Ernie Massman

23 OCT 1984

E.A.(Ernie) Massman, 77, former Columbia Falls mayor and civic leader, died at his Vancouver, Wash. home Oct. 23. Cremation followed. 1984

Massman, son of Albert and Helena Massman, was born March 13, 1907 at Dusseldorf, Germany, and came to the United States when 20, settling at Moorhead, Minn. He moved to Fort Peck where he was credit manager for Buttreys, later working for Buttreys at Glasgow and Havre. He and Margaret Harker were married in Glasgow, Sept. 3, 1940.

With Walt Thompson, now of Whitefish whom he met while both worked for Buttreys, a Portland theater was purchased. Massman next went into the U.S. Air Force and was a staff sergeant and engineer on a C47 with the 12th Air Force in North Africa and Europe.

The Thompson-Massman partnership continued. On Aug. 1, 1946 the Massmans purchased the Park Theatre from James and Margaret Grist, and Walt and Mae Thompson later bought the Orpheum and Lake theaters in Whitefish. Then Midway Drive-In was built and when the Midway was sold the partnership was dissolved.

With theater business in smaller communities dwindling, Massman became a manufacturers representative for lighting fixtures, and was outstanding in sales. He enjoyed the work and continued on the road for Hi-Lite Manufacturing Co., Los Angeles until this past summer when hospitalized by cancer of the liver. He elected not to have chemotherapy.

Massman was a member and headed Columbia Falls Town Council on Nov. 30, 1950 when the late John J. O'Connell resigned and moved to Alaska where he later became Sitka's mayor, Massman became mayor here, but didn't want to retain the position at the April 2, 1951 election. Herman Benzien was elected.

In 1952 Massman was Columbia Falls Chamber of Commerce president, and he was a past commander and former quartermaster of the Columbia Falls VFW Post. He was also a member of Flathead County Airport Board, owned his own plane, and completed 52 years as a licensed pilot.

When the Massmans sold the Park Theatre to Dale and Shirley Reynolds in September, 1981 they were senior merchants of Columbia Falls.

Survivors are his wife, Margaret, 4601 East 18th, Apt. #37, Vancouver, Wash., 98661, and one son, Gene, a CFHS and University of Montana graduate, who is a federal employee (GS-11) in computer operations at McClelland AFB, Sacramento, Calif. A brother, Gunter Massman, Barcelona, Spain also survives.

Mrs. Massman praised the Hospice program. Friends who wish may send memorials to Hospice or American Cancer Society.

A.A. Martin, 90

28 JAN 1984
Anaclet A. "Buck" Martin, 90, died Saturday evening at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Nov. 27, 1893, near Columbia Falls, one of nine children of Gaspard and Malvina Martin. His parents were pioneers who came to the Flathead Valley from Canada in 1886, and the town of Martin City was named in their honor.

In 1906, the family moved to the Abbott Creek area near Coram, where Mr. Martin was raised. He served with the U.S. Army as an engineer with the Allied Expeditionary Force in France during World War I. After his honorable discharge, he returned to the Flathead, where he lived the rest of his life.

He worked outdoors most of his life, including employment with the Forest Service, railroad, and numerous construction crews. He was a well-known "powder monkey," blasting trees and rock for road construction and land clearing. Mr. Martin was head blaster during construction of the Going to the Sun Road, which celebrated its 50th year mark last summer. He was instrumental in building the North Fork Road and many others throughout the area.

As a hobby, he made many beautiful pieces of furniture.

He was a member of the American Legion for many years, and belonged to the Knights of Columbus.

He married Hattie White in 1920 in Flathead County, and she preceded him in death last week.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Howard (Theresa) Woolery and Mrs. James (Jeanne) Keenan, both of Martin City, and Frances Martin-Johnson of Bellingham, Wash.; a son, William T. Martin of Ketchikan, Alaska; 13 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren; a brother, Gustave Martin of Medford, Ore.; and a sister, Violetta Jordan of Portland, Ore.
