

7 Jan 1984
LUSTRE — DAHL, Naomi, 85,
 died Saturday in a Glasgow hospital.
 Services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Clayton Memorial Chapel in Wolf
 Point, and burial will be in the Dahl family cemetery. Born in Otto, Iowa, she lived in Glenburn, N.D., Webb, Sask., and Forest Grove, Ore., before marrying Henry F. Dahl in Forest Grove in 1921. They moved to his homestead in the Lustre community and she resided there until her death.
 Survivors include three sons, Kenneth, Johann and Gary, all of Lustre, a daughter, Beverly Roberts, Glen-dave, and two sisters, Ruth E. Steger, Salem, Ore., and Josephine Courtney, Oregon City, Ore.

24 Sept 1984
Sarah Dahl, 93
 Sarah Viola Dahl, 93, Whitefish, died Monday of natural causes at North Valley Extended Care Unit.
 She was born Aug. 6, 1891, in Dassel, Minn., the daughter of Michael and Ellen Crowe. She attended public school in Dassel. At the age of 24, she moved to Havre, where she was employed by the phone company for a year. She then filed a homestead in the Rocky Mountains County, from Havre.
 In August 1917, she married Severt Dahl in Havre, where he was an engineer on the railroad. In 1945, they sold the homestead and moved to Whitefish.
 She was a Catholic. She was past president of the Grand International Auxiliary of Locomotive Engineers.
 She was active in hunting, fishing and other nature activities, as well as quilting and rug-making.
 She is survived by two daughters,
 Margaret Helen Fleming of Kula,
 Hawaii, and Grace Philles of Polson, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
 She was preceded in death by her husband and a son, Martin, in 1958.
 Memorial services will be at St.
 Charles' Catholic Church in Whitefish at a later date. Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home.
 The family suggests memorials
 to the North Valley Hospital Heart Fund.

Fred Dahle

Services for former Elks' leader
 Frederick "Fred" J. Dahle, 78, 628
 Beth Drive, will be 11 a.m. Tuesday at Our Saviors Lutheran Church with the Revs. Donald Melchert and Reid
 Seastrand officiating.

Dahle, a former John Deere Co.
 employee for 48 years, died Sunday in a Great Falls hospital. Burial will be at the Highland Cemetery with graveside rites by Past Exalted Rulers of the Elks Lodge No. 214.

Born in Redville, Minn., Dahle attended Minneapolis schools, and was graduated from North High School there. He moved to Great Falls in 1927.

While employed with John Deere,
 Dahle was parts and territorial manager. He and his wife, Edith, had been married more than 46 years.
 They met in Minneapolis and were married in September 1936 in Great Falls.

Dahle was an honorary life member of the Elks, and was Exalted Ruler from 1949-1950. He was also a member of the Masonic Delta Lodge, York Rite, Albedoo Shrine, the Olive
 Chapter of Eastern Star and the P.M.
 Optomists. He was active in Senior Citizens' bowling and was a member of Our Saviors Lutheran Church, where he had sung in the choir for more than 50 years.

He is survived by his wife, Great Falls; a son, Robert, Great Falls; a daughter, Linda Nelson, Richland, Wash.; two grandsons; a brother, Irving, Austin, Texas; and a sister,
 Helen Schlenner, of Minnesota.

23 Jan 1984
SCOBEY — DAY, Hazel, 93, died
 Monday at a Scobey nursing home.
 Services will be 11 a.m. Friday at the Assembly of God Church in Scobey
 with burial to follow in the Flaxville Cemetery. Born in Nevada, Iowa, she married Roy Day there in 1910.
 They came to Daniels County in 1917 to farm south of Flaxville. Her husband died in 1947. She moved to Scobey in 1950. Survivors are two sons, Charles, Butte, and Lester, Bonners Ferry, Idaho; two daughters, Wiona Browning and Pauline Foss, both of Anchorage, Alaska; 21 grandchildren, 65 great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grandchildren. Waller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Stefanie Daily

26 Jan 1984

Stefanie Kay Daily, 16, is the daughter of Richard and Carol Daily of Whitefish.

Stefanie was born in Portland, Oregon, on July 28, 1967.

She moved to Whitefish as a seventh grader, in 1979. She was a junior in Whitefish High School and was a member of the junior varsity girls' basketball team, a cheerleader for the varsity wrestling team, and was active in chorus as well as an office helper at Whitefish High School. She was a member of the first Baptist Church in Whitefish.

She is survived by her parents Richard and Carol Daily, and one sister, Toni Marie, at the family home; her grandparents, Bud and Red Wellington, Pasco, Wash., Shirley and Glenn Daily, Milwaukie, Ore.; several aunts and uncles, Judy Sobczak, Portland, Ore., Ruth and Ron Daily, Milwaukie, Ore., Cheryl and Dan Eutsler, Milwaukie, Ore., and Susie and Bill Markel, St. Paul, Minn.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Whitefish High School Memorial Fund.

T.E. Danford, 58

Theodore E. Danford, 58, Bigfork, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Monday evening of cancer.

He was born Aug. 11, 1925, in Kalispell, a son of George and Jesse Danford. He attended Hodgson School in the Lower Valley, and was a 1945 graduate of Flathead County High School. He farmed for a number of years, and retired from the Anaconda Aluminum Company after 20 years of service.

In 1946 he married Shirley Dern and was preceded in death by her in 1967.

In June 1969 he married Dorcas Cottle in Kalispell.

Mr. Danford was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting and packing trips.

He was a member of the Kalispell Eagles Lodge 234.

He is survived by his wife Dorcas at the family home in Bigfork; three sons, William Danford and Gary Cottle, both of Kalispell, and Andy Cottle of Bigfork; three daughters, Martha Ross and Mary Danford, both of Kalispell, and Geraldine Kerns of Spangle, Wash.; two brothers, George Danford and Neil Danford, both of the Lower Valley; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Friday in the Little Brown Church near Bigfork with the Rev. Gail Fleming officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

John W. Dasinger, 34

John William Dasinger, 34, Whitefish, died Sunday evening in North Valley Hospital after a long illness.

He was born Dec. 18, 1949, in Sidney, a son of Walter and Lillian Dasinger. He was raised and educated in Sidney and graduated from Sidney High School in 1968. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1970 to 1974. After his honorable discharge he returned to college and graduated from Eastern Montana College with a degree in social and rehabilitative services on June 6, 1977.

He married Kathleen L. Linderman on Dec. 18, 1976, in Billings and they lived in the Flathead Valley since 1977.

He was employed with the Job Service in Kalispell for the past five years.

He was active in MPEA and IAPES.

He is survived by his wife, Kathleen L. Linderman, of Whitefish; his parents, Lillian and Walter Dasinger of Sidney; two sisters, Becky Kallevig of Sidney, and Lyann Engum of Billings; five nieces and two nephews.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Cremation has taken place.

The family suggests memorials to Flathead Industries in Kalispell or the charity of the donor's choice in lieu of flowers.

Eleanor Daniel, 67

23 Oct 1984
Eleanor A. Daniel, 67, Trego, died Tuesday afternoon at North Valley Hospital after an extended illness.

She was born Oct. 9, 1917, in San Diego, Calif., the daughter of Richard and Alfreda Allen. She was raised and graduated from high school in nearby Bonita. She then worked as a telephone operator for a number of years, mainly in San Diego, Seattle, and Great Falls.

On Aug. 14, 1955, she married Maurice R. Daniel in Bonita. The family later moved to Great Falls and finally settled in Trego in 1962. Mrs. Daniel helped operate the family ranch in Trego until 1978 when it was leased out.

She enjoyed the outdoors and had a special love for horses and other animals.

She is survived by her husband Maurice, at the family home; son

Eric Loos of San Diego; four grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Weatherford Funeral Home. Memorial services will also be conducted in Bonita, Calif., at a later date, and interment will be in Bonita. Cremation has taken place.

The family suggests memorials to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 1002, Kalispell, 59901.

MATTHEW DAVIDSON

Matthew Dale Davison, 26, died Monday, June 4, in Billings Deaconess Hospital after a motorcycle accident south of Glasgow Sunday night.

Funeral services will be held today (June 7) at 1 p.m. at St. Raphael's Catholic Church with Father Greg Staudinger officiating. Rosary was recited June 6 at 7 p.m. at Bell Chapel. Burial will be in Kupper Memorial Cemetery in Chinook with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Born January 16, 1958 in Hugoton, Kansas, he was the son of James and Betty Davidson. He had lived in Glasgow the past two years and worked for Northern Border Pipeline as a technician. He was an active member of the St. Raphael's Catholic Church.

He was to be married Sept. 25, 1984 in St. Raphael's Catholic Church to Gina Palazzo, daughter of Dr. Larry and Rosalie Palazzo of Glasgow.

His hobbies were passion for life. He was an all around sportsman and an avid water skier. A friend to all who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his parents, James Davidson of Chinook and Betty Davidson of Great Falls; his grandmother, Ruby Hoy of Africa; two sisters, Cherisse Davidson of Dallas, Texas and Melissa Davidson of Chinook; and two brothers, Mark and Brett Davidson of Chinook.

Bertha Dehlbom

1984
Bertha Dehlbom, 77, died Tuesday, October 9, at Valley View Nursing Home in Glasgow.

Graveside services will be held Thursday, October 11, at 5 p.m. at the Nashua Cemetery with Rev. Paul Fohs officiating. Burial will be in Nashua Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Named as pallbearers were Jack Egick, Vernon Dostert, Dale Dunning, Jim Hill, Danny Patterson and Travis Patterson.

Born May 27, 1907 in Hatton, N.D., she was the daughter of Michael and Berget Fergerson.

She moved to Montana with her family in 1916 where they homesteaded north of Nashua. She attended Western Montana College at Dillon and taught school at the Grain School. She also substituted at the Nashua grade school.

On December 29, 1927, she married John Dehlbom in Glasgow. He died June 11, 1980.

She and her husband farmed north of Nashua. They retired from farming in 1966 and moved to Nashua. They were rural mail carriers for several years. She moved to Glasgow in 1981.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Dennis (Michelle) Patterson of Miles City; one son, John Dehlbom, Jr. of Las Vegas, Nevada; three sisters, Evelyn Peterson, Stella Hallett and Olga Grant all of Glasgow; two brothers, Harold and Torger Fergerson both of Glasgow; and four grandchildren.

13 Jan 1984
William Dempster

William Dempster, 61, 326 2nd Ave. S., died Friday in Great Falls.

He was born in 1922 in Scotland and was an ironworker.

He is survived by two daughters, Janine and Janette Dempster, Mattawa, Wash. Cremation has taken place. No services are planned.

Leo DeWit, 56, died in Glasgow's Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital on Wednesday, Sept. 12. Rosary was at 7 p.m. on Friday evening with the services at St. Raphael's Catholic Church on Saturday. Burial followed at Highland Cemetery.

1984
He was born in Achthuizen, Holland on Nov. 9, 1927 to Jacob and Marie DeWit.

He attended school until he entered World War II. He was captured by the Germans and held in a prison camp until the end of the war. He came to the United States in 1948 and lived in Regent, N.D.

On Sept. 12, 1949 he married Pauline Gion. They farmed in north and South Dakota until 1965 when they then moved to Thornton, California to run a dairy in partnership with Leo's brother, John.

In 1968 the family then moved to Opheim where he farmed and ranched. In 1976 he moved to Glasgow where he was a grain merchandiser and building dealer. He enjoyed traveling and visiting with family and friends.

He is survived by his wife; six sons, James of Opheim, Peter of Minneapolis, Minn., Donald and Kent both of Bozeman, Robert of Great Falls and Wayne of Glasgow; two daughters, Rita Brown of Bozeman and Nadine DeWit of Gillette, Wyo.; seven brothers in Holland, one in California and eight grandchildren.

Pallbearers included Ray Simons, Ray Mittelstadt, Al Pratt, Gere Etchart, Lyle Myhre, Maury Graham, Larry Pallazzo and John Mogan.

26 Feb 1984
POST FALLS, Idaho - DEN-

GEL, Edna M., 71, a former Lewistown resident, died Sunday in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Services will be 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Yates Funeral Home in Coeur d'Alene. Cremation will follow the services. Mrs. Dengel was born in Lewistown. She grew up in Winnett and married Irvin Dengel in 1939 in Lewistown. They lived there until 1964 when they moved to Anchorage, Alaska. In 1976, she moved to Post Falls, where they had resided since. Survivors include her husband, Post Falls; two sons, Robert, Post Falls, and Lonnie, Coeur d'Alene; a daughter, Shirley Vahl, Corvallis; two brothers, Henry and Leonard Woods, both of Lewistown; a sister, Myrtle Eglund, Lewistown; and six grandchildren.

9 Feb 1984
GLASGOW - DAZELL, Robert

E., 79, died Thursday at Deaconess Hospital in Glasgow. Services are set for Tuesday at 11 a.m. at Bell Chapel. Burial will follow in the Highland Cemetery. He was born in Drayton, N.D. After schooling, he moved to Minnesota and worked there as a carpenter. He was married in 1932 to Clara Paulson at Roosevelt, Minn. In 1935, they moved to Fort Peck and later that year to Glasgow. He worked on the Fort Peck Dam project until 1944, at which time he started his own carpenter/contractor business. He was a member of the Carpenter's union for 40 years. He is survived by his wife, Clara; three daughters, Mary Tihista of Great Falls; Margaret Taylor of Glasgow; and Diana Bannon of Billings; and eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Wayde, Jana and Casey Davis

26 Jan 1984

Funeral services for Wayde, Jana and Casey Davis will be Friday at 1 p.m. at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Polson with the Rev. David Orendorff officiating.

Wayde Neil Davis, 27, was born July 20, 1956 to Betty Smidge of Cascade, Mont., and Tom Davis of Swan Lake.

He attended grade school in Helena, and high school in Bigfork where he was named all-state in football his senior year.

He graduated from Western Montana College in 1979 where he was called "one of the all-time football greats" for the college. He played center and won all-Frontier Conference first team honors four straight years, was all-district his junior and senior years, and was named NAIA All-American honorable mention two years.

Wayde taught school at Stevensville and moved to Whitefish in 1980 where he taught school and was an assistant coach in football, wrestling and track.

Jana Geer Davis, 27, was born May 2,

1956 in Missoula to William and Rosemary Geer.

She attended grade school in Stevensville and Missoula and moved to Polson in 1962. She graduated with honors in 1974 from Polson High School.

She was a varsity cheerleader for four years and was active in many athletic events in high school. She attended Montana State University in 1974-75, but later transferred to Western Montana College where she graduated in 1979 with a degree in education.

Wayde and Jana were married on May 29, 1977 in Polson. They were the parents of two children, a daughter Breann, born Feb. 3, 1978, and a son Casey, born Nov. 1, 1980.

Wayde is survived by his daughter Breann; his father Tom Davis of Swan Lake; his mother Betty Smidge of Cascade; two sisters, Debbie Smith of Whitefish and Cindy Spencer of Springfield, Ore.; and his grandmother Josie Luchsinger of Minot, N.D. He was preceded in death by two brothers

Thomas Claude Davis and Clint J. Davis.

Jana is survived by her daughter Breann, her parents, William and Rosemary Geer of Polson; two brothers, William of Butte and Michael of Dillon; one sister, Jeri of Hot Springs; grandparents, Rose and Ted Fosdick of Monesano, Wash., and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Casey is survived by his sister Breann; grandparents William and Rosemary Geer of Polson, Tom Davis of Swan Lake, Betty Smidge of Cascade; uncles William Geer of Butte and Michael Geer of Dillon; aunts Jeri Geer of Hot Springs, Debbie Smith of Whitefish, and Cindy Spencer of Springfield, Ore.; great grandparents Rose and Ted Fosdick of Monesano, Wash., and Josie Luchsinger of Minot, S.D.

The family has requested that memorials be made to the Western Montana College Scholarship Fund in memory of Wayde, Jana and Casey.

Wayde Davis, 27

Wayde Neil Davis, 27, died Saturday as the result of injuries received in a bus-truck accident near Denny's Underpass.

Mr. Davis was born July 20, 1956, in Helena, a son of Betty Smidge and Tom Davis. He attended grade school in Helena and high school in Bigfork, where he was selected all-state in football his senior year. He graduated from Western Montana College, where he was all-conference player in football his sophomore, junior and senior years, all-district football player his junior and senior years, and an NAIA all-America player his senior year.

He taught at Stevensville and moved to Whitefish in 1980. There he taught school and was assistant coach in football, track and wrestling.

On May 29, 1977, he married Jana Geer in Polson. They were the parents of two children, a daughter, Brienne, born Feb. 3, 1978, and a son, Casey, born Nov. 1, 1980.

Survivors include his daughter, Brienne; his father, Tom Davis, Swan Lake; his mother, Betty Smidge, Cascade; two sisters, Debbie Smith, Whitefish, and Cindy Spencer, Springfield, Ore.; and his grandmother, Josie Luchsinger, Minot, N.D.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Thomas Claude and Clint

Jana Davis, 27

Jana Geer Davis, 27, died with her husband Wayde and her son, Casey, on Saturday as the result of injuries received in a bus-truck accident near Denny's Underpass.

She was born May 2, 1956, in Missoula, a daughter of William and Rosemary Geer. She attended grade schools in Stevensville and Missoula and moved to Polson in 1962. She graduated with honors from Polson High School in 1974. She was varsity cheerleader for four years and was active in many athletic events. In 1974 and 1975 she attended Montana State University and transferred to Western Montana College in Billings where she graduated in 1979 with a degree in education.

She married Wayde Davis in Polson, and they were the parents of two children, Brienne and Casey. She and her husband operated a small summer business in the Whitefish and Kalispell area. She and her children were active supporters of all school activities and were avid snow and water skiers.

Survivors include her daughter, Brienne; her parents, William and Rosemary Geer of Polson; her grandparents, Rose and Ted Fosdick of Monesano, Wash.; two brothers, William Geer, Billings, and Michael Geer, Dillon; a sister, Jeri Geer, Hot Springs; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Casey Davis, 3

Casey Neil Davis, 3, died Saturday, in his mother's arms as the result of injuries received in a bus-truck accident near West Glacier.

He was born Nov. 1, 1980, in Whitefish.

Survivors include his sister, Brienne; grandparents, William and Rosemary Geer, Polson; Tom Davis, Swan Lake; Betty Smidge, Cascade; two uncles, William Geer, Butte, and Michael Geer, Dillon; three aunts, Jeri Geer, Hot Springs; Debbie Smith, Whitefish; Cindy Spencer, Springfield, Ore.; great-grandparents, Rose and Ted Fosdick, Montesano, Wash.; Josie Luchsinger, Minot, N.D.

Services for the Davis family will be held Friday at 1 p.m. at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Polson. The Rev. David Orendorff will officiate.

A joint memorial service will be held for all the bus accident victims at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Whitefish Gym.

It is the family's wish that memorials be made to Western Montana College Scholarship Fund in memory of Wayde, Jana and Casey Davis.

Arrangements are under the direction of Mosely Funeral Home in Polson.

58

Kenneth Decker, 40

30 Nov 1984
Kenneth O. Decker, 40, Whitefish, died Friday in Whitefish of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

He had been a self-employed carpenter in Whitefish for the past three years.

He was born Oct. 25, 1944, in Langdon, N.D., to Edward and Bertina Decker. He grew up in North Dakota, then served a hitch in the U.S. Army upon graduation from high school.

After his honorable discharge, he lived various places in the Northwest, including several years at Summit, when he worked for the state highway department.

He was a member of the Whitefish Moose.

Survivors include his wife, Linda, and a step-daughter, Anita, at home; a son, Eddy, of Post Falls, Idaho; his mother, in Jamestown, N.D.; and three brothers, Dale in Jamestown, Thomas in Fargo, N.D., and Curtis in Copperas Cove, Texas.

Memorial services are pending. The date and time will be announced later by the Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish. The body will be cremated.

The family has suggested memorials to the Middle Fork Quick Response Unit of Esser.

L.H. Delameter, 79

23 Jan 1984
Lorne Hamilton Delameter, 79, Whitefish, died Monday in North Valley Hospital of natural causes.

He was born March 23, 1904, in Knox, N.D., son of Henry and Annie Delameter. He was raised and attended school in Knox. He later attended the North Dakota State School of Science at Wahpeton, N.D. for two years.

He owned a cafe-store in Knox in 1927. During World War II he served in the U.S. Army. After World War II he worked as a grain buyer at Goodrich, N.D., for a number of years. For 13 years he worked as a vehicle inspector for the U.S. Government at Fort Richardson, Alaska. He retired in 1964.

In June 1964, he married Jane L. McGlenn, a Whitefish school teacher.

er, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. He was preceded in death by her Jan. 10, 1975.

Survivors include a sister, Vera Monroe of Great Falls; a brother, Merlin Delameter of Bandon, Ore.; a stepdaughter, Shirley Young of Butte; a stepson, Douglas McGlenn of Alaska; a stepgranddaughter and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Friday at 2 p.m. in the Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish with the Rev. Ken Peterson of the First United Presbyterian Church of Whitefish officiating. Burial will be in the Whitefish Cemetery.

D. W. DELAP

1984
David W. 'Butch' Delap, 68, a Whitefish resident, died Friday, Jan. 27, at his home in Whitefish of natural causes. He was born April 6, 1915, at Lavina, a son of Earl L. and Anna C. Delap. He was raised and educated at Lavina, and in his younger days worked at the coal mines at Roundup. He also worked at Yellowstone National Park and at the Naval Supply Yard in Spokane, WA. In 1936, he moved to the Flathead Valley and in 1937, he started working for the Great Northern Railroad, where he continued until 1941. During World War II, he worked as a hot-stab worker and chipper in Portland, Ore. In 1945, he returned to the Great Northern Railroad and worked for the Western Fruit Division. He retired after 30 years. He married Joyce Smith on Dec. 29, 1943 in Whitefish and is survived by her at the family home in Whitefish. He is also survived by two sons, David of Kila and Virgil of Whitefish; two sisters, Wanda Streeter, Lewiston, ID, and Mary Andersen, Spokane; and seven nieces and nephews. Funeral services were Tuesday, Jan. 31, in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Dr. David V. Kauffman of the First Christian Church of Whitefish officiating. Burial was in the Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

LAWRENCE DELIBERO

1984
Lawrence 'Larry' Richard Delibero, 18, Kalispell, died on Saturday, March 3, of injuries sustained in an automobile-bus accident north of Ronan. He was born February 28, 1966, in Vancouver, Wash., a son of Lawrence and Ramona Delibero. The family had spent much of their time in Oregon prior to moving to Kalispell in June of 1980. Larry was a senior at Flathead High School at the time of his death. He was a member of the speech team; the German Club; Honor Society, and was a delegate to Montana Boys state in 1983. He had received ed the National Merit Scholar Letter of Commendation. He is survived by his parents and a sister, Cathy, at the family home. His grandparents, Carmen and Betty Delibero of Battle Ground, Wash., and Bill and Alice Hinrich of Aberdeen, Wash. Funeral services were Tuesday, March 6, in the Trinity Lutheran Church with the Rev. Darold Reiner officiating. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggest memorials be made to the Trinity Lutheran Church. Johnson Mortuary handled arrangements.

LeRoy Dickson, 89

MISSOULA — LeRoy "Roy" Slade Dickson, 89, died Monday of natural causes in a Missoula hospital. 15 Oct. 1984

He was born May 24, 1895, in Richville, Morgan County, Utah, the son of William H. and Martha Slade Dickson and attended Morgan High School and Utah State University.

He married Anna Leona Mohr June 2, 1920, in the Salt Lake Latter-day Saints Temple.

Mr. Dickson served an LDS mission to Great Britain and was district president of the Nottingham Conference. He was branch president of the Missoula Branch, and later district president of all western Montana LDS branches.

Mr. Dickson was employed as store manager at Safeway stores in Eureka, Provo and Ogden, Utah, and was transferred to Missoula in 1929 as supervisor of the western Montana Safeway stores. After his retirement in 1960, he moved to Bountiful, Utah.

Survivors include two daughters, Joan Groesbeck, Pasadena, Calif., and Dorothy Lofgren, Missoula, a brother, Wilden Reed Dickson, Morgan, Utah; eight grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife in 1970; a daughter, Kathleen, in 1975; and an infant son, LeRoy Slade Dickson Jr.

Funeral services were today at the LDS Church, Cleveland Chapel, Missoula. Burial will be in Morgan City Cemetery, Morgan, Utah.

Livingston-Malletta & Geraghty Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials to the Missoula Humane Society.

HAVRE — DION, June C., 68,

3 Feb. 1984
died at her home in Lohman Friday. Rosary will be at 7 p.m. Monday at Holland and Bonine Chapel. Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at St. Jude's Catholic Church. Burial will be in the Highland Cemetery, Havre. She was born in Anaconda and came to Havre in 1934. She married Pete Dion in 1935. She farmed near Chinook, Havre and Ennis and then lived for many years at Lohman. Survivors include sons Ira Eugene, Havre, and Pete Jr., Fred and Robert, all of Chinook; her mother, Lillian Hubbs, Chinook; 14 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren; and one brother, Jack Gardiner, Butte.

5 Jan. 1984
HELENA — DION, James H., 68, retired president and chief executive officer of Norwest Capital Management and Trust Co., Helena, died Thursday in Palm Desert, Calif. Since his retirement he had spent winters in California, returning to Helena in the summer. A native of Glendive, Dion graduated from the University of Montana in 1937 and joined the staff of Union Bank and Trust Co. He served with the U.S. Army during World War II, then returned to the Union Bank. In 1949 he graduated with honors from the Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University and in 1950 graduated from Manufacturer's Hanover School in New York where he studied trust taxation. His banking career spanned 42 years. He married Colleen Shaw in 1941. She survives with a son, William Dion, Salt Lake City, Utah, and two daughters, Mrs. Fort A. (Janie) Zackary, San Diego, Calif. and Mrs. Charles A. (Marcia) Knell, Los Altos, Calif. Cremation has taken place. A memorial service in Helena will be arranged.

Mary Dokken, a resident of Glasgow since 1954, died Sunday, August 26, at Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital. She was 91.

Graveside services and burial will be held on Thursday, August 30 at 10 a.m. in Highland Cemetery with Pastor Bob Nilsen officiating. Bell Mortuary will be in charge of arrangements.

She was born on May 29, 1893, and was raised in Mountain City, Tenn.

She married Lawson Fletcher on August 24, 1913. He died in 1938. On April 11, 1954 she married Nels Dokken in Glasgow. He passed away in 1974.

She was a member of the Rebecca Lodge and Eastern Star. She lived at Valley View Nursing Home for the past 10 years.

She is survived by one granddaughter, Brenda McGruder, of Kalamazoo, Wis. and one great grandchild.

LEWISTOWN — DISSLY, Maude

E., 96, a former resident of Lewistown, died Wednesday in El Paso, Texas, after a brief illness. Cremation is planned and a family memorial service will be in Lewistown at a later date. Mrs. Dissly came to Lewistown in 1916 with her husband, William, a creamery worker and later mayor of the city. He died about 1960. Six years later she moved to El Paso. Survivors include three sons, Howard, Creve Coeur, Mo., Karl, El Paso, and Donald, Louisville, Ky.

BROWNING — DOG TAKING

29 Jan. 1984
GUN, Elvin, 43, died Sunday at a Browning hospital. Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Heart Butte. Burial will be in Heart Butte Cemetery. Born in Browning, he attended school at a boarding school at Big Badger near Heart Butte and later attended high school in Browning. He was a rancher, a carpenter and a laborer and also served in the National Guard. Survivors are his wife, Beverly, Browning; four daughters, Linda Dog Taking Gun, Valarie Dog Taking Gun, and Lisa Field, all of Browning, and Debbie Grant, Ronan; three sons, Gary, Deer Lodge; Cassey, Valier, and Alden, Browning; three brothers, Thomas and Philip Dog Taking Gun, Heart Butte, and Ernest Bear Paw, Browning; and two sisters, Rita Weasel Head, Heart Butte, and Gladys Cross Guns, Star School.

Joseph Simon Dolezilek, 84, died in his home four miles north of Frazer Tuesday, April 17, 1984.

Rosary was held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, April 22, at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Poplar. Funeral services were held Monday, April 23, at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church with Father Lou Krauth officiating. Burial was in Poplar City Cemetery with Bell Mortuary of Glasgow in charge of arrangements.

He was born October 1, 1899, at Rossville, Kansas. His parents were Joseph and Rose Dolezilek.

Raised in Kansas, he moved to the Poplar area in 1926. He later moved to the Frazer area. He enjoyed farming and gardening and also played the violin.

He and his wife, Mildred were married in 1942.

Survivors include one son, John E. Dolezilek of Duluth, Minn., one sister, Martha Hibel of Poplar and two grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by Mary, Charles, Peter, Christine, James and Matilda Dolezilek.

Eva Dills, 83

23 Feb 1984
Eva S. Dills, 83, Kalispell, died Thursday evening at the Flathead County Nursing Home.

She was born Feb. 2, 1901, in Park River, N.D., to William and Sarah Syre. She attended school in Langdon, N.D., and earned a bachelor's degree from the University of North Dakota in 1923.

She was awarded the Phi Beta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta keys. She earned a master's degree in American and European history from the University of North Dakota in 1930.

She then taught at a private high school in Devils Lake, N.D. She came to Kalispell and taught at Flathead High School until her retirement.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star at Langdon since 1922 and Adah Chapter No. 17 in Kalispell. She was also a member of the St. Ann Chapter and served as its president for three years.

She married Arthur B. Dills in Missoula on Dec. 4, 1943. He preceded her in death on Jan. 13, 1957.

She has no immediate survivors.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Dr. Odin A. Baugh, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Ritualistic rites will be conducted by Adah Chapter No. 17 Order of the Eastern Star. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Visitation will be at the Johnson Mortuary from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m. Sunday.

Laura Disbrow, 99

22 June 1984
LIBBY — Laura R. Disbrow, 99, an early-day Flathead Valley schoolteacher, died Friday at the Libby Care Center.

She was born Nov. 1, 1884, at Espy, Pa., to Fredrick and Louisa Redeker. She was raised and educated in Pennsylvania, graduating from Bloomsburg State College shortly after the turn of the century. In 1908 she moved to Montana to teach school in the Flathead Valley.

On Sept. 15, 1909, she married Charles W. Disbrow in Kalispell. They lived several places in Montana, including Kalispell, Polson and Missoula, where her husband also taught school.

From Missoula they moved in 1960 to Libby, where she lived until her death. Her husband died in 1962.

She was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church in Libby and taught Sunday school for many years.

Survivors include a daughter, Lois Smart of Libby; a son, William of Rollins, seven grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren and 19 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Libby with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Graveside services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Kalispell's Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Gideons care of P. O. Box 776, Libby 59923. Arrangements under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home.

John Doble Sr., 71

27 Aug 1984
EUREKA — John H. Doble Sr., 71, died Monday of a heart attack while en route to North Valley Hospital.

Mr. Doble was born Dec. 21, 1912, in Harlem, the son of John and Emma Doble. He moved to Eureka at the age of 4 with his parents and attended schools at Gateway.

On Jan. 2, 1934, he married Helen Butts in Libby.

He was a member of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church. He worked as a logger and farmer on the West Kootenai until 1975 when he retired and moved to Eureka.

Survivors include his wife, Helen, Eureka; a son, John Jr., Rexford; a brother, Sam, Stryker; two sisters, five grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated 11 a.m. Wednesday at Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church in Eureka. The Rev. John Hunt, Hausen will officiate. Interment will follow at Tobacco Valley Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home of Eureka.

E.F. Donegan, 61

22 Aug 1984
Edward F. Donegan, 61, died Sunday afternoon at his home in Hungry Horse.

He was born Aug. 29, 1922, in Brooklyn, N.Y., to Joseph and Peggy Donegan. He was raised and educated in Brooklyn. He worked for the Civilian Conservation Corps before joining the Army in December, 1941. He enlisted in the Air Force in 1948, and retired in 1964.

He moved to Hungry Horse in 1968 and worked at the Dam Town Tavern in Hungry Horse until 1980.

He was a member of the Air Force Master Sergeants Association.

He is survived by two sons, Kevin of Bozeman and Patrick of Portland, Ore.; a daughter, Veronica Donegan of Portland; three sisters, Frances Reilly of Arizona, Charlotte Geissler and Margaret Ryan, both of New York; and two brothers, Richard and Frank Donegan, both of New York.

A memorial service will be held at 9 a.m. Thursday at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Joe Pat Sullivan of St. Richard's Catholic Church will officiate.

The body was cremated.

MARY DORAN

10 Oct 1984

Mrs. Mary Doran, 81, died on Oct. 5 in the Bigfork Convalescent Center where she has resided for the past year. She was born Aug. 1, 1903, in Orsova, Krasso Soreny Megye, Hungary, a daughter of Rudolph and Rose Negly. When she was four years old she moved with her family to Alberta, Canada. In 1920, she moved to Montana, where on Oct. 4, 1920, she was married to Everett Doran at Shelby. The couple lived in eastern Montana until retiring and moving to Kalispell in 1967. She is survived by her husband, Everett, of Kalispell; a son, Patrick Doran of Spokane, Wash.; three sisters, Anne Bye of Milk River, Alberta, Emily Brookwell of Lethbridge, and Rose Ainscough of Milk River; three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. Rosary was recited in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel Oct. 8. Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Oct. 9 in the Risen Christ Church with the Rev. Father James White as celebrant. Burial was in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

SUSAN DOLSON

Susan Dolson, 76, who wrote the history column for the Glasgow Courier for a long span of years, died in her home in Glasgow May 30. Services were held at 2 p.m., June 2, in the Glasgow Evangelical Church with Pastor Jay Ashbaucher officiating.

Billie Rosendahl sang, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Amazing Grace."

Serving as pallbearers were Jack Lund, Monte Eayrs, David Wallem, Mitch McCleery, Bruce Riffin and Tom Lund.

Burial was in Hillview Cemetery at Hinsdale.

The local mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

A daughter of Lucien and Alice Read, Mrs. Dolson was born Sept. 13, 1907, in Washington, D. C. She moved with her family to Duluth, Minn., where she received her education. She graduated from teacher's college in 1927. She moved to Montana to accept her first teaching job at the Knotts School west of Opheim. She was married to Wilbur Dolson Oct. 27, 1928, in Duluth, Minn., and they settled on a ranch at Thoeny. Later they lived at Wheeler, in south Valley County, on a ranch north of Glasgow and more recently, in Glasgow.

She and her husband collected many histories throughout the county that she, and sometimes her husband, wrote for the Courier's history column. She was active in the affairs of the Valley County Historical Society, the North Bench Homemakers Club, and the Evangelical Church. She was interested in gardening and travel.

Survivors include the widower, one son, Charles of Missoula; four daughters, Dorothy Eayrs of Glasgow, Alice Wallem and Linnell DeDobbeleer of Fort Peck and Ruth McCleery of Nashua; a sister, Mrs. Roy Hammerstedt of Duluth, Minn.; two brothers, Robert Read of Duluth and Edward Read of Newton Falls, Ohio; 16 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

MALTA — DONEY, Lorraine E.

(Daniels), 59, died Sunday in a Billings hospital. Funeral Mass will be 11 a.m. Thursday at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Malta. Burial will follow in the Zortman Cemetery, south of Malta. Born and raised in Zortman, she married Clifford Doney in 1940 in Malta. She is survived by her husband, six sons, Warren, Jordan, Gary, Arnold, Stewart, Glen, all of Billings; and Terry, Minneapolis, two daughters, Tina Doney and Joan Paterson, both of Billings; five brothers, including Lennie Freestone, Malta, Alton Freestone, Colstrip, and Ted Freestone, Billings; two sisters, Gladys Olson and Shirley Reynolds, both of Malta; 16 grandchildren, and a great-grandchild.

WYOTA — DONEY, Thomas A.

74, died Thursday at a Wolf Point hospital. Rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Sunday at the Bell Chapel in Glasgow. A wake will be held Monday afternoon at the Thomas Doney residence in Wyota and a second rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Monday at the Doney residence. Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at the St. Joseph Catholic Church in Frazer. Burial will follow at the St. Joseph cemetery. He was born in Lewistown and had attended Chenawa Indian School in Salem, Ore., and St. Paul Mission in Hays, Mont. He had lived in Wyota since the spring of 1934, where he was involved in ranching all of his life. He was the past chairman of the National Catholic Indian Congress. He married Rose Shy Face in 1933 at Wolf Point. Survivors include his wife; sons Jim of Wyota and John of Frazer; daughters Mary, Alice Redman, Wyoming; Frances Eagleman, Poplar, and Cheryl "Punky" Hungry, Wyoming; sister Marian Thompson, Wolf Creek; brothers Theodore, Lodgepole, Roy, Libby, Richard and Cliff, Hays, and Morris, Chinook; and 11 grandchildren.

MALTA — DONEY, Verna M.

75, died Monday in a Glasgow nursing home. Rosary will be 7 p.m. Thursday at the Adams Memorial Chapel. The funeral will be at 10 a.m. Friday at the chapel, with burial in the Malta Cemetery. She was born in Malta and was a lifelong area resident. She had been in the nursing home for the past year. She married Bill Doney in March 1945. He preceded her in death in 1977. Survivors included one son, Leonard, Malta, and a brother, Howard Teraut, Chicago.

HAVRE — DONOVEN, Clara M.

75, Kremlin, who came to Montana as a young girl, died Monday at a Havre hospital. Funeral Mass will be Thursday at 11 a.m. at St. Jude's Catholic Church, Havre, with rosary to be recited at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Holland and Bonine Chapel. Burial will be in the Havre Cemetery. Born in Glenco, Minn., she came to Hingham with her parents in 1913. She moved to Havre in 1926 and worked at the Grand Hotel. Moving to Kremlin in 1928, she married Donald Donovan on Oct. 16, 1928, in Havre. They farmed and made their home in Kremlin. Besides her husband, of Kremlin, she is survived by three sons, Gene, Wayne and Lowell, all of Kremlin; one daughter, Mrs. Arlen (Donna) Knutson, Kremlin; two brothers, Ray Gehlen, Havre, and William Gehlen, Hayward, Calif.; four sisters, Esther Murray, St. Paul, Minn., Monica Lindstrom, Lakeside, Hildegard Spicher, Great Falls and Lorraine Doris, Oakland, Calif.; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

BUTTE — DORNBOS, Elsie

Eigeman, 74, a retired Safeway employee, died Tuesday in a Butte hospital. Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Thursday in St. Patrick Church, followed by burial in Holy Cross Cemetery, Butte. Wake service will be held at the Duggan-Dolan Mortuary chapel, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Born in Missoula, she attended schools there, graduating from Sacred Heart Academy, then graduated from Knapp Business School in Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Dornbos worked for Safeway for 23 years in Missoula and Butte, retiring in 1974. She married John A. Dornbos in Butte in 1934; he died in November 1976. A sister and four brothers also preceded her in death. Surviving are two sons, Brother John Dornbos, Butte, and the Rev. William Dornbos, Shelby; and a brother, Tom Eigeman, Spokane.

Joseph Dorsz, 74

Joseph R. Dorsz, 74, Essex, died Oct. 25 at Kalispell Regional Hospital after a brief illness. 1984

A bachelor and former merchant seaman, he traveled around the world several times before retiring to Essex in 1969.

One of six children of Ignaz and Cathrina Dorsz, he was born July 7, 1910, in Loraine, Ohio. His brothers and sister preceded him in death, and there are no known surviving family members.

At the request of the deceased, there were no public services. Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home of Kalispell.

Arvilla Dougherty

Arvilla J. Dougherty, 49, Columbia Falls, died Thursday at her home.

She was born Nov. 11, 1934 in Otter Tail County, Minn., the daughter of Aie Benjamin and Nancy E. Chase.

She was raised and educated in Henning, Minn. She married Michael E. Dougherty on Sept. 11, 1953 in Blue Grass, Minn. They lived in several parts of Minnesota and Montana before moving to Columbia Falls in 1976.

Mrs. Dougherty was a member of St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls.

Survivors include her husband, four sons, Michael, Wadena, Minn.; James, Doug and Gregg, Columbia Falls; six daughters, Vicky Finck, Vermale, Minn.; Patti Beach, Columbia Falls; Denise, Ohs, Whitefish; Pamela, Dougherty, Becky, Dougherty and Tracy, Dougherty, Columbia Falls; her mother, Nancy E. Chase, Deer Creek, Minn.; two brothers, Kenneth Chase, Longview, Wash. and Harris Chase, Kalispell; two sisters, Peggy Duberowski, Parkers Prairie, Minn. and Laura Viergutz, Backus, Minn.; and three grandchildren.

The body will be sent to Wadena, Minn. Mass of the Christian Burial will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Blue Grass, Minn. Burial will follow in the Catholic cemetery in Blue Grass.

Visitation is today from 1 p.m. until 8 p.m.

KIM DOWALIBY

Kim Louise Dowaliby, 16, a junior at Whitefish High School, died Saturday, Jan. 21, as a result of a school bus-tanker truck accident. She was born Dec. 6, 1967, a daughter of Michael and Sally Dowaliby, in Burbank, CA. She moved with her parents to Whitefish in 1978. She was a cheerleader and was active in Key Club and "W" Club. She had been associated recently with the Multiple Sclerosis Association. She is survived by her parents, Michael and Sally Dowaliby of Whitefish; a sister, Sue Dowaliby attending Montana State University in Bozeman; two brothers, Todd, also attending the Montana State University in Bozeman, and Mark, attending the University of Montana in Missoula; her maternal grandfather, Eben Carruthers of Hammond, OR, and her paternal grandmother, Hannah Dowaliby of Van Nuys, CA. The family suggests memorials to the Multiple Sclerosis Association, 1931 Broadwater, Billings, MT 59101. Graveside services will be Thursday, Jan. 26, at 10 a.m. at Glacier Memorial Gardens in Kalispell. 1984

Danny Lee Drake

LIBBY — Danny Lee Drake, 3 months old, died of sudden infant death syndrome Monday afternoon at his home in Libby.

He was born Dec. 11, 1983, in Libby.

Survivors include his parents, Doug and Linda Drake, and a brother Christopher, all of Libby; his grandparents, Eugene and Hazel Drake and Morris and Ida Norstebon, all of Libby; great-grandparents, Myrtle Kompelian, Quincy, Wash. and Emma Norstebon in Minnesota; several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Graveside services will be 1 p.m. Thursday at the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

Lela Dudley, 55

Lela Dudley, 55, of Libby, died Thursday of cancer at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane.

She was born Sept. 18, 1929, in Compton, Calif. to Benjamin and Nancy Bement. She was raised and educated in El Monte, Calif., and lived in the Los Angeles area until 1950.

She married Roy Dudley in Reno, Nev. on July 4, 1950. Following their marriage, they resided in Camlennet, Wash. for several years. They later lived in Seattle, Wash. and Portland, Ore.

She is survived by her husband at their home at Cliffside, south of Libby; one daughter, Teresa Lee Dudley, of Libby; her mother, Nancy Bement, Los Angeles; one sister, Marguerite Keas, of Kye, Tenn.; and one brother, Benjamin Bement, of Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be Monday at 11 a.m. at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel, with Charles Couch of the Libby Christian Church officiating.

Cremation will follow the services.

17 Jan. 1984
Henriette Dowell

Henriette Barton Dowell, 66, Billings, a former resident of Great Falls, died Jan. 17 in a Billings hospital.

Born in Pastura, N.M., she grew up in Great Falls and graduated from the Ursuline Academy, then attended Great Falls Commercial College and the University of Montana.

Mrs. Dowell had worked 12 years for Hines Motor Supply Co., first in Great Falls and later in Billings, where she moved in 1940. In October 1948, she and Oral L. Dowell were married in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City.

Her husband survives with a daughter, Shelley M. Dowell, New York City, and a sister, Mrs. Myron "Em" Olson, Martinez, Calif.

Services were held in Billings.

31 May 1984
Rachel A. Durbin

Rachel A. Durbin and her husband homesteaded north of Dodson in 1917, moving to Opheim and Glasgow. She moved to Miles City in 1983 to live with her daughter, Mrs. Durbin, 90, of Miles City, died Thursday in Holy Rosary Hospital in Miles City. She was a member of St. Raphael's Altar Society.

Born in Crary, N.D., a daughter of William and Isabelle Nixon, she was raised and educated in North Dakota, moving to Alberta, Canada, at 16. She married Charles Durbin Jan. 25, 1914 in Hanna, Alberta; he died in 1976.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Cleora "Pat" Gamrath of Miles City and Mrs. Lois Johnson of Salt Lake City, Utah; four sons, Gregory of Noel, Mo., James of Salem, Ore., Curtis of Lindsay and Eugene of Sacramento, Calif.; 20 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

Rosary was recited Monday at 7 p.m. in Bell Chapel. Mass was celebrated at 10 a.m. in St. Raphael's Catholic Church with burial in Highland Cemetery. J.E. Graves Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

1984
Fort Shaw 18-year-old dies of gunshot wound

Brady L. Dunning, Fort Shaw, 18, was found dead Sunday near his parked car along U.S. Highway 287 between Choteau and Augusta. According to Homer Gorder, Teton County coroner, Dunning died late Saturday of an apparently self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Gorder said Dunning was found Sunday by a family friend, about 100 feet from his parked car, after the young man's family became concerned that he was missing. The car was parked along the road about 5 miles north of Augusta, he said.

Gorder said that the boy was thought to be feeling despondent because of personal problems about the time of his death.

Services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Augusta Community Church, with burial in the Augusta Cemetery.

Born in Choteau, Dunning attended schools in Choteau and graduated in 1983 from Augusta High School, where he was student council president and homecoming king, quarterback captain of the 1982-83 football team and starting forward on the Augusta basketball team during his senior year.

He was a freshman at Montana Tech, Butte, at the time of his death. Survivors include his father, Wayne Dunning, Fort Shaw; his mother, Candace Stenson, Wolf Creek; a brother, Brian, Fort Shaw, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.K. "Snappy" Stenson, Choteau.

Arthur Duntsch, 90

Arthur F. Duntsch, 90, died Thursday evening in the Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Jan. 14, 1894, in Canyon City, Colo., the son of Gustav and Wilhelmina Duntsch. On June 4, 1914, he was married to Jessie Neil in Florence, Colo., and in 1917 they moved to Riverton, Wyo., where they raised their family. He owned and edited the Riverton Review for 25 years. Duntsch was a member of the Riverton Masonic Lodge for over 60 years, and had served as a Past Master. He had also served on the Riverton School Board. In 1943 he moved to Bozeman and purchased the Lew Gracey's Print Shop and changed its name to Artcraft Printers.

After his retirement, he spent 16 years in Sun City, Ariz., and then returned to Bozeman for three years, and resided in Kalispell for the past six months.

In 1970 he married Dora Hanson Mecklenburg in Bozeman, and is survived by her at their home in Kalispell. He is also survived by two sons, Robert G. Duntsch of Bozeman, and Arthur F. Duntsch of Tacoma, Wash.; two daughters, Thelma Newbay of Belgrade, and Donna Mandeville of Bozeman; one stepdaughter, Shirlee Spain of Kalispell; three stepsons, Bruce Mecklenburg of Bozeman, Howard Mecklenburg of Sidney and Willard Mecklenburg of Pittsburg, Montana; 15 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and several step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. on Wednesday in the Dokken-Nelson Sunset Chapel in the Sunset Hills Cemetery in Bozeman.

Michael Dugan, 81

Michael J. A. Dugan, 81, Whitefish, died Friday evening at his home.

He was born June 15, 1902, in Philadelphia, Pa., the son of John and Grace Dugan.

He was raised in Philadelphia, where he attended St. Joseph Prep School. In 1926 he graduated from the Drexel Institute of Technology. He was employed with the Philadelphia Electric Co. until the beginning of World War II.

During World War II, he served as a captain in the Army Air Corps from 1942 to 1944.

Following his tour of duty, he was employed with the General Cable Co. as a communication expert and was in charge of putting in the communication systems for all the Minuteman missiles in the western United States. He retired from the service in 1968. Since 1970, he has lived in Whitefish.

He married Mary McNulty Nov. 27, 1935, in Philadelphia.

He is survived by his wife at the family home in Whitefish, two daughters, Mary Williamson of Whitefish and Michele McBride of Anchorage, Alaska, two granddaughters, one grandson, two great-granddaughters, three brothers, Daniel in California, Bernard and Edward both of Philadelphia, two sisters, Sister Charles Marie of Denver and Sister Grace Mirita of Philadelphia.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and four sisters.

Rosary will be in the Austin Funeral Home Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. and Mass of the Resurrection will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. in St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Jack Huntehausen officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to Flathead Hospice or the Cancer Society.

Cher L. Dull

Cher L. Dull, newborn daughter of Marlo and Cheryl Murphy Dull of Kalispell, died Sunday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

Surviving in addition to her parents are a brother, Shad Dull, at the family home, paternal grandparents, Clifton and Fay Dull of Kalispell; maternal grandfather, Morris Murphy of Whitefish; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Dolf (Ilene) Schulstad of Kalispell; and maternal great-grandmother, Hanna Mitchell of Spokane, Wash.; as well as numerous uncles and aunts.

Graveside services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at Glacier Memorial Gardens, with the Rev. Dennis Ackley, associate pastor at Northridge Church of God, officiating.

Arrangements are by the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Ronald Dundas

Ronald T. Dundas, 85, an east lakeshore resident, died Thursday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born May 12, 1896, in Wibaux. He was raised in Wibaux and Dickinson, N.D., where he graduated from high school. He later attended both the University of Montana and Montana State University.

In 1920 he went to work for a stationery store in Missoula. Later that year he opened Dundas Office Supply in Helena. He moved the business to Great Falls in 1928, shortly after his marriage to Alpha Kiefer.

He sold Dundas Office Supply in 1952 and opened Dundas Wholesale also in Great Falls.

The couple then moved after retirement in 1956 to the east shore of Flathead Lake, where they had maintained a summer home since 1941. They spent part of each winter in the Los Angeles area. Mrs. Dundas died in 1976.

He was belonged to the Kiwanis and the National Association of Stationers, and was a member of the Roman Catholic church.

Survivors include two sons, R. Thomas Jr., Helena, and Robert Lake of the Woods, Va.; a sister, Marion Best, Studio City, Calif.; a brother, Wally Shelton, Wash.; six grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Funeral services were Saturday at 1 p.m. at Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell. Burial was in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Arthur Duntsch, 90

Arthur F. Duntsch, 90, died Thursday evening in the Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Jan. 14, 1897, in Canyon City, Colo., the son of Gustav and Wilhelmina Duntsch. In June 1, 1914, he was married to Jessie Neill in Florence, Colo., and in 1917 they moved to Rivermont, Wyo., where they raised their family. He owned and edited the Rivermont Review for 25 years. Duntsch was a member of the Rivermont Masonic Lodge for over 60 years and had served as a Past Master. He had also served on the Rivermont School Board. In 1943 he moved to Bozeman and purchased the Gracey's Print Shop and changed its name to Artercraft Printer.

After his retirement he spent 10 years in Sun City, Ariz., and then returned to Bozeman for three years, and resided in Kalispell for the past six months.

He was married to a woman who preceded him in death, and is survived by her at their home in Kalispell. He is also survived by two sons, Robert C. Duntsch of Bozeman and Arthur E. Duntsch of Bozeman, Wash.; two daughters, Elaine Newbay of Belgrade and Durn Mandeville of Bozeman; one stepdaughter, Shirley Spain of Kalispell; three stepsons, Bruce Wecklenburg of Bozeman, Howard Wecklenburg of Sidney, and Warren Wecklenburg of Pittsburg, Mo.; and 45 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and several step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. on Wednesday in the Dokken-Nelson Sunset Chapel in the Sunset Hills Cemetery in Bozeman.