

Nov 11 ~~Oct~~ 1984
Leone Hillstrand, 76

Leone Irene Hillstrand, 76, Kalispell, died Saturday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She had a distinguished nursing career in Great Falls and was director of the Nurses Registry before retiring. She moved to Kalispell last year.

Born June 28, 1908 in Benson, Minn., she was a daughter of Steven and Delia Klich. She attended the Waverly, Minn., high school and graduated from the Columbus Hospital School of Nursing in Great Falls in 1933.

She later worked at Columbus Hospital, as well as the Park Place and Cascade County nursing homes.

On Sept. 18, 1937, she married Chester Hillstrand at Great Falls.

She belonged to Catholic Daughters of Great Falls, the Printers' Auxiliary, Columbus Hospital Alumni Association, St. Thomas Auxiliary and St. Ann's Circle. In Great Falls she was a member of Holy Family Parish in Great Falls and attended St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Kalispell.

Her husband died in May 1972. She was also preceded in death by two sisters.

Survivors include a son, Thomas, of Great Falls; a daughter, Kaaren Jensen of Kalispell; four sisters, Gen Soshnik of St. Louis Park, Minn.; Rita Eckel of Worth, Ill.; Dorothy Wasner of Lake Helen, Fla.; and Patricia Anderson of Dallas; and three grandchildren.

Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. tonight in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel. The body will be forwarded to the O'Connor Funeral Home in Great Falls, where rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Tuesday evening in the O'Connor Memorial Chapel.

Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 11:15 a.m. Wednesday in Holy Family Catholic Church with the Rev. Robert Grosch as celebrant. Burial will be Mount Olivet Cemetery, also in Great Falls.

The family suggests memorials be made to the St. Matthew's Catholic Church window restoration fund.

Belle Hinkle

22 Feb.
1984

Belle Hinkle

Fort Benton resident Belle Greer Hinkle, 75, died Wednesday at a local hospital.

Services will be at Fort Benton's Sunrise Bluff Estates at 2 p.m. Friday with the Rev. Carl Erickson officiating. Cremation will take place.

She was born March 24, 1908, at Lynchburg, Va., the daughter of Hanes Greer and Catherine Smith Greer. She spent her young life and was educated at Lynchburg.

On Dec. 15, 1928, she married David Delmas Hinkle in Kentucky. They moved to Washington state in 1942, where they lived until 1946, when they came to Montana. She lived the last 20 years between here and Portland, Ore.

She worked as a cook at East Base (Malmstrom Air Force Base), Deaconess nursing home, and at an Air Force Base in Portland. She retired in 1970.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1973, one son, David Hinkle Jr., and one daughter, Jackie Swanson.

Survivors include four children, Danny, Bill and Mrs. William (Dorothy) Boss, all of Portland, and Mrs. Victor (Kathy) Fatz, Carter, and 11 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

23 Feb. 1984
WOLF POINT — HEADDRESS, Sarah M., 83, died Thursday in a Poplar hospital. Services will be 10 a.m. Monday in Clayton Memorial Chapel in Wolf Point. Burial will be in Chicken Hill Cemetery. Born and reared in Wolf Point, she married Henry Headdress June 16, 1916, in Poplar. He died in 1974. Survivors include a son, Dale, Wolf Point; a daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Johnson, Kelso, Wash.; and 18 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

20 Sept, 1984
Laurene Hoehn, 63

Laurene Bertha Hoehn, 63, of Kalispell, died Thursday evening at home after a long bout with cancer.

She was born April 12, 1921, in Redwood County, Minn., the daughter of John and Agatha Juenemann. She attended school at the Willow Lake school in Redwood County.

On August 3, 1954, she married Gilbert Hoehn in Clements, Minn. They moved to the Kalispell area in July 1973.

She was a member of the Immaculate Conception Church in Foys Canyon and took a great interest in gardening.

She is survived by her husband Gilbert; daughter Jeanette Hoehn; and sons James, Larry and John — all of Kalispell. She is also survived by her mother Agatha Juenemann, brothers Richard, Herbert and Bennett — all of Sanborn, Minn.; brother Denis of Clements, Minn.; two sisters, Dorothy Sellner, Sleepy Eye, Minn., and Bernice Goblirsch, Morton, Minn.; and many other relatives.

Visitation will be Monday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home. A Requiem High Mass will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Immaculate Conception Chapel, with Father Joseph Maria as celebrant. Burial will follow at the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Kalispell.

20 Jan, 1984
Grace Hoffman, 62

Grace Lola Hoffman, 62, of 111 Fourth Ave. W., Kalispell, died Friday in Kalispell Regional Hospital after a long illness with cancer.

She was born April 4, 1921, in Rio Blanco, Colo., the daughter of Elmer and Eva Blevin. She moved with her family to the Flathead when she was young and attended rural schools here. She graduated from Flathead High School.

She worked for Pacific Power and Light Co. and was a retired operator and supervisor for Northwestern Telephone.

She married Arthur A. Hoffman, who retired from the U.S. Navy, on April 11, 1974.

She is survived by her husband, Arthur, at the family home; one son, Riley Kair, Kalispell; two daughters, Anita Daneluke and JoAnn Schwartz, both of Bigfork; six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

There will be no public services following cremation. Arrangements are under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home.

INEZ MAE HOLLER

3 July 1989

Inez Mae Holler, 79, 1228 Willow Glen Drive in Kalispell, died June 30 at North Valley Extended Care Unit in Whitefish. She was born March 27, 1905 in Corbin, Kansas, the daughter of Joab and Sarah Jane Carr. She graduated from high school in Stafford, Kansas in 1923. She then worked as a telephone operator in Medford, Okla. for several years. She was married to James "Bert" Holler in Boise, Idaho, where they lived until coming to Kalispell in 1947. Mrs. Holler was preceded in death by three brothers, three sisters, and one granddaughter. Surviving besides her husband Bert Holler at the family home in Kalispell are two daughters, Mrs. Gerald (Gloria) Frees of Shoshone, Idaho, and Mrs. Robert (Janet) Porteous of Kalispell; two sons, James R. Holler of Fallbrook, Calif., and Joe W. Holler of Kalispell; a brother, Glenn Carr of Dallas, Texas; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Funeral services were Tuesday at the Weatherford Funeral Home, with the Rev. Dr. M. Eugene Mockabee, Pastor of Central Christian Church officiating. Burial followed at Glacier Memorial Gardens. The family suggests memorial contributions to the North Valley Extended Care Unit.

Robert Hintz, 62

LIBBY — Robert W. Hintz, 62, Libby, died of a heart attack Friday at his home. 30 Nov 1984

He was born Sept. 10, 1922, in Lorain, Ohio, the son of William and Catherine Hintz. He grew up and attended schools in Ohio. He worked for the Civilian Conservation Corps before World War II, and after his discharge played professional baseball and football in Vancouver, Wash. He then was employed by Buttrey Department Stores as head buyer in Glasgow during the 1940s and 1950s.

In the early 1960s he moved to California where he was employed by several furniture stores. He moved to Libby in 1973 and worked for Larry's Furniture.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia, Libby; six daughters, Barbara Quissel, Bend, Ore., Phyllis Scharnberg and Beverly Hintz, both of Fergus Falls, Minn., Kathleen Lethrud and Kristeen Lelm, both of Libby, Jeri Lee Young, Orange County, Calif.; five sons, Robert Hintz, El Toro, Calif., Ronald Hintz, Fergus Falls, Minn., Kenneth Hintz, Terrence Hintz, and William Kohner, all in California; a brother, LeRoy Hintz, Orange, Calif.; a sister, Jackie Herrmann in New Jersey; and 22 grandchildren.

Funeral services are today at Faith Bible Church in Libby. The Rev. Wiley Gibson will officiate. Burial will be in the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home, Libby.

Harold Hock, 27

TROY — Harold Hock, 27, died early Friday morning of injuries received in a one-vehicle accident west of Troy.

He was born on May 20, 1957, at Whitefish to Gerdis and Geraldine Hock. His family moved to Troy when he was very young. He attended Troy public schools.

He worked in the cedar-product business in Troy for several years and most recently was employed by Asarco.

He married Roxanne Madson Dempewolf on Dec. 28, 1983, at Bonner's Ferry, Idaho.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Mike, in 1980. He is survived by his wife, at home; a daughter, Amber Hock; a stepdaughter, Nea Dempewolf; and a stepson, Brock Dempewolf, all of Troy. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerdis Hock of Troy; a brother, Ed, of Troy; two sisters, Evelyn Jellesed of Troy, and Trina Austin of Trout Creek, and his grandmother, Margaret Hock of The Dalles, Ore.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the Troy Church of God, with the Rev. Gene Bushnell officiating. Burial will follow in Milnor Lake Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home.

LLOYD HOCKERSON

1984

Lloyd N. Hockerson, 73, of Bigfork, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on Wednesday, Jan. 18. He was born March 8, 1910, in Regent, N.D., a son of Charles and Pauline Hockerson. He had received his education there and was engaged in farming in North Dakota until 1937, when he moved to Bigfork where he operated the Hockerson Garage until 1970. On December 7, 1970, he was married to Aldine Conley in Coeur d'Alene, ID. The couple continued to operate the Echo Lake Cafe until 1975. Mr. Hockerson was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and one sister. He is now survived by his wife, Aldine, at the family home; three stepsons, Bob and Dicky Conley both of Bigfork, and Dale Conley of Condon; one stepdaughter, Betty Gambala, of Bigfork; two sisters, Thelma Schultz and Lila Coler both of Kalispell; several grandchildren; nieces and nephews. Funeral services were Saturday, Jan. 21, in the Little Brown Church near Bigfork with the Rev. Ron Pierce, pastor of the Swan Chapel officiating. Burial was in the Lonepine Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary. The family suggests memorials be made to the Bigfork Quick Response Unit; the ALERT Fund of Kalispell, or the charity of donor's choice.

27 Apr. 1984
'Pete' Hollopeter, 69

LEWISTOWN — F.R. "Pete" Hollopeter, 69, died April 27 at home in Lewistown following a lengthy illness. 1984

He was born Aug. 8, 1914, in Salem, Ore. While very young, he moved to the Swan Valley where his family homesteaded.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, of Lewistown; a daughter, Martha Hollowell of Spokane, Wash.; two grandsons, Gary of Spokane, Wash., and Roger of Mosby; three sisters, Evelyn Taylor of Kalispell, Jesamyn Ladd of Gervais, Ore., and Gertrude Fenty of Swan Lake; two brothers, John of Kalispell, and Roxy of Polson; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. May 12 in the Swan Chapel at Swan Lake.

The family suggests memorials to the Montana Division of the Nature Conservancy.

Cloyd Funeral Home in Lewistown is in charge of arrangements.

16 Feb. 1984
WOLF CREEK — HICKS, Lila E., 89, died at her home, the family ranch north of Wolf Creek, Thursday. Services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the Retz Funeral Home, Helena, followed by burial in Forestvale Cemetery, Helena. Born at Stewart, in the Anaconda Valley, she moved to the South Fork of the Dearborn in 1912 with her family and later taught school there, as well as teaching at Lloyd, near Havre. She homesteaded near Chinook and in 1923 married Alfred Hicks at Butte. Mrs. Hicks was a 50-year and charter member of the Dearborn Homemakers, a charter member of the Dearborn Garden Club, a charter member of the Lewis and Clark County CowBelles, and a 60-year member of Miriam Chapter 1, Order of Eastern Star. Surviving are a son, Calvin, Wolf Creek; a daughter, Charlene Goodale, Helena; a stepson, Floyd Hicks, Lewistown; a stepdaughter, Ethel Hodges, Salt Lake City; and a sister, Mabel Guyer, Helena. Her husband died in 1960.

J.G. Hochstetler, 87

HAMILTON — John G. Hochstetler, 87, Hamilton, died of natural causes Monday at North Valley Nursing Home in Stevensville.

He was born Feb. 28, 1896, in Shipshewana, Ind., the son of Gideon and Elizabeth Shrock Hochstetler. At the age of 1, he moved with his parents to North Dakota, and at the age of 13 he moved with his family to Wisconsin. He attended Bible school in North Dakota.

He married Emma Rachel Birky June 14, 1921, at White Sulphur Springs.

He was ordained as a minister in the Mennonite Church Nov. 24, 1921. He and his wife lived at White Sulphur Springs until 1928 when they moved to Creston near Kalispell. He served as pastor of the church at White Sulphur Springs for seven years and the Creston church for 38 years.

In 1967 he moved to Hamilton where he helped to establish the Woodside Mennonite Church.

Survivors include three sons, Harold Hochstetler, Eugene, Ore., Virgil Hochstetler, Hamilton, and Owen Hochstetler, Victor; a daughter, Leona Oesch, Minot, N.D.; three sisters, Katie Graber, Shipshewana, Ind., Lavina Hochstetler, Nappanee, Ind., and Susie Bontrager, Macon, Mo.; 21 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife on April 27, 1980; a daughter, Nona Brubaker on Jan. 10, 1984; five brothers and three sisters.

Funeral services were today at Woodside Mennonite Church. Burial was at the Corvallis Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the American Bible Society, P.O. Box 5656, Grand Central Station, N.Y. 10163.

Albert Holst, 81

<sup>24 May 1984</sup>
Albert M. "Pete" Holst, 81, a former resident of West Glacier, died Thursday morning at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Aug. 1, 1903, in Lidgerwood, N.D., a son of August and Katherine Holst.

He engaged in various occupations throughout his life, here in the valley and in other areas. He had been a long-time resident of the West Glacier area.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Marguerite, in 1953, and a son, Donald, in 1957.

He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Carol and Tony Hecimovich and their seven children; his daughter-in-law and grandson, Romona and Mark Holst, of Colville, Wash.; two brothers, M.R. Holst of Oakridge, Ore., and Jack Holst of San Jose, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Delno (Vivian) Hoehne, Dorothy Williams, Agnes Fieland, and Esther Esperson, all of Eugene, Ore., and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Jack Hunthausen officiating. Burial will be in Whitefish Cemetery under the direction of Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish.

The family suggests memorials to the American Diabetes Association, 600 Central Plaza, Box 2411, Great Falls, Mont. 59403 or the the American Cancer Society, c/o Flathead County Unit, P.O. Box 236, Whitefish, Mont. 59937.

15 Sept. 1984

Elizabeth Hopper, 90

Elizabeth M. Hopper, 90, died Saturday morning at Colonial Manor in Whitefish.

She was born June 29, 1894, in Spokane to Albert and Mary Hopper. Her parents were early settlers of the Spokane area, where her father was president of the Spokane Falls Gas Co.

She graduated from the Brunot Hall School for Girls in Spokane, then attended Smith College in Northampton, Mass. She earned a master's degree in education from the University of California at Berkeley.

She was a career employee of Western Washington College at Bellingham, Wash., where she was a placement officer. Upon her retirement in 1955 she traveled extensively throughout the world, and was honored by Pan American Airways for her around-the-world flights.

She is survived by a cousin, Jeanne Fore of Northridge, Calif., and a sister-in-law, Eula Hopper of Kalispell. Her brother, George Hopper, died Aug. 13.

At Miss Hopper's request, there will be no public services. Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home of Kalispell.

Mildred Alice Hope

20 Sept 1984

A funeral service for Mildred Alice "Pansy" Hope, 91, of Sequim, Wash. and a former resident of Whitefish, was Monday in Sequim Valley Chapel, with the Rev. Homer H. Smith of St. Luke's Episcopal Church officiating. Burial was in Sequim View Cemetery.

Mrs. Hope died Wednesday in Sequim. She was born June 25, 1893 in Pocatello, Idaho, to Charles P. and Alice L. Young. Her early childhood was spent in Chicago, Ill., but she later attended schools in Whitefish and Cut Bank, and was a member of the first class to graduate from Cut Bank High School in 1914.

She married Forest Henry Hope July 1, 1914 in Whitefish. He died in 1973.

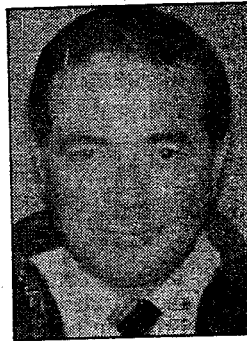

After homesteading on the prairie in Cut Bank and residing in Whitefish, the Hopes moved to Sequim in 1936. Mrs. Hope served as an airplane watcher after World War II. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and of the Episcopal Church.

She is survived by a son, David Hope of Sequim; a daughter Juanita Gilbertson of Port Angeles; 12 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and seven great, great grandchildren. A son, George Hope, and a daughter, Alice Underwood, preceded her in death.

19 Jan 1984
STANFORD — HOLZER, Mathew 'Jake', 90, died Thursday evening in the Fort Harrison Veterans Hospital. Mass will be celebrated Monday at 11 a.m. in St. Rose of Lima Church, Stanford; burial in Stanford Cemetery. Cloyd Funeral Home in Lewistown is handling arrangements. Born in Stockbridge, Wis., he received his education in Wisconsin before moving to the Judith Basin when he was 19 years old. He settled at Benchland and worked as a team driver for George Holzer, and in 1918 entered the U.S. Army. He served in the infantry in France, returning to Benchland in 1919. He worked in the livery stable there, moving to Lewistown where he worked at the Milwaukee Roundhouse as a boilermaker's helper. He then worked for the last of the big threshing crews, and hauled lumber for Ringling Bros. at White Sulphur Springs before buying a homestead on Sage Creek, which he farmed between jobs until 1926, when he became employed with the Long Investment Co. where he worked until 1936. At that time, he began farming operations which he continued until his retirement in 1959, when he moved to Stanford. A wood carver, Holzer made diamond willow canes for people all over the country. He never married. Among his survivors are a nephew, Paul Holzer, Stanford, and a niece, Marjorie Uhlrich, Lewistown.

Arnold Holme

9 Feb
1984

Arnold
Holme

Arnold R. "Arnie" Holme, 42, 928 Ave. B NW., died Thursday morning at a Great Falls hospital after being stricken.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Luke the Evangelist Catholic Church with the Rev. Anthony Gregori officiating. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery. Rosary will be recited 7 p.m. Friday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel.

Born in Plentywood, Holme moved to Great Falls with his family as a young boy. He graduated from Central High School, and later attended the College of Great Falls for a short time.

He then began work with Buttrey Foods, where he was employed for the past 24 years. He was manager of the northside Buttrey's Food Store at the time of his death.

He married Sandra Jean Sapp in January, 1965 at Great Falls. He is survived by his wife, Sandra, a son, Scott R. Holme, a daughter Michelle Rene Holme, his mother, Inez Sutich, a brother, Robert Holme, and two sisters, Mary Jane Krestalude, and Janice Sundquist, all of Great Falls.

13 Aug 1984
George Hopper, 86

George T. Hopper, 86, Kalispell, died Monday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital of natural causes.

He was born July 21, 1898, in Spokane, Wash., the son of Albert and Mary Hopper. He was raised in Spokane and attended Whitworth College and the University of Washington.

He was a career federal employee, and retired in 1954 as assistant superintendant and engineer at Lassen Volcanic National Park, after 31 years with the U.S. Forest Service and National Park Service. He served as park engineer at several national parks, including Glacier National Park.

He was a member of Christ Church Episcopal, Elks Lodge No. 725 in Kalispell and Masonic Lodge No. 89 in Columbia Falls. A veteran of World War I, he was discharged in 1918 from the U.S. Naval Reserve Air Force with the rank of chief quartermaster.

On July 2, 1927, he married Cordelia Tangen in Yreka, Calif., and she preceded him in death in 1976. He was also preceded in death by a daughter, Betty Hopper, in 1975.

He married Eula E. Rupp in Kalispell on April 2, 1977, and she survives him at the family home in Kalispell. Also surviving are a son, James L. "Pat" Rupp of Whitefish; a daughter, Mrs. Warren (Susan) Kennedy of Midvale, Utah; a sister, Elizabeth Hopper of Whitefish; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home, with the Rev. Paul Taylor of Christ Church Episcopal officiating. Cremation has taken place.

The family suggests memorials to the ALERT Foundation.

James Howard, 46

21 Feb 1984
LIBBY — James L. Howard, 46, died Tuesday at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby of a heart attack.

Mr. Howard was born on Oct. 26, 1937, in Bucklin, Kan., the son of Claude and Hester Hollopeter. He later changed his name.

He came to Kalispell as a child where he spent most of his childhood and attended school. He had been employed as a logger for several years in the Flathead Valley area and had also worked as a security guard in Spokane for a short period of time.

On May 20, 1979, he married Nancy Blinco in Coeur d'Alene. They have lived in Libby since their marriage.

He was a member of the David Thompson Search and Rescue in Libby.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a daughter, a brother and a sister.

Survivors include his wife, Nancy, Libby; a daughter, Brandi, Libby; six sons, Johnnie, Jerry, Vernon and Dave, all of Libby; John and Donald, both of Billings, and several aunts.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Wilford Luce of the First Presbyterian Church officiating.

The family suggests memorials to the David Thompson Search and Rescue in Libby.

Mary Howell, 47

30 Nov. 1984
Mary Jane Howell, 47, a 19-year resident of Kalispell, died at home Friday.

She was born May 9, 1937, in Walla Walla, Wash., to Wilbur and Ida Mae Page. She attended schools in Walla Walla and Richland, Wash., then enrolled in beauty college in Spokane.

She worked as a beauty operator in Spokane until 1960, when she moved to Osburn, Idaho. Four years later she moved to Coeur d'Alene, where on June 11, 1965, she married William Howell. The couple then moved to Kalispell.

Survivors include her husband, at home; her parents, in Kalispell; two daughters, Dicie Adele Foultnier and Teresa Marie McIlhargey, both of Kalispell; a son, Bill, of Kalispell; two stepchildren, Stuart Howell of Shelby and Sheri Ann Howell of Kalispell; two brothers, Robert Page of Boise, Idaho, and Michael Page of Seattle; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Mortuary chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt of the Epworth United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Hubert Hudson, 72

24 Dec 1984
Hubert A. Hudson, 72, died Monday evening at his home in Coram.

He was born Aug. 20, 1912, in Chatham, Ill., to Roland and Mildred Hudson. He was raised and educated in Cut Bank, Great Falls and Black Duck, Minn.

He worked in various parts of the United States for many years.

He married Mary M. Gaffaney on April 26, 1965, in Lethbridge, Alberta. They moved to Coram in 1970.

He worked for Glacier National Park as a maintenance man for many years.

He was an avid gardener.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, at the family home in Coram; a brother, Lindel Hudson of Sedalia, Mo.; a sister, Esther Trainor of Kansas City, Mo.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Rick (Barbara) Hendricks of Santaquin, Utah; seven grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Tod Fox of the Canyon Community Church will officiate. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Visitation will be until 8 tonight and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

The family suggests memorials to Shodair Children's Hospital in Helena.

MARLEEN HOYLMAN

KH
Marleen Ima Hoylman, 65, 425 W. Utah, Kalispell, died Friday, March 30, of lung cancer. She was born September 12, 1918, in Britton, S.D., to Herbert and Mildred Gunderson Bundrock. She attended schools in South Dakota and moved to Kalispell in 1936. She later married Howard Hoylman in Kalispell, March 5, 1942. Marleen had her own ceramics shop and enjoyed judging ceramics at shows and exhibits throughout the area. She is survived by her husband Howard at the family home in Kalispell; one son,

1984
30 MAR
Lee in Enumclaw, Wash., two daughters, Janet Sands and Starlene Puuri in Kalispell; her mother, Mildred Bundrock in Kalispell; a brother, Hasley Bundrock in Kalispell; 13 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Funeral services were Monday, April 2 at the Weatherford Funeral Home with Pastor Robert D. Ross of the Christian Center Assembly of God officiating. Burial followed at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Weatherford Funeral Home, Kalispell, is in charge of arrangements.

Dan Huffine

Services for Franklin Daniel "Dan" Huffine, 79, were held 1 p.m. Thursday (today) at the Fairview Chapel. Burial was in the Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Huffine was born in Bozeman and educated in Worden and Bozeman. He worked for the phone company and the Forest Service until 1925, when he went to work for Glacier Transportation Co. where he was a bus driver until 1928. He was then a Park ranger for the National Park Service at St. Mary, Many Glacier and Cut Bank ranger stations.

He and his wife cooked for the Going-to-the-Sun Road survey crew at Reynolds Creek in Glacier National Park.

He married Doris Ashley in 1927 at Bozeman. They lived in Cut Bank until moving to the Essex area in 1932, where they worked in the tourist business. From 1940 to 1945, he was employed by Intermountain Transportation Co. at Kalispell. They returned to the Essex area where they continued in the tourist business until 1964 when they were flooded out. Then they moved to Columbia Falls. In Columbia Falls they operated the Huffine Museum. Mr. Huffine had been an assessor in the Columbia Falls area for 20 years and was a 22-year member of the Bad Rock Volunteer Fire Department.

He and Mrs. Huffine also donated the Tally Ho wagon to Glacier National Park in 1977.

Survivors include his wife; two sisters, Jackie Pilcher and Erma Fritts, both Bozeman.

JOHN B. HULIT

25 APR 1984

John B. Hulit, 57, Columbia Falls, died April 25 at North Valley Hospital. He was born Sept. 30, 1926, in Sweetgrass to Phil and Merle Hulit. He was raised and educated in the Flathead Valley. He served in the Army from 1944 to 1952. He worked on construction projects in various parts of the state and later worked for the Forest Service for more than 12 years. He then worked as a carpenter in the western states on construction projects. He is preceded in death by his father and a brother. He is survived by his mother, Merle Hulit of Columbia Falls; a brother, Lee Huiit of Columbia Falls; three sisters, Molly Boisen of Martin City, Vera Prichard and Dixie Knopfle, both of Columbia Falls; and numerous nieces and nephews. A graveside service was April 28 at the Fairview Cemetery near Deer Park. The Rev. Darrell Newby of the Assembly of God Church in Columbia Falls officiated. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials to the Columbia Falls Volunteer Ambulance Association in Columbia Falls. Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls handled arrangements.

Gladys Huffman, 72

<sup>15 May 1984</sup>
LIBBY — Gladys P. Huffman, 72, died Tuesday evening of natural causes at the Libby Care Center.

She was born July 26, 1911, in Stevensville, to Leslie and Mamie Weir. She was raised and educated in Stevensville and Missoula.

She married Luther Huffman on Sept. 21, 1929, in Missoula. After their marriage, the couple moved to Orville, Wash., where they owned and operated a cafe. In 1951 they moved to Libby and operated a drive-in cafe there until 1958. They then moved to California and operated a cafe until returning to Libby in 1969.

After her husband's death in 1973, she moved to the Libby Care Center.

She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Survivors include two sons, Bud Huffman, Troy, and Charles D. Huffman, Everett, Wash.; two sisters, Norma Brist and Beth Orr, both of Libby; a brother, Grant Weir, Spokane; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Friday at 12:30 p.m. at the LDS Church in Libby. Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home.

John Huggins, 88

<sup>2 May 1984</sup>
John V. Huggins, 88, died Wednesday morning in Bigfork Convalescent Center where he had resided for the past several years.

He was born April 27, 1896, in the Deer Park area south of Columbia Falls, the second child of Logan and Nannie Huggins. He attended Deer Park School. As a young man he worked on farms, logging, river drives, cooking and fur trapping.

In 1917 he entered the U.S. Army serving in the 46th Spruce Squadron until receiving his honorable discharge in 1918.

In 1924 he married Grace Oertel.

In the late 1920s and the 1930s he lived in Essex and worked on lookouts, trail crews, railroad and road construction, depending upon the season. During World War II he worked as a carpenter at Hanford, Wash., and followed that trade thereafter. He worked for five years on the construction of Hungry Horse Dam.

In 1951 he married Wilma Apple and was preceded in death by her in 1962.

He was also preceded in death by three sisters, Mary in 1906, Olive in 1929, and Viola in 1980.

He is survived by a son, Fred C. Huggins of Auburn, Wash.; four grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Homer Huggins of Kalispell, and Fred Huggins of western Montana; a sister, Effie Cole of LaGrande, Ore., and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be at 1 p.m. Friday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating. Military graveside rites will be conducted by local veterans organizations. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

9 Oct. 1984
Charles Hull, 69

Charles R. Hull, 69, Whitefish, died Tuesday morning in North Valley Hospital.

He was born March 26, 1915, in Whitefish, a son of Lorin G. and Frances Hull. He was raised and educated in Whitefish and graduated from Whitefish High School in 1933. After high school he attended school in Spokane.

In 1939 he was employed with the Great Northern Railway and worked in Whitefish until the start of World War II. He served in the U.S. Army in the C.B.I. Theater and received his honorable discharge in 1945. After the war he returned to Whitefish and continued his employment as a clerk with the railroad, retiring July 1, 1975.

He was a member of the Whitefish Moose Lodge, Stillwater Grange and B.N. Veteran Association.

On June 2, 1948, he married Lois Kaber in Whitefish and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by two brothers, Albert F. Hull and William B. Hull, both of Whitefish, and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Robert, in 1935.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Christ Lutheran Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Harold Petersen officiating. Cremation has taken place.

The family suggests memorials to Christ Lutheran Church Building Fund.

Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish is in charge of arrangements.

2 Feb. 1984
Lynn Hull, 61

Lynn L. Hull, 61, Lakeside, died Thursday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Nov. 18, 1922, in Endicott, Neb., to Bert and Lucille Hull. He was raised in Lincoln, Neb., and earned a degree in civil engineering at the University of Nebraska.

He joined the Army upon graduation, and served in Germany as a paratrooper with the 101st Airborne Division during World War II.

After the war he began working for the United States Geological Survey. He worked at Lincoln and Bridgeport, Neb., and at Albuquerque, N.M., before coming to Kalispell, where he retired after 33 years with USGS. He moved to Lakeside in 1977, and began working part-time as a hydrology consultant the following year.

An avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, photography, alpine and cross-country skiing.

He married Virginia Knopp in Lincoln on Oct. 9, 1948.

Besides his wife, survivors include a daughter, Dr. Connie Hull of Botwood, Newfoundland, a son, Bill, of Hailey, Idaho; his mother, Lucille, of Lincoln; and a brother, Herbert, of Lincoln.

Memorial services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at Lakeside Chapel, with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey officiating. Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the Lakeside Chapel.

Dean Hulsing, 74

19 June 1984
Dean J. Hulsing, 74, of Bigfork, died Friday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born June 8, 1910, in Renville, Minn., a son of Ben and Emma Hulsing.

In 1920, he moved with his family to Terry and received his education in Miles City. He then moved to Great Falls, where he farmed and ranched with his father until 1937, when he moved to the Flathead Valley.

On Nov. 21, 1938, he married Helen Thorn in Polson. Mr. Hulsing was engaged in construction work with Montana Builders. During World War II, he worked in Bremerton, Wash., and Sandpoint, Idaho, returning to the Flathead Valley and continuing with construction work.

In 1956 he was employed with Plum Creek Lumber Co. as a millwright until his retirement in 1974.

He has spent much of his time since then helping people with carpentry projects.

He was a member of the Bethany Lutheran Church and the Elks Lodge.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Helen, and two sisters. He is survived by two sons, Russell D. Hulsing, of Washington, D.C., and Dennis R. Hulsing of Dickinson, N.D.; two brothers, Kenneth Hulsing of Plymouth, Minn., and Harry Hulsing of Bend, Ore.; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Hulsing will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Bethany Lutheran Church of Bigfork with the Rev. Greg Karlsgodt of the Faith Lutheran Church of Hamilton officiating. Burial will be in Lone Pine Cemetery near Bigfork under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

8 June 1984 Jesse A. Hunt, 59

LIBBY — Jesse A. Hunt, 59, Libby, died of cancer Friday at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Spokane.

He was born Feb. 3, 1925, in Dixon, Neb. He received his schooling in South Dakota.

Mr. Hunt was a veteran of World War II. He moved to Whitefish in 1974 where he was a logger. He moved to Libby in 1977, and also was employed in the logging industry.

Survivors include a daughter, Catherine Albin, Greencastle, Ind.; a son, Michael Hunt, Libby; a sister, Bonnie Bauer, Sula; six brothers, Verlin and Wesley Hunt, both of Custer, S.D.; Loren Hunt, Denver; Chet and Ken Hunt, both of Whitefish; Duane Hunt, Polson; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Vial Funeral Home in Libby. Mike Antonelli will officiate. Interment will be at the City of Libby Cemetery.

12 Dec 1984 Caleb Husted

EUREKA — Caleb Edward Husted, infant son of Paul and Mary Jane Husted, died Wednesday afternoon at his home in Eureka of sudden infant death syndrome.

He was born Sept. 29, 1984, in Whitefish.

Survivors include his parents; a brother, Zachary; and a sister, Hannah, of the family home.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at First Church of God in Eureka with the Rev. Neil Anderson and the Rev. Wade Butler officiating.

Burial will be in Tobacco Valley Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Eureka.

Esther W. Hyde, 86

10/22/1984
Esther Weigle Hyde, 86, died early Sunday morning at Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She was born Oct. 18, 1897, in Spokane, Wash., the daughter of Frank and Sarah Weigle. After her father retired from the Northern Pacific Railroad, the family moved to Libby, where she graduated from high school in 1917. After teaching at the rural school in Manikie, Mont., she moved to Yakima, Wash., where she graduated from business college. She then worked as a secretary for the Northern Pacific Railroad for more than 35 years.

In 1940, she married Gilbert Hyde and they made their home in Tacoma, until his death in 1979. She moved to Kalispell in April 1982 and has been a resident at Immanuel Lutheran Home since December 1982.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Arthur (Ruth) White of Kalispell; a brother, Frank Weigle of Twin Falls, Idaho; two nephews, Arthur White Jr. of Kalispell and Edward White of Port Orchard, Wash.; a niece, Helen Witmus of Bremerton, Wash., and several other relatives.

Visitation will be Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating. Burial will be Friday at Mountain View Cemetery in Tacoma, Wash.

J.J. Hutchison, 75

22 Apr. 1984
LIBBY — Jacob J. Hutchison, 75, Libby, died of natural causes Sunday at the Libby Care Center.

Mr. Hutchison was born July 2, 1908, in Arnold, Neb., and was raised and educated in Nebraska.

On Oct. 20, 1929, he married Alvina Koch in Hastings, Neb. He farmed in Nebraska until he moved to Portland, Ore., in 1934 and became a dental technician. The couple moved to Plains in 1950 and Mr. Hutchison operated a Conoco service station and a fruit and vegetable stand. In 1964 they moved to Noxon where he operated a Texaco service station and grocery store. They moved to Libby in 1976.

Survivors include his wife, Alvina, Libby; two daughters, Joanne Hiller, Noxon, and Georgia Slowe, Wenatchee, Wash.; a son, Jack, Libby; two sisters, Elsie Howe, Hemet, Calif., and Hattie Simpson of Lancaster, Calif.; three brothers, Tom, Marion, Kan., Donald, Portland, Ore., and Raymond, Seaside, Ore.; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Vial Funeral Home with Harold Wise officiating. Interment will be at 1 p.m. at the Noxon cemetery.

9 Feb. 1984
HAVRE — HYSLOP, Charles W., 77, died Thursday at a Havre hospital. Funeral services are Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Holland and Bonine Chapel in Havre. Burial will be in the Highland Cemetery in Havre. Born in Osseo, Wis., he came to Montana in 1910 with his parents. He married Emma Stolz in Boulder in 1943. He worked for the Great Northern and the Burlington Northern for 30 years until retirement in 1971. He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Richard (Kathryn) Friesen of Riverton, Wyo.; Mrs. Wilburt (Lillian) Smith of Del Rio, Texas, and Mrs. Dennis (Linda) Hinkle of Havre; 10 grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Roy (Lillian) Haugen of Shelby and Mrs. Fred (Alice) Harshaw of Havre.

Lawrence Hunter

Lawrence F. Hunter, 77, former Glasgow resident, died in Chewelah, Wash., March 15, 1984.

Graveside services are pending in Glasgow.

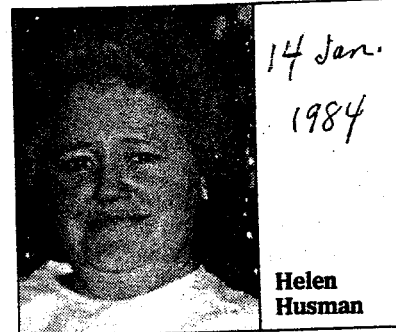

A son of Mattie and Mac Hunter, Mr. Hunter was born in Glasgow June 10, 1906. He worked in the mines at Butte from 1936 to 1952, then he lived in Portland, Ore., until moving to Whitehall a few years ago.

He is survived by a brother, Clifford of Southgate, Calif.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Hazel Kallok and Sophia Fitzgerald.

The family requests that memorials go to Yellowstone Boys Ranch or the charity of one's choice.

Helen Husman

Helen M. Husman, 42, 108 River-view 2 E., died at a local hospital Saturday after being hospitalized for about one month.

Funeral services will be at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel Tuesday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Barry Padgett officiating. Burial will follow in the Highland Cemetery.

She was born in Cheyenne, Wyo., where she attended schools. She came to Great Falls in 1978 and worked as a housekeeper for the Park Place Nursing Home, the Holiday Inn and the Super Eight Motor Inn. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

She is survived by three sons, Richard, Talbot and Fredrick, addresses unavailable; three sisters, Mrs. Eugene (Ellen) Carter, Great Falls; Beverly Dazzo, Geneva, Ill., and Leanna Allen, Rosebird, Ore.; three brothers, Francis E. Brooks, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Dale R. Brooks, Vancouver, Wash., and Duane M. Steputis, Costa Mesa, Calif.; and several nieces and nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews.

26 Jan 1984
JOPLIN — HULTIN, Alma J., 98, died Thursday morning at St. Peter's Hospital in Helena. Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the Bethel Lutheran Church in Joplin, with burial in the Joplin cemetery. Arrangements are by Rockman Chapel in Chester. Born in the Dakota Territory, she attended schools near Milton, N.D., and married Elmer Hultin in 1904. They came to Montana in 1911 and homesteaded north of Joplin. For a time during the 1930s, the Hultins lived in the Big Sandy community, but in 1942 they came back to Joplin, where she worked in the post office for many years. In 1974, she moved to Helena, where she lived at the Masonic home until her death. Her husband died in 1974. Survivors include three sons, Fritjof, Walnut Creek, Calif.; Ralph, Mesa, Ariz., and John, Shelby, and daughters Eva Amundson, Missoula; Alice Hultin, Tacoma; Selma Sonntag, Spokane, Wash., and Ruth Downing, Mill Valley, Calif.

25 Feb 1984
LEWISTOWN — HRUSKA, Albert J., 90, died Saturday at a Lewistown nursing home. Funeral Mass will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Leo's Catholic Church with burial in Calvary Cemetery. Rosary will be 7 p.m. Monday at the Cloyd Funeral Chapel. Born in Howells, Neb., he moved to Montana in 1904 and completed his schooling here. The family settled in Lewistown and purchased a ranch. He worked as a steam-engine operator and was engaged in the breaking-up of virgin soil in the Christina and Belt areas. In 1917, he married Marie Kotas in Denton. They ranched near Lewistown. He also played in a dance band. His wife died in 1970. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Weldon (Margie) Moody, Lewistown; four grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Thomas Hudelson

4 Feb
 1984

Thomas
 Hudelson

CARTER — Longtime Carter-area resident Thomas E. (Pete) Hudelson, 90, died Saturday at a local hospital. Services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel followed by burial at Highland Cemetery, with military honors by the Fort Benton American Legion. He was born in 1893 at Adrian, Mo. He was raised there and graduated from high school in 1912. Following his education, he was employed in a retail store at Adrian. In 1916, he married Anna L. Hall at Adrian. They came to Monarch following their marriage. He served in the U.S. Army during World War I and was stationed in France. He was wounded and brought back to the U.S. on the U.S.S. Leviathan. In 1919, he returned to Monarch following his discharge. He later homesteaded west of Carter. In 1929, he moved to Great Falls and was employed by the J.C. Penney Co. He returned to Carter in the early 1930s and purchased the present family farm. He was a lifetime member of the Disabled American Veterans, the American Legion Henry Greisbach Post in Fort Benton, had served on the Carter school board and was instrumental in the construction of the present Carter Community Hall. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. William (Von-Cile) Robertson, Carter; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Anna, in 1933.

17 Aug 1984
Harold Huber, 60,

BILLINGS — The Rev. Harold V. Huber, 60, minister at Trinity Lutheran Church in Kalispell from 1965 to 1978 died Aug. 17 in a Billings hospital from a heart attack suffered during an early morning walk near his home.

At the time of his death, Huber was president of Montana District Lutheran Church Missouri Synod and assistant pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Billings.

He was born Feb. 25, 1924, in Freeman, S.D., a son of Henry and Magdalena Huber. He was raised in Freeman. He attended Trinity Lutheran Christian Day School, Concordia Academy in St. Paul, Minn., graduating in 1943, and Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo., graduating in June 1947. He served his vicarage at Holy Cross, Saginaw, Mich., from 1945 to 1946.

He served churches in Bateman and Kelstern, Saskatchewan, from September 1947 to May 1953, in Oakes, N.D., from 1953 to 1965 and then at Kalispell until moving to Billings in September 1978.

He held various district offices during his ministry, serving as circuit counselor in the Manitoba-Saskatchewan District; as circuit counselor, missions committee, first vice president and president from 1961 to 1964 in the North Dakota District.

On Aug. 1, 1952, he married Hilda Louisa Rolke in Bateman, Saskatchewan.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Mark Allen of Hong Kong, and Walter Wayne of Beaverton, Ore.; a daughter, Barbara Huber Pearson of Milwaukie, Ore.; five brothers, Kurt, Ray and Herbert, all of Freeman, S.D., Walter of Longmont, Colo., and Rueben of Lake Clitherall, Minn.; four sisters, Wilma Krause of Sullivan, Ill., Betty Peters of Dana, Ill., Alice Mendel of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Marilyn Coffin of Tennessee; and one grandchild.

Services were Aug. 21 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Billings with burial in Mountview Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the Montana District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, c/o Trinity Lutheran Church, 537 Grand Ave., Billings 59101.

24 Jan 1984
HAVRE — HOWSER, Ella B., 83, died Tuesday at her residence in Havre. Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at Sixth Avenue Christian Church with burial in Highland Cemetery. She was born in Elizabeth, Minn. The family moved to Watford City, N.D., in 1905, where she grew up and went to school. She attended college in Minot, N.D. In 1927, she and her twin sister came to the Kremlin area and taught school from 1927 until 1935. She was married in 1931 to Ralph J. Howser. After their marriage, they leased a farm in the Kremlin area and moved into Kremlin in 1943. She taught school from 1940 to 1942. In 1950, they bought another ranch east of Kremlin and remained there until they retired in 1977 and moved to Havre. Her husband died in 1982. Survivors include a daughter, Dorothy Mae Gibson, Seattle; sisters Olive Alex, Dickinson, N.D.; May Hystad, Phoenix, Ariz.; Almira Stipe, St. Ignatius, and Mary Salveson, Lake Mills, Iowa.

18 Jan 1984
KEVIN — HOWARD, Esther M., 86, died Wednesday in a local hospital. Services are set for 2 p.m. Monday in the Burns Funeral Home in Shelby, followed by burial in the family plot at Crown Hill Cemetery in Cut Bank. She was born in Patoka, Indiana, and schooled there. She worked there for the telephone company and the United States Post Office. She moved to Riverside, Wyo., during the 1923 oil boom. She married Arthur Howard there, and they came to Montana shortly afterward. They lived in the oil field areas near Cut Bank, Kevin and Sunburst. Her husband died in 1962.

Mabel Hovland

28 Dec 1984

Mabel Hovland, 89, died Friday, Dec. 28 at the Valley View Nursing Home in Glasgow.

Funeral services were held Monday, Dec. 31, at 2 p.m. at the First Lutheran Church with Pastor Robert Nilsen officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Brian Baird, Ole Hovland, Roy Hovland, Amos Erickson, Milford Sand and Alden Smith.

Born Nov. 22, 1895 in Lawndale, Minn., she was the daughter of Alfred and Gunda Malingen.

On March 30, 1920 she married John Hovland.

They homesteaded in the Larslan community in 1920. She had lived in Glasgow since 1938. After the death of her husband, John in 1932, she raised all six kids by herself.

Survivors include two sons, Richard Hovland of Hardin, and Merlin Hovland of Spokane; four daughters, Jeanette Corey of Spokane, Doris Maag of Glasgow, LaVonne McFarland of Seattle and Lynn Logsett of Tacoma; four sisters, Gertha Blankenship of Barnsville, Minn., Olida Lyngaas of Plentywood, Ann Venturi of Talmage, Calif., and Hazel Schill of Perham, Minn., 22 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

MABEL HOVLAND

Mary Daniel

Mary Margaret (Peg) Billingsley Daniel, daughter of the late Clarence and Macil Bilingsley, died in San Jose, Calif. Cremation has taken place.

Memorial services in Glasgow are pending.

27 Feb 1984
GLASGOW — HOPSTAD, Henry

P., 66, died Monday in a Glasgow hospital. Rosary will be 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Bell Chapel. Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Raphael's Catholic Church. Burial will be in the Highland Cemetery. He was born in 1918 in Valley County, and was employed by Burlington Northern Railroad for 34 years. He had lived in Glasgow all his life, where he coached baseball teams. He married Gwendolyn Palmer Oct. 6, 1939. Survivors include his wife; six sons, Henry Jr., Charles, Alan, Floyd and Lloyd, all of Glasgow and Donald of Kennewick, Wash.; two daughters, Gwen Anderson and Mary Hopstad, both of Ridgecrest, Calif.; three sisters, Olive and Amanda Mullen, Glasgow, and Jenny Brydon, Great Falls; one brother, Haaken Hopstad, Spokane, Wash.; and 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

13 Jan 1984
JUDITH GAP — HINCHEY, Walter E., 92, died Friday at the Miles City veterans hospital. Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at Perkins Funeral Home in Harlowton, with burial in the Harlowton cemetery. He was born in Minnesota and was a veteran of World War I. He was a longtime resident of Judith Gap, where he ranched. He never married. There are no known survivors.