

DI

19 Nov 1985
Flossie Adams, 72

Flossie M. Adams, 72, Whitefish, died Thursday afternoon in North Valley Hospital.

She was born Jan. 15, 1913, in Cumberland County, Tenn., a daughter of Virgil and Veena Burgess.

She was raised in Tennessee and lived there until age 13, when she moved to Buhl, Idaho. She lived there for about 30 years.

In 1956, she moved to the Flat-head Valley and worked as a cook in various restaurants including the Husky Truck Stop in Kalispell and Casey's in Whitefish.

She raised Boston bull terriers as a hobby for many years.

In April 1965, she married Kenneth Adams and is now survived by him at their home in Whitefish.

She is also survived by two daughters, Dorothy Partin of Columbia Falls, and Donna Shiflett of Spokane, Wash.; a son, Rodney Norris of Columbia Falls; two brothers, Dalton Burgess of Fruitland, Idaho, and Sanford Burgess of Corville, Tenn.; a sister, Lorene Rittenberry of Crossville, Tenn.; 10 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Dianna May Weber, in 1976; a son, who died at birth, and a brother, Dee Burgess.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Whitefish with Bishop Gary Waterud officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens. The casket will not be open for viewing.

Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish is in charge of arrangements.

DI

11 Nov 1985
Ruth E. Adams, 76

Ruth E. Adams, 76, Kalispell, died late Monday night of natural causes at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

She was born Oct. 5, 1909, in Bemidji, Minn., the daughter of Bruno and Minnie Major. She was raised in Minnesota.

On Oct. 16, 1927, she married Robert R. Adams in St. Paul, Minn. The couple made their home in Bemidji until moving to Columbia Falls in 1950, where Mr. Adams worked at Anaconda Aluminum Co. They had lived in Kalispell since the mid-1960s.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert, in 1979.

Survivors include two sons, Robert D. Adams of Columbia Falls and Gerald W. Adams of Kalispell; a sister, Martha Thompson of Bemidji; seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Visitation will be until 8 tonight at Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Weatherford Funeral Home, with the Rev. Darold Reiner, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials to the Salvation Army, 204 Seventh Ave. W., Kalispell.

DI

11 Feb 1985
O.F. Ahlenstorf, 91

Oscar F. Ahlenstorf, 91, Columbia Falls, died Monday morning at the Veterans Administration Medical Center at Fort Harrison.

He was born Jan. 18, 1894, in Mankato, Minn., to Henry W. and Pauline Ahlenstorf. He was raised and educated in Mankato.

He worked as a lumberjack and farm laborer in Minnesota and North Dakota most of his life. He served in the U.S. Army as a private in the Blackhawk Division during World War I.

He had lived in Columbia Falls for the last 34 years at the home of his niece, Dolores Toftum.

He was preceded in death by four brothers.

He is survived by a brother, Edwin of McCloud, Calif.; two sisters, Elsie Ott at the Colonial Manor in Whitefish and Pauline Bergeron of Rockford, Ill.; and many nieces and nephews.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Peder Waldum will officiate. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery with military graveside honors provided by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Visitation will be until 8 tonight and from 10 a.m. to noon Thursday.

Sam Adams

1985
Sam Adams, 71, died Tuesday, Sept. 3, in Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital in Glasgow.

Funeral services were held Monday, Sept. 9, at First Methodist Church with Reverend Ira Robison officiating. Music was by Corey Carlson. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Bob Schaale, Doug Arneson, Jack Dix, Allan Stuber, Sam Allie, Doug Allie, Frank Redfield and Dick Wagenhals.

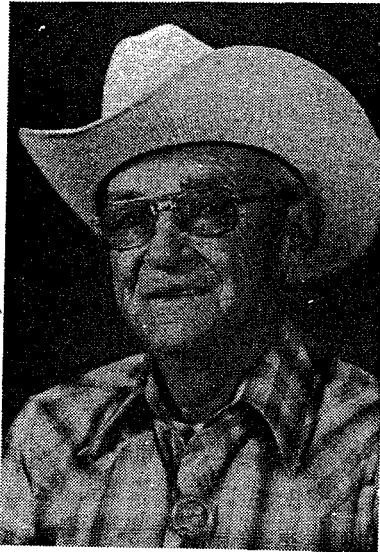

Born Aug. 18, 1914 in Thief River Falls, Minn., he was the son of Frank and Maria Adams.

He moved with his family north of Wolf Point where they homesteaded in 1915. The family moved to Opheim in 1928. He drove a bus service during the Fort Peck Dam Construction.

He married Naphie Allie on Feb. 7, 1941 in Seattle, Wash. She preceded him in death in 1981.

During World War II he was an aircraft mechanic in the Air Force in England from 1942 - 45. After the service he tended bar. From 1951 until 1956 he sold Chevrolet and Minneapolis Moline in Opheim. They moved to Glasgow in 1958. From 1958 - 1978 he was an Aerial Crop Sprayer. He sold Polaris snowmobiles in the early 70's and retired in 1977 when he sold his spraying business to Lowell Jacobson. He did many jobs in between. He was a heavy equipment operator and a mechanic at the base and surveyor.

He liked fiddle music and traveling. He was a member of the Billings Chapter Albedo Shrine, Masonic Lodge, Past Worshipful Master of the North Border Lodge -- Opheim, Past Excellent High Priest of the Royal Arch, Past Illustrious Master of the Fort Peck Lodge, Past Eminent Commander of the Knight Lodge Templar, York Rite -- Past. resided officer of all York Bodies.

SAM ADAMS

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Mark (Deby) Arneson; two grandchildren, Amy and Adam Arneson; three sisters, Donna Baker of Spirit Lake, Iowa, Rachel Missler, of Seattle, Wash., and Gunhild Kroeber of Silverdale, Wash.; and two brothers, Goodwin M. Adams of Poulsbo, Wash., and Russell Adams, of Topeka, Kansas.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Naphie, in 1981 and brother, Donald, in 1984.

Regina Albus

Regina Albus, 92, of Saco, died Tuesday, May 28, 1985, at the Phillips County Hospital in Malta.

She was born April 19, 1893, in Freidendahl, Russia, to George and Fredrika Bechtold. She came to the United States in 1905 to South Dakota and married Joseph Albus March 8, 1911, in Minot, N.D. He preceded her in death Feb. 2, 1970.

In 1913, they homesteaded northwest of Saco near the Cole Community until 1927 moving to the Saco Divide. In 1944, they moved to Saco. She was a member of the Saco Assembly of God Church, Saco Garden Club and Sewing Club.

Survivors include two sons, Emil Albus of Saco and Ben Albus of Hinsdale; six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by two brothers, three sisters and a son John (1945).

Funeral services were held Monday, June 3, 1985, at 10 a.m. at the Saco Assembly of God Church with Pastor Walter Serdahl officiating. Burial was in the Grandview Cemetery in Saco.

The Adams Funeral Home of Malta was in charge of arrangements.

Myrtle Aho

Myrtle E. Aho, 80, died Monday, July 1, in Glasgow's Valley View Nursing Home.

Funeral services were held in Butte's Wayrynen-Richards Funeral Home with burial following in Mount Moriah Cemetery.

A native of Cornwall, England, she was born Jan. 28, 1905 to Ernest and Elizabeth Tambling. She attended schools in England before moving to Butte with her parents in 1919. She married William Aho in Butte in 1941. He preceded her in death in 1979. She was a retired legal secretary for the late Montana Senator Burton K. Wheeler.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Carol and Richard Holland, and two grandchildren in Casper, Wyo.

Memorials are preferred to the Valley View Nursing Home in Glasgow or the Butte Humane Society.

Ella C. Aley, 69

Ella C. Aley, 69, of Dayton, Wash., died Friday afternoon in St. Elizabeth Medical Center of Yakima, Wa.

She was born July 24, 1916, in Manhattan, Mont., to Charles and Alvela Nichols. She was reared and educated in Kalispell.

On May 26, 1937, she married Frederick Aley in Kalispell. They lived in Redondo Beach, Calif., for about 20 years before moving to Dayton in 1975.

She was a homemaker and she moved to Selah, Wa., two months ago to be with her daughter. She was an active member of the first Christian Church in Dayton and of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly). She enjoyed arts and crafts and bowling.

Survivors include her husband Frederick, Dayton; one daughter, Sandra Tate, Selah; two sons, Richard Aley, Carrollton, Texas, and Kenneth Aley, Venice, Calif.; four grandchildren; two sisters; Mabel Bertsch, Lake Stevens, Wa.; and Cleo Bondurant, Kalispell.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Johnson Funeral Home. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

DI

Gwenden Allen, 69

Gwenden Pinney Allen, 69, Whitefish, died Thursday morning in Whitefish.

She was born Dec. 26, 1915, at Knightstown, Ind., a daughter of Unie R. and Hester Hughes. At the age of 5, she moved with her parents to Riverside, Calif., where she was raised and educated.

She married Jim Pinney in California. In 1950, they moved to Whitefish. In 1951, they moved to Fortine where they owned the Fortine Mercantile. She was post-mistress in Fortine during that time.

She was preceded in death by Mr. Pinney in October 1952. The family returned to Whitefish where Mrs. Pinney was employed with the Woodward's department store. Mrs. Pinney and her parents owned and operated Hughes and Pinney Grocery Store on the corner of Second and Spokane in Whitefish.

In 1960, she married James L. Allen of Whitefish, and they were employed by the City of Whitefish water department for a number of years. She was preceded in death by him on April 16, 1979.

She was also preceded in death by her father, and her mother on March 11, 1985.

Survivors include a daughter, B. Joan Pinney, Whitefish, and a son, James H. Pinney of Queens, N.Y.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at Whitefish Cemetery. Friends will meet at the cemetery for services. Cremation has taken place.

Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish is in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials to the Soroptimist Club of Whitefish.

DI

George Allen, 66

POLSON — George E. Allen, 66, Anaconda, died Monday in a Missoula hospital of cancer.

He was born Oct. 5, 1919, in Sheridan, Wyo., to Roy Allen and Jewell Allen Reed. He received his education at Sheridan and in Montana, graduating from Polson High School in 1937.

On Nov. 2, 1941, he married Ladyne Schultz in Polson.

During World War II, Mr. Allen served with the Navy in the invasions of North Africa, Italy and Europe.

He was an avid fisherman and golfer, and was a Cub Master for Boy Scouts for several years.

Survivors include his wife, Ladyne, Anaconda; three sons, G. Edward Allen, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Richard M. Allen, Clearfield, Utah, and Robin R. Allen, Bountiful, Utah; a daughter, Sandra Allen, Salt Lake City; two brothers, Robert Allen, Swan Lake, and Thomas Allen, Concord, Calif., and seven grandchildren.

Military memorial services will be at 3 p.m. Friday at Mosley Funeral Chapel in Polson with local veterans organizations officiating. The family suggests memorials to the American Cancer Society.

DI

Leona Allen, 65

24 Feb 1985
Leona A. "Nettie" Allen, 65, formerly of Columbia Falls, died Sunday in Arizona as the result of a traffic accident.

She was born Dec. 17, 1919, in Stettler, Alberta, to John and Ethel Neville. The family moved to Montana in 1926. She was raised and educated in Columbia Falls.

She married Frank H. Allen on Nov. 17, 1934, in Missoula. They lived in Columbia Falls until 1969 when they moved to California. They later moved to Arizona and then to Benton City, Wash. She recently moved from Washington and was spending time in Arizona.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank, on Feb. 10, 1983; two sisters, Ethel Snow and Dora Backlund; and three brothers, Erwin, Bill and John Neville.

She is survived by four sons, Gary of Benton City, Wash., Max of Santa Paula, Calif., and Ron and Dennis of Columbia Falls; 10 grandchildren; a great-granddaughter; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Funeral will be 11 a.m. Friday at St. Richard's Catholic Church. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

DI

S.A. Amundson, 85

10 Feb 1985
Sigurd Adolf Amundson, 85, a long-time Flathead Valley resident, died Sunday at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Feb. 10, 1900, in Wesby, Wis., the son of Otto and Carrie Holt Amundson. As a child he moved with his parents to Joplin.

In 1929 he married Bertha Harris in Helena. The couple lived at Shelby and Havre, where Mr. Amundson worked in banking and merchandising. In 1933, they moved to the Flathead Valley. He served as deputy sheriff of Flathead County and farmed west of Kalispell for many years.

On Oct. 28, 1942, he entered the U.S. Coast Guard at Seattle, Wash., and served as a Boatswain Mate 1st Class until receiving his honorable discharge on Oct. 2, 1944, at Seattle.

DI

Victor Allman, 89

21 Feb 1985
Victor Allman, 89, died Thursday morning at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He had lived most of his life at Melville, where he operated a trucking firm for 28 years.

He was born March 20, 1895, in Michigan to John and Rosanna Allman. He grew up in Saginaw, Mich., then moved with his family to a homestead near the farming community of Briley, Mont., in 1911.

He served in the Army during World War I, then returned to Briley, where he married Janice Johnson on Jan. 15, 1920. Seven years later, he started his trucking firm, operating it until he retired in 1955.

He was a life member of V.F.W. Post No. 1551 in Harlowton and a 50-year continuous member of the Big Timber post of the American Legion.

Preceding him in death were his wife, seven brothers, five sisters and a daughter. Surviving are two daughters, Louise Ward of Columbia Falls and Dorothy Kamrowski of Melville; four grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren and a great-great-grandchild.

A funeral service is scheduled for Monday at 2 p.m. at the Perkins Funeral Home in Harlowton. Burial will be in Harlowton Cemetery. Van Leuven Funeral Home is in charge of local arrangements.

Mr. Amundson was a member of Masonic Lodge, Elks, and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Bertha, on Aug. 17, 1982; a sister, Gerda, and a brother, Leif Amundson.

He is survived by two sisters, Lillie Jensen of Polson, and Viola Dittrich of Edmunds, Wash.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Thursday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Randall Nicolai of Northridge Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials to the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children, N. 820 Summit Blvd., Spokane, Wash. 99201.

DI

Merlin Alness, 60

5 March 1985
LIBBY — Merlin I. Alness, 60, Libby, died Tuesday at the Libby Care Center of heart failure.

Alness was a longtime Libby resident, who worked for J. Neils Lumber Co. and later for St. Regis Paper Co.

He was born Nov. 27, 1924, in Clarkfield, Minn., to Magnus and Inga Alness. He was reared and educated in Clarkfield.

During World War II he served with the Army in the Pacific and Asiatic Theater. Following his honorable discharge in 1946, he was employed as a heavy-equipment operator in construction throughout the northern plains states.

He was a member of Christ Lutheran Church, the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union and Sons of Norway.

He retired in 1979.

Survivors include a son, Steve Alness, Bozeman; four daughters, Monica Brown and Diane Meske, both of Frederick, Md., Theresa Anderson, Libby, and Marcelline Hafferman, Columbus; three brothers, Ornie Alness, Clarkfield, Ing Alness, Granite Falls, Minn., and Marlo Alness, Bloomington, Minn.; two sisters, Jerry Dotseth, Clarkfield, and Vi Cole, Hanley Falls, Minn.; and six grandchildren.

Services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at Christ Lutheran Church in Libby with the Rev. James Darchuk officiating. Burial with military honors will follow in the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

DI

17 Apr 1985
Mary Anderegg, 84

Mary Tobin Anderegg, 84, Kalispell, died Wednesday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born June 2, 1900, in Vermont. She spent most of her life in Connellsville, Pa.

She married Harold H. Anderegg on Dec. 20, 1924, and he preceded her in death on March 14, 1971.

Mrs. Anderegg was active in the Women's Hospital Club, the Culture Club, and Order of the Eastern Star. She enjoyed knitting and working in her garden.

She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

She was also preceded in death by her daughter, Nancy Lee Johnston, in 1964, and a granddaughter, Nancy Welling in 1984.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Gerald (Ruthcarol) Welling in Kalispell; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Cremation has taken place and a memorial service was held at 2 p.m. today at Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Chauncey Bifle officiating. Burial will follow at a later time at the Normalville Cemetery in Normalville, Pa.

KN

24 Dec 1985
Lina K. 'Helen' Andersen, 82

Lina K. "Helen" Andersen, 82, died at her home in Kalispell Tuesday evening.

She was born July 4, 1903, in New Salem, N.D., a daughter of Otto and Wilhelmina Kalweit.

In 1926, she married John P. "Jack" Hansen. In 1930, they moved to Kalispell and in 1933 established Hansen Cleaners. Mr. Hansen died in 1939, and she continued to operate the cleaning business until she sold it in 1945.

In 1944, she married Roland Andersen. Mr. Andersen died in 1978.

She was also preceded in death by three brothers and a sister.

Survivors include a son, James K. Hansen of Stayton, Ore.; a daughter Betty Schneider of Kalispell; a stepson, Eugene Andersen of Fountain Valley, Calif.; a sister, Ella Rud of New Salem, N.D.; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. Barry Dawson of First Presbyterian Church officiating.

The family suggests memorials to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, N. 820 Summit Blvd., Spokane, Wash. 99201.

DI

29 Apr 1985
Carl Anderson, 85

Carl E. Anderson, 85, died Monday in Kalispell Regional Hospital Brendan House.

He was born Sept. 15, 1899, in Odense, Denmark, a son of Marius and Annie Andersen. When he was 2, he moved with his family to Sidney, Mont. where they homesteaded and ranched for many years.

In 1922, he came to Kalispell and established the Anderson and McDaniel Theatre Co. In 1945, he bought out his partner and continued to operate the Anderson Theatre Co. until his retirement, at which time the company was deeded to his daughters.

Mr. Anderson served as commanding officer of Company F, 2nd Battalion, 163rd Infantry of the Montana National Guard from 1926 to 1936, when he was transferred to the state staff.

He was a member of Kalispell Masonic Lodge No. 42, AF&AM, Algeria Shrine and Flathead Shrine Club, and Kalispell Elks Lodge.

He served as national vice president of the Theatre Owners of America Association and as president of the Montana group.

He married Melanie Lange on June 1, 1923, in Kalispell and is survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Spencer (Alice) Ryder and Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Conn, both of Kalispell; a sister, Carrie Burch, Immanuel Lutheran Home; four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mr. Anderson will be at 11 a.m. Friday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of Lakeside Chapel officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery where ritualistic rites will be conducted by Kalispell Masonic Lodge No. 42.

The family suggests memorials to the Flathead Shrine Club Hospital Fund, 1341 Eighth Ave. E., Kalispell 59901, or the Elks National Foundation, P.O. Box 428, Kalispell.

DI

Elena Anderson, 91

<sup>7 Mar 1985</sup>
Elena M. Anderson, 91, Lakeside, died Thursday at the Immanual Lutheran Home.

She had lived in Lakeside from 1936 until moving to the Lutheran home a few months ago.

She was born Feb. 21, 1894, in Pierre Point, S.D., to Martin and Helen Jacobson. When she was 11, the family moved to Priestville, Saskatchewan. She married Elling B. Anderson on April 8, 1913.

The couple lived in South Dakota until 1928, then moved to Circle and then to New Deal, Mont., before coming to Lakeside.

She was preceded in death by her husband, on Oct. 4, 1950, four brothers and a sister.

Surviving are six sons, Emil, Art, Lloyd and Lorraine, all of Lakeside, and Leonard and Elmer, both of Kalispell; four daughters, Christine Tranberg and Helen Stevens, both of Lakeside, Josephine Wolf of Hillsboro, Ore., and Mathilda Sprinkel of Seattle; three sisters, Tillie Cleve of Penticton, B.C., Hilda Bowtell of Beaver Lodge, Alberta, and Alma Frieberg of LaGlance, Alberta; 20 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marshall Moen of the Immanuel Lutheran Home officiating. Cremation has taken place.

<sup>22 Mar 1985</sup> Harry Arnold, 94

DI
Harry Joseph Arnold, 94, died Friday morning at the Flathead County Nursing Home, where he had lived since September 1981.

He was a sawmill worker, logger and trapper, living most of his life in rural areas west of Kalispell.

He was born May 1, 1890, in Ivy, Ohio, to Joseph and Mary Arnold. The family moved to the Boorman area west of Kalispell when he was 11. He began working at the Boorman sawmill shortly after the family's arrival and, after they moved to a homestead in the Ashley Lake area, worked at a sawmill nearby until he was 15.

DI

Harry Anderson, 79

<sup>7 Feb 1985</sup>
Harry Anderson, 79, Whitefish, died Sunday afternoon at Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls where he had resided for the past several months.

He was born May 12, 1905, in Minneapolis, Minn., and as a young man moved to Havre.

In 1932 he married Ella Mae Ling in Havre. She died Oct. 10, 1984, in Whitefish. Mr. Anderson was also preceded in death by two brothers.

During World War II he served in the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant. After receiving his honorable discharge, he returned to Havre where he was a manager of the furniture department for Buttreys for a number of years. He later owned and operated his own business "Harry's-In-Havre."

He was a member of the Havre Masonic Lodge No. 55 AF&AM, a past officer of all York Rite bodies, The Royal Arch, Council and Commandery, and the Algeria Shrine. He was a past grand commander of the Knight Templers of Montana.

He was a member of the Methodist Church in Havre and sang in the choir for many years.

He is survived by a daughter, Iris Sather of Pocatello, Idaho.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later by Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish.

DI

Vernon Antoine, 72

<sup>15 May 1985</sup>
Vernon "Buster" Antoine, 72, died May 15 in a Missoula hospital where he had been transferred a few days earlier by air ambulance from California. He and his wife were spending the winter in California when he became ill.

He was born Sept. 3, 1912, in Hedgesville, Mont., to Orlo J. and Nellie Antoine. The family moved to the Flathead Lake area when he was 9 months old. They lived at Rollins and then at Polson. He attended school in Polson and graduated from Polson High School in 1932.

He later moved to Anaconda where he was employed by Inter-mountain Transportation Co. for several years.

He married Doris Wallen at Anaconda in 1936. They moved to California in 1943, where he was employed by an aircraft company. They lived in California for 30 years. When he retired in 1973, they moved to the West Shore of Flathead Lake.

He was a member of the Kalispell chapter of Experimental Aircraft Association, a group interested in building their own aircraft. He built several planes and had been working on an amphibian of his own design for several years. He had also designed and built boats and two buses, one an articulated coach.

He is survived by his wife, Doris, West Shore, Polson; a son, Gary Antoine, Redondo Beach, Calif.; a daughter, Colette Clark, Norco, Calif.; two grandsons and a great-granddaughter; a sister, Faye Martin, Polson; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two sisters and two brothers.

The body has been cremated and a memorial service will be in July when the family can be together.

PALLBEARERS

Bruce Hoversland
Leroy Hoversland
Roland Gamma

Lyle Brist
Glen Brist
Leland Brist

Glasgow, MT

18 Apr 1985

Einer A. Anderson

Einer A. Anderson, 78, died Thursday, April 18, in Valley View Nursing Home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 23 at Bell chapel with Pastor Don Paulson. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Chapel in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Buzz Marmon, Rick Marmon, Harlen Vollum, Ronald Anderson, Loren Sankey and Orrin Barnett.

Born Oct. 6, 1906, raised, baptized and confirmed at Sheyenne, N.D., he was the son of Henning and Ida Anderson.

He lived in Idaho, Washington and later years in Montana. He resided in Glasgow the last six years.

Survivors include two sons, Ronald Anderson of Camas, Wash., and Richard Anderson of Fort Peck; two stepsons, Robert Stitzel of Williston, N.D. and John Stitzel of Grassy Butte, N.D.; one daughter, Judy Draszt of San Jose, Calif; two stepdaughters, Betty Vollum and Dorothy Marmon, both of Williston, N.D.; one sister, Elvera Johnson of New Rockford, N.D.; one brother, Carl Anderson of Sheyenne, N.D.; 24 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

Wolf Point, MT

15 Apr 1985

Martha Anderson

Martha Anderson of Wolf Point died Monday in the Glasgow hospital. She was 78.

Born Feb. 1, 1907 at Oswego, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. Germaine, she had lived in the Wolf Point area all her life except for several years spent in Minnesota.

She is survived by five sons, Abner of Bagley, Minn., Howard of Helena, Harold of Billings, Franklin of Wolf Point and Stanley; two daughters, Mrs. Marlys Davis of Hollywood, Fla., and Mrs. Verdi Williams of Fort Myers, Fla.; and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Davis of Wolf Point.

A prayer service will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday (tonight) at Clayton Memorial Chapel in Wolf Point. Services will be 10 a.m. Friday at the Chapel. Kenny Azure will officiate. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Glasgow, MT

5 Mar. 1985

Virginia Margaret Anderson

Virginia Margaret Anderson died Tuesday, March 5, in her Glasgow home.

She was 66.

Funeral services were held Friday, March 8, at 2 p.m. at the Calvary Baptist Church with Reverends Billy Joe Hallmark and Robert Walker officiating. Music was furnished by JoAnn Hallmark. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Bud Johnston, Harold Anderson, Bridger Franzen, Cal Bunk, Michael Uptegraph and Russell Freestone.

Born Dec. 18, 1918 in Hallock, Minn., she was the daughter of Andrew and Lena Docken.

On Sept. 12, 1937 in Middle River, Minn., she married Olaf Anderson.

They lived at Opheim for 23 years before moving to Glasgow in 1971.

She was involved in Senior Citizens and a member of the Calvary Baptist Church.

She is survived by the widower, Olaf; two sons, Jerry Anderson of Ulysses, Kan., and Larry Anderson of Great Falls; five daughters, Andreen Guidry of Houma, La., Linda Reimche of Opheim, Barbara Werner of Ellis, Kan., and Bonnie Walters and Betty Traxler of Ulysses, Kan.; four sisters, Elizabeth Vanous of St. Vincent, Minn., Cecelia Ardies of Pembina, N.D., Ruby Adolfson of San Diego, Calif., and Alice Davis of Minneapolis, Minn.; and three brothers, Fred and Raymond Docken of Butte, and John Docken of San Antonio, Texas.

1985

JoAnne Armstrong

JoAnne Armstrong, 68, died Wednesday, April 3 in the Valley View Nursing Home in Glasgow.

Services were held Friday, April 5, at 10 a.m. in Bell Chapel with Rev. James Stewart officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery in Havre with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Born September 5, 1916 in Minneapolis, Minn., she was the daughter of John and Alma Holter.

She was raised by Nels and Clara

Grovom in Homestead, Montana. She came to the area and worked at Fort Peck during the dam construction. She lived in Havre for 25 years and, it was there that she married Lewis Armstrong. After his death in 1970 she moved to the Glasgow area. She lived in Nashua for the past three years. She enjoyed crafts, making jewelry and loved to fish.

Survivors include three uncles, one aunt and many cousins.

DI

Elaine Arnston, 90

<sup>31 Aug 1985</sup>
WHITEFISH — Elaine Arnston, 90, Whitefish, died Saturday morning at the Colonial Manor nursing home.

She spent most of her life on eastern Montana farms, moving to the Flathead Valley only last year.

She was born April 30, 1895, in Reedy, W.Va., to C.V. and E.C. Wyatt. In 1910, the family came west to homestead near Lambert.

She married Halvor Arnston on Thanksgiving Day 1919. They farmed in Lambert for a few years, then moved to Fairview in the 1920s.

Her husband died in 1954, and she remained at the family farm until moving to Billings in 1982.

Surviving are a daughter, Marlene Oaklund of Whitefish; two granddaughters, Julie Bass and Mary Elaine Oaklund; a grandson, Carl Oaklund; and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by five brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services are tentatively scheduled for either Wednesday or Thursday at the Michelotti-Sawyers Mortuary in Billings, with burial in Sunset Memorial Cemetery there. Local arrangements were by the Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish.

August Ashley, 64

<sup>17 Nov 1985</sup>
POLSON — August A. Ashley, 64, died Sunday of a heart attack at his home in Mountain View.

He was born Aug. 20, 1921, in Pablo, to Dave and Josephine Ashley. He grew up and worked all his life in the Ronan and Pablo areas as a timber faller.

On Sept. 13, 1946, he married Pearl Roullier in Polson.

Survivors include his wife, Pearl, at the family home; three daughters, Jeanie V. McCauley and Pat Ashley, both of Pablo, and Linda Ashley, Mountain View; two brothers, David and Archie, both of Pablo; a sister, Cecelia Evans, Bonner; seven grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at Mosley Funeral Chapel in Polson with the Rev. Ernest Burns officiating. Burial will follow at Lake View Cemetery.

DI

Donald Atkins, 78

<sup>30 Aug 1985</sup>
ROLLINS — Dr. Donald A. Atkins, 78, a longtime resident of Rollins, died Friday at his home in Sun City, Ariz.

He had lived in Rollins for 30 years and spent his summers there before retiring from his clinic practice in Butte and moving to the west Flathead lakeshore full-time. He moved to Sun City last year.

He was born in Butte in 1907. After graduating from the St. Louis University Medical School, he returned to his hometown to join the Murray Clinic.

Surviving are his wife, Frances, Sun City; and a brother, C.B., Portland, Ore.

A small memorial service is planned in Sun City.

Mary Atkinson, 62

<sup>9 Nov 1985</sup>
Mary Vivian Atkinson, 62, Columbia Falls, died at home early Saturday morning after a long illness.

She was born July 23, 1923, at Globe, Ariz., the daughter of Joseph and Rose Scurr. She grew up and attended schools in Grass Valley, Calif. and graduated from high school there.

On May 11, 1940, she married Paul Atkinson in Carson City, Nev. She worked with her husband in grandchildren.

Private graveside services were Monday afternoon at Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Dennis Masters, pastor of Bigfork Chapel, officiating. Memorial services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Bigfork Chapel of the Assembly of God.

The family has requested memorials to the building fund of the Bigfork Chapel of the Assembly of God, 290 Swan Highway, Bigfork, 59911, in lieu of flowers.

She worked in their wholesale meat business for 15 years and was a housewife and mother.

The Atkinsons moved to the Lake Blaine area in 1974 and to the Columbia Falls area in August 1985.

She was a member of the Bigfork Chapel of the Assembly of God.

Survivors include her husband, Paul, at the family home; a son, Paul Jr., of Columbia Falls; a daughter, Pauline Fitch of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Annie Brock and Josephine Chappel, both of Grass Valley, Calif.; and four

DI

D. Atkinson, 55

<sup>6 Dec 1985</sup>
Dolores Ann Atkinson, 55, died of natural causes at the home of her daughter, Dorothy See, in Kalispell on Friday. Atkinson was a resident of Billings.

She was born in Havre and educated in Great Falls, graduating from St. Mary's High School in 1948. In 1949 she married Donald F. Atkinson in Great Falls.

They lived in Great Falls until 1973, when her husband was transferred to Havre, where he worked for the Burlington Northern railroad. In 1981 they moved to Glendive and in 1982 were transferred to Billings.

She was a member of the St. Bernard's Parish in Billings and the Billings New Comers Club, and was a past member of Saints Peter and Paul Parish in Great Falls.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Donald of Olathe, Kan., Dennis of Burnsville, Minn., and Dale of Hungry Horse; two daughters, Diane Decker of Alliance, Neb. and Dorothy See of Kalispell; five brothers, Larry Schroer of Seattle, Bernard Schroer of San Deigo, Robert Schroer of San Francisco, Donald Schroer of Great Falls, and Jerry Schroer of Albuquerque; a sister, Dorothy Lorang of Great Falls; her mother, Jennie Schroer of Great Falls; and nine grandchildren.

Rosary will be 8 p.m. Monday at the O'Connor Memorial Chapel in Great Falls. The funeral will be at 11:15 a.m. Tuesday at Holy Family Church and burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Anaconda, MT

Jim Arvish

Jim Arvish, 30, Highway 10A West, died Tuesday morning Jan. 22, at his home in Anaconda. 1985

Jim was born Aug. 26, 1954 in Glasgow, the son of William and Elaine Holden Arvish. Jim attended local schools and graduated from Anaconda Central High School in 1973. Following graduation he was employed by Motnana Power as a meter reader. He has been employed there for the past 10 years.

Jim enjoyed many hobbies, some of which were mining, astrology, chemistry, metal detecting and camping. He was very good at photography.

He was a member of the Anaconda Catholic Community.

Survivors include his father and step-mother: Bill and Irene Arvish, Anaconda; a sister and brother-in-law: Kaipo and LaVonne Punohu, Honolulu, Hawaii; his grandfather, Anthony Arvish, Anaconda; a niece and nephew, Paiea and Cassie Punohu, Honolulu, Hawaii; three aunts, Bernice Larsen, Glasgow, Lois Miller, Anaconda, Carol Dziak, Belevue, Wash.; two uncles, Bernard Arvish, Anaconda, Dr. Raymond Arvish, Hamilton.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Dec. 1, 1977.

Parish vigil service will be conducted Jan. 25 at 7 p.m. at the Longfellow's Finnegan Funeral Home.

The funeral will be held from the funeral home Saturday, Jan. 26 beginning at 10:15 a.m. proceeding to St. Peter's Church where Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated.

Interment will be in Sunset Memorial Park.

Memorials may be made to the Pintlar Hospice in Anaconda.

M

d- 20 Jul 1985

Thomas Ash

Thomas P. Ash, 56, of Missoula, died Sunday, July 20, 1986, of cancer in a Missoula nursing home.

He was born May 11, 1930, in Minneapolis, the son of George and Angela Ash. He was raised and educated in Buffalo, Minn., and graduated from Browns School of Broadcasting in Minneapolis. He also studied advertising in Dayton University in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. Ash was in the Air Force from 1950 until 1954, during which time he was program director for Armed Forces Radio at Wheelis Air Force Base in Tripoli, Libya. He worked in radio stations in Great Falls, Glasgow and Missoula, as well as in Virginia and Colorado. He received several state awards for announcing and copywriting.

From 1967 - 1970, he was news and sports director for KYLT Radio. From 1970 until 1975, he was bureau chief for Inter Mountain Network in Denver. During that time, he was also involved in politics as press secretary and speech writer during the 1974 U.S. congressional campaign. He always enjoyed creative writing and wrote a weekly humor column for a Denver newspaper and had several published articles.

He returned to Missoula in 1975 as news and sports director for KGVO Radio, where he remained until retiring the summer of 1985. In November, 1985, he became Missoula field representative for Sen. John Melcher, a position he held until his death.

He married the former Vivian Yantes in 1959; they were divorced in 1977.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother; and an infant son.

He is survived by two daughters: Janet and Peggy Ash, both of Missoula; and one brother, George Ash, St. Paul, Minn.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Squires Simmons and Carr Funeral Home.

Interment with military graveside honors will follow at Missoula Cemetery.

The family suggests, in lieu of flowers, that memorials be made to Hospice of Missoula, Box 8273, Missoula, 59807, or to the Missoula County Cancer Association, 3005 Queen St., Missoula, 59801.

DI

Samuel Auger, 84

<sup>23 Jan 1985</sup>
LIBBY — Samuel B. Auger, 84, formerly of Libby, died Wednesday morning at his home in Sunnyside, Wash.

He was born Dec. 3, 1900, in Onaway, Mich., the son of Richard and Frances Auger. He was educated in Michigan and North Carolina and came to Eureka in 1920.

He married Olga Paulson on Nov. 17, 1923, in Coeur d'Alene. The couple lived in Michigan before moving to Libby in 1930.

He worked in a grocery store in Libby for several years, and then went to the St. Regis Lumber Co., where he was employed for 20 years. He and his wife moved to Sunnyside four years ago.

Mr. Auger was a member of Christ Lutheran Church and a former member of the Libby Volunteer Fire Department.

Survivors include his wife at their Sunnyside home; a daughter, Phyllis McWhirk of Sunnyside; a son, Don Auger of Libby; a sister, Ruth McClutchey of Onaway, Mich.; a brother, Virgil Auger of Flint, Mich.; six grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home in Libby, with Emmett Lisle officiating. Burial will follow in the City of Libby Cemetery.