

DI
Irene Gabriel, 52

19 Mar 1986
Irene Ann Gabriel, 52, a former valley resident, died of leukemia Wednesday in Mesa, Ariz.

She had been the first woman director of the Kalispell Area Chamber of Commerce, and was a former president of both the Buffalo Hill Golf Association and the Ladies Golf Association.

She was born Aug. 8, 1933, in Great Falls to David and Alice Chamber. She lived on a family ranch in Rainsford through her grade-school years, then graduated from high school at Great Falls.

She and her husband, William C. Gabriel, moved to the Lakeside area in 1968. She had worked at First Interstate Bank for the past 11 years.

Besides her association with the chamber and golf groups, she had been an active member of the Flathead County Republican Women's Club, the Kalispell Art Show and Auction and the Soroptimists. She was a past president of the Lakeside PTA.

Surviving are her husband, William; two sons, Rodney in Missoula and Todd in Spokane; two daughters, Laura Quadros of Danville, Calif., and Elizabeth Gabriel of Missoula; her mother, Alice Chamber, Great Falls; three brothers, Richard and Joe Chamber of Missoula and David Chamber of Great Falls; three sisters, Alice Romin and Janet Davis of Great Falls and Carol Drake of Havre; and five grandchildren. Her father preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Mortuary chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey of the Lakeside Chapel officiating. Burial will be in a local cemetery.

MHN
Vern M. Gardner

1986
Graveside services for Vern M. Gardner, 60, Columbia Falls, were held Monday at Woodlawn Cemetery with Lt. Bill Hathorn of the Salvation Army officiating.

Mr. Gardner died Nov. 12 at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Salt Lake City. He was born Feb. 20, 1926, in Ely Nev., son of Clarence and Katherine Gardner.

He was raised and educated in Utah, California and Idaho.

During World War II he served with the U.S. Marine Corps. After his discharge he worked for Ameron Pipe in California.

On July 31, 1976, he and Doris Robertson were married in Las Vegas, Nev. They moved to Whitefish in 1982 and later to Columbia Falls.

He is survived by his wife, at the family home; two daughters, Linda Dumke, Columbia Falls and Diane Allers, Eureka; two sons, Garold

Jones, Columbia Falls and Kevin Jones, Camp Pendleton, Calif.; five grandchildren; nine brothers and sisters and numerous nieces and nephews.

DI
Nathaniel Ghrames

Nathaniel Jay Ghrames, 3½-day-old son of Kelley Marie Ghrames of Spokane, Wash., died April 26 in Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane.

He was born April 22 at Valley General Hospital in Spokane.

Survivors include his mother, his grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. J.M. Ghrames, Kalispell; and an aunt.

Private memorial services were Wednesday in Spokane.

The family suggests memorials to the Heart Fund.

DI
Art Gee, 81 26 June 1986

Art Gee, 81, died at his Kalispell home Thursday evening. He had farmed in the Gallatin, Mission and Flathead valleys prior to his retirement in 1971.

Gee was born Aug. 11, 1904, near Bozeman, the son of George H. and Sarah E. Gee. He attended school in the Gallatin Valley, and in 1935 married Margaret E. Carlisle in Livingston.

He farmed in the Bozeman area until moving to Ronan in 1952. In 1960 they moved to a farm near Kalispell.

Gee was a member of the Eagles Lodge, Kalispell Senior Citizens and the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. His hobby was building steam engines, and he had built a complete saw mill. He also played his saxophone at various nursing homes.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Margaret, on Jan. 12, 1985, and by three brothers. He is now survived by his daughter, Myrna Janet Guay of Lethbridge; his son, Chief Petty Officer Niles M. Gee of Port Orchard, Wash.; a sister, Christena Warwood of Bozeman; two grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be 3 p.m. July 8 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Chauncey Biffle, retired Methodist minister, officiating. Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

8 Aug 1986

Howard Gibbs, 70

Howard Lee Gibbs, 70, a former Kalispell resident, died Aug. 8 in Spokane.

Mr. Gibbs, a resident of Spokane since 1971, was a resident of Kalispell for more than 40 years. He owned a shoe repair shop in Kalispell and also in Spokane.

He was born in Kansas City, Mo., on Aug. 1, 1916, to John L. and Clemie Taylor Gibbs.

He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Sixth Ward in Spokane.

Survivors include his wife, Leona C. Gibbs, at the home; a son, Roger C. Gibbs, and a daughter, Cora Lee Gibbs, both of Spokane; a grandson; a granddaughter; his mother, Clemie Thompson of Seattle, Wash.; two brothers; three sisters; numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a sister.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 43rd and Havana, Spokane, with interment in Greenwood Memorial Terrace.

Hazen and Jaeger Funeral Home, N. 1306 Monroe St., Spokane, is in charge of arrangements.

DI

Theodore Gigrich, 58

Theodore Warren Gigrich, 58, died June 26 in a San Luis Obispo, Calif., hospital.

He was born Dec. 16, 1927, in Havre to Theodore and Martha Gigrich. He graduated from Bigfork High School in 1946.

He enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Corps in 1947.

On June 3, 1951, he married Freddie Stryde in Newfoundland. They moved to Hanford, Calif., where he began a 30-year career with Crocker National Bank.

Survivors include his wife of Bakersfield, Calif.; a son, Theodore Gigrich of Kalispell; two daughters, Deborah Lopez of Atwater, Calif., and Karen Silvas of Bakersfield, Calif.; his mother, Martha Gigrich of Turlock, Calif.; three sisters, Carrie Misner of Turlock, Calif., Lucille Hammer of Kalispell, and Virginia Johnson of Tacoma, Wash.; and five grandchildren.

A requiem eucharist was July 2 in Bakersfield, Calif., and cremation has taken place.

Charles Gibbs, 40

Charles "Chuck" Wayne Gibbs, 40, Libby, died Saturday from injuries received in a grizzly bear attack.

He was born July 20, 1946, in Charlottesville, Va., a son of Lester and Christine Gibbs. He was raised and educated in Culpeper, Va., and graduated from high school in 1965.

He enlisted in the Air Force in 1965 and received his honorable discharge in 1969.

He married Glenda Plyler on

Aug. 24, 1968, in Salisbury, N.C., and the couple lived in North Carolina before moving to Billings in September 1974. They then moved to Libby in 1976 where he was a school bus driver and wildlife photographer.

He was a member of the Nazarene Church in Libby.

He was an avid outdoorsman and wildlife photographer and shared his enthusiasm of life and nature with adults and children.

He is survived by his wife, Glenda, at the family home in Libby; his parents, Lester and Christine Gibbs; two sisters, Ruth Woodard and Mrs. Jerry Elkins; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial services are pending and will be announced at a later date. Arrangements and cremation are under the direction of Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

Memorials are suggested to the Montana Wilderness Association, Helena, 59601.

KNS

FOSTER GILBODY 1986

Foster F. Gilbody, 74, of Half Moon Bay, California, died November 8 at Seton Medical Center in Daly City. A native of Nashua, New Hampshire, he was born to William and Laura (Putney) Gilbody on August 11, 1912. He was a retired Lieutenant Commander in the U.S. Navy Medical Service Corps and served 26 years in the Navy along with four years in the New Hampshire National Guard. He retired from the U.S. Navy in 1958 and graduated from the California College of Mortuary Science in 1959. He was a Half Moon Bay resident since 1977. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbody were frequent visitors to the Flathead Valley.

He is survived by his wife, Winifred, and sons, Karl of Tustin, CA and Stephen of Columbia Falls.

Dr. B.L. Gifford, 80

Dr. Byron Lee Gifford, 80, Kalispell, died Saturday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Jan. 30, 1906, in Minneapolis, Minn., the son of Frank and Ida Gifford. He was raised and attended schools in the Minneapolis area and graduated from West High School there.

He graduated as a doctor of medicine from the University of Minnesota in 1932. After his graduation he set up practice in Luverne, Minn.

On Jan. 26, 1933, he married Hallie Aston in Minneapolis. They moved to Hewitt, Minn., where he practiced medicine until 1935. The Giffords then purchased the hospital in Long Prairie which they operated until about 1940.

Dr. Gifford entered the U.S. Army Air Corps as a flight surgeon and served in the South Pacific during World War II with the 7th Air Force. He was honorably discharged with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

After leaving the service, he attended the University of Chicago where he studied ophthalmology. After his graduation in 1948, he moved to Santa Barbara, Calif., where he entered a partnership at the Sansum Clinic. He started a private practice in 1968 and retired in 1971.

In 1976 the Giffords moved to the Flathead Valley.

Dr. Gifford's hobbies included fishing, hunting and carpentry. He was a member of Phi Rho Sigma fraternity, the Incus medical honor society, the American College of Surgeons and the American Board of Ophthalmology.

Survivors include his wife, Hallie, at the family home in Kalispell; a daughter, Gail Newton and two grandchildren, Susan and G. Charles Newton II, all of Bigfork.

No public services are planned. Arrangements and cremation are under the direction of Bigfork Funeral Home.

Memorials may be sent to the Immanuel Lutheran Home in Kalispell.

Shirley Gillen, 38

15 Aug 1951
Shirley Lou Gillen, 38, Bigfork, died early Friday morning at her home near Echo Lake Resort.

She was born June 4, 1948, in Wallace, Idaho, the daughter of Harriett and William Beattie. She grew up in the Wallace area and attended schools there.

In 1965, she married Dexter Parmentier in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and they were later divorced.

On Aug. 25, 1980, she married Mike Gillen and the couple resided in the Flathead Valley.

Mrs. Gillen worked at Lake Hills IGA in Bigfork and later the dietary department of Kalispell Regional Hospital until ill health forced her to retire in January 1986.

She was a member of Bigfork Chapel Assembly of God.

She enjoyed playing bingo at the Kalispell Eagles Club.

Survivors include her husband, Mike Gillen, at the family home; her mother, Penny Burgen, Wallace, Idaho; a son, Bill Shockley, Portland, Ore.; two daughters, Lynne Marie Wood, Bigfork, and Tammy Parmentier, Lincoln City, Ore.; a brother, Rick Beattie, Post Falls, Idaho; four sisters, Judy Sanders, Astoria, Ore., Carol Henning, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Joyce Jones, Spokane, and Debbie Haynes, Grand Coulee, Wash.; two half-sisters and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at Bigfork Funeral Home with the Rev. Dennis Masters officiating. Burial will be at Lonesome Cemetery in Bigfork.

8 Jan 1986

Esther S. Gilliland, 73

Esther Sullivan Gilliland, 73, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Wednesday evening.

She was born Feb. 13, 1912, in Charlo, a daughter of Henry C. and Esther E. Keller. She received her education and spent her early life in Charlo.

On Nov. 28, 1934, she married Thomas D. Sullivan in Charlo. He died April 1951.

On Dec. 24, 1968, she married Samuel Gilliland in Kalispell.

She was employed at Hummer's Store in Kalispell and the Blue and White Motel for many years prior to her retirement.

She is survived by her husband, Samuel, at home; a daughter, Phyllis Evans, of Kalispell; two brothers, Norman Keller of Kalispell, and Richard Keller of California; a granddaughter, Stephanie Evans of Kalispell; a great-aunt, Verna Swalling of Charlo; and several nieces and nephews.

Rosary will be recited at 7 tonight in Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Funeral services will be 10:30 a.m. Friday in Johnson Chapel with the Rev. Michael O'Neill of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at Johnson Chapel for visitation until 6 tonight. The casket will be closed for services.

Ronald Gimbel, 27

Ronald A. Gimbel, 27, Columbia Falls, died Friday morning at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula of injuries sustained in a construction accident in Kalispell on Dec. 4.

He was born Aug. 8, 1959, in Whitefish to Donald A. and Geraldine W. Gimbel. He grew up in Columbia Falls, and graduated from Columbia Falls High School in 1977.

He became an ironworker and worked on various construction projects around the region.

He was a member of North Valley Search and Rescue.

On June 6, 1981, he married Cheryl A. Farmer in Libby. She now survives him at the family home, as do two daughters, Tiffany and Brandi. Also surviving are his parents, Columbia Falls; a brother, Don, Seattle; a sister, Renae Smith, Columbia Falls; and two grandmothers, Celestine Grigg, Columbia Falls, and Janice Gimbel, Pasco, Wash.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. at the United Methodist Church in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Howard Hunter officiating. Cremation has taken place. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery. Arrangements are by the Van Leuven Funeral Home of Columbia Falls.

The family has suggested that memorials be made to North Valley Search and Rescue.

28 Dec. 1986 - Intertake

Frances Agnes Gilliam 1986

Frances Agnes Gilliam, 69, died Friday, February 14, at the Valley Nursing Home in Billings.

Graveside services were held Tuesday, February 18, with Pastor Ira Robison officiating. Burial was in Hillview Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Joe Etchart, Owen Funk, Steve Funk, George Drabbs, Dennis Johnson and Ben Ophus.

She was born in Hinsdale April 15, 1916, the daughter of Frank and Agnes Jones. On November 24, 1938 she married Frank Hines Gilliam in Franklin, Indiana. He died December 26, 1976.

They lived in Indiana for eight years before coming back to the Hinsdale area in 1943. She and her husband had been affiliated with the Hinsdale Livestock Company since 1950. She belonged to the Hinsdale Methodist Church and the Eastern Star. She loved gardening, antiques and collectables and enjoyed people.

Survivors include two sons, Frank Gilliam Jr., of Manassas, Virginia and Darrel of Billings; one daughter, Claudette Evans of Torrance, Calif.; three brothers, Harvey Jones and Frank of Hinsdale and Thomas of Colorado Springs, Colorado; six sisters, Rene Lock and Marge Bordwell of Billings, Ramona Nash of Laurel, Donna Jones of Yakima, Wash., Nellie Greer of Fenton, Illinois and Blanche Deadrick of Colorado Springs, Colorado and four grandchildren.

David A. Gregory 1986

David A. Gregory, 98, died March 9 in Valley View Nursing Home.

Funeral services and burial were held Wednesday, March 12, in Milbank, S.D. with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

He was born June 26, 1887 in Nashville, Tenn., the son of David Lee and Phoebe Jane Gregory.

His mother and sister died when he was six years old. He was a recruit in troop L, 3rd Horse Cavalry at Ft. Assiniboin, Mont. in 1905. He later enlisted in the U.S. Navy where he was stationed at Cavite Naval Hospital in the Philippines where he made chief Hospital Steward. He graduated from Venderbelt Medical School in 1916. It was there that he met and married Mary Louise Williams on Nov. 18, 1917.

He joined as a Dr. with A&F for France in 1917 until 1919. He was then a Health Officer in Macon, Georgia. From there he went to the old Sioux Falls clinic as a pathologist. For the next four years he was in Miller, S.D. and practiced with the late Dr. Jack Hogan. Then he went to Milbank, S.D. in 1930. He founded the Milbank Clinic with Dr. E. A. Johnson in 1956. He was a member of the American Cancer Society and the American Medical Association, the South Dakota State Medical Association from where he received a 50 year pin and a Practitioner of the year award and from whom he was a State President in 1951. He was Grand Master of the Scottish and York Rite Bodies and was a Pastmaster of the Milbank Masonic Blue Lodge and a 50 year mason. He enjoyed extensive reading, duplicate bridge, growing flowers, and travelling.

Survivors include one son, Dr. David Gregory of Glasgow; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary and one granddaughter, Mary.

22 Jan 1986

Paul Gingery, 72

Paul H. Gingery, 72, died at his home in Kalispell Wednesday morning.

He was born May 13, 1913, in Tower Hill, Ill., a son of Sherman and Violet Moran Gingery.

He lived in Tower Hill until he began work on a dairy farm near Browntown, Wis., where he continue his schooling.

He enlisted in the U.S. Army at an early age and was stationed in San Francisco. After his discharge, he went to Illinois for a time before returning to Browntown.

He worked as head bottler at a certified dairy until he moved to Sioux Falls, S.D. He then worked as a clerk at a department store and advertised for the store on an early morning radio program by playing a guitar and singing.

He later came to Montana where he met Grace Auldridge and they were married June 22, 1935, in Billings.

In April 1943, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy's Ship Repair Unit. He served until receiving his honorable discharge in January 1946 at Bremerton, Wash.

He worked for the Marshall Wells store in Billings as a buyer for hardware, lawn and garden, and electrical supplies.

In 1955, he moved to Kalispell and was employed with Kalispell Mercantile and later Montana Mercantile. He then was employed with a building supply company, which later became Paoulsen Thunderbird. He retired in 1975.

He was an active square dancer and ballroom dancer and also taught dancing.

He is survived by his wife, Grace, at the family home; a son, Paul S. Gingrey of Pensacola, Fla.; two daughters, Susan Cifu, of Riverside, Calif., and Mary Ann Whittington of Las Cruces, N.M.; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Edmund Smith of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the Heart Fund or the ALERT Foundation.

Norene Glendening

^{28 Feb 1986}
Norene Marilyn Glendening, 51, died at her home in Kalispell on Friday afternoon. She had been a Girl Scout leader and was active in the First Baptist Church.

She was born July 25, 1934, in Plainville, Conn., a daughter of Ernest and Nora Forshaw. She attended the high school in New London, Conn., and graduated from the Hartford Hospital School of Nursing in 1955.

On June 10, 1960, she was married to Orville L. Glendening in New London.

She had resided in Portsmouth, N.H.; Waterford, Conn.; and Lakeside, Calif., before moving to Kalispell in 1973.

She was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Kalispell, having served as a Sunday-school teacher, deaconess, member of the education board, and junior choir director. She also had been active in Girl Scouts for 20 years, serving as a leader, trainer and camp nurse. She had worked in Cancer Support and with the American Cancer Society, and worked as a hospital volunteer.

She was preceded in death by her father and a brother, Robert Forshaw, and is now survived by her husband, Orville, at the family home. Also surviving are one son, William E. Glendening with the U.S. Air Force in Hawaii; one daughter, Elizabeth M. Glendening with the U.S. Navy in Orlando, Fla.; her mother, Nora Forshaw of Waterford, Conn.; a brother, Fred Forshaw of Waterford, Conn.; two sisters, Barbara Savino of Bristol, Conn., and Marie Aulenti of Waterford, Conn.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Kenn Mottram and the Rev. William Reid officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at the mortuary for visitation from 1 to 6 p.m. today.

The family suggests memorials to the First Baptist Church.

Emmet Glore, 93

1 Oct 1986
POLSON — Retired District Court Judge Emmet Glore died Tuesday in a Polson hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Glore, 93, served as judge in the Fourth Judicial District from 1959 until his retirement in 1973.

He was born May 1, 1882, in Steeleville, Ill., to William Arthur and Nettie Bratney Glore. He graduated from high school in Sparta, Ill., in 1920, and then earned a degree at Washington University in St. Louis.

Mr. Glore later attended Washington University Law School. After receiving a degree there, he traveled extensively out of St. Louis as an insurance fraud investigator.

In 1935, he joined O'Hara Law Firm in Hamilton.

Mr. Glore served as a lieutenant commander in the Alaskan theater during World War II.

He married Virginia Reilly in Springfield, Ill., in February 1946. The couple moved to Missoula where Mr. Glore opened a private law practice.

In 1957, he became the first Montana attorney to be appointed as a full-time aide to the Montana Supreme Court. He also served as court marshal.

In 1959, Mr. Glore was appointed as a judge of the Fourth Judicial District.

Mr. Glore served on the board of directors for the Missoula Crippled Children's organization and the Missoula Public Library. He was an active member of Scottish Rite bodies and Masons.

Following his retirement in 1973, he and his wife resided in Polson.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia, Polson; a son, Dr. Reilly Glore, Montesano, Wash.; and two grandchildren.

Memorial services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Polson Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Michael Turner officiating. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to a Humane Society or the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children.

D. Gochanour, 65

Donald Duane Gochanour, 65, died at his home in Kalispell on Wednesday. He was employed at the Anaconda Aluminum plant for 20 years as a brick layer foreman before his retirement in 1977.

He was born Jan. 10, 1921, in Des Moines, Iowa, a son of Clyde and Marie Gochanour. He moved with his family to North Dakota, and was educated at Noonan, N.D.

In the 1930s he joined the CCC and in 1942 entered the U.S. Air Force. He served in the Pacific Theater. He was awarded the Asiatic Pacific Service Medal, and was honorably discharged on Oct. 25, 1945 at Fort Lewis, Wash.

On Nov. 8, 1945, he married Bernice Moen in Anaconda.

He started his brick mason's apprenticeship at the Anaconda copper smelter and received his journeyman's card in 1950. He lived in Anaconda for 12 years, before his employment at the Columbia Falls aluminium plant.

After retiring, he moved to Anacortes, Wash., and also lived in Goldendale, Wash., for a time. He returned to Kalispell Flathead in 1981.

He was a member of the Bricklayers Union; VFW Post No. 5650 William Murphy Post of Columbia Falls, and the American Association of Retired Persons.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, one sister, and a son, Brett.

He is survived by his wife, Bernice, at the family home; two sons, Don, in Tennessee, and Denis Gochanour of Tacoma, Wash.; four daughters, Cindy Deist of Kalispell, and Alanna Evans, Denise Dickinson, Gail Bennett, all of Spokane; two brothers, Dale Baker and Virgil Gochanour of Anaconda; one sister, Sharol Davis of Helena; nine grandchildren, four foster grandchildren, and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Saturday in Bethlehem Lutheran Church with the Rev. Howard Mars officiating. Cremation has taken place. Private burial of ashes will be in Woodland Cemetery with military honors.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

The family suggest memorials to Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Myron Gohn, 94

31 Mar 1986
Myron L. Gohn, 94, died Monday morning of natural causes at Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Feb. 6, 1892, in North Liberty, Ind., the son of John and Bertha Gohn. He was raised and graduated from high school in North Liberty, then went to business school in South Bend, Ind.

As a young man, he came to Montana and homesteaded west of Sweetgrass, also working in the oil fields at Ferdig.

On Dec. 16, 1916, he married Iva Secrist McNamara in Great Falls, and she preceded him in death in 1971.

Mr. Gohn owned and operated the Texaco station and Gambles department store in Shelby, then moved to Kalispell in the late 1940s.

In Kalispell, he worked in real estate and insurance. He moved to Whitefish about 1962, where he wrote home loans for Empire Savings.

He had been a resident of Montana Veterans Home for about five years.

Mr. Gohn was in the Montana National Guard and the Army and served along the Mexican border during 1916.

He was a longtime member of the International Order of Odd Fellows in Kalispell.

Survivors include a daughter, Arlene Stensgard of Middletown Spring, Vt.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Willis (Bea) Kneedler of Kalispell; six grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be 3 p.m. Thursday at Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell. Cremation has taken place and the urn will be interred at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials to a charity of the donor's choice.

26 Dec 1982 - In Terlake

May Goldizen, 81

11 Apr 1986
May Katherine Goldizen, 81, a retired B&B employee, died Friday evening at the Flathead County Nursing Home.

She was born Feb. 6, 1905, in Lewistown to Frank Anton and Rosalie Yaeger. She attended the Montana School for the Deaf in Boulder, where she met and married Vere Goldizen. They then moved to the Flathead Valley.

She worked at B&B for 20 years. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1974 and by 16 brothers and sisters.

Surviving are two sons, Robert, Kalispell, and Thomas, Sunnyside, Calif.; eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Johnson Mortuary chapel with the Rev. Michael O'Neill of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Dorothy Goldsmith

Hot Springs--Dorothy Clara Goldsmith, 75, passed away Nov. 2, in Hot Springs. She was born March 23, 1911 in Camas, Mont., the first white baby girl to be born on the Flathead Indian Reservation. She has been a resident of Noxon since 1951, was an American Cancer Society representative for many years and sold Avon in the area for over 30 years. She married Carl Goldsmith in 1928 in Spokane, Wash.; he preceded her in death in 1966.

She is survived by one son, Lowell Goldsmith, Noxon; one sister, Gladys Weltz, Noxon; several nephews and one niece.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Nov. 6, 1 p.m. at Noxon Community Church.

6 Nov 1986

Nannie Good, 94

POLSON — Nannie E. Good, 94, Polson, died Sunday at St. Joseph Convalescent Home.

She was born Oct. 19, 1891, near Memphis, Mo., to Joseph and Elizabeth Myers. The family moved to Leeds, N.D., in 1902. She attended school at Tioga, N.D., where her father filed on a homestead.

In 1910 she married Walter S. Good at Williston, N.D. The following year the couple moved to an area near Wolf Point and established a homestead. After their farm was destroyed by fire in 1934, the Goods moved to Great Falls and resided there for many years. Mr. Good died in 1953. In August 1980 Mrs. Good moved from Great Falls to Polson to live with her daughter.

She enjoyed gardening and baby-sitting, and was very active in Central Assembly of God Church in Great Falls.

She was also preceded in death by two sons, Orville and Earl Good, and a sister, Mrs. James Flynn.

Survivors include two daughters, Lula Buckley of Missoula, and Lorraine Watne of Polson; 15 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. today at New Life Christian Center in Polson. The Rev. Miles Finch and the Rev. Gary Watne will officiate. Graveside services will be Thursday at Wolf Point Cemetery with the Rev. Watne officiating.

7 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

H.J. Goodman, 70

31 Nov 1986
Herbert John Goodman, 70, Bigfork, died Saturday at Brendan House.

He was born June 7, 1915, in Butte, the son of Fred and Margaret Goodman. He was raised and educated in the Butte area.

In 1940, he married Pearl Morehead in Butte, and the couple lived there most of their lives.

Mr. Goodman worked at the Ford Motor Co. garage in Butte as a machinist and later for the Butte city bus lines.

In 1951, he joined Anaconda Co.'s Berkley garage in Butte, where he worked for 26 years. He retired in 1977, and the family moved to the Bigfork area, where they resided since.

He was a member of St. Catherine's Catholic Church in Bigfork and active in its Cursillo movement and the Risen Christ Prayer Group. He was a member of the Machinists Union Local 88 in Butte.

Survivors include his wife, Pearl, at the family home in Bigfork; three sons, Robert Goodman of Butte, Donald Goodman of Denver, and Bill Goodman of Missoula; two daughters, Linda Brosovic of Butte, and Mary Kay Fox of Laurel; a sister, Angela Thomas of Bigfork; six grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Viewing will be from 2-7 p.m. today at Bigfork Funeral Home with rosary at 7 p.m.

Mass of the Christian Burial will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Catherine's Catholic Church in Bigfork with the Rev. Robert Hartman as celebrant.

Burial will follow at Lone Pine Cemetery in Bigfork.

Memorials to the Deaconess Hospital in Helena or to the Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch in Billings are suggested.

DI

Wayne Grandy, 75

Wayne R. Grandy, 75, Kalispell, a retired barber, died Wednesday morning at Flathead County Nursing. He was a retired barber.

He was born May 11, 1911, on a homestead near Judith Gap, to Cyrus and Martha Grandy. He lived on the family homestead until being orphaned at age 9, and then was raised by various families in that part of the state. As a young man, he worked as a miner in Butte.

On May 7, 1936, he married Ivanetta Gibson in Polson and they lived in Kalispell, Butte, Spokane, Great Falls, and Yuma, Ariz., before setting in Kalispell in 1981.

Mr. Grandy was a member of the Eagles and Moose Lodges, the Barbers Union, and Teamsters.

Survivors include his wife at the family home in Kalispell; a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Hummer of Tucson, Ariz.; a stepson, Donald Hobbs of Shawmut; 10 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; and a number of other relatives.

Graveside memorial services will be 2:30 p.m. at Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Weatherford Funeral Home. Officiating will be the Rev. C. Fred Crowe, minister of visitation at Epworth United Methodist Church.

The family suggests memorial contributions to Epworth United Methodist Church.

DI

C.W. Granger, 93

Dr. Clarence W. Granger, 93, Lakeside, died Monday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Oct. 18, 1893, in California Junction, Iowa, the son of Walter and Anna Granger. At a young age, he moved with his family to Sheridan, Wyo., where he graduated from high school. He then went to the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, where he received a degree as doctor of dental surgery.

On March 26, 1919, he married Beulah Thomas in Ulm, Wyo., and they made their home in Hardin until 1922. Dr. Granger had a dental practice in Butte from 1922 to 1949, when he moved to Lakeside. He continued in dentistry until retiring at the age of 81.

Dr. Granger belonged to Bigfork Lodge No. 150, AF&AM; Flathead Lake Chapter No. 128, Order of the Eastern Star; and Baghdad Shrine. He was active for many years in the Flathead Trap Club, which organized the Doc Granger Annual Shoot in his honor.

He was preceded in death by his wife in 1973; a daughter, Beulah Olson Lenz; grandsons, Mark Eklund and Steven Clare; and a brother and sister.

Survivors include three daughters, Orlene Eklund and Ardith Clare of Lakeside, and Burdette

Taylor of Reno, Nev.; 12 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Friday at Weatherford Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey and William Brass officiating. The casket will not be open to the public. Graveside Masonic honors will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

9-9-1987

16 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

DI

Ralph Grant, 82

Ralph R. Grant, 82, Bigfork, died Wednesday morning at Brendan House in Kalispell.

He was born Nov. 13, 1903, in Chesterville, Ill., the son of Charles and Lucy Belle Grant. He was raised and educated in the Chesterville area.

After attending the Chicago Institute of Technology, he was employed by Illinois Power and Light in Urbana, Ill., for about five years.

With the advent of electricity in Montana, Mr. Grant moved to Havre and worked on stringing the original power lines in that part of the state. He was employed for a number of years as an electrician for the City of Havre, then worked as a state electrical inspector until retiring in about 1968.

Mr. Grant had been a resident of Bigfork for the past 10 years.

He married Marie Olson in Havre in 1940, and she preceded him in death in 1973.

Survivors include a son, Charles Grant of Havre; a daughter, Mary Anderson of Seattle; two brothers, Lee Grant of Havre and Delbert Grant of El Cajon, Calif.; a sister, Zola Roush of Portland, Ore.; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be until 8 tonight at Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Friday at Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Verlyn Retzer of Kalispell Seventh Day Adventist Church officiating. The body will be forwarded to Holland and Bonine Funeral Home in Havre for graveside services at 10 a.m. Monday at Highland Cemetery with the Rev. Elwood Boyd of Havre Seventh Day Adventist Church officiating.

DI
12 June 1986
K.P. Grantham, 61

Kenneth Paul Grantham, 61, formerly of Martin City, died June 12 at Tri-City Hospital in Oceanside, Calif.

He was born June 8, 1925, in Plentywood to Otto and Sophia Grantham.

He served in the Marine Corps during World War II.

On March 15, 1956, he married Mamie Rosetta Wyant at White Pine. He worked as an overhead crane mechanic for Anaconda Aluminum Co. for seven years from 1967 to 1974.

They moved to Vista, Calif., in 1980.

He had been a member of the the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints since 1957 and held the office of high priest.

He was a member of the VFW in Hungry Horse.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and a sister.

Survivors include his wife, Mamie Rosetta Grantham of Vista, Calif.; three sons, Roy Paul Grantham, stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Pat Roger Grantham, stationed at Savannah, Ga., and Wayne R. Grantham of Vista, Calif.; a daughter, Kathleen Rosetta Grantham of Vista, Calif.; three sisters, Iris Koterba of Outlook, Mae Stella Corcoran of Columbia Falls, and Constance Alice Kirby of Polson; two brothers, Melvin George Grantham of Osborne, Idaho, and Charles Otto Grantham of Thompson Falls; four grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Columbia Falls. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls with military graveside honors.

Visitation will be 1 to 8 p.m.

Friday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

DI
Nels Gravesgard, 91

21 July 1986
Nels Gravesgard, 91, Montana Veterans Home, died Monday at North Valley Hospital.

He was born March 3, 1895, in Stadil, Denmark.

He moved to Montana in 1912. He served in the Army during World War I.

In 1928, he bought a ranch east of Harlowton.

He married Margaret Adams in 1929. They lived on the ranch for 25 years and then moved into Harlowton. In 1978, they moved to Montana Veterans Home near Columbia Falls.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret, at the Montana Veterans Home.

Cremation has taken place. A graveside committal of the remains will be at 10 a.m. Friday at Montana Veterans Home Cemetery near Columbia Falls. J.T. McClung of the Church of Christ in Columbia Falls will officiate.

Cremation and arrangements are by Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

DI
Debra Green, 30

17 May 1986
Debra "Debbie" May Hossack Green, 30, formerly of Kalispell, was killed on May 17 in Colorado Springs, Colo., the victim of a robbery at the Grandview Lounge where she was employed.

She was born Nov. 10, 1955, in Kalispell, a daughter of Charles and Margaret Burger Hossack. She attended Kalispell schools and was a graduate of Flathead High School.

On May 6, 1982, she married Troy Green in Douglas, Wyo. The couple resided in Colorado Springs.

She is survived by her husband, Troy, at home; a son, Shawn, and a daughter, April; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hossack of Columbia Falls; a brother, Brian of Douglas, Wyo.; a sister, Denise Stone of Portland, Ore.; and a number of other relatives.

Services are tentatively planned for Saturday and will be announced later by Johnson Mortuary.

DI
Gordon Green, 65

30 Jan 1986
Gordon F. Green, 65, Columbia Falls, a former Great Northern Railway worker, died Thursday at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

He was born March 10, 1920, to Leslie A. and Clara J. Green at Columbia Falls. After attending school there, he worked for the National Park Service for a few years.

On May 29, 1941, he married Thelma Lenon in Libby. They lived in Columbia Falls.

He worked as a clerk for the Great Northern, and served on the board of the BN Employees Credit Union.

Surviving are his wife, Thelma, at home; a daughter, Laura Djonne, Columbia Falls; four sons, Larry, Richard, John and Terry, all of Columbia Falls; a sister, Betty Richmond, Port Angeles, Wash.; two brothers, Leslie Green, Ware Shoals, S.C., and Clifford Green, San Anselmo, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A memorial service is planned for 2 p.m. Monday at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Howard Hunter will officiate. Cremation has taken place. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery after the service.

DI
26 July 1986
Joyce Green, 66

Joyce C. Green, 66, Bigfork, died Sunday at Kalispell Regional Hospital following a long illness with Lou Gerhig's disease.

She was born Oct. 4, 1919, in St. Paul, Minn., the daughter of Leo and Rose Dressen. She spent her early childhood in the St. Paul area. At the age of 12 she moved with her family to Weiser, Idaho, and graduated from high school there.

On Feb. 16, 1950, she married Charles Green in Lewiston, Idaho, where the couple made their home. The Greens moved to Boise, Idaho, in 1973, and to Bigfork in 1986.

Mrs. Green was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include her husband, Charles, at the family home in Bigfork; a daughter, Kerry Espeland of Bigfork and two grandsons, Michael and Patrick Espeland.

No public services are planned. Private family services will take place at a later date. Cremation has taken place at Weatherford Crematory in Kalispell. Arrangements are under the direction of Bigfork Funeral Home.

DI

8 July 1986

Oliver Gregg, 83

Oliver "Ollie" P. Gregg, 83, Dayton, died Tuesday at St. Joseph Nursing and Retirement Center in Polson.

He was born Sept. 15, 1902, in Kalispell to Oliver P. and Cora Gregg. He moved with his parents to the Flathead Reservation as a young child.

Mr. Gregg was employed by the U.S. Reclamation Service, which later became the U.S. Indian Service, from 1920 until his retirement in 1964. He began as a ditch rider and retired as a water master. During his career he was employed in the Loneline, Valley View, Round Butte, St. Ignatius and Pablo areas.

On July 8, 1926, he married Lenore Vonsegen in Kalispell. She died in 1970.

He was also preceded in death by five brothers and a sister.

He was a member and past master of Ronan Masonic Lodge No. 131 AF&AM, and a member and served on the board of Dayton Presbyterian Church.

In May 1972 he married Ruth McHenry, who now survives him at the family home. Also surviving are two sons, P. Keith Gregg, Oak Park, Ill., and Robin Gregg, San Carlos, Calif.; a daughter, Vonnie Webster, Ronan; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at Hot Springs Presbyterian Church with the Rev. John McKinley officiating. Burial will be at Murray Memorial Cemetery in Loneline under the direction of Shrider's Mortuary in Ronan.

The family suggests memorials to the American Cancer Society.

DI

Richard Greig, 75

Richard S. Greig, 75, the son of Kalispell area pioneers, died Tuesday morning in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born July 20, 1911, to Richard and Mary Greig, at the family ranch west of Kalispell. His father homesteaded the ranch when he came from Scotland in 1883.

He attended Kalispell schools and graduated from Flathead County High School in 1929. During his senior year he operated Spring Creek Ice Company. In 1932, he established Lakeside Guernsey Dairy, at which time he delivered milk for 10 cents a gallon around the Kalispell area. Several years later the operation became Greig's Dairy.

In 1954, he sold the dairy. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, not only locally but in the coastal areas of Washington and Alaska as well. In later years, ice fishing became his hobby.

1 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

Mr. Greig was the developer of North Shore Harbor at Bigfork.

He was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church.

On June 9, 1935, he married Kathyne (Katie) Marshall of Valier in Whitefish. They celebrated their golden anniversary this past summer.

Survivors include his wife, Katie, at home; a daughter, Mrs. John (Peggy) Hern of Spokane; a sister, Armintha Turner of Manning, Alberta, Canada; two grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; two nephews and several cousins.

Memorial services will be 1 p.m. Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt of Epworth United Methodist Church officiating.

The family suggests memorials to United Methodist Church, Flathead Hospice or to the charity of donor's choice.

DI

Arthur Grenfell, 74

Arthur Richard Grenfell, 74, Darby, died Monday at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula of injuries sustained Oct. 1 in a traffic accident on U.S. 93 near Arlee.

A retired mechanic, he had worked for Flathead County for many years before moving to Darby in 1976.

He was born April 2, 1912, in Stevensville to Nicholas and Constance Grenfell. He was educated in Stevensville. In 1936 he married Ila Jarvis.

He farmed and drove trucks until 1950, when he moved to Kalispell and became a driver for Consolidated Freightways. The company sent him to Spokane, but he transferred back to Kalispell after two years. Later he went to work at the county shops, retiring from there in 1975.

In 1951 he married Grace Barnes in Kalispell. She died in 1979. Also preceding him in death were a son, Sid, and two brothers.

Survivors include two sons, Richard of Billings, and David of Kellogg, Idaho; a daughter, Gloria Mounce of Austin, Texas; four brothers, Ray of Darby, Robert of Hot Springs, Frank of Stevensville, and Al of Butte; his fiancée, Vernal Rhoades of Missoula; and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Whitesitt Funeral Home in Stevensville. Burial will be in Darby Cemetery.

17 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

Max Grier, 84

Max Grier, 84, died Friday morning at the Bigfork Convalescent Center.

A native of Creston, he left when his job in the oil business took him out of the valley, then returned after retirement.

He was born Jan. 16, 1902. He attended local schools and graduated from Flathead High School in 1921.

On Nov. 29, 1925, he entered the U.S. Marine Corps. He served in China, then was honorably discharged after a four-year hitch.

Upon his return to the Flathead Valley, he went to work for the Arronow Refinery in Kalispell. He later worked as an oilfield pumper and then an office clerk. Phillips Petroleum sent him to Conrad and later to Cut Bank, where he retired in 1972. He then moved to Bigfork.

He was a member of the Bigfork Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, Knights Templar, Cyrene Commandry, and Algeria Shrine Temple.

On June 5, 1927, he married Louis Amez-Droz in Kalispell. She preceded him in death in November 1983.

He married Juanita Ewing Micken in Bigfork on May 24, 1986. She survives him at the family home. Also surviving are several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Monday at 11 a.m. in the Bigfork Masonic Lodge with William Brass, past grand master, officiating. Following the services, the body will be cremated, and the cremains will be buried in Lonepine Cemetery near Bigfork. Arrangements are by the Johnson Mortuary.

NOV 9 1986

Margaret Grist, 73

Margaret L. Grist, 73, a former Columbia Falls resident, died Thursday at Everett, Wash.

She was born April 4, 1913, in Harlem, to Frederick L. and Anna A. Kramer. She grew up in Kalispell and graduated from Flathead County High School in 1930.

She married James D. Grist on July 10, 1937, in Columbia Falls. They owned and operated the Park Theater in Columbia Falls for many years. She served as Columbia Falls city clerk for several years. In 1946, after her husband's discharge from the service, they moved to Apgar.

She worked for the National Park Service and was the postmistress at Lake McDonald.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James, on July 23, 1959.

Survivors include a son, James C. Grist of Apgar, and a daughter, Margaret A. Wright of Everett, Wash.

A memorial service will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls with the Rev. C. Fred Crowe, retired, officiating.

21 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

GRUENIG, Elizabeth, 83, Kalispell. Services and burial in Platte, S.D.

WEATHERFORD Funeral Home & Crematory

9-Dec-1986 - Interlake
1890 HWY. 93 NORTH • 755-3432

He entered the Montana National Guard Service Battery in 1955, Special Forces in 1963, was airborne qualified in 1964, attained the rank of master sergeant, and retired in 1983 after 27 years of service.

He was a member of the Professional Photographers Association; Montana Professional Photographers Association, of which he was once president; Kalispell Elks Lodge No. 725 for more than 25 years; and the Flathead Valley Free Trappers. He was a charter member of the Flathead Life-saving Association, and was a scuba diver for the group. He was also a former member of the Civil Air Patrol.

He was a licensed pilot, an avid fisherman, and a hunter with black-powder rifles.

He is survived by his wife, Connie, at home. He is also survived by his parents, Victor and Dolly Guest of Kalispell; two sons, Brian and Timothy Guest, both of Kalispell; two daughters, Terry Beebe of Chandler, Ariz., and Barbara Stewart of Missoula; one brother, Gary Guest of Kalispell; two sisters, Sandra Vanriper III of Woodland, Calif., and Linda Hackworthy of Kalispell; a grandson, Donny Guest of Kalispell; two nephews; and eight nieces.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial will be in the Demersville Cemetery, where ritualistic graveside rites will be conducted by Kalispell Elks Lodge No. 725.

Michael Guest, 48

5 June 1986
Michael Allen Guest, 48, former owner of a longtime Kalispell photography shop, died at his home in Kalispell late Thursday evening.

He was born Dec. 22, 1937, in Kalispell, a son of Victor and Dolly Guest. He attended Flathead County schools and was a 1956 graduate of Flathead High School.

He attended Montana State University in Missoula for 1 year, and was a graduate of the Winona School of Photography in Chicago. He had worked for the Dewalt Studios in Helena and managed Treasure State Photo in Great Falls.

On Nov. 17, 1958, he married Constance Jean Goldhammer in Great Falls.

He was co-owner of Guest Photo Art & Books from 1972 to 1985 and had owned Camera Pro in Missoula from 1977 to 1979.

DI

Virgil J. Guinn, 81

^{21 Apr. 1986}
POLSON — Virgil James Guinn, 81, of Lake Mary Ronan, died Monday in an accident at his home.

He was born Jan. 24, 1905, in Lanesboro, Iowa, to James and Hattie Norton Guinn. He came to Kalispell with his parents at the age of 3.

In 1910, the family moved to Irvin Flats near Polson, and later to south of Polson. He attended school in Polson.

In 1925, he married Ruth Babcock of Lake Mary Ronan.

Mr. Guinn was a construction worker and was employed throughout the Northwest and Midwest. He retired in the 1970s.

The couple moved to Lake Mary Ronan in 1956, and in addition to his other work he also farmed there.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth, Lake Mary Ronan; a son, William Guinn, Lake Mary Ronan; five grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and numerous nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday in Mosley Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Michael Turner officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery in Polson.