

1985 Lillian McVee

Lillian McVee, 89, died Thursday, July 11, in the Valley View Nursing Home in Glasgow.

Funeral services were held Monday, July 15, at 10 a.m. in the First Methodist Church with Pastor Don Paulson officiating. Burial was in the Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Cap Holter, Floyd Nelson Jr., Wayne Myhre, Jerry Jacobson, Gail Johnson and Darrell Betz.

Born in Miles City, on June 16, 1896, she was the daughter of John and Charlotte Betz.

She was raised north of Vandalia near Bear Creek. On November 25, 1926 in Glasgow, she married Virgil Harley McVee.

They lived on their ranch north of Glasgow on Cherry Creek where her son Charles and his family now reside. She taught school in the Glasgow area before becoming county superintendent of schools in the 1920's. She was a member of the First Methodist Church in Glasgow, the Valley County CowBelles and belong to the Rebekah Lodge. She had lived at Valley View Home for the last nine years.

Survivors include two sons, Charles of Glasgow and Curtis of Anchorage, Alaska; one daughter, Lilah Knutson of Geysler; two brothers, John Betz of Vandalia, and Paul Betz of Polson; one sister, Charlotte Rusher of Woodburn, Ore.; 12 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Virgil in 1958.

Perry Mathews, 55

^{2 Nov 1984}
Perry C. Mathews, 55, Helena, died Friday, apparently of a heart attack, while hunting near Dillon.

He was vo-ag teacher at Bigfork High School from 1956 until 1965.

He was born Aug. 7, 1929, in Turtle Lake, N.D. His family soon moved to Sun River, and he graduated from Simms High School in 1948. He married Jackie Pettyjohn at Fairfield in 1952.

After his graduation from Montana State College in 1956, he came to Bigfork. In 1965 he became an instructor at the Helena Vocational-Technical School.

Survivors include his wife, Jackie, at home; two daughters, Trudi Mathews of Helena and Terri Dood of Glendive; a son, Ted, at Montana State University; three brothers, Ernest in Great Falls, Merlin in Medicine Lake and Charles in Sun River; and five sisters, Doris Dahlin of Federal Way, Wash.; Pat Bliss of Dutton; Mrs. Kenneth Brandt of Great Falls, Mrs. Richard Roehm of Bozeman and Mrs. Robert Kinna of Wolf Point.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Hagler Funeral Home in Helena. Burial will be in the Sun River cemetery.

Phyllis Mettler

^{20 Dec 1985}
WHITEFISH - Phyllis H. Mettler, Columbia Falls, died Friday at the North Valley Hospital. She was in her 80s.

She was born in Herman, Minn., to Phillip and Helen Mettler. She was raised in East Glacier, Shelby, Great Falls, where she attended Catholic school, and Troy.

In 1962 she moved to Hungry Horse, and in 1985 to Columbia Falls.

She is survived by one sister, Alice Blake of Columbia Falls and Gordon Mettler of Columbia Falls.

A private memorial service will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Jesse Waters of the Glacier Alliance Church in Hungry Horse will officiate.

The body has been donated to the WAMI Medical Education Program at Montana State University in Bozeman.

24 Aug 1985
Anna Mecklenburg, 96

Anna Mecklenburg, 96, died late Saturday evening in Immanuel Lutheran Home where she resided for the past two years.

She was born June 11, 1889, in Delano, Minn., a daughter of Charles and Sophia Epple Ziemer. She and her sister, Lillie, were raised on a dairy farm. She attended summer school in St. Cloud, Minn., and in 1918, studied at Denver University. She taught school for eight years in Minnesota.

On Nov. 15, 1916, she married the Rev. Henry C. Mecklenburg. He was a United Methodist minister in Minnesota and Montana for 48 years. The couple served Montana churches in Three Forks, Denton, Browning, Chinook, Columbia Falls, Plains and Helena. They lived in Billings where the Rev. Mecklenburg served on the Board of Missions and Church Extension for 20 years.

Mrs. Mecklenburg was preceded in death by her husband on Jan. 31, 1966, in Billings.

In 1976, she came to Kalispell to make her home with her daughter until entering Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church of Billings, Deaconess Hospital Guild, Women's Club, Garden Club, Rocky Mountain College Guild, and Senior Citizens organizations.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Walter (Florence) Ylinen of Kalispell, Harriet Mjelde of Three Forks, and Mrs. John (Ruth) Warren of Billings; eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt of Epworth United Methodist Church officiating. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 tonight. The body will be forwarded to Billings where graveside services and burial are being planned for Thursday morning in Sunset Memorial Gardens there.

The family suggests memorials to Epworth United Methodist Church of Kalispell.

Cordis Miller

May 1, 1985

Cordis Glenn Miller, 82, died May 1 in his Glasgow residence.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 8, in Bell Chapel with Rev. Douglas O. Campbell officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Born September 5, 1902 in Pierceton, Indiana, he was the son of Melton and Vivian Miller.

He was a World War II veteran and farmed in the Hinsdale area for many years.

Julius Meiers, 91

^{4 Feb. 1985}
POLSON Julius William Meiers, 91, Polson, a pioneer western Montana photographer, died of natural causes Monday at St. Luke Convalescent Hospital in Ronan.

He was born July 4, 1893, in Rocky Ridge, Ohio, the son of Frederick and Anna Meiers. He was reared and educated in Rocky Ridge. He moved with his family to Georgia at an early age and from there they came west.

He moved to Polson about 1917 and started the Meiers Studio after an apprenticeship in photography with Herman Snitzmeire. He later bought the business. He operated a photography studio in Polson for 45 years and was the official photographer for the Kerr Dam construction.

Mr. Meiers was a member of the Lutheran Missouri Synod Church and Calvary Lutheran Church. He was an avid fisherman and hunter, and was one of the first school bus drivers in Polson for the Mountain View area.

He married Helen Maschmeier in 1918 and she died in 1957.

He married Marie Maschmeier Sonsteli in 1959 and is now survived by her at the family home.

Also surviving are a son, Albert Meiers, Clarksfield, Minn.; a daughter, Lillian Horner, Polson; two stepsons, Lawrence Sonsteli and Dale Sonsteli, both of Creston; a stepdaughter, Geneva Van-Rinsum, Somers; 14 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Carl.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Thursday in the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Polson with the Rev. Bruce Dahl officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery under the direction of the Mosley Funeral Home in Polson.

The family suggests memorials to St. Luke Convalescent Hospital in Ronan.

Eunice Moran, 68

^{11 July 1985}
POLSON Eunice LaVerne Moran, 68, Rollins, died Thursday in Spokane, Wash.

She was born Feb. 26, 1917, in Shiro, the daughter of John and Ella Rigby Wingard. She was raised and attended schools in Texas.

She married Felix Moran on Dec. 22, 1934, in Texas. They resided in Texas until after World War II when they moved throughout the world as her husband pursued a career in the Air Force. They retired to Pullman, Wash., in 1964. In 1968, they moved to Rollins.

She was an avid bridge player and artist, and a member of Chief Ignatius Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution and a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Polson.

Survivors include her husband, Felix, of Rollins; two sons, Felix F. "Trey" Moran III, Scott Air Force in Illinois, and John T. "Tim"

Moran of Bothell, Wash.; one daughter, Monya G. Virgil of Lake City, Fla.; her parents, John and Ella Wingard of Polson, and six grandchildren.

Mass of Resurrection will be 2 p.m. Saturday in Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Polson with the Rev. Ernest Burns as celebrant. Interment will be in Lake View Cemetery in Polson under the direction of Mosley Funeral Home in Polson.

Memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Fred F. Metcalf, 91

13 Dec 1985
Fred F. Metcalf, 91, died Tuesday at Immanuel Lutheran Home in Kalispell where he had resided since 1980.

He was born Jan. 17, 1893, in Pleasantville, Iowa, a son of John and Margaret Metcalf. When he was 9 years old, he moved with his family to the Flathead Valley. They settled in the LaSalle area and he attended school there and at Half Moon. During his younger years he did woods work and worked in the lumber camps.

In 1917 he entered the U.S. Army and served with the 17th Company, 20th Engineers in France. He was a survivor of the troopship "Tuscania" which was torpedoed off the coast of Scotland on Feb. 5, 1918. Following his discharge from the army he returned to Kalispell where he was employed with the Somers Lumber Co., Metcalf Brothers Logging, Montana State Forestry and the U.S. Forest Service for 33 years, retiring in 1955.

On Dec. 10, 1919, he married Grace Graham and was preceded in death by her on Dec. 3, 1970.

Mr. Metcalf moved to the Montana Veterans Home in 1974, and later moved to the Immanuel Lutheran Home.

He had been active in the local American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, National Association of Retired Federal Employees Association, and in later years was active in Kalispell Senior Citizens and International Order of Odd Fellows.

He was preceded in death by nine brothers, two sisters and a son, Fred Jr., who died in 1946 in the South Pacific while serving with the U.S. Air Force.

He is survived by a daughter, Helen Sonntag of Kalispell; three granddaughters; five great-granddaughters, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday with the Rev. Bruce Cunningham of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery where military graveside rites will be conducted by the local veterans organizations.

The family suggests memorials to Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Albert Meyer, 56

1 Aug 1985
Albert C. Meyer, 56, Troy, died at home Thursday of a heart attack.

He was a retired Great Northern Railway employee who had lived in Troy for most of his life.

Born Jan. 30, 1929, to Cornelius and Christine Meyer, he grew up in Spokane and served in the U.S. Army during the Korean conflict. After moving to Troy, he worked for the railroad for 20 years before retiring several years ago due to ill health.

He married Gloria Jean Collogan in Coeur d'Alene on Sept. 29, 1951.

Survivors include his wife, Troy; three sons, Neil, Columbia Falls, Robert and Steven, both of Troy; a daughter, Alberta Mudd, Redding, Calif.; five brothers, Don, of Libby, Lewis and Forrest, both of Troy, Dale and Frank, both of Columbia Falls; a sister, Darlene Clark, Missoula; and nine grandchildren.

Graveside services are Monday at 2 p.m. at Milnor Lake Cemetery. Visitation is today, 1-9 p.m., and until noon Monday at the Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

8 July 1985
Virgil Metcalf, 72

Virgil Bernard Metcalf, 72, Glendive, died Monday morning at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Miles City.

He lived in the Flathead Valley for most of his life, and worked for Pacific Power and Light Co. for many years, retiring in 1974. He moved to Glendive in 1979 to be near his daughter.

Metcalf was born at the family farm in the LaSalle area to Virgil and Susan McGregor Metcalf. He attended school at LaSalle and graduated from Flathead County High School. He then worked for Metcalf Logging Co. until enlisting in the Army where he served as a military policeman.

In February 1941, he married Dorothy Zacharias in Kalispell.

He enjoyed fishing, hunting and bowling, and was a member of American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, 4-H and Future Farmers of America.

Survivors include his wife, Kalispell; a daughter, LaDonna Jimison, Glendive; two sisters, Bette Bay of Kalispell and Gertrude Street, Boise, Idaho; and four grandchildren.

Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Funeral Home in Kalispell. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

28 Sept 1985
Norman Meyer, 48

Norman C. Meyer, 48, Whitefish, died Saturday in the North Fork area.

He was born Sept. 30, 1936, in Wolf Point, to Charles and Mary Meyer. He was raised and educated in Wolf Point and attended Montana State University in Bozeman.

He moved to Colorado and then to Whitefish.

For the past 20 years, he worked as an electrician for Anaconda Aluminum Co., now Columbia Falls Aluminum Co.

He was a charter member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles No. 4081 in Columbia Falls and was a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union No. 768.

He was preceded in death by his mother and a sister.

Survivors include his wife, Anna Meyer of Whitefish; two sons, Earl Meyer, in the military in North Carolina, and Fred Meyer in Alaska; a stepson, Joseph Garrisi of Whitefish; three stepdaughters, Dolores, Theresa, and Gabriella Garrisi of Whitefish; his father, Charles Meyer of Wolf Point; two brothers, Marvin Meyer of New Jersey and Gordon Meyer of Billings; and a sister, Lida Bowker of Wolf Point.

Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Bernard Sullivan officiating. Burial will be at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Van Leuven Funeral Home.

Ivan K. Meyer, 28

^{28 Jan 1985}
Ivan Kurt Meyer, 28, died Monday afternoon at his home in Kalispell.

He was born Sept. 27, 1956, in San Jose, Calif., a son of Richard and Carol "Darlene" Meyer. He received his education in Spokane, Wash., and graduated from high school there.

On Oct. 17, 1981, he married Diane Morasch in Spokane.

Mr. Meyer was a salesman for the S.C. Rykoff Co. for the last four years.

He moved to Kalispell in 1982.

He attended Community Alliance Church.

He is survived by his wife, Diane, and daughter, Alisha Marie, at the family home; a son, Nathaniel Meyer, Spokane; his parents, Richard and Darlene Meyer, Kodiak, Alaska; a brother, Rick Meyer, Spokane; two sisters, Melissa Meyer of Kodiak, Alaska, and Penny Steichen of Spokane.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Thursday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Roy Jones of First Church of the Nazarene officiating. Following the services the body will be forwarded to the Ball and Dodd Funeral Home in Spokane, where services and burial will be held at a later date.

Mabel Moats, 75

^{13 Jan 1985}
Mabel V. Moats, 75, Happy Valley, died Sunday of natural causes.

She was born Oct. 13, 1909, in Lyle, Minn., a daughter of Fred and Jennie Herr. She was raised in Lyle and attended school in Hewitt, Minn.

She married Stanley Moats in June 1928 in Minnesota and they farmed near Henning, Minn. After the death of her husband, Stanley, in 1978, she moved to Whitefish to be near her son, David.

She was a member of Golden Agers and the Methodist Church in Minnesota.

She is survived by a son, David Moats, Whitefish; a granddaughter, Connie Flugel, Houston, Texas; a grandson, Randy Moats, Great Falls; four great-grandchildren; five brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Elden H. Martens of St. Peter Lutheran Church of Whitefish officiating.

A second service will be held 2 p.m. Saturday at the Methodist Church at Deer Creek, Minn., with burial at the Inman Cemetery in Henning, Minn., under the direction of the Belmont Funeral Home in Henning.

Ivan W. Mitchell ^{May 1985}

Ivan W. Mitchell, who was born in Glasgow on Feb. 11, 1909 and grew up in Nashua, died Wednesday, May 1, in St. Peter Hospital in Tumwater, Wash.

He was 76.

Memorial services were held Friday, May 3, in Olympia's First Baptist Church. Interment followed in Olympic Memorial Gardens. Arrangements were under the direction of Olympic Funeral Home.

He was very active in sports, winning state medals in the high jump. He later managed the Independence Basketball Team. He moved to Wyoming and was active in children's Christmas activities in Greybull for many years. He was past master of Greybull No. 34 Masonic Lodge, past worthy patron of the Order of the Eastern Star and held various offices in the Presbyterian Church in Wyoming. He was part owner in the Big Horn Drug Store in Greybull until 1962 when he moved to the Tumwater area.

Since moving to Tumwater he was employed at Southgate Drug Store and recently retired. He was a member of the board of trustees for the Baptist Church, and a member of the Olympia Elks Lodge. On July 15, 1984, he and his wife celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Survivors include his widow, Alma M.; one daughter, Illona Rae Mitchell, Burbank, Calif.; one brother, Philip, Glasgow, Mont.; two sisters, Beatrice Lutz, Havre, and Mary Scott, Oswego. His son, James I. died in 1967.

Jessie Michaels, 71

^{3 May 1985}
Jessie "Billie" Michaels, 71, of Columbia Falls, died Friday morning in the Kalispell Regional Hospital Brendan House.

She was an artist and had several shows, selling a number of her oil paintings.

She was born January 20, 1914, the youngest daughter of Ralph and Maude Harbin, in the Deer Park area.

She attended Montford grade school and graduated from Flathead County High School in 1931. Two years later, she received a teaching degree from the Montana Normal School (now Eastern Montana University) in Billings.

On August 1, 1933, she was married to Dick Michaels in Kalispell.

They spent most of their 37 years together in logging and construction camps throughout the Northwest, spending several years in Alaska.

She was preceded in death by her husband on February 10, 1970, and has lived at her cabin in the North Fork and in Columbia Falls since that time.

She was also preceded in death by two brothers, Russell and Dell Harbin; two sisters, Margaret Stokes and Opal Lull; and a granddaughter, Pam Michaels.

She is survived by her son, Dick Michaels, Kalispell; a brother, Pat Harbin, Condon; a sister, Hilda Taylor, Anderson Island, Wash.; a grandson, Curt Michaels, Missoula, and several nieces and nephews.

Friends and relatives will meet for funeral services at 10:30 a.m. on Monday in the Fairview Chapel (at Fairview Cemetery) with the Rev. Chauncey Biffle officiating. Burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, N. 820 Summit Blvd., Spokane, WA 99201, or the Shodair Children's Hospital, P.O. Box 5539, Helena, MT 59601.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

Ron C. Meyer, 23

^{13 Dec 1985}
TROY — Ron C. Meyer, 23, Troy, died Friday night of a stab wound received at a bar in Libby.

He was born Aug. 30, 1962, in Livingston, to Forrest and Ida Meyer. He attended Troy schools. He worked in the oilfields at Sidney and in Oklahoma and Texas until he returned to Troy about three years ago.

He enjoyed working on cars.

He is survived by his parents, Forrest and Ida Meyer of Troy; three sisters, Melody Skillings and Cheri Langevin, both of Libby, and Tamara Syth of Troy; two brothers, Jim Meyer of Troy, and Tom Meyer, Seattle; and numerous other relatives.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at Milner Lake Cemetery near Troy under the direction of Vial Funeral Home of Libby.

Glen Mikesell, 73

^{6 Jan 1985}
Glen C. Mikesell, 73, Whitefish, died Sunday evening in North Valley Hospital.

He was born Nov. 18, 1911, in Taney County, Mo., a son of Jacob and Josephine Mikesell. He received his education in Missouri and moved to the Flathead Valley in about 1926.

On Dec. 23, 1933, he married Thelma Christensen in Kalispell. The couple lived in Kalispell and Whitefish.

Mr. Mikesell worked in the logging industry and farmed most of his life.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Raymond and Bill Mikesell, and four sisters, Madge Fuller, Iva Rogers, Marie Lautherback and Lena Oesch.

He is survived by his wife, Thelma, at home; a son, Marvin Mikesell, Whitefish; two daughters, Glenda Reed of Kalispell, and Loretta Enger of Whitefish; a brother, Ed Mikesell, Florence; 11 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Dr. David Kauffman of the Whitefish Christian Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Martha Miller, 64

^{27 Dec 1985}
Martha C. Miller, 64, Kalispell, died Friday in a Missoula hospital of an abdominal obstruction.

She worked for the Miller-Eigeman accounting firm in Kalispell for several years, retiring in 1980.

She was born Sept. 16, 1921, in Grant, Neb., to Thomas and Lorena McCartney. She attended school in Long Beach, Calif., and came to Kalispell in 1946.

Surviving are a daughter, Dorothy Knutson, Missoula; a brother, Percy McCartney, Seal Beach, Calif.; and three grandchildren.

Cremation has taken place in Missoula. Memorial services will be Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Hero Ulrichs officiating. The family suggests memorials to the charity of the donor's choice.

Benjamin Miller, 48

^{11 Mar 1985}
Benjamin D. "Ben" Miller, 48, Kalispell, died of cancer Monday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Jan. 3, 1937, in Kalispell, the son of Jack and Mae Miller. He was raised and attended public schools in Kalispell.

He was in the U.S. Navy from 1956 to 1958, serving on the transport ship U.S.S. General Mann in the Pacific. Following his discharge, he returned to Kalispell.

On June 28, 1958, he married Verla Claridge in Kalispell, where the couple made their home. He worked as a logger until retiring due to ill health in 1978.

Survivors include his wife, Verla, at the family home in Kalispell; two sons, Doug and Russ Miller, both of Kalispell; a daughter, Lori Miller, Kalispell; a granddaughter; six brothers, Ross of Fortine, Ken, Irvin and Norman, all of Kalispell, John of Rosalia, Wash., and Marvin of Nevada; three sisters, Virginia Carazel of Hermiston, Ore., Luella Peay and Syliva Evans, both of Newport, Wash.; and numerous other relatives.

Visitation will be from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Family and friends will meet at the funeral home at 2:30 p.m. Thursday for the procession to graveside services at Spring Creek Cemetery in West Valley, with Bud Bower officiating.

The family suggests memorials to Flathead Hospice Project, P.O. Box 1532, Kalispell, 59901.

30 Dec 1985

Charlotte Miller, 71

Charlotte E. Miller, 71, died Monday evening of natural causes at the Flathead County Nursing Home following a lengthy illness.

She was born on May 6, 1914, in Tribune, Saskatchewan, the daughter of Robert and Belle Struss.

She was raised and educated in Minnesota, and was married to Donald Heller in Minneapolis. Shortly after World War II, the family relocated to Bloomington, Calif. He died in an automobile accident in 1949, in Fontana, Calif., and she later married Daniel Miller, who preceded her in death in 1975.

She had come to Kalispell in February of 1985 to live with her son.

Surviving besides her son Jack Heller of Kalispell are three grandchildren, Charlotte Schmeideskamp of Rochester, N.Y., John Heller of Phoenix, Ariz., and Leora Pierce of Newburgh, N.Y.; two great grandchildren; five sisters; and two brothers.

Private graveside memorial services were held Friday at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements and cremation were by the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Ethel E. Miller, 84

1 Jan 1985

Ethel Elizabeth Miller, 84, Kalispell, died Tuesday morning in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born Sept. 21, 1900, in Balsam Lake, Wis., a daughter of John and Jennie Jackson. As a child she moved with her family to Bigfork and attended Bigfork schools. She graduated from the School of Nursing at Kirksville, Mo., and then moved to Minnesota for a time.

On July 21, 1923, she married August Miller in Algona, Iowa. In 1926 the couple moved to Bigfork, where they lived until 1931 when they moved to Kalispell.

Mrs. Miller was a member of the Epworth United Methodist Church, Kalispell Eagles Auxiliary, V.F.W. Auxiliary, American Legion Auxiliary, Cootiettes, and the Association of the Blind.

She was preceded in death by her husband, August, on May 13, 1972.

Survivors include three sons, Arnold Miller of Phoenix, Ariz., Arvin Miller of San Diego, Calif, and Marvin Miller of Lakeside; two daughters, Arlene Barry and Margaret Jacobson, both of Kalispell; 12 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Friday in Epworth United Methodist Church with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

J. Miscampbell, 26

^{11 Nov 1985}
James A. Miscampbell, 26, Whitefish, died Monday as the result of an auto accident on U.S. 2 East, Kalispell.

He was born May 25, 1959, in Whitefish, a son of Maurice and Helen Miscampbell. He was raised and educated in Whitefish and attended Flathead Valley Community College.

For the past year he was employed with American Timber in Olney.

Survivors include two daughters, Jamie Ryan Miscampbell and Alisha Lenee Miscampbell, both of Columbia Falls; his parents, Maurice and Helen Miscampbell, Whitefish; a sister, Billie Jean Lawrence, North Pole, Alaska; a brother, Robert L. Miscampbell, Boulder; his grandmother, Mildred Hansen, Whitefish; a number of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later by Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish.

JAMES A. MISCAMPBELL

BORN

May 25, 1959
Whitefish, Montana

ENTERED INTO REST
November 11, 1985
Kalispell, Montana

FUNERAL SERVICES

Austin Funeral Home - 1:00 p.m.
Friday, November 15, 1985

OFFICIATING

Rev. Harold Petersen
Christ Lutheran Church
Whitefish, Montana

SOLOIST - Richard Lund

ORGANIST - Marion Heinrich

HONORARY CASKETBEARERS

Therron Barker Brian McDowell
Duane Herriges Leon McDowell
Brad Lawrence Jack Nelson

CASKETBEARERS

Donald Erie Colin Joy
Tom Fredenberg Rand E. McDowell
Stephen Herriges Doug Smith

INTERMENT

Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery
Kalispell, Montana

Sherry Mitchell, 36

^{2 - JAN 1985}
Sherry Mitchell, 36, a former Columbia Falls resident, died Wednesday in an automobile accident in Anchorage, Alaska.

A 1966 graduate of Columbia Falls High School, she had been a legal secretary in Anchorage since 1974.

She was born July 5, 1948, to Robert and Betty Wyman at Sidney. The family later moved to Columbia Falls, where she married Bob Mitchell shortly after graduation from high school.

In Anchorage, she worked first for a law firm before opening her own legal secretarial firm in 1982.

She was preceded in death by her father in 1973, and a brother, Butch, in 1976.

Survivors include two daughters, Shelly and Kellie of Anchorage; her mother, Betty Wyman, Columbia Falls; a brother, Gordy Wyman, Missoula; two sisters, Bobbi Hagen of Columbia Falls and Kathy Senst of Spokane; her grandmother, Iva Wyman, Columbia Falls; and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Seliger of Sidney.

The family suggests memorials in lieu of flowers to a trust fund established for Mrs. Mitchell's daughters.

A graveside service will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. Pastor Robert Payne of the First Christian Church of Columbia Falls will officiate. Visitation will be Tuesday from 1-8 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

S. Mildred Mittelstadt

11 Aug 1985

S. Mildred Mittelstadt died Sunday, August 11, in the Frances Mahon Deaconess Hospital in Glasgow.

She was 76.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, August 14, at 10 a.m. in the First Lutheran Church with Pastor Robert Nilsen officiating. The organist was Helen Martens and the vocalist was Donna Enebo. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Garth Maag, Lyle Walstad, Dan Anderson, Arnold Anderson, Erling Dohlen and Floyd Maxwell.

She was born in Maddock, North Dakota on May 26, 1909 to John and Martha Hagen. She was raised in the Bainville, Montana area.

On November 21, 1944 in Sidney, Montana, she married Herman Mittelstadt. She moved to Glasgow in 1938. Herman farmed in the Opheim area. They enjoyed traveling. She belonged to the Sons of Norway in Glasgow, the Sons of Norway Auxiliary in Spokane and the First Lutheran Church.

S. MILDRED MITTELSTADT

Survivors include one son, Gerald Hoffman of Opheim, one sister, Alice Click of Spokane and four grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Herman in 1964 and a son, Dale Hoffman, in 1962.

Oliver Montgomery

Oliver Montgomery, longtime resident of Wolf Point, died Tuesday of last week in Glasgow. He was 89 years old.

Born Feb. 29, 1896, in Inkster, N.D., a son of George and Barbara Montgomery, he was the last survivor of their six sons.

He attended schools in Orr, N.D., and moved to Montana in 1916. He married Viola Johnson Dec. 28, 1926 in Scobey. He owned Montgomery Texaco Station in Wolf Point for 12 years, then worked for the Montana Highway Department for many years before retiring in 1964. Mr. Montgomery had served 12 years on the Wolf Point school board and had served as an Elder of the First Presbyterian Church. He was a 50-year member and Past Master of Loyalty Lodge 121 AF&AM and a member of Riverside Chapter 84, OESE.

Survivors include his widow; three daughters, Mrs. James (Helen) Burt, of Glasgow, Mrs. Kastor (Lona Lee) Simensen of Wolf Point and Mrs. Hans (Jean) Pohl of West Fargo, N.D.; 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Masonic services were Friday at Clayton Memorial Chapel. Funeral services were Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Paul McNiell officiating. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

H.L. Montague, 60

20 Aug 1985
Homer Lee "Montie" Montague, 60, Kalispell, died in Deaconess Hospital in Billings Tuesday evening.

He was born Dec. 1, 1924, in Las Vegas, Nev., a son of Lionell A. and Cloe Sharp Montague. At an early age he moved with his father to Idaho, where they lived in several towns before settling at Pocatello. He completed his education there and entered the U.S. Navy in 1941. He received his honorable discharge in 1947.

He moved to Galveston, Texas, for a time, and returned to Pocatello, where he worked with his brother operating a saw mill. He was also manager of a cab company.

In 1951, he moved to Portland, Ore., and worked with the U.S. Forest Service for about a year when he was injured. He then studied refrigeration and music and taught music at the Stan Cotto Music School in Portland until 1954.

In 1954, he moved to Cut Bank and in 1955, he moved to San Diego and was employed as a jig and fixture builder for Convair Aircraft Corp. In 1963, he managed a cab company for a short time and served as captain of a yacht in San Diego.

In 1968, he moved to Kalispell and did various jobs including working as installer for the T.V. Doctor. He has been disabled since 1977.

His hobbies were hunting, fishing, camping and making agate jewelry.

He was a member of Stillwater Lutheran Church.

On Dec. 22, 1952, he married Bernice P. Ingram in Portland, and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Al (Carol) Gaswint of Kalispell, and Renee Wehrle of Pocatello; four sons, Tony, Michael and Daniel Montague, all in Idaho, and William Montague of San Jose, Calif.; three half-sisters, Janet Stauffer of Layton, Utah, and Norma Cordell and Carol Hancock, both of Pocatello; and many grandchildren and other relatives.

His body is being donated to the University of Colorado. Memorial services are being planned for a later date.

Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

22 Aug 1985 John Moore, 84

John "Earle" Moore, 84, formerly of Kalispell, died at his home in Missoula on Thursday evening.

Moore owned and operated Flat-head Distributors from 1935 to 1950.

He was born Oct. 31, 1900, in Florence, Minn., a son of John and Nellie Moore. He received his education in Minnesota.

On Aug. 16, 1923, he was married to Cora A. Stannard in Minot, N.D. The couple moved to eastern Montana, where he worked in the oil fields at Kevin for a time.

He then became associated with the Great Falls Brewery Co., and in 1935, they moved to Kalispell, where they lived until his retirement in 1950.

They then lived briefly in California, but returned to Kalispell until 1973, when they moved to the Missoula Manor Homes, where they had lived since.

He had been a member of the Kalispell Elks Lodge.

He was preceded in death by one son, John E. Moore Jr., and one daughter, Mary E. Craft.

He is survived by his wife, Cora, of Missoula; two sons, Glen E. Moore, of Helena, and Thomas E. Moore, of Boulder; five grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews including Ethel Boren of Kalispell.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt, pastor of the Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Earl W. Mortenson, 71 10 Oct 1985

LIBBY — Earl W. Mortenson, 71, died Thursday at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby following an extended illness.

Mortenson was born April 13, 1914, at Crosby, Minn., to Franz and Hannah Mortenson. He came to Libby with his family in 1930.

He had worked for J. Neils Lumber Co., and worked as a woods worker and miner until his retirement in 1972.

Survivors include a daughter, Rita St. Pierre of Libby; two brothers, John and Cecil, both of Libby; two sisters, Gloria Nelson of Fargo, N.D., and Bernice Zingleman of Spokane.

Graveside services will be conducted Monday at 1 p.m. at the City of Libby Cemetery, with Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Arrangements are by Vial Funeral Home.

Harold Moody, 75

^{27 May 1985}
NOXON — Harold A. Moody, 75, Noxon, died of natural causes Monday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born April 30, 1910, in Detroit, and grew up and attended school in Michigan.

He was employed as a painter in Detroit for many years, and moved to Libby from Everett, Wash., in 1965. He moved to Noxon a short time later.

He married Gladys Roberts on Sept. 3, 1940, in Melvindale, Mich. His wife preceded him in death in 1971.

Survivors include a nephew, Dwayne DeMaw, Noxon, and a niece, Muriel Lotito, Sequim, Wash.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Friday at Vial Funeral Home in Libby. Burial will be in the City of Libby Cemetery.

Basil Moulder, 70

^{27 Sep. 1985}
Basil G. Moulder, 70, Whitefish, died Friday evening at St. Patrick's Hospital in Missoula.

He was born March 31, 1915, in Hardesty, Alberta, a son of Walter and Elsie Moulder. He was raised and educated in Hardesty.

He joined the Canadian Air Force in 1940 and served until 1945.

Until his retirement, he had worked for the Robert Trent Jones II Construction Co. as a golf course consultant and lived all over the world. After retiring in 1978, he moved to the Flathead Valley and resided in Whitefish for the past six years.

He was a member of the American Legion, Golf Course Superintendents Association, and was a vice commodore of the Sea Scouts.

He was married to Irene Repath in Toronto in 1940, and is now survived by her at the family home in Whitefish. He is also survived by one daughter Lona Quillen, Kila; two sons, Terry of Phoenix, Ariz., and Darryl of Whitefish; seven grandchildren; one great-grandchild; three brothers, Archie, Robert, and Warren, all of Alberta; and one sister, Ivy Perestam of British Columbia.

He was preceded in death by his brother Walter.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later by the Austin Funeral Home on Whitefish.

Harold Morrow, 61

^{23 Jan. 1985}
Harold Wayne Morrow, 61, Kalispell, died Wednesday evening in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born July 13, 1923, in Kalispell, a son of John and Clara Morrow. He received his education here and in 1943 entered the U.S. Marine Corps. He served in the South Pacific during World War II, receiving his honorable discharge on Dec. 19, 1945. In 1947, he re-entered the Marine Corps and served until his honorable discharge on Jan. 22, 1951.

On Jan. 5, 1946, he married Louise Vaughn in Kalispell.

He was a star route driver for the U.S. Postal Service between Somers and Polson on the west Lakeshore for 39 years. There was an article about him in the Sinclair Postal News in 1958 lauding his expertise in delivering mail.

He served as a Little League Coach for many years.

He was a member of the Central Christian Church.

He was preceded in death by his father, John, and a brother, Elvin Morrow.

He is now survived by his wife, Louise, at the family home; two sons, John Morrow of Lakeside, and Bob Morrow of Kalispell; two daughters, Mrs. Cecil (Cheryl) Main of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Don (Jean) Johnson of Yakima, Wash.; his mother, Clara Chenoweth of Kalispell; a sister, Mrs. Ed (Martha) Bull of Kalispell; three granddaughters and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at noon Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey of the Lakeside Chapel officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery where military graveside rites will be conducted by the local veterans organizations.

The family suggests memorials to the Lakeside Quick Response Unit, P.O. Box 36, Lakeside, 59922, or the Alert Foundation, 310 Sunnyside Lane, Kalispell, 59901.

22 Aug 1985
Albert Morris, 86

Albert Harry Morris, 86, formerly of the Flathead Valley, died on Thursday afternoon at St. Peter's Community Hospital in Helena, following a brief illness.

From 1954 until 1974, Morris lived in Kalispell and worked in the logging business.

He was born July 21, 1899, in Webster County, W.Va., a son of Martin and Emma Morris. He received his education in West Virginia, and on May 23, 1923, he married Cora Mae Payne in Centralia, W. Va.

After his retirement in 1974, the couple moved to Helena, where they had lived since that time.

He was preceded in death by five children, and is now survived by his wife, Cora, of Helena; three sons, I.L. "Bud" Morris and James Morris, both of Helena, and Arnold "Buck" Morris of Bigfork; two daughters, Geraldine O'Brien of Akron, Ohio, and Edith Jorgensen of Anaconda; two brothers, Arnett Morris of West Virginia and Jack Morris of Ohio; 25 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Wayne Goodman, pastor of the Bigfork Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary from 1 to 6 p.m. today for visitation.

23 June 1985
Georgie Moulton, 70

LIBBY & Georgie E. Moulton, 70, died of natural causes Sunday at her home south of Libby.

She was born June 29, 1914, in Havre, to Thomas and Georgie Wetherelt. She was raised and attended schools in Broadus.

She married Alfred B. Moulton on Feb. 4, 1933, in Broadus. They moved to Ashland in 1952 and to Harlem in 1961. They moved to Libby in 1966.

She attended the Church of the Nazarene in Libby.

Survivors include her husband, Alfred. Libby; three daughters, Eunice Gardipee, Anchorage, Alaska, Joan Laycock, Watsonville, Calif., and Joy Tallmadge, Vancouver, Wash.; a son, Thomas Moulton, Cut Bank; a sister, Edna Anderson, Sheridan; four brothers, Alvin Wetherelt, Libby, Fred Wetherelt, Corvallis, Ore., and Glenn and Norman Wetherelt, both of Broadus; 20 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Church of the Nazarene in Libby with the Rev. Jacobson and the Rev. Wilbert Moulton officiating.

Interment will be at the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home, Libby.

Ruth Mollberg, 89

^{30 Nov 1985}
Ruth Mollberg, 89, West Glacier, died Thursday at Colonial Manor in Whitefish where she resided the past five years.

She was born March 4, 1896, in Scotland, a daughter of Alex and Margaret Fordyce. She received her early schooling in Scotland and then moved to Manitoba with her family. The family later homesteaded in southern Saskatchewan.

In 1914, she married George Mollberg at the Baptist Church of Congress in Saskatchewan. They were married by Mr. Mollberg's father who was the first minister of that church. She was preceded in death by her husband in December 1920.

She then served as a midwife and had delivered approximately 200 babies.

In 1939, she moved to West Glacier. She homesteaded in the Opheim area for a time and lived at West Glacier until entering the Colonial Manor.

When she was 65, she traveled to Scotland to visit her family.

Survivors include a son, George Mollberg, and a daughter, Phyllis SienKnecht, both of West Glacier; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews in Canada.

The body is being forwarded to Roth Funeral Home of Assiniboia, Saskatchewan, where services are being planned early in the week at Congress Baptist Church. Burial will be in Congress Cemetery.

Johnson Mortuary is in charge of local arrangements.

The family suggests memorials to the Alert Fund. 1985

^{11 Feb. 1985} Bernard A. Muri Jr., 59

SEATTLE, Wash. — Bernard A. "Ben" Muri Jr., 59, Blaine, Wash., died of cancer Feb. 11 in Seattle.

He was born Feb. 3, 1926, in Great Falls, a son of Regis and Ben Muri Sr. He was raised and educated in Great Falls.

He served in the Merchant Marines during World War II.

He lived in Whitefish from 1964 to 1969. In 1969 he moved to Washington and worked as an electrician for Bonneville Power in Blaine.

In 1946 he married Jeanetta O. Brown in Great Falls.

He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church in Blaine, and the International Order of Electrical Workers Union.

He is survived by his wife, Jeanetta, Blaine; five sons, Michael and Eric, both of Kalispell, Patrick of Whitefish, Thomas of Japan, and Joseph of Blaine; a daughter, Naomi, Blaine; his mother, Regis of Great Falls; a sister, Sonja, Great Falls; a brother, Dale, Great Falls; a grandson and a granddaughter.

Funeral services were Feb. 13 in Blaine, Wash.

Fayme Morris, 76

^{26 SEP 1985}
FORTINE — Fayme M. Morris, 76, died of natural causes Thursday morning at her home in Eureka.

She was born May 28, 1909, in Reubens, Idaho, to Henry and Dora Shiflett. As a small child, she came with her family to the Fortine area, where they homesteaded at Deep Creek.

She and her husband Henry resided in the Forine area most of their married lives. He preceded her in death in 1980. She moved into Eureka in 1984.

She was also preceded in death by a daughter, Adeline Cook, in 1973.

Survivors include two daughters, Gladys Erie, Eureka, and Norma Sullivan, West Palm Beach, Fla.; a son, Raymond Morris, Oak Harbor, Wash.; two sisters, Luella Campbell, Libby, and Anita Hall, Drummond; six brothers, Bill and Sylvester Shiflett, both of Libby; Ed and Dan Shiflett, both of Havre; Jack Shiflett, Redford, N.Y.; and Calvin Shiflett, Spokane; 15 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren. Services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Monday at the Fortine Cemetery, with the Rev. David Kaufmann officiating. Arrangements are by Vial Funeral Home in Eureka.

^{17 Feb 1985} Del Mullen, 80

HOT SPRINGS — Delmer M. Mullen, 80, a three-term mayor of Hot Springs during the 1960s, died Thursday morning at Clark Fork Valley Hospital in Plains.

Mullen, a former semi-pro baseball player who operated barber shops in Hot Springs for 39 years, was the town's mayor from 1961 until 1967. He had previously served on the City Council, and was a director of the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.

He was born March 29, 1904, to Michael and Anna Mullen of Drummond. The family moved to Missoula in 1910, and he attended school there.

He worked on the Northern Pacific Railroad for several years before moving to Portland, Ore., where he attended Portland Barber College and played semi-pro baseball. He continued his involvement with baseball after returning to Montana in the 1920s.

His first barber shop opened at Hot Springs in 1929. The following year he married Ruth Erickson, and the couple moved to Helena and Great Falls before settling in Polson in 1933. He operated a barber shop at Polson for eight years before returning to Hot Springs, where he ran the Crystal Barber Shop until retiring in 1979.

He was a member of Hot Springs Masonic Lodge No. 153, serving two terms as master. He received a 50-year pin from the lodge in 1979. He was also an avid hunter and fisherman.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth, Hot Springs; a daughter, Betty Reynolds, Sunnyside, Calif.; and four grandchildren.

Memorial services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the Masonic Hall in Hot Springs with the Rev. John McKinley officiating. A gathering of friends will follow at the Hot Springs Senior Citizens Center. The body will be cremated. Shrider Funeral Home in Plains is in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials to the Hot Springs Ambulance Association or the Hot Springs Senior Citizens Center.

^{26 Jan 1985} H. Mountjoy, 90

HOT SPRINGS — Hansine Tomina Mountjoy, 90, Hot Springs, died Saturday of natural causes at Hot Springs Convalescent Center.

She was born March 30, 1894, at Chicago, the daughter of Bernhardt and Anna Smith. At the age of 4, she moved with her parents to the Creston area of the Flathead Valley. She attended Dillon Normal School and taught at Bigfork, Lonepine, Hot Springs and Camas Prairie.

She married Leo Mountjoy in 1918, and they homesteaded in Rattlesnake Gulch area north of Lonepine. They later moved to the Little Bitterroot Valley and lived there until 1959 when they retired and moved to Hot Springs.

She enjoyed baking, gardening and entertaining. She was active in the Hot Springs Presbyterian Church and the Nyah Grange.

She is survived by two daughters, Margaret Trisolini, Athens, Ohio, and Mildred Knodle, Lincoln, Neb.; four sons, James Mountjoy, Renton, Wash., Wayne Mountjoy, Spirit Lake, Idaho, Maynard Mountjoy, Federal Way, Wash., and Lewis Mountjoy, Hot Springs; 17 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Hot Springs Presbyterian Church with the Rev. MacKenzie Murray officiating.

Burial will be at Murray Memorial Cemetery at Lonepine.

Memorials may be made to the John C. McCoy Scholarship Fund, Star Route Box 308, Spirit Lake, Idaho 83869, or the Shrine Children's Hospital, Spokane.

Shrider Funeral Home, Plains, is in charge of arrangements.

William Mueller, 63

^{27 Dec 1985}
William Florian Mueller, 63, died Friday evening at his Kalispell home after a long bout with cancer.

He and his wife, Albina, kept a foster home until 1977 and helped teen-agers through the juvenile probation office's shelter care program.

He was born April 29, 1922, in Stanton, N.D., to Richard and Lydia Mueller. He was educated in Stanton and Manhaven, N.D.

In 1953 he married Albina Mettler. They farmed in North Dakota until 1959, then moved to Billings. They came to Kalispell in 1966. He worked for Flathead Janitorial Service until 1983.

He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and the Kalispell Eagles Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Albina, at home; three children, Pam, of Shelby, Randy, in the U.S. Navy, and Tony, at home; brothers and sisters Emil, Arnold, Herman, Reuben, Robert, Harold, Hertha, Edna and Ruth, all of Seattle, Erna in Iowa and Elsie in Minnesota; and two grandsons. He was preceded in death by seven brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church with the Rev. Darold Reiner officiating. Burial will be the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery. Arrangements are by the Johnson Mortuary.

The family suggests memorials to the Trinity Lutheran Church Building Fund or the Flathead Hospice.

Helene Murphy, 64

^{16 Apr 1985}
Helene Murphy, 64, Somers, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Tuesday following a lengthy illness.

She was born May 23, 1920, in Whitefish, a daughter of Lynn H. and Marguerite Croy. When she was 6, she moved with her family to Chicago, where she was educated and graduated from Immaculate Heart College Convent. From age 6 until age 15, she excelled in ballet and tap dancing, but was unable to continue because of ill health.

In 1946, she moved to Bel Air, Md.

On Feb. 14, 1948, she married Thomas J. Murphy in Bel Air. In 1971, they moved to the Flathead Valley and had resided at Flathead Lake since then.

Survivors include her husband, Tom J. Murphy Sr., at the family home in Somers; two sons, Warren McAllister of Creston, and Tom L. Murphy of Kalispell; a daughter, Colleen Clark of Creston; six grandchildren; two aunts; and a number of nieces and nephews in Maryland.

Rosary will be recited at 6 p.m. Thursday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel. A service of Resurrection will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Edmund Smith of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.