 1 p.m. Thursday in Boulder, with the Howe Mortuary in charge. He will be buried with military honors.

Born in Great Falls, Challenger attended schools in this city and Seattle. He served in the Navy, and in 1950 married Viola Lazure in Great Falls. Employed with the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. at that time, he later worked at the Great Falls Tribune before leaving for Colorado about 18 years ago.

Challenger is survived by his wife, Viola Lazure Challenger, Boulder; a son, Wendall Rudolph, Boulder; a daughter, Gloria Sanford, Seattle, Wash.; a sister, Primrose Friedman, Sante Fe, N.M.; and four grandchildren.

25 5 1984
Mary Carlson, 99

TROY — Mary A. Carlson, 99, a long-time rural school teacher in Montana, died Tuesday at Community Nursing Home in Missoula.

She was born July 13, 1885, at Salem, Mass., to John and Elizabeth McMurtrey. She spent her early childhood at Salem, and taught school there at the age of 16. She came to Montana where she graduated from high school in Helena. Following her graduation, she taught school at Marysville.

She married Leland B. Taylor on May 14, 1911, at Shelby. The couple homesteaded near Shelby until coming to the Troy area in 1919. They homesteaded near Savage Lake, where she taught school in the Yaak area, and her husband taught at Schoolhouse Lake and Lake Creek. They continued to live near Troy until moving to Missoula in 1939.

She taught school in the Hutterite Colonies near Augusta and Lewistown and later on Indian reservations near Havre and Heart Butte. She also taught in rural schools in Sanders County and in Nevada, making her home during the summer in Missoula, where she and her husband studied at the University of Montana.

They later resided in Garfield County, where she taught school near Cohagen until her husband's death in May 1955.

She retired in 1955 and returned to Missoula where she had since made her home.

In 1957, she married Kyle Jones and the couple continued to live in Missoula. He preceded her in death several years later.

She then married George Carlson in 1973 in Missoula, and he preceded her in death in 1976. She was also preceded in death by a son, Harold Taylor, who was killed in action during World War II.

She was a member of the First Church of Christ Scientists, Missoula, and the Mother Church, First Church of Christ Scientists, Boston, Mass.; the Sojourners Club of Missoula; and a charter member of the Missoula Senior Citizens Center.

She is survived by two sons, Leland "Ben" Taylor, Albuquerque, N.M., and Tom Taylor, Ekalaka; four daughters, Natalie Manicke, Whitefish; Dorothy Albertson, Chico, Calif.; Hallie Weydemeyer, Fortine; and Atlanta Manicke, Libby; numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Libby with Valarah Johnson as Christian Science Reader.

Burial will be in Milnor Lake Cemetery.

Clyde Carpenter

LIBBY — Clyde L. Carpenter, 58, Libby, died Wednesday afternoon at St. John's Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born Jan. 13, 1926, at Lander, Wyo., to Robert and Esther Carpenter. He was raised and educated at Lander, then served in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

On Dec. 23, 1946, he married Alice Ware in Columbus, Mont. He worked in the oilfields in Wyoming and eastern Montana, then in 1954 moved to Libby, where he worked as a sawyer and later as a mechanic for the J. Neils Lumber Co. and St. Regis Paper Co. until retiring due to ill health in 1961.

He belonged to two Masonic lodges, serving as past master of Troy Lodge 126, and as chaplain of Libby Lodge 85, where he most recently was senior deacon.

He also belonged to the Scottish Rite, Algeria Temple, Kootenai Valley Shrine Club, Kootenai Valley Clowns, Libby Chapter 69 of the Order of the Eastern Star, Troy Chapter 88 of OES, the American Legion, Disabled American Veterans and Round Butte Grange No. 126 at Ronan.

He survived by his wife, Alice, Libby; six daughters, Janice Hardy, Travis Air Force Base, Calif., Cathy Mills, Livingston, Bobbie Ferguson, Pahlequah, Okla., Deanna Greenwood, Elgin, Ore., Connie Dexter and Alice Lauer, both Libby; two sons, Delbert, Camp Pendleton, Calif., and Clyde L. Libby; four brothers, Marvin, Tacoma, Wash., Louis, Lander, Joe, Casper, Wyo., and Kenneth, Lake Havasu City, Ariz.; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Vial Funeral Home chapel in Libby with Pastor Charles Couch officiating. Burial with military honors will be at the City of Libby Cemetery. Masonic graveside rites will be conducted by Troy Lodge 126 and Libby Lodge 85.

Memorials may be made to the Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, N. 820 Summit Blvd., Spokane, Wash. 99201.

16 Apr 1984
Edith Carrier, 86

Edith M. Johnston Carrier, 86, died Monday at Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

She was born Aug. 8, 1897, in Rockport, Ill., to James and Ella House.

She was raised and educated in Clinton, Mont., where she lived for many years.

She married John E. Johnston on April 25, 1918, in Clinton and they moved to Missoula in 1960. Mr. Johnston preceded her in death in November 1970.

In 1971 she moved to the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls where she resided until the time of her death.

She married Abe Carrier in 1973 in Columbia Falls.

She served in the Army from 1944 to 1945 and was a member of the Veterans of World War I Barracks No. 835 in Missoula.

She is preceded in death by a daughter and a sister.

She is survived by her husband, Abe, at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls; a son, Bud Johnston of Polson; a daughter, Alice Noack, address unknown; seven grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren.

Services will be 10 a.m. Monday at Montana Veterans Home Chapel in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Howard Hunter of the United Methodist Church in Columbia Falls officiating. Graveside service 3 p.m. Monday at Sunset Memorial Gardens in Missoula. The Rev. Hugh Herbert of the First United Methodist Church will officiate.

Visitation will be Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

29 May 1984
Donald Carroll, 64

LIBBY — Donald Carroll, 64, Libby, died Tuesday afternoon near Libby of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

He was born April 3, 1920, in Holcombe, Wis., the son of James and Liza Carroll. He was raised and educated in Holcombe.

He served in the Army during World War II from 1941 to 1945. He served in the Pacific theater and then was stationed in the United States until receiving his honorable discharge.

He moved to Montana in 1956 and was employed by the U.S. Forest Service in the Bob Marshall Wilderness Area. In 1963 he moved to Libby where he was employed by the St. Regis Lumber Co. until his retirement in 1982.

He married Esther Paulson on Feb. 3, 1967, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Survivors include his wife Esther Libby; four stepdaughters: Roberta Bower, Melbourne, Fla.

Nancy Hicketier, Cornell, Wis.; Diane Lang and Rebecca Paulson, both of Eau Claire, Wis.; five stepsons, Larry Paulson and Robert Paulson, both of Cornell; Lynn Paulson, Dodge City, Kan.; Thomas Paulson and David Paulson, both of Libby; four sisters: Eliza Glenn, Holcombe; Olive Funnemark, Madison, Wis.; Wilma Glenn, Marshfield, Wis.; and Wanda Foster Gilman, Wis.; three brothers: James Carroll, Jr., Holcombe; Levi Carroll, Alexandria, La.; and Robert Carroll, Cornell; and 32 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Libby with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Burial with military honors will be in the City of Libby Cemetery.

30 Aug 1984
Jesse Carter, 84

LAKE SAN MARCOS, Calif. — Jesse "Nick" Carter, 84, died Aug. 30 in San Marcos, Calif.

He was a 1921 graduate of Annapolis Naval Academy and retired as a rear admiral in the U.S. Navy in 1950 after 33 years of service.

He was a member of the Military Order of World Wars and the Sons of the American Revolution.

His wife, Elsie, is the former Elsie Brust Montgomery, who lived in Kalispell for 64 years before moving to California in 1974.

He is survived by her and a sister, Maxey Reeves of McKinney, Texas.

Graveside services with full military honors were held at Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Va.

The family requests donations to the American Cancer Society or the Navy Family Relief Fund in lieu of flowers.

13 Mar 1984
Grace E. Casey, 91

Grace Eugenia Casey, 91, died Tuesday morning in Flathead County Nursing Home where she resided since 1977.

She was born Sept. 10, 1892, in Del Rapids, S.D., a daughter of Edgar and Nellie Taylor. She received her education in South Dakota, and moved to the Flathead Valley in 1909.

She married A.J. Casey in Kalispell in 1914.

She continued to live in Kalispell until World War II, when she moved to Portland, Ore.

She is preceded in death by a brother, Ray Taylor.

She is survived by a daughter Rae Marie Casey Severson of Kalispell; a twin sister, Gertrude Halley of Whitefish; two grandsons, Michael McCarter of Salem, Ore. and Jack Severson of Portland, Ore.; eight great-grandchildren; and a sister-in-law, Alta Taylor of Kalispell.

Graveside services will be at 2 p.m. Friday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. Ray Pierson, pastor of the Central Bible Church, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services. Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

MARGARET CASEY

1984

Mrs. Margaret Yates Casey, 78, died on Friday, March 2 at the Immanuel Lutheran Home where she has resided since October of 1983. She was born July 6, 1905, in Havana, Ill., a daughter of Thomas and Marie Yates. The family moved to Montana where Mrs. Casey was raised in the Proctor and Niarada areas. In the 1920's and 1930's she had lived at Polson, and later moved to Kalispell, and was employed in the East Side Grocery. On May 15, 1940, she was married to A.J. "Jack" Casey in Polson. They made their home at Foy's Lake and operated the Casey's Radio Shop in Kalispell until retiring in 1962. Mrs. Casey was preceded in death by her husband, Jack, on September 12, 1971. She lived at Foy's Lake before moving to Polson for five years before entering the Immanuel Lutheran Home. She is now survived by a step-daughter, Rae Marie Severson of Silverton, Ore., and a niece, Carol Whitlow, of Morton, Wash. Funeral services were Tuesday, March 6 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Charles C. Casperson

Charles C. Casperson, 84, died Sunday at a Libby hospital. Memorial services will be 3 p.m. Thursday, June 28, at the Christ Lutheran Church in Libby. Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the First Lutheran Church in Glasgow. Burial will follow in Highland Cemetery there under the direction of Bell Mortuary.

He was born in Walcott, N.D. where he was educated. He later attended Dakota Business College in Fargo, N.D. He married Irene Herty in 1924. She preceded him in death in 1958. He joined the J.C. Penney Co. in Whitefish and was later transferred to Conrad, where he was store manager for 17 years. He moved to Polson, where he operated a shoe store until moving to Dillon. In 1958, he was appointed manager of the F. A. Buttrey store in Glasgow until resigning in 1961 to become lay administrator of the First Lutheran Church in Glasgow. In 1969, he was appointed by the Rocky Mountain District of the American Lutheran Church to serve as lay pastor in the district whenever a vacancy occurred. He began serving Christ Lutheran Church in Libby in June 1981.

He is survived by one son, Robert of Libby; one daughter, Phyllis Myer of Pittsford, N.Y.

Rev. Everett Cecil

June 9, 1984

Everett L. Cecil, senior pastor of Kalispell's Central Christian Church in 1972-1979, died in Eugene, Ore. on June 9, just four days after he was given an honorary doctorate of divinity by Northwest Christian College.

A 1951 graduate of Northwest Christian College, he earned another degree at the University of Oregon two years later, then earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Pacific School of Religion. He later attended the University of Uppsala, Sweden, California State University at Long Beach and was working on a doctorate through Boston University when he died.

Aside from his ministry in Kalispell, he served pastorates at Oregon State University and in Beaverton, Ore.; Salt Lake City; San Pedro, Calif.; and Bozeman.

While in Kalispell he taught at Flathead Valley Community College, served as moderator of the Christian Churches of Montana, was chairman of the Montana Ecumenical Ministries Program and was involved in the senior citizens' nutrition program.

In other places he was a drug abuse counselor and served with various ecumenical organizations.

He is survived by his wife, Lorraine, in Eugene and by two sons, Andrew and Matthew.

A memorial fund in his honor has been established at the Central Christian Church in Kalispell.

Kenneth Cave, 48

JUNEAU, Alaska — Kenneth W. Cave, 48, died April 17 in Juneau, Alaska.

1984

He was born April 23, 1935, in Kalispell, a son of Francis and Adeline Cave. He attended school in Kalispell and graduated from Flathead High School in 1953.

He moved to Washington where he worked as a surveyor in construction before moving to Alaska.

He was preceded in death by his father and two sisters.

He is survived by his wife, Donna, at the family home in Sitka, Alaska; two sons, Scott and Mark Cave of Spokane; a daughter, Cynthia, also of Spokane; his mother, Adeline Loraas of Kalispell; two brothers, John of Puyallup, Wash., and Steve of Kalispell, and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Kalispell.

Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Tony Challinor, 16

LIBBY — Anthony (Tony) Challinor, 16, died Thursday evening at Deaconess Hospital in Spokane, of injuries received July 12 in a vehicle accident in Libby.

He was born Feb. 1, 1968, in Libby to Chuck and Chris Challinor. He grew up in Libby and completed his sophomore year at Libby Senior High School in June. He participated in Libby Logger football and AAU wrestling.

He is survived by his parents in Libby; a sister, Tanya, also of Libby; and his grandparents, Alice Challinor and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bitterman, all of Libby.

Services were today at the Vial Chapel Funeral Home in Libby with the Rev. Charles Couch of the Libby Christian Church officiating. Burial was in the City of Libby Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Libby High School Athletic Boosters Club, Route 3, Box 940, Libby, MT 59923.

27 Aug 1984 Clarence Chasse, 79

Clarence H. Chasse, 79, Kalispell, died Monday in Salem, Ore. while visiting his daughter.

He was born Nov. 19, 1904 in Cut Bank. He lived in Kalispell until moving to Portland in 1939. In Portland he was employed as a heavy equipment operator for Bonneville Power Administration. He returned to Kalispell in 1971 when he retired.

He was a member of Kalispell Elks Lodge, the Operating Engineers Local 701 and St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Aurice, on March 4, 1974.

He is survived by three sons, J. Dennis Chasse of Brockport, N.Y., Raymond Joseph Chasse of Studio City, Calif. and James P. Chasse of Beaverton, Ore.; four daughters, Rosemary T. Bowen of Salem, Ore., Juliana M. Kosovich of Portland, Maureen McCrae of Kingsville, Texas, and Elizabeth Clair of Tokyo, Japan; three sisters, Elizabeth Marshall of Kalispell, Margaret Flowers of Lodi, Calif., and Eva Waters of Sacramento, Calif.; 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Rosary will be 7:30 p.m. Friday in Johnson Chapel. Mass of the Resurrection will be 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Edmund Smith as celebrant. Burial in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

3 Feb 1984 Gerald Chase, 50

Gerald Elwin Chase, 50, died Friday at his home, 348 Jaquette Road, Kalispell, following a lengthy illness.

He was born May 25, 1933, in Usk, Wash., a son of Ralph and Thelma Chase.

He graduated from Washington State University and did graduate work at several other universities. He taught school in Moses Lake, St. John, and George, Wash., before coming to Kalispell, where he taught at Kalispell Junior High School until spring 1983.

He served in the Army during the Korean Conflict, and was honorably discharged in 1955.

On May 29, 1960, he married Sharon Lynne Harris in Endicott, Wash.

He was a past member of the National Education Association, the Montana Education Association, the Kalispell Federation of Teachers, and the Back Country Horsemen.

Survivors include his wife, Sharon, Kalispell; his mother, Thelma, a son, Joe, and daughter, Susan, all of Kalispell; a sister, Joyce McKim, Washington, D.C.; a brother, Terry, of McGrath, Alaska; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. Feb. 12, in the First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Odin A. Baugh officiating. The body has been cremated.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Flathead Hospice, P.O. Box 1532, Kalispell, or to Cancer Research, P.O. Box 1002, Kalispell.

Johnson Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Oct 1984 Aubrey Chaplin, 80

VISALIA, Calif. — Aubrey Lester Chaplin, 80, died of a heart attack in Klamath Falls, Ore., while enroute home from a visit in Montana and Oregon.

He was born Sept. 22, 1911, in Pony, Mont.

In 1932 he married Iris Burns of Columbia Falls.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Norma Jean Hornstad of Visalia, Calif.; a sister, Jennebella Leach of San Luis Obispo, Calif.; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Graveside rites were Oct. 25 in Visalia, Calif.

19 Jan 1984 Beulah Childs

LIBBY — Beulah Childs, 65, died Wednesday of cancer at Deaconess Hospital in Spokane.

She was born Oct. 1, 1918, in Grass Range to Perry and Ada Johnson. As a child she lived in Alberta for 12 years, and attended grade school there before coming to Kalispell, where she graduated from Flathead County High School.

She attended the Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Spokane, graduating as a registered nurse in 1943. During World War II she was a U.S. Navy nurse in Bremerton, Wash.

On Oct. 19, 1947, she married Roland Childs in Spokane. That year she began working as a nurse at Libby General Hospital. She later spent 25 years at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

She was a member of the American Nurses Association, the Kootenai Valley Nurses Association, the First United Methodist Church and the Women of the Moose.

Survivors include her husband, Roland, Libby; a son, Michael Frenchtown; two daughters, Leslie Spain, Libby, and Bonnie Schultz, Spokane; a sister, Carmen Peterson, Spokane, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Robert Griley officiating. Burial will follow in the Libby city cemetery.

Friends may call at the Vial Funeral Home today from 1-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. and until noon Monday.

The family suggests memorials to the Kootenai Valley Nurses Association Scholarship Fund, Route 2, Box 56, Libby 59923.

25 Jan 1984
Clyde Champagne

Clyde Louis Champagne, 25, 913 2nd Ave. N., died Wednesday at a local hospital of apparent natural causes, Deputy Coroner Dick Donovan said. Champagne had fought with a cousin, but a preliminary autopsy showed the fight did not cause his death, authorities said. Rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Sunday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel. Services will be 2 p.m. Monday at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, with burial at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Born in 1958 in Havre, he went to school there and attended high school and vo-tech in Butte. He then moved to Spokane, Wash., where he attended school to become a bank teller. He returned to Great Falls two years ago. He was a member of the Catholic Church.

Survivors include his father, Gabriel Champagne, Spokane; his mother, Barbara Berger, Great Falls; sisters Irene Frye, Iris Champagne, Laura Berger and Linda Berger, all of Great Falls; Christine Champagne, Butte; Rosalie Berger, Warm Springs, and Cindy and Gabriella Champagne, both of Spokane; one brother, John Berger, Great Falls; and a grandmother, Irene Bachmeier, Butte.

4 Feb. 1984
Helena dies

HELENA (AP) — The body of a Helena man was discovered Sunday morning after his pickup truck went into Lake Helena sometime Saturday night.

The Highway Patrol said Robert J. Clampitt, 36, died when his truck struck a bridge and then went into the lake.

The accident occurred at the causeway of the Lake Helena Road, and Clampitt was the vehicle's only occupant, the patrol said.

Montana now has 25 traffic fatalities on the year, compared with 23 on Feb. 6, 1983.

19 Feb. 1984
GERALDINE — CHRISTENSEN, Walter F. (Bud), 62, died Sunday morning in a Great Falls hospital after a short bout with cancer. Funeral mass will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at St. Margaret's Catholic Church in Geraldine. Rosary will be Monday at 7 p.m. at the church. Burial will be in the Geraldine Cemetery. He was born in Spirit Lake, S.D., where he was raised. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps in World War II in the South Pacific. He moved to Montana in 1966. He worked on farms in the Geraldine, Geysler and Havre areas, and was self-employed in the last few years. Survivors include two sons, Leon of Philadelphia, Miss., and Lyle of Dallas, Texas; one daughter, Shirley Ann Pate, of Tucson, Ariz.; one brother, Lane of Malallo, Ore.; two sisters, Lorraine Hegdahl of South San Francisco, Calif., and Rosemary COUNTER of Sioux Falls, S.D. Benton Funeral Home of Fort Benton is in charge of arrangements.

27 Jan 1984
BROWNING — CLAYBORN, Elaine Marie, 33, died in Great Falls Friday following a brief illness. Rosary will be recited 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Eagle Shield Center. Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Little Flower Parish in Browning. Burial will be at the Schildt Cemetery. She graduated from Browning High School and married Donald Clayborn in 1969 in Harlem. He is the state Indian Affairs coordinator. In 1974, she received a degree from the University of Montana in elementary education. In 1975, she received a master's degree from the University of South Dakota. In 1978 and 1979 she was Indian Studies coordinator for Harlem Public Schools. She was assistant professor of Native American Studies 1979 to 1981 at the University of Montana. She was designated an Outstanding Young Woman of America in 1982. She also designed Indian clothes and had a style show in the 1974 World's Fair in Spokane. She is survived by her husband, Donald, Helena; three daughters, Michelle, 13, Kacey, 10, and Dannai, 6; parents, Dan and Jewell Gilham, East Glacier; sisters, Roberta Adams, Harlem; Paula Slyker, Rocky Boy; Linda Lucke, East Glacier, and Stacy Gilham and Shonnie Gilham, both of East Glacier; four brothers, Ronald Gilham, Harlem, and Dan Gilham Jr., Greg Gilham and Clarence Gilham, all of Browning.

Lorraine
Christianson

30 May 1984
Lorraine Christianson, 59, died Wednesday, May 30, in Valley View Nursing Home.

Funeral services were held Saturday, June 2, at 10 a.m. in Bell Chapel with Fr. Greg Staudinger officiating.

Burial was in Grandview Cemetery in Saco with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements. Serving as pallbearers were Rocky Malina, Daniel Merhouse, Harold Holan, Bill Wirtzberger, John Ramsbacher and Ken VanGrinsven.

The daughter of Joseph and Trace Wirtzberger, she was born September 20, 1924 in Westby, Mont. She was raised in Westby and loved hunting and fishing. She had lived in Northeastern Montana since 1950.

She is survived by one brother, Robert Wirtzberger of Burbank, Wash.

She was preceded in death by three brothers.

Guy Clifford

Guy Clifford, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Clifford of Helena, died March 15 while undergoing heart surgery in London, England, 1984.

Funeral services are slated in Helena with graveside services at 10 a.m., Saturday, in Hinsdale. Elder Manson Bailey will officiate.

In addition to his parents, the youth is survived by a sister, Megan, 1, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Les Irish of Helena, former Hinsdale residents.

Nov 10 1984
Cecil Chrisinger, 75

Cecil W. Chrisinger, 75, Somers, died at home Friday morning.

An independent insurance agent for most of his life, he was well-known as a singer during his college days.

He was born to Guy Lee and Bessie Cora Chrisinger on Sept. 22, 1909, in Jerome, Iowa, but soon moved to Kalispell. He graduated from Flathead County High School, then attended Inter Mountain College, now Rocky Mountain College. He won the statewide Atwater Kent Award for his singing talents.

From 1925 until 1960 he was in the National Guard, serving on active duty in the U.S. Army during World War II.

On Feb. 27, 1942, he married Elizabeth Ballard in Seattle.

He was a member of St. Anne's Catholic Church of Somers.

Surviving are his wife, at home; a daughter, Connie Dutton of Libby; a son, Cecil, of Lewiston, Idaho; two brothers, Raymond and Chester, both of Kalispell; a sister, Wilma Gilberg of Spokane; and 13 grandchildren. One sister preceded him in death.

Rosary will be recited Monday at 7 p.m. in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. Anne's Catholic Church with the Rev. William Morley as celebrant. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

CLARA CHRISTENOT 1984

Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Christenot, 62, of Kalispell, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on Tuesday, March 20. She was born April 19, 1921, in Kalispell, a daughter of George and Elsie Stubbs. She had received her education in Kalispell, and on June 10, 1939, she was married to Harry E. Johnson in Polson. She had been employed in the shipyards in Seattle during World War II, and from 1950 to 1964, she was employed at Phil's Silver Grill. On May 6, 1966, she was married to Charley G. Christenot in Bonners Ferry, Idaho, and was preceded in death by him on February 2, 1975. She had been employed at the Outlaw Inn for several years prior to her retirement in 1982. She is now survived by two sons, Richard D. Johnson of Milton-Freewater, Ore., and Harry W. Johnson of Kalispell; two daughters, Diana Adams of Columbia Falls, and Glenda Dulceth of Missoula; two brothers, Bob Stubbs of Kalispell, and Glenn Stubbs of Libby; two sisters, Mona Croucher of Alaska, and Elsie Holcomb of Kalispell; 10 grandchildren and several great grandchildren. Graveside services were Friday, March 23 in the Fairview Cemetery with the Rev. Jerome Jackson, pastor of the Community Alliance Church officiating. The Johnson Mortuary handled arrangements.

JENS CHRISTENSEN 15 Aug 1984

Jens N. Christensen, 92, died Aug. 11 of natural causes at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls. He was born September 14, 1891, in Aarhus, Denmark, the son of Morton and Berdel Christensen. He moved with his parents to Columbia Falls at age 14. His parents returned to Denmark after several years, but he and his brother remained in the Flathead Valley and joined the U.S. Army in 1917. After his discharge in 1919, he returned to the Flathead, where he logged and ranched the rest of his life.

On June 27, 1930, he married Susan Coram in Libby, and she preceded him in death in 1977. He was also preceded in death by a son and his brother. Surviving are two sons, Martin Christensen of Pablo and Morton Christensen of Kalispell; one daughter, Mrs. John (Marie) Day of Somers; 12 grandchildren and numerous other relatives. Private graveside services have been conducted at Glacier Memorial Gardens under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home.

3 Oct 1984
Vivian May Christensen, 56

Vivian May Christensen, 56, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Wednesday evening.

She was born Sept. 28, 1928, in Kalispell, a daughter of James L. and Lois A. Gleason. She attended Kalispell schools and graduated from Flathead County High School.

On July 25, 1962, she married Lawrence Christensen in Polson. The couple lived in Ronan until 1976, when they moved to the Creston area.

She was a member of the Bigfork Chapel Assembly of God.

She is survived by her husband, Lawrence, and son, Scott, at the family home; a daughter, Laurie Huntsman of Kalispell; two children by a previous marriage, Mark Kvaalen and Connie Walsh, both of Kalispell; two brothers, Rod Gleason of Kalispell, and Bob Gleason of Wenatchee, Wash.; two sisters, Lois Burrell of Kalispell, and Doris Reynolds of Hot Springs; four grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 3:30 p.m. Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Dennis Masters of the Bigfork Chapel officiating. Burial will be in Lonepine Cemetery near Bigfork.

LOUIS CISZ 24 Oct 1984

Louis J. Cisz, 67, Woods Bay, died Oct. 19 at Kalispell Regional Hospital of natural causes. He was born Nov. 8, 1916 in Chicago, Ill., the son of Anna Cisz Odich. As a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC), he moved to Kemmerer, Wyoming in 1940. He married Jane Oakley on Nov. 8, 1940. After an honorable discharge from the U.S. Army in 1945, they made their home in Kemmerer until 1980. Upon his retirement from Utah Power and Light Company in 1980, they moved to Woods Bay. Surviving besides his wife Jane at the family home are two sons, Louis J. of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Gary J. of Phoenix, Ariz.; two daughters, Carol Anne Johnson of Woods Bay and Jane Strahl of Knoxville, Md.; his mother; two sisters and a brother, all of Chicago, Ill.; three grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews. Private memorial services were Oct. 21 at the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Father Edmund Smith, Pastor of St. Matthews Catholic Church, officiating. Cremation has taken place.

28 Aug 1984
Joseph Clark, 91

Joseph William Clark, 91, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Tuesday morning. He was born April 3, 1893 on a farm west of Kalispell where he lived his entire life. He was the son of Joseph and Bridget Clark. He attended Flathead County High School and the Kalispell Business College. On Oct. 22, 1924, he married Rose E. Marron in Butte. He was one of the first five persons baptized at St. Matthew's Catholic Church and was a lifelong member of the church. He was an avid fisherman and hunter. He is survived by his wife, Rose, at home; two sons, Charles Clark of Kalispell and Francis Clark of Boulder; three daughters, Rose Nielsen, Cathi Clark and Patricia Wendt, all of Kalispell; 16 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren and a cousin, Clara Thomson of Kalispell. Rosary will be recited in Johnson Chapel at 8 tonight. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at noon Thursday in St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Michael O'Neill as celebrant. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggests memorials to Flathead Industries for the Handicapped.

13 Sept 1984
Kate Clark, 83

EUREKA — Kate Clark, 83, Eureka, died Thursday at Kalispell Regional Hospital. She was born March 28, 1901 at Lenoir, N.C., to John and Margaret Bean. The family came to the Tobacco Valley in 1913 and she grew up in Eureka where she married Columbus Clark on March 30, 1917. The couple owned the Tobacco River Lumber Co. in Eureka for many years. She was a longtime member of the First Church of God in Eureka and served as president of the Women's Missionary Society for 20 years. Mr. Clark died in 1956. Mrs. Clark was also preceded in death by a son, Robert, in 1939. Survivors include three daughters, Shirley Witt, Whitefish, June Torres, Gillette, Wyo., and Nancy Stallings, Glendale, Ariz.; two sons, William and Norman Clark, both of Eureka; two sisters, Connie Holder and Alice Triplett, both of Eureka; eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the First Church of God in Eureka with the Rev. Neil Anderson officiating. Burial will be in Tobacco Valley Cemetery under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to Eureka Ambulance, P.O. Box 736, Eureka 59917.

FRANCE CLARIDGE 27 June 1984

France B. Claridge, 81, 1305 4th Avenue East in Kalispell, died at home June 26 of natural causes. A longtime Kalispell resident, he had farmed northwest of Kalispell for 50 years. Mr. Claridge was born February 23, 1903 in Palmer, Neb., the son of Joseph and Carrie Claridge. As a small child, he came with his family to Bismarck, N.D. In 1917, the family moved to the Flathead Valley where they made their home 10 miles northwest of Kalispell. On January 12, 1929, he married Lula Crandall in Kalispell and she survives him at the family home. Also surviving are one son, Loren Claridge of Kalispell; four daughters, Betty Miller, Evelyn Henschel, Marilyn Cartwright, and Verla Miller, all four of Kalispell; 18 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren; one brother, Bernard Claridge of Buena Park, Calif.; four sisters, Grace Christopherson and Vivian Herron, both of Kalispell, Ethel Grosswiler of La Puente, Calif. and Naomi Wolff of Puyallup, Wash. and numerous other relatives. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Lyman Claridge. Visitation is at the Weatherford Funeral Home on June 28 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Funeral services will be June 29 at 2 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home, with the Rev. Jerome K. Jackson, pastor of Community Alliance Church, officiating. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens. The family suggest memorial contributions to the Flathead Hospice Project or the American Cancer Society.

J.D. Clements, 31

^{13 Jan 1984}
James Douglas "Shorty" Clements, 31, Olney, died Wednesday morning as the result of a logging accident near Olney.

He was born June 18, 1952, in Salmon, Idaho, a son of James W. and Betty M. Clements. He was raised, educated and graduated from high school in Salmon.

In 1971 he moved to Olney, where he was employed with American Timber as a sawyer and heavy equipment operator.

He was a member of the Olney Community Church and vice president of the Christian Loggers Association.

He married Susan Peace on Aug. 25, 1973, at Pocatello, Idaho.

He is survived by his wife, Susan, and three sons, Neil, Tyler and David, all of the family home in Olney; his parents James and Betty Clements of Salmon, Idaho; five sisters, Gladys McClearn of Weatherford, Texas; Bonnie Donsbach and Clarissa Schwagel, both of Whitefish, Clarice Hokanson and Fay Ann Clements, both of Salmon, Idaho; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Saturday at the Nazarene Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Steve Ratzlaff of Olney officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

ANDREW CLEVENSTINE

^{8 Aug 1984}

Andrew C. Clevenstine, son of Robert and Libby Stiger Clevenstine of Kila, was stillborn Aug. 7 at Kalispell Regional Hospital. Surviving besides the parents are a brother, Robert Joseph Clevenstine, also at the family home in Kila; maternal grandfather Dennis Stiger of Phoenix, Ariz.; maternal grandmother Linda Stiger of Kila; maternal great grandfather Harold Jenkins of Tuscon, Ariz.; and paternal grandparents Dewey and Sandi Clevenstine of Mesa, Ariz. The family will conduct private memorial services. Arrangements and cremation are by Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell.

James Clowers, 55

CALGARY, Alberta — James David Clowers, 55, Calgary, died Aug. 16, 1984.

He was employed with Western Canada Steel for the past 18 years.

He is survived by his wife, Jessie Clowers, two sons, Lorne and Allan of British Columbia; a daughter, Gwen; and stepson, Gary Golia, both of Calgary; his mother, Lillian Clowers of Whitefish; two sisters, Alice Wesley, Whitefish, and Judy Frinchaboy of Everett, Wash.

He was preceded in death by his father, David, and a brother, Jack.

Funeral services were Aug. 20 in Calgary.

The family suggests donations to the Canadian Cancer Society, 200, 1609 14 St. S.W., T3C 1E4.

Edward Clifford, 81

^{2 Jan 1984}

Edward C. Clifford, 81, Columbia Falls, died Monday evening at North Valley Extended Care in Whitefish.

He was born April 21, 1902, in Dawson County near Poplar to Charles and Sophie Clifford. He was raised and educated near Poplar. He ranched in the area for several years.

He married Mildred Makee in 1934 in Sheridan, Wyo.

He worked as a crane operator on the construction of the Fort Peck Dam and later moved to Seattle, where he worked at various jobs. The couple moved to Columbia Falls in 1951, where he worked for Plum Creek Lumber Co. as an equipment operator.

He is preceded in death by a brother and two grandsons.

He is survived by his wife, Mildred, at the family home in Columbia Falls; a daughter, Helen Larson of Glens Ferry, Idaho; a brother, Albert of Sidney; two sisters, Pearl Chamberlain of Asotin, Wash. and Myrtle Fisher of Sidney; a half-brother, Robert Renz of Poplar; and a half-sister of Washington, D.C.

A graveside service will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Ralph Werner will officiate. Van Leuven Funeral Home of Columbia Falls is in charge of arrangements.

Visitation will be from 1 to 8 p.m. on Thursday at the Van Leuven Funeral Home.

LUCILLE CLYDESDALE

¹⁹⁸⁴

Miss Lucille D. Clydesdale, 59, Bigfork, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on Sunday, Jan. 1, following a lengthy illness. She was born Feb. 5, 1924, in New York City, N.Y., a daughter of Bertha and Thomas Clydesdale. In 1930, she moved with her family from New York to the Kelly and Evans Estate at Kootenai Lodge where she spent her childhood. She had attended grade school in Ferndale, and high school in Bigfork. She was a graduate of the Montana State College in Bozeman, and taught physical education there. She had also earned her masters degree at the Montana State College. She retired in 1973, as assistant professor in physical education. She then had a summer cabin built on Swan Lake where she spent her summers. She spent her winters in Prescott, Arizona since 1980. She is survived by her sister, Valentine Clydesdale of Bigfork, and several cousins in Scotland and France. She was preceded in death by her mother in 1964, and her father in 1968. There will be no services. The body has been cremated and remains will be buried in Lonepine Cemetery near Bigfork.

19 Sept. 1984
Tod Cofer, 15

Tod Cofer, 15, Kalispell, died at home early Wednesday morning after a lengthy illness with cancer.

He was born March 21, 1969 in Vincennes, Ind.,

the son of Steve and Denise Cofer. At the age of 3, he moved with his family to Kalispell and they have resided in the Evergreen area since.

He attended Evergreen schools through the eighth grade and was a sophomore at the Nazarene Christian Academy in Kalispell. He was an honor student and very active in sports. He enjoyed hunting and being in the mountains, and particularly enjoyed the time he spent with his father at the logging camp.

He is survived by his parents and three sisters, Kristine, Sarah and Samantha, all at the family home in Kalispell; parental grandparents, Max and Evelyn Cofer in Bruceville, Ind.; maternal grandparents, Betty and Merlin Anderson in Bicknell, Ind.; great-grandmothers, Mrs. C.W. Bobe in Vincennes, Ind. and Mrs. James Anderson in Freelandville, Ind.; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Visitation will be 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home with the Rev. Roy Jones, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials to Flathead Hospice, P.O. Box 1532, Kalispell, 59901; Montana Hope Project, 2102 W. Broadway, Missoula, 59801; and St. Jude Childrens Research Hospital, Memphis, Tenn. 38103.

20 Apr. 1984
Malina Collins, 78

Malina W. Collins, 78, Columbia Falls, died Friday evening at North Valley Hospital.

She was born May 7, 1905 in Strum, Wis., a daughter of John and Gurina Stone.

She was raised and educated in Columbia Falls. She worked at the Montana Veterans Home from 1920 to 1923 and from 1931 to 1938.

She married Fred C. Collins in November 1938 in Kalispell.

She worked in the shipyards in Seattle from 1941 to 1944. They moved back to Columbia Falls where she lived until the time of her death.

She was a member of Our Saviors Lutheran Church and the Seniors Citizens Center in Columbia Falls.

She is preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters.

She is survived by her husband, Fred C. Collins, at the family home in Columbia Falls; three brothers, Leo Stone and Garfield Stone, both of Spokane, and Clinton Stone of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Gurina Buell and Gladys Greenland, both of Columbia Falls; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Ron Paulson of Our Savior's Lutheran Church will officiate. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Visitation will be until 8 tonight and Tuesday from 10 a.m. until the time of the service.

Martha Collins

Martha Collins, 61, died August 24 in Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital.

Funeral services were held Monday, August 27, at 10 a.m. at Faith Lutheran Church with Pastor Doug Kallesen officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were, Andy Anderson, George Kolstad, Bud Johnston, Hooley Edwards, Curt Hetler and Mike Johnson.

Born August 1, 1923 in Evanston, Ill., she was the daughter of Gustav and Marie Kolm.

She lived in Eau Claire, Michigan until her marriage to Dan Collins on February 13, 1966 in Sodus, Michigan. They then moved to Glasgow.

Survivors include her husband Dan of Glasgow, two sisters, Lillian Hetler of Berrien Center, Michigan and Olga Johnson of St. Joseph, Michigan and one brother, Edward Kolm of Berrien Springs, Michigan.

22 Mar. 1984
Ted Compeau, 78

LIBBY - Ted Compeau, 78, Libby, died of natural causes Thursday at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born July 25, 1905, in Cass Lake, Minn., to Jerome and Lena Compeau. He was raised and educated in Cass Lake and came to Libby with his family in 1924.

He was employed as a sawyer by the J. Neils Lumber Co. and St. Regis Paper Co. for 47 years until his retirement in 1971.

He was a member of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union and was an avid fisherman and hunter.

Survivors include a brother, Jerome Compeau, Libby; a sister, Eva Dickinson, Yakima, Wash. and a niece, Charlotte Dickinson, Yakima.

Graveside services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Friends may call at Vial Funeral Home in Libby from 1 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. today.

^{4 Jan 1984}
CONRAD - COLBY, Edwin, 88, died Wednesday. Services will be Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in the First Presbyterian Church. Burial will follow in Hillside Cemetery with Wyse Funeral Home handling arrangements. Born at Aurelia, Iowa, he moved with his family to a homestead near Scobey in 1908. He attended schools in Scobey and was married there to Estella Hughes in 1918. Colby worked for the Farmers Elevator in Scobey until 1929, when he moved to Fort Benton where he operated the Fathers Elevator until 1944 when he came to Conrad. With partners, Colby operated the Texaco service station in Conrad until his retirement in 1960. His wife survives with two daughters, Mrs. George (Jean) Spicher, Lakeside, and Mary Jane Nelson, Kansas City, Mo.; and a sister, Mabel Roberts, Tucson, Ariz. A daughter, Irene Bennett, preceded him in death.

Anna Carrie Combs 1984

Anna Carrie Combs, 103, died Wednesday, September 26, in Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital.

Services were held Monday, October 1, at 10 a.m. in the First Lutheran Church with Rev. Robert Nilsen officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary of Glasgow in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Dick Combs, Roger Combs, Bob Combs, Dennis Combs, Alvin Combs, Bernard Combs, Gary Campbell and Scott Campbell.

Honorary pallbearers were Glenn Wallem, Ed Woodall and Buster Johnson.

Born in Hamnida, Sweden, on September 30, 1880, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Nord.

She came to the U.S. in 1893 at the age of 12 to Clinton, Minnesota. She and her husband, Elber Allen Combs, whom she married Nov. 27, 1905 in McKinney, N.D., each proved their own land in North Dakota in 1903. He died in 1952. She moved to Nashua in 1909. She was a homemaker and a member of the First Lutheran Church in Glasgow.

J.B. Collins

J.B. Collins, 84, 1601 1st Ave. S., died Saturday in a local hospital after being ill the past three weeks.

He was born in Baywood, Va. and grew up there. After graduating from Radford College in Virginia he taught four years at a junior high school in Independence, Va., then studied mechanical engineering in Kansas City, Mo.

Collins had also worked as an accountant for the Texaco Oil Co. in North Carolina before moving to Montana in 1928.

He and Geneva May Hampton were married at Portage in April 1929. He farmed until the time of his death in the Portage area and was also a building contractor for many years.

A musician who played the fiddle and banjo, Collins was a charter member of the Great Falls Trap and Skeet Club, and served several terms as president of that group, he was a charter member of the Sun River Skeet Club and a life member of the National Rifle Association.

He was president of the Portage Community hall and served many years on the District 72 school board. Collins belonged to First Presbyterian Church in Great Falls, was a 33rd Degree Mason and a Shriner and a member of the Algeria Temple.

His wife survives with a daughter, Mae Carol Zeman, Great Falls; and his brother, W.G. Collins, in Arizona.

Funeral services are pending at Croxford and Sons Mortuary.

Surviving her are two sons, Larry Combs and Edwards Combs, both of Glasgow, three daughters, Ida Sturdevant of Glasgow, Blanch Woodall of Grandview, Idaho, and Laura Campbell of Priest River, Idaho, 17 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by three children.

Penka Coloff

Funeral services for Penka H. Coloff, 81, of Boise, Idaho, will be held Friday in Croxford's Chapel, followed by services in Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery.

Mrs. Coloff died Feb. 24 in Boise. She was born at Slovanova, Bulgaria, and attended high school at Varna, Bulgaria, where she was the only girl in her class.

In February 1929, she and Hugh Coloff were married at Varna. They came to the United States a few weeks after their marriage and to Great Falls that same year, settling on the Westside, where Mrs. Coloff lived for nearly 50 years.

She was a member of Sts. Helen and Constantine Greek Orthodox Church, a charter member of the Westside Home Demonstration Club and the Franklin School Mothers' Chorus.

Her husband died in August 1965. Surviving are two sons, Lawrence Coloff, Puyallup, Wash. and Stanley Coloff, Annandale, Va.; two daughters, Johanna Bulman, Missoula, and Dolores Scott, Boise, and 12 grandchildren.

Ida Conklin

Ida Conklin, 91, who owned a store and movie theatre in Wheeler during the Fort Peck Dam construction, died in Sacramento, Calif., July 1.

Before living at Wheeler, she had been a postmistress in Haxby.

Survivors include two daughters, Joyce and Mabel of Sacramento; a brother, Russell Freestone of Glasgow; and a sister, Maude LaFrance of Canada.

25 Feb. 1984
LEWISTOWN — COOPER, Dorothy Isabelle, 79, died Saturday in a Lewistown hospital. A memorial service will be held Thursday at 10 a.m. in the Cloyd Chapel. Cremation has taken place. Born in Andover, Ohio, she came to Montana at an early age and received her schooling here. In January 1925, she and Paul Cooper were married in Lewistown. Mrs. Cooper had been an active member of First Presbyterian Church. Her husband died in 1981. Surviving are a son, Jerry, of North Hollywood, Calif., and a sister, Katherine Beacham, Vassalboro, Maine.

Ferne Corderman

FERNE CORDERMAN

Mass was read at 9:30 a.m., July 3, for Ferne Etchart Corderman in St. Juliana's Catholic Church in Fullerton, Calif. Mrs. Corderman died at her home in Fullerton June 29. She was 69.

Burial was at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery in Orange. Serving as pallbearers were her four brothers, Gene, Mitchell and Mark Etchart of Glasgow and Dr. Leonard Etchart of Billings, Brian Etchart and Dr. Mitchell Gallagher.

Born June 21, 1915, in Glasgow, Mrs. Corderman was a graduate of St. Catherine's College in St. Paul, Minn. She lived in Fullerton for more than 40 years and was a member of St. Juliana's Catholic Church. She was a personnel representative for Hunt-Wesson Foods in Fullerton where she was employed for 37 years.

Survivors include the widower, Rex; a son, David, of Fullerton; four brothers and three grandchildren.

Among the former Valley County residents attending services there were Paul Etchepare of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Madeline Barth Etchart and her sisters, Jenny.

BERNICE CONINE

Mrs. Bernice Mabel Conine, 80, died on Thursday, Jan. 26 in the Immanuel Lutheran Home where she has resided for the past several months. She was born November 18, 1903, at Ferncy, SD, a daughter of George and Gussie Green. In 1909, she moved with her family to the Flathead. She had attended school in Coram, and graduated from the Flathead County High School with honors in the class of 1922. She worked as a bookkeeper until her marriage to William McKinley on February 20, 1924, in Missoula. The couple then lived on Flathead Lake where Mr. McKinley worked for the Somers Lumber Company, and in 1932 established a dairy business. She was preceded in death by her husband on August 4, 1939. In 1942, she moved to Kalispell and was a bookkeeper for the Farm Security Administration, the Park Service and the Forest Service. On December 8, 1947, she was married to Ralph Conine, and was preceded in death by him on December 2, 1967. Mrs. Conine had been employed as a part-time bookkeeper for the Jet Oil Company from 1960 to 1970. She was preceded in death by a brother, Robert, in 1937; a sister, Mrs. Turner (Ella) Clark, in 1954; her father in 1966; and her mother in 1970. She is now survived by three sons: Kenneth McKinley of Kent, WA, Wallace McKinley of Renton, WA, and Larry McKinley of Supulveda, CA; a daughter, Shirley Sakariason of Renton, WA; three brothers, Charles K. Green of Coram, Donald Green of Big Arm, and Herbert Green of Eureka, CA; four sisters, Ada Baeschlin of Vancouver, WA, Lois Gilchrist of Bonners Ferry, ID, Georgia Peterson of Coram, and Daisy Christensen of Kalispell; 10 grandchildren; seven great granddaughters, and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were Monday, Jan. 30 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Kenneth Pierson, pastor of the Central Bible Church officiating. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Gertrude Conrad, 91

Gertrude L. Conrad, 91, Kalispell, died Sunday afternoon at the North Valley Extended Care Facility in Whitefish of natural causes.

She was born Sept. 10, 1892, in New Painsville, Minn., the daughter of George and Ann Conrad. At age 7, she moved with her family to North Dakota, and received her schooling in Bowbells, N.D. In 1917, she moved to Kalispell with her parents.

She was a seamstress by trade.

She was a member of Epworth United Methodist Church in Kalispell.

She is survived by a sister, Mabel Cameron of Menlo Park, Calif., and four generations of nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be announced at a later date. Arrangements and cremation are by Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell.

POLSON - COPELAND, William D., 87

26 Feb. 1984
former Rocky Mountain College president and a long-time minister in Polson, died Sunday in his home. Services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday in Polson Presbyterian Church with Revs. Michael Turner, Richard Jones and John Dutzar officiating. Burial will be in Lake View Cemetery, Polson. He was born in Denver, and attended schools there. He received B.A. and M.A. degrees from Colorado College in Colorado Springs. He was a World War I Army veteran. On Nov. 8, 1924, he married Evelyn Stannard in Denver. He was on the faculty at Colorado College from 1920 to 1930; in 1930-31, he taught English and attended classes at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass. He received his doctorate in literature from James Milton University in Decatur, Ill., in 1942, and from 1944 to 1946 was president of Lincoln College in Illinois. He moved to Billings in 1946 to assume the presidency of Rocky Mountain College, which had just been formed by the merger of the Billings Polytechnic Institute and the Intermountain Union College. He was ordained as a minister in the Presbyterian Church in 1950, and retired from Rocky in July 1951.

PAUL A. COOPER 29 Aug 1984

Paul Arthur Cooper, 76, 2213 Mission Way N., Kalispell, died Aug. 23 in Kalispell Regional Hospital. He was born January 9, 1908 in Scappoose, Ore. to Pearl and Frederick Cooper. He attended schools in Oregon. He married Juanita Landon May 4, 1935, in Portland, Ore. He worked as a construction superintendent for various construction firms until his retirement in 1974 from the Charles Schmiedeskamp construction company. He and his wife moved to Kalispell in 1978 where they have lived since. He is survived by his wife at the family home. Two daughters: Joyce Trukositz in Boring, Ore. and Gail Halver of Kalispell. He is also survived by five grandchildren. Funeral services were at Colonial Mortuary in Portland, Aug. 27 with the Rev. Doug Radke of the Holly View Baptist Church in Boring, officiating. Burial was at Lincoln Memorial Cemetery in Portland. Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell was in charge of local arrangements.

He became minister of the Polson Presbyterian Church in 1951 and remained in that post until retirement in 1965. He was Rotary International's only three-time district governor, holding the post in Colorado in 1933-34; in Illinois in 1942-43, and in Montana 1960-61. Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Alayne VanDyck, Mercer Island, Wash.; two sons, William D., Golden, Colo., and Robert M., Fort Collins, Colo.; a sister, Edna Lynch, San Mateo, Calif.; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

12 Nov. 1984
W.C. Corbell, 59

LIBBY — William C. Corbell, 59, died of emphysema Monday at his home in Libby.

He was born Feb. 6, 1925, in Amarillo, Texas, where he was raised and educated.

Mr. Corbell served with the U.S. Navy as a radioman during World War II. In 1960 he came to Libby where he was employed by the St. Regis Paper Co. He retired in 1982 because of poor health.

He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion and the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union.

Survivors include his wife, Katie, Libby; a son, William Corbell, Libby; a stepdaughter, Donna McCollom, and a stepson, Mark McCollom, both of Libby; and numerous other relatives.

Graveside services will be conducted 11 a.m. Friday at the City of Libby Cemetery with military graveside rites. Vial Funeral Home in Libby is in charge of arrangements.

6 Mar. 1985
Viva Crasco, 62

LIBBY — Viva Peewee Crasco, 62, Libby, died of cancer Wednesday in a Missoula hospital.

A one-time Columbia Falls resident, she resided most of her life in Libby.

She was born Sept. 28, 1922, in Eureka, Nev., to Frank and Mabel Burton. She moved to Montana as a small child where her family settled in the Swamp Creek area south of Libby. She attended schools at Swamp Creek and in Libby.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Melvin Crasco, in 1976.

Survivors include three sons, Dwaine Martin, Dillon; Bruce Garpsstead, address unknown; and Ronald Parker, Columbia Falls; three sisters, Thida Self, Houston; Grace Emch, Corning, Calif.; and Jackie Averill, Columbia Falls; a brother, Clyde Burton, Libby; and five grandchildren.

Graveside services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home.

Ona Cox, 73

Ona V. Cox, 73, Hungry Horse, died Thursday in North Valley Hospital. 27 Sept. 1984

She was born to Robert and Dora Gross Jan. 24, 1911, in Blaze, Ky., and was raised and educated there. She married Elmo Cox in Blaze on July 23, 1927.

They moved to Middletown, Ohio, in 1930 and lived there until 1973, when they moved to Hungry Horse. Mrs. Cox did upholstery work in her home until recently.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and a son.

Survivors include a son, Samuel, of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Thelma Brown of Blaze and Anna Easterling of Wrigley, Ky.; two brothers, Therman Gross, Middletown, and Walter Gross, Hillsboro, Ohio; six grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Services will be 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Earnest Green of the Hungry Horse Chapel will officiate. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery. Visitation will be from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Monday.

22 Dec. 1984
Irma J. Cree, 78

MISSOULA — Irma J. Cree, 78, Missoula, died of natural causes Saturday in a Missoula nursing home.

She was born Sept. 7, 1906, in Creston, the daughter of Artie E. and Elmer S. Buck. She was raised and attended schools in Creston.

She married Clifford Cree on June 30, 1926, in Kalispell, and the couple moved to Missoula in 1937. Mrs. Cree began working at Big Broadway in 1944 as a clerk, and retired as manager after 28½ years. She was a member of the Retail Clerks Union, Local No. 991.

She is survived by a son, Delmar C. Cree, Kennewick, Wash.; four sisters, Alma M. McKnight, Brewster, Wash.; Ruth A. Hill and Margaret E. Farris, both of Kalispell, and Betty J. Ketron of Missoula; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at Squire Simmons & Carr Funeral Home, Missoula. Cremation and interment will be at Sunset Memorial Park.

The family suggests memorials to the Montana Diabetes Association, Box 2411, Great Falls 59403.

10 June 1984
Dorothy Cramer, 78

Dorothy Victoria Cramer, 78, Kalispell, died in Bigfork Convalescent Center Sunday evening.

She was born Aug. 19, 1907, in Lewistown, a daughter of Frederick and Laura Shafer.

On Jan. 6, 1928, she married Oscar E. Cramer in Winnett. The couple lived in Joplin for a time then on the Moise Bison Range. In 1932, they moved to Kalispell.

Mrs. Cramer was employed by Wilson Cafe and White Star Cafe. She was later employed as a clerk with J.C. Penney Co., Singer Sewing Center, Coast to Coast and the Kalispell Mercantile. During World War II, she worked as a draftsman in the shipyards in Kirkland, Wash.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church, being active in the Vacation Bible School, Ladies Aide Circle and World Wide Guild. She had also been active in the construction of the church doing perfataping and painting.

She was preceded in death by a daughter in infancy; a brother in infancy and another brother, Albert Shafer, in 1977.

She is survived by her husband, Oscar, at the family home; three daughters, Mrs. Lee (Hazel Jean) Hill of Longview, Wash., Mrs. James N. (Shirley Mae) Sutton of Kirkland, Wash., and Rosa Lee Wood of Kalispell; five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. William Reid officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens. The family suggests memorials to the Cancer Fund or the Flathead Hospice. Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

Sarah Crispino

30 Apr 1984
Sarah Marie Crispino, newborn daughter of Michael and Kim Paolini Crispino, died of natural causes Monday at the Ninth Army Hospital in Frankfurt, West Germany.

She was born April 4, 1984, in Frankfurt.

Survivors include her parents, who are stationed in Naples, Italy; her maternal grandparents, John 'Pete' and Jean Peterson, Kalispell; her maternal great-grandparents, Dan and Opal Paolini, Mount Vernon, Wash., and Roy and Effie Olson, Whitefish; her great-great-grandmother, Katie Campbell, St. Croix, Wisc.; her paternal grandparents, Raymond and Carol Crispino, Kingston, N.Y.; and her paternal great-grandparents, Joseph and Cora Mueck, Woodbridge, N.J.

Private family graveside funeral services were Saturday at Glacier Memorial Gardens, under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home. Officiating was the Rev. Howard Mars, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Frank Crowell, 95

Frank Crowell, 95, died Friday morning at the Flathead County Nursing Home. 23 Mar 1984

He was born March 25, 1888, in Montrose, S.D., to Hiram and Cecelia McKinley. He was educated in South Dakota, then married Fannie Mae Conklin in Detroit Lakes, Minn., on May 24, 1913.

In his early years he worked on railroads; later he farmed and worked in construction. He lived in Minnesota until 1956, when he moved to Montana. He lived in Shelby for a short time before coming to Kalispell.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Fannie, in 1974.

Survivors include a son, Lloyd, Kalispell; two daughters, Iva Johnson, Detroit Lakes, and Ada Mae Olson, Marysville, Wash., and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Monday at 11 a.m. in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Richard Bartholomew, pastor of Faith Free Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Visitation is today at Johnson Mortuary until 8 p.m.

Marland Crone, 77

7 July 1984
HOT SPRINGS Marland K. Crone, 77, died Saturday morning at his home in Hot Springs.

He was born Dec. 7, 1906, at Columbia City, Ind. He attended school there, then came to Montana in 1924 to work for the Forest Service.

He married Dixie Lee Woods on Nov. 15, 1933, at Polson. For the next 13 years he was a well driller, working around Hot Springs and the surrounding area. He and his wife ran a small ranch until 1956, when he was disabled by a severe heart attack.

He and his wife were life members of the Camas-Hot Springs Senior Citizens.

Surviving are his wife, Dixie, at home; a son, Kenneth, in Kalispell; a daughter, Gail White of Hot Springs; a sister, Kathern Cummings of Columbia City, Ind.; a brother, William, of Moorhead, Minn.; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Hot Springs Presbyterian Church with the Rev. John McKinley officiating. Burial will be in Murray Memorial Cemetery at Lone Pine. Arrangements are by the Shrider Funeral Home in Plains.

Memorials may be made to the Camas-Hot Springs Senior Citizens.

Robert Crook, 87

7 Jan 1984
Robert Crook, 87, of Kalispell, died Saturday morning in the Flathead County Nursing Home.

He was born March 18, 1896, in Sheffield, England, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Crook.

While a teenager, he came to America with his brother. He worked for the Great Northern Railroad at Devils Lake, N.D. He later moved to Whitefish, where he worked in the diesel shops for the Great Northern Railroad until his retirement. He then moved to Kalispell, where he lived since.

On Oct. 29, 1936, he married Ruth Berry.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Algeria Shrine Temple of Helena.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth; two sisters, Nellie Birkeland, Grandview, Wash., and Anne Rundell, Chico, Calif.; one niece and two nephews.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will later be announced by the Johnson Mortuary.

John W. Crowley, 73

14 Jan 1984
John W. Crowley, 73, Kalispell, died Saturday in the Kalispell Regional Hospital of natural causes.

He was born March 4, 1910, at Logan, to James and Laura Crowley. His family moved to Butte in 1915 and he attended public schools there.

On Dec. 25, 1933, he married Violet "Vi" Allen in Butte.

He was a carpenter/contractor in Butte until 1958 when he and his wife moved to Glasgow to work on the air base. In 1962 they moved back to Butte where Mr. Crowley became a foreman for Ralph M. Parsons Inc., a worldwide construction firm.

In 1963, he was transferred to Kalispell as a foreman for the additions to the Anaconda Aluminum potlines. In 1965 he was transferred to Hoyt Lakes, Minn., as a foreman in refurbishing the Taconite plant. He moved to Seaside, Ore., in 1967 and worked as a millwright for the Crown Zellerbach paper plant.

Mr. Crowley retired in 1971, moved back to Kalispell and built his present home.

An accomplished carpenter for 45 years, Mr. Crowley also worked in the Butte mines in the 1920s and 30s. He was one of the first to obtain a millwrights' card in Butte.

He was an avid outdoorsman and gardener.

Survivors include his wife at the family home; two sons, John Jr. of Butte, and James of Cloquet, Minn.; a daughter, Linda Mae Cusick of Kalispell; two sisters, Lucille Hunt and Alma Taylor of Butte; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Rosary service will be at Weatherford Funeral Home tonight at 7 and a memorial mass will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

Dorothy Crum, 78

SEQUIM, Wash. — Dorothy E. Crum, 78, a former resident of Whitefish, died Saturday afternoon in Sequim, Wash. after a long illness.

She was born April 5, 1906, a daughter of Cyrus and Clara Dow.

She married Carlyle Crum on Aug. 15, 1927, in Bellingham, Wash., and they lived in Bellingham and Seattle a number of years. They moved to Whitefish in January 1956 where she was very active in the Whitefish community and a number of organizations which included Vista Chapter 44, Order of Eastern Star; advisory board of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls and as a Mother Advisor of the Whitefish Assembly. She was a member of the Whitefish Women's Club and the Century Club of Kalispell. She served as state conservation chairman for the Montana Federation of Women's Clubs, and on the Flathead County Red Cross Board and the Whitefish City-County Planning Board. She was a member of the United Presbyterian Church of Whitefish and had been active in a number of other Whitefish community affairs.

For the past six years she and her husband lived at Sequim, Wash.

She is survived by her husband, Carlyle, at Sequim, Wash.; a daughter, Gloria Mashburn of Sequim, Wash.; a son, Dow Crum of Whitefish; eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Friday in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Ken Peterson of the United Presbyterian Church of Whitefish officiating. Eastern Star rites will be given by members of Vista Chapter 44 of Whitefish. Burial will be made in the Whitefish Cemetery.

Carolyn Culbert, 41

23 July 1984
Carolyn Culbert, 41, died Monday at her home in Polson.

She was born June 3, 1943, in Deer Lodge, a daughter of Joseph and Martha Lavadure. When she was 5, she moved with her family to Kalispell, where she attended Kalispell schools. She graduated from Flathead County High School in 1961.

She then graduated from Kalispell Beauty School and worked as a beautician for two years. She then worked as a telephone operator for the Mountain States Telephone Co. for four years.

She had lived in Polson for the past 12 years where she was a checker at the Safeway Store.

She was a Methodist and a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Meryle O'Meyer.

She is survived by two sons, James and Ronald Culbert, both of Polson; a daughter, Mrs. Scott (Pam) Walls of Chinook; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lavadure of Kalispell; a brother, Joe Lavadure Jr. in Anchorage, Alaska; a granddaughter, Deve Lynn Walls of Chinook; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be 10 a.m. Friday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Ron Pierce of the Swan Chapel officiating.

RALPH CUNNINGHAM

Ralph E. Cunningham, 83, 767 N. Main Street in Kalispell, died Monday, Jan. 23, at Kalispell Regional Hospital. He was born March 18, 1900, in Bradford, VT, the son of Erwin and Clara Cunningham. He graduated from Bradford Academy. During World War I, he attended Dartmouth College, and served briefly in the U.S. Army. He was employed as a credit manager in the Buffalo, NY, area for many years. In 1926, he married Hazel Short in Buffalo, and she preceded him in death in 1959. Several years later, he remarried Doris Velzey in East Aurora, NY. Surviving besides his wife are one son, Rev. Bruce Cunningham of Kalispell; a step-daughter, Virginia Vought of Arcade, NY; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and one sister, Grace Stockhaus of Tarpon Springs, FL. Weatherford Funeral Home has forwarded the body to Brown and Sons Funeral Home in Orchard Park, NY, where funeral services will take place at a later date.

Ruth Curran, 75

17 Dec 1974
SPOKANE, Wash. — Ruth Ames Curran, 75, died Dec. 18 at her home in Spokane, Wash.

She was born Jan. 2, 1909, in Michigan and lived in Bigfork, Whitefish and Kalispell.

She married Harold A. Curran on Dec. 27, 1949, and he preceded her in death in 1976.

Survivors include her sister-in-law, Virginia C. Rousselle, Kalispell; nieces, Norma Jean Hawbaker of Kalispell and Marie K. Thornton of Spokane, Wash.; and a nephew, Richard A. Rousselle, Newberg, Ore.

Funeral services were in Spokane.

Evelyn Cusick, 69

14 June 1984
Evelyn E. Cusick, 69, Whitefish, died Thursday morning at North Valley Hospital.

She was born Aug. 15, 1914, in Glendive, a daughter of Cary and Anna Everheart. The family moved to Whitefish in October 1922, where she attended school.

She married Maurice N. Cusick in October 1938 in Whitefish.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Mary Ann Roth.

She is survived by her husband,

Maurice Cusick of Whitefish; a son, Gordon Cusick of Vallejo, Calif.; two sisters, Vera McMurdo of Whitefish and Vean Rothman of Washington, D.C.; a brother, Howard Everheart of Whitefish; two granddaughters; a grandson and a great-grandson.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday in Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Terry McComb of the Seventh-day Adventist Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.