

Donald R. Macdonald

¹⁹⁸⁶
Services for Donald R. Macdonald, 66, Columbia Falls, are 2 p.m. Wednesday (today) at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Columbia Falls. Burial will follow in Glacier Memorial Gardens in Kalispell.

Mr. Macdonald died at this home Nov. 15 from cancer. He was born June 3, 1920, at Bynum, son of Roderick B. and Emma T. Macdonald.

He attended school in Bynum until 1930 when the family moved to Choteau where he completed his schooling.

He worked on several ranches in the Choteau area and at the Farragut Naval Station in Idaho and on Hungry Horse Dam. He moved to Whitefish in 1947 where he worked as a carman for the Great Northern Railroad until his retirement in 1981.

On Aug. 19, 1967, he and Patricia McCann Johnson were married. They lived in Whitefish until 1972 when they moved to Columbia Falls.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother, Robert; and one sister Lillian Scherer.

He is survived by his wife at the family home; one daughter, Shelly Macdonald, and a son, Rod Macdonald, both Columbia Falls; three step-sons, Mitchell Johnson, Post Falls, Idaho, Donald Johnson, Williston, N. Dak., Michael Johnson, San Diego, Calif.; one step-daughter, Donna Sampson, Kalispell; one brother; two sisters; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The family suggests memorials to Flathead Hospice or the Cancer Society.

John F. Maas, 99

^{28 Apr 1986}
John F. Maas, 99, a former Whitefish resident, died Monday in Tacoma, Wash.

He was born Dec. 13, 1886, in Germany, a son of Wilhelm and Elizabeth Maas. In 1892, he emigrated with his parents and 18 brothers and sisters to Texas, where he was raised. He moved to Whitefish in 1905, where he was employed by the Great Northern Railway as an engineer. He retired in 1952.

In September 1974, he moved to Seattle, Wash.

He married Anna Kriegel on Dec. 5, 1909, in Seattle, Wash., and she preceded him in death on Dec. 25, 1975.

He was also preceded in death by a son, Richard, in 1920.

He had been a member of the Masonic Lodge since 1906.

Survivors include a son, Jesse Maas, of Seattle, Wash.; a daughter, Betty Larsen of Grapeview, Wash.; two sisters, Louise Graham and Mae Julian; a brother, William Maas; three grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a great-great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Friday at Austin Funeral Home with Masonic Lodge No. 64 AF&AM officiating. Burial will be in Whitefish.

Visitation will be until 8 tonight. The casket will not be opened at the services.

P.L. MacDonald, 72

Patrick Largey MacDonald, 72, a longtime western Montana business leader and attorney who spent 35 years with the Anaconda Co., died Thursday at his home on Finley Point.

During his long career with the Anaconda Co. in Butte, he had served as business manager, legal officer and governmental affairs manager for the mining corporation's Montana operations. He was also a founder of the Montana International Trade Commission.

After retiring to the Polson area in 1975, he was active in community service work including the steering committee for the Flathead River Basin environmental study.

He was born Oct. 21, 1914, in Butte, where his father, R.J. MacDonald, was president of the R.J. MacDonald Co. and the Largey Lumber Co. He graduated from the Bellarmine Jesuit Prep School in San Jose, Calif.; attended nearby Santa Clara University; then studied law at Stanford University and the University of Montana.

MacDonald served in the Navy during World War II. After graduation from the Naval Aviation School at Quonset Point, R.I., he spent three years as a combat intelligence officer in Australia, New Guinea, the Philippines, Korea and China. He was awarded two Bronze Stars and attained the rank of lieutenant commander. He was discharged from the Navy in 1946.

On Aug. 2, 1947, he married Virginia Bird at the St. Ignatius Mission.

While working for the Anaconda Co., MacDonald also was a director of the First Metals Bank of Butte and was president of the Butte Water Co. He was active in community service work, and belonged to the American, Montana and Silver Bow bar associations.

After moving to Flathead Lake, he belonged to the Flathead Lakers, Polson Rotary Club and St. Joseph Hospital Lay Advisory Board as well as the river basin study group.

Surviving are his widow, Virginia MacDonald, at home; two daughters, Victoria Harrison of San Diego, Calif., and Mary MacDonald of Ketchum, Idaho; two sons, Gregory MacDonald of Seattle and Mark MacDonald of Polson; a sister, Lu Murray of Butte; and two grandchildren. A brother and sister preceded him in death.

A wake service is planned Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Church in Polson. Friends may greet the family at the church between 6:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. Monday. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated Tuesday at 10 a.m. at Immaculate Conception Church by the Rev. Ernest Burns. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery under the direction of the Mosley Funeral Home of Polson.

16 Nov. 1986 - Interlake

11 July 1986 Vernon MacDonell

Vernon E. MacDonell, 86, of Somers, died Friday evening at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was a member of an early Flathead Valley pioneer family, and later became a mining engineer, working throughout the world before retiring to Somers in 1967.

He was born May 9, 1900, in Stillwater, Minn., the son of Angus and Emily MacDonell. At the age of 1, Vernon came with his parents to Somers, where he was raised and educated. He graduated from Flathead High School in 1916.

He then enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served during World War I. Following his discharge from the Navy, he attended the University of Washington, where he studied engineering.

On July 13, 1929, he married Katherine Goodhue of Lincoln, Nebraska.

MacDonell was chief engineer on many mining and chemical plant projects throughout the United States and other parts of the world, including Canada, Africa and the South Pacific.

He is survived by his wife at the family home; a son, Angus, in Sacramento, Calif.; one grandson; and two granddaughters.

No services are planned and cremation will take place at the Weatherford Crematory in Kalispell.

M. MacKenzie, 95

1 Mar 1986
LIBBY — Maude E. MacKenzie, 95, Libby, died of natural causes Saturday at Libby Care Center.

She was born Feb. 3, 1891, in Michigan. She became a registered nurse in 1912 in Toledo, Ohio.

She married Dr. W.S. MacKenzie on March 20, 1918. He died in 1959.

During World War II she served as home service chairman for the American Red Cross. She was past matron of the Order of the Eastern Star.

In 1960, she moved to Libby and became active in community affairs and was president of the United Methodist Women. She was past president of the Libby Women's Club.

A son, Dr. Robert D. MacKenzie, died in 1985.

Survivors include a stepson, Warren MacKenzie, Gulf Breeze, Fla.; a stepdaughter, Lois Rood, Flint, Mich.; nine grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Friday at United Methodist Church in Libby with the Rev. Robert Grilley officiating.

Interment will be at the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home.

Memorials to the United Methodist Church in Libby are suggested.

2 Jan 1986 E. MacGregor, 65

LIBBY — Edna MacGregor, 65, Libby, died of heart failure Thursday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born Feb. 27, 1919, in Atmore, Ala., to Cary and Alice Miles. She was reared in Pensacola, Fla., and later lived for 30 years in Denver, where she was employed as a waitress. She moved to Libby in 1983.

Survivors include a brother, Jimmy Miles, Libby, and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father in 1962, her mother in 1985 and a brother, Gladen Miles, in 1983.

Graveside services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. J.E. Jacobson of the Libby Assembly of God Church officiating. Arrangements are by the Vial Funeral Home.

Donald MacRae, 79

10 Jan 1986
Donald Edward MacRae, 79, Kalispell, died in the Flathead County Nursing Home on Friday evening.

He was born May 2, 1906, in Prince Edward Island, Canada, a son of Alexander and Cathryn MacRae. He moved with his parents to Eureka, where he attended school and graduated from Eureka High School in the class of 1925.

He was a building contractor, having built the St. Mary Lodge, motels and various other buildings for Hugh Black at St. Mary. He also built motels for Glacier National Park; East Glacier; Babb and Browning. He built the Masonic Lodge in Browning and the MacRae Lumber and Building Service there.

He was a charter member and Past Master of the Glacier Masonic Lodge No. 127 and the Browning Lions Club. He had been a longtime member of the Babb Methodist Church, the Algeria Shrine, and the Tri-County Shrine Club, and served on the Browning City Council for a time.

In 1933, he was married to Alice Smith in Polson, and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by three brothers, Angus MacRae of Eureka, Martin MacRae of Los Angeles, and Alex MacRae of Columbia Falls, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Joe Wagon, pastor of the Whitefish Christian Church, officiating.

Ritualistic Masonic Rites will be conducted by Glacier Masonic Lodge No. 127. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggests memorials be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

30 Jan 1986
Zella Madsen, 88

Zella B. Madsen, 88, Polson, died of natural causes Jan. 30 at St. Joseph Convalescent Center in Polson.

She was born April 5, 1897, in Chadron, Neb., to Samantha and George Lanham. She received her early schooling from her mother, who taught school for 35 years in West Virginia, western Nebraska and Wyoming.

She married Walter E. Madsen on May 29, 1929, in Vancouver, Wash. They lived in Washington, California and Gillette, Wyo., before moving to Montana in May 1937.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church of Polson; Mystic Chapter No. 53, Order of the Eastern Star; and Polson Senior Citizens.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Emmerson Lanham.

She is survived by her husband, Walter, Polson; three nieces; a nephew; and several cousins.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Mosley Funeral Chapel in Polson. The Rev. Joseph Keys, pastor of United Methodist Church, will officiate. Eastern Star rites will follow the services.

Interment will be at Lake View Cemetery in Polson.

Visitation will be Wednesday from 1 to 2 p.m. at Mosley Funeral Chapel.

EDWARD MAGERA 1986

Edward John Magera, 74, Hot Springs, died at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula. 17 Sep.

He was a lifetime rancher in the Hot Springs area.

He was born December 17, 1911, in Frontenac, Kansas, to John and Aplonia Fornall Magera. The family moved to eastern Montana when he was an infant and to Hot Springs when he was 13.

On December 11, 1935, he married Elizabeth Erma Eley in Polson.

He was a member of Nyah Grange 33 and the Camas-Hot Springs Senior Citizens, and was a former director of the Hot Springs Homesteaders Association. A member of the Montana Rodeo Association, he raised Brahman bulls for rodeo stock as a hobby and some reached the finals last year. He also enjoyed hunting and fishing.

Survivors include his wife, Erma, of Hot Springs; a son, Eddie Magera, Hot Springs; two daughters, Ramona Swope, Hot Springs and Dorene Magera, Pullman, WA; three brothers, Joe, Bothell, WA, John, Stevensille and Frank, Libby; five sisters, Frances magera, Bigfork, Ann Christie, Della Magera and Bettv Andrews, all of Hot Springs and Marie Carpenter, Lewiston, Idaho; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a brother, August, and a sister, Staffia.

Memorial services were held Sept. 22 at Shrider Funeral Chapel in Plains with Rev. James E. Dickinson of United Methodist Church of Plains officiating. Cremation has taken place.

The family suggests memorials to the Camas-Hot Springs Senior Citizens.

James Majors, 83

28 May 1986
LIBBY — James T. Majors, 83, Libby, a retired fireman and fire lookout, died Wednesday at the Libby Care Center.

He was born Dec. 24, 1902, in Champaign, Ill., to William and Sarah Majors. He grew up in Champaign, then went to work for the fire department, eventually becoming assistant chief. He also worked briefly for the state highway department and as a school bus driver.

During summers he had manned the Forest Service lookout on Swede Mountain, and he and his wife, Alberta, moved to Libby permanently three years ago.

Surviving are his wife, at home; a daughter, Marilyn Kenelty, Libby; a son, James, San Antonio; a brother, Alfred, Champaign; five grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

The body has been forwarded to Champaign for services Tuesday. Local arrangements are by the Vial Funeral Home.

3 July 1986

Robert Mailhot, 50

Robert Noel Mailhot, 50, Depew, N.Y., died Thursday afternoon at Kalispell Regional Hospital as a result of injuries suffered last month in a railroad accident near Essex.

He was born June 9, 1936, in Sanford, Maine, to Robert N. and Pauline Mailhot. He was raised and educated in Old Orchard Beach, Maine, then served in the U.S. Navy for several years.

After his honorable discharge from the Navy he returned to Old Orchard Beach, and later moved to Depew. For the past 27 years he traveled around the country for Osmose Co., a wood preservative firm based in Madison, Wis. At the time of his death he was a railroad bridge construction foreman.

On March 9, 1965, he married Betty Oliver in Canton, Ohio, who now survives him at the family home. Also surviving are a daughter, Robbie, at home; four stepsons, Tom Bill, Terry and Joey Cooper, all of Depew; his mother and stepfather, Pauline and Paul Sorel of Biddeford, Maine; a sister, Jackie Laujenesse of Biddeford; and seven step-grandchildren.

Mass of the Resurrection will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Biddeford, with burial at St. Joseph's Cemetery. Local arrangements were by the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Nov 1986

Roy Malone, 83

Roy Thomas Malone, 83, Kalispell, died Tuesday morning in Flathead County Nursing Home.

He was born May 12, 1903, in Cleburne, Texas, a son of Thornton and Jenny Malone. He received his education in Texas.

He traveled through several states doing various jobs and in 1927, he moved to North Dakota.

On Nov. 25, 1928, he married Viola Lough in Ray, N.D.

He worked on farms until 1941, when he moved to Flathead Valley, where he did track work for Great Northern Railroad for a time. He then worked in various sawmills and flour mills. He then was employed with Conrad Memorial Cemetery until 1967, and worked for Roy Stanley Chevrolet for a year prior to his retirement in 1968.

He was a member of the Church of the Nazarene and Kalispell Eagles Lodge.

He was preceded in death by six brothers and a sister.

Survivors include his wife, Viola, at home; a son, Richard Malone of Middletown, N.Y.; two daughters, Patricia Caudill and Wanda Cardin, both of Kalispell; a brother, Troy Malone of Kirbyville, Texas; a sister, Minne Boyd of Voth, Texas; 12 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday in Johnson Mortuary with the Rev. Jon Martin of the Church of the Nazarene officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

7 July 1986

Betty Maloney, 69

LIBBY — Betty Maloney, 69, died of a heart attack Monday morning at her home in Libby.

She was born Aug. 22, 1916, in Seattle and was reared there and later lived in San Diego, Calif., for 28 years. She moved to Libby in 1964 and to Whitefish in 1966. She returned to Libby in 1977.

Survivors include her husband, Henry, Libby; a son, John

Berkheimer of Libby; a stepdaughter, Henrietta Marie Crook of Gillette, Wyo.; a stepson, Joe Maloney of Columbia Falls; and eight grandchildren.

Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Libby with the Rev. Charles Roman officiating. Burial will be in the City of Libby Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the Libby Volunteer Ambulance, P.O. Box 777, Libby 59923.

Jacob Mandel, 67

^{20 Jan 1986}
Jacob J. Mandel, 67, Kalispell, died Monday afternoon as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident south of Eureka.

He was born March 31, 1918, in New Elm Spring, S.D., a son of Jacob and Anna Wipf Mandel. As a child he moved with his family to Canada where he received his education.

On July 3, 1955, he married Lily Wray Maradik in Helena. He was preceded in death by her on May 15, 1970.

Mr. Mandel worked at various jobs and in later years was employed with Plum Creek Timber Co. prior to his retirement.

He was a member of Mountain View Mennonite Church near Creston.

On Nov. 5, 1971, he married Leona Bare, and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by four brothers, Peter, John, Mike and Eli Mandel; and five sisters, Annie Mandel, Susie Mandel, Sara Mandel, Katie Mandel and Maggie Berniko, all in Canada; a stepson, James Bare of Elkhart, Ind.; a stepdaughter, Judy Miller of Wellman, Iowa; and four step-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 10:30 a.m. Friday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Glenn Roth, pastor of the Mennonite Church, and the Rev. William Reid, retired Baptist minister, officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

^{5 May 1986} Florence Mangan, 73

Florence J. Mangan, 73, died Monday morning at her home in Hungry Horse.

She was born June 2, 1912, in Spokane, Wash., to Alf and Jennie Alexander. She was raised and educated in Spokane.

She married Dan Mangan on July 16, 1949, in Whitefish. They moved to Hungry Horse in 1949.

She was an avid outdoorsperson.

She was a member of St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls and VFW Auxiliary Post No. 9932 in Hungry Horse.

She was preceded in death by a stepson.

Survivors include her husband, Dan Mangan, of Hungry Horse; five stepchildren, Marian Blandy of Portland, Ore., Dick Mangan of Bellevue, Wash., and Pat Herberholz, Rosemary Miller and John Mangan, all of Spokane; two brothers, Roy Alexander of Spokane, and Glenn Alexander of Sacramento, Calif.; a sister, Kay Conboy of Spokane; and numerous grandchildren.

Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Hennessey-Smith Funeral Home in Spokane. Burial will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at Holy Cross Cemetery in Spokane. The Rev. Bernard Sullivan will officiate.

The family suggests memorials to the Montana Heart Association.

Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls is in charge of local arrangements.

6 Jan 1986
Albert Manske, 78

LIBBY — Albert C. Manske, 78, Libby, died Monday of natural causes at Veterans Administration Medical Center in Spokane.

He was born Oct. 28, 1907, in Yates Center, Kan., to Albert and Wilhemina Manske. He grew up and attended school in Yates Center and served with the Army during World War II. He lived in Kansas for several years before moving to eastern Montana where he worked in Chester for a time.

In the 1950s he moved to Libby where he was employed as a mechanic for Jaqueth's Inc. and later as a mechanic and general laborer for Ferd Boothman until his retirement.

Survivors include two sons, Von Manske of Whittier, Calif., and William Manske of Iowa Falls; a brother, Robert Manske, Yates Center; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Friday at the City of Libby Cemetery. Rites will be conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

Arrangements are under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

Hazel Martin, 72

21 Sept 1986
Hazel Ella Martin, 72, died at her home in Kalispell Sunday morning following a brief illness.

She was born Sept. 11, 1914, in Ashcroft, British Columbia, a daughter of Albert and Ruth Ella Neas. As a young child she moved with her family to Kalispell where she attended Kalispell schools and Flathead County High School.

On Sept. 28, 1945, she married George Davidson in Thompson Falls. The couple lived in Portland, Ore., where they had worked at the Kaiser Shipyards. She also was employed by Multnomah County, working at the prison there, and in later years she cared for the elderly in her home.

In 1967, she returned to the Flathead, living in Whitefish. In 1971, she moved to Hot Springs.

On May 13, 1973, she married Emmet Martin in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. In 1980, they moved to Kalispell.

Mrs. Martin was a member of the Eagles Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, Emmet, at home; a son, Barney Davidson of Sparks, Nev.; a brother, Howard Neas of Kalispell; a sister, Mrs. Clarence (Florence) Tommerup of Kalispell; four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey of Lakeside Chapel officiating. Cremation will follow the services.

The family suggests memorials to the Cancer Fund or to the charity of the donor's choice in lieu of flowers.

ORVILLE MARSH 1986

Orville Frederick Marsh, 72, Kalispell, died in the Brendan House October 20. He was born Dec. 19, 1913 in Whitetail, Montana, a son of Frederick and Nellie Marsh. In 1915 he moved with his family to Shelvin, Minnesota, and in 1926 to Scobey, Montana. In 1936 he moved to Kalispell and married Marjorie Sindt on September 16, 1939 in Kalispell. The couple then lived in Bigfork and Chester, Montana, returning to the Flathead Valley in 1954.

Mr. Marsh was a mechanic until his retirement. He was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1941.

Survivors include a daughter, Janet E. Helland, Columbia Falls; three sons, DeWayne, Bigfork, Orville, Kalispell and Keith, Albuquerque, NM; five brothers, LeRoy and Jerry, both of Kalispell, Earl, Phoenix, AZ, Arnold, Somers, and Bill, Paradise, Montana; seven sisters, Ruby Sheppard, Ronan, Ruth Gray, Lynnwood, WA, Louceal Sinclair and Shirley Crow, both of Kalispell, Ione Marsh and JoAnne Marsh, both of Phoenix, AZ, and Mardi Crow, Lakeside; nine grandchildren and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives. He was preceded in death by his wife, Marjorie on November 15, 1981; his parents and one brother.

Memorial services for Mr. Marsh were held October 23 in the Jehovah's Witnesses Kingdom Hall, with Mr. Dave Holford officiating. Arrangements and cremation were under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary. Burial was in the Lonepine Cemetery.

d. 28 Sep 30 Sept. 1986
Rena Martin, 102

Rena A. Martin, 102, died Sunday morning in Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She was born March 20, 1884, in Stockport, Ohio, to Thomas and Nancy Fleming. In 1901, she married Melvin Martin in South Dakota. In 1904, they moved to Montana, living at Red Lodge for a number of years. He died in 1938.

Mrs. Martin later moved to St. Paul, Minn., for a short time, and in 1957, she moved to Kalispell. She was housekeeper for Father Sheren and Father Halligan for 13 years prior to her retirement in 1965. In 1969, she entered Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She was also preceded in death by two sons, John and Melvin, and a brother, Grover Fleming.

Survivors include a son, Robert Martin of Gainsville, Texas; a daughter, Mrs. J.W. (Marea) Eberhard of Kalispell; nine grandchildren, and many great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren and other relatives.

The body is being forwarded by Johnson Mortuary to Dahl Funeral Home in Red Lodge where services and burial are being planned for Wednesday.

Leone Martinson

40-1986 26 Nov 1986
WHITEFISH — Leone E. Martinson, 69, of Whitefish, passed away Thursday at North Valley Hospital of heart problems.

She was born March 21, 1917 at Malta, a daughter of Leon and Maryade Reed. She was raised and educated in Malta and graduated from Malta High School.

She married Einar I. Martinson in 1956 in Whitefish and the couple lived in Havre for about 15 years where they owned and operated the Price Rite Grocery.

She was preceded in death by her husband in Oct. 18, 1972 and has lived in Whitefish since 1977.

She is survived by three daughters, Janet Martinson of Whitefish, Mary Hayes of Zanesville, Ohio and Faye Schrode of Henderson, Ky.; seven grandchildren, and one great-grandchild; sister Lois Van Aken of Whitefish; and step-mother Aura Reed of Whitefish.

Funeral services were Tuesday (yesterday) at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Burial followed at the Whitefish Cemetery.

S. Martin Jr., 61

28 Oct 1986
Spurlin Martin Jr., 61, a resident of Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls, died Monday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Dec. 15, 1924, in Dexter, N.M., to Spurlin and Beatrice Martin. He raised and educated in Clovis, N.M.

He enlisted in the Navy in 1941 and served on the USS Tycondaroga. He was discharged on Dec. 17, 1945.

He worked on ranches in Wisdom and Deer Lodge for many years.

Survivors include a daughter, Ginger Lee Brown of Belgrade; a son, Spurlin Martin III of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Katie Scott of Artesia, N.M., and Geraldine Martin of Albuquerque, N.M.; his stepmother, Florence Martin of Albuquerque, N.M.; four step-sisters, Barbara Ryan, Joan Nourse, Lauana Hite and Ronda Hardy, all of Albuquerque, N.M.; a grandson and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls with military graveside honors. The Rev. Jerry Buchanan of First Baptist Church will officiate. Friends are asked to meet at cemetery for services.

Van Leuven Home in Columbia Falls is in charge of arrangements.

MAY MARTIN 1986

May Martin, 90, died in Immanuel Lutheran Home on August 25. She was born November 10, 1895, in Langford, South Dakota, a daughter of Charles and Alie Aersey. She received her education there and on May 2, 1923, she was married to Dewey R. Martin. They lived in South Dakota until 1933, when they moved to Montana and lived at Bigfork. Mrs. Martin was preceded in death by her husband, Dewey, on June 13, 1965, and she continued to live in the Swan area until 1981, when she moved to the Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She is survived by her daughter, Alice M. Smith of Seattle, Washington; three grandchildren, Susan A. Sandbeck of Seattle, Janet M. Miller of Seattle, and Marjorie Svrjcek or Lorton, VA; five great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on August 28 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Rev. Chauncy Biffle, retired Methodist minister, officiating. Burial was in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

29 July 1986

Doris Martinez, 38

ELMO — Doris Jean Tenas Martinez, 38, of Hollister, Calif., a former Elmo resident, died of cancer Tuesday at her home.

She was born July 13, 1948, in Elmo, and attended school there and in Polson. She also attended the Flandreau (S.D.) Indian School and the Missoula Vocational Technical Center.

She moved from Missoula to California where she married Joseph A. Martinez.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Joseph A. Martinez Jr., and a daughter, Trudy, all of Hollister; her mother, Anna Tenas of Elmo; five brothers, Francis, Nathan, Vernon and Ronnie Tenas, all of Elmo, and Timmy Tenas of Kalispell; five sisters, Betty Nichols, Janice Tenas and Annette Tenas, all of Elmo, and Bernadine and Alvina Tenas, both of Dayton; and her grandmother, Mary Andrews of Elmo.

Traditional wake services were Thursday at the Koosthata Hall in Elmo, and rosary was recited there Thursday evening. A funeral Mass was today Friday at the hall with the Rev. Ernest Burns as celebrant. Burial was in the Dayton Cemetery.

The Fearon Chapel in St. Ignatius was in charge of arrangements.

Selma Mattson, 73

^{17 Mar. 1986}
Selma Mattson, 73, formerly of Enumclaw, Wash., died Saturday morning of natural causes at Brendan House.

She was born March 1, 1913, in Boothe Valley, Utah, the daughter of Willis and Bessie Whitaker. She was raised in the Boothe Valley and Honeyville area of Utah and graduated from high school there.

In the summer of 1934, she moved to Enumclaw, Wash., where she lived for the next 51 years.

On Aug. 6, 1934, she married August W. "Bill" Mattson in Tacoma, Wash., and the couple made their home in Enumclaw until coming to Kalispell in May 1985 to be with their daughter.

Mrs. Mattson was a member of Laurel Chapter No. 47 of the Order of the Eastern Star in Black Diamond, Wash., and a life member of Women of the Moose, Chapter No. 211, in Seattle.

Survivors include her husband, August "Bill" Mattson of Kalispell; four daughters, Mrs. Wayne (Amanda) Sakariason of Kalispell, Vera Prosser of Montgomery, Ala., and Debbie Mattson and Linda Showers, both of Tacoma, Wash.; a brother, Leonard Whitaker of Honeyville, Utah; a sister, Annie Kromka of Hot Springs, Ark.; six grandchildren; a great-granddaughter; and a number of other relatives.

She was preceded in death by an infant son, William.

Visitation will be from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. C. Fred Crowe of Epworth United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

^{17 May 1986}
Clara Maxey, 69

EUREKA — Clara L. Maxey, 69, Eureka, died of heart failure Saturday at her home.

She was born Sept. 10, 1916, in Ural to Anthony and Frances Ross. She grew up and attended school in Worland, and moved to the Yakima Valley in Washington in 1934.

In 1935 she married Sam Maxey in Yakima.

She was employed as a dietitian at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Yakima for many years. She moved to Eureka following her husband's death in 1969.

Survivors include two nieces, Sharon Shaffer, Kent, Wash., and Diane Noahr, Arlington, Wash.; her companion, Bill Follansbee, Eureka; and several great-nieces and great-nephews.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Tobacco Valley Cemetery in Eureka with the Rev. Wayne Berkoben officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Eureka.

25 July 1986
Walter May, 87

POLSON — Walter H. May, 87, Polson, died Friday of natural causes at St. Joseph's Convalescent Center.

He was born April 25, 1899, in Wisconsin to Hugh and Anna May. After completing his education in Wisconsin, he taught school for a time at Medicine Lake where he met his future wife, Mae Voorhees. The couple were married Nov. 24, 1924, in Wisconsin.

Mr. May later taught school in Victor and St. Ignatius before joining the U.S. Postal Service in 1933. He retired in 1960 and moved to Dayton.

Mr. May enjoyed fishing.

Survivors include his wife, Mae, Polson; a daughter, Barbara Lorain, Polson; a brother, John May, Jacksonville, Ill.; a sister, Lila Bodwen, Cedaredge, Colo.; a granddaughter, Karen Louden, Yakima, Wash.; a grandson, T.L. Christenson, Polson; and two great-granddaughters.

Cremation has taken place under the direction of Mosley Funeral Home in Polson. No services are planned at this time. The family suggests memorials to a charity of the donor's choice.

23 Sept 1986
Steven Mayberry, 33

ST. CHARLES, Mo. — Steve.. Jordan Mayberry, 33, a former Kalispell resident, died of cancer Sept. 23 at St. Joseph Hospital in St. Charles, Mo.

He was born Sept. 6, 1953, in Amarillo, Texas, to Herbert A. Mayberry and Alberta M. Puckett Mayberry. He was raised and educated in St. Louis County, Mo.

He married Betty Lou Emmons on April 13, 1980, in California.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1970.

He had been employed as a mechanic and lived in Texas and California. He lived in Kalispell in 1983-84 and was employed as a mechanic at Rocky Mountain Transport. He then moved to California, then to Missouri.

He is survived by his wife, Betty of St. Louis, Mo.; a son, Jason, also of St. Louis; his mother and stepfather, Alberta Thurman and Pat Thurman of St. Louis; his father and stepmother, Herbert A. Mayberry and Beverly Mayberry of Kalispell; two brothers, Daniel Mayberry of St. Louis, and Dale Mayberry of Kalispell; two sisters, Trudy Nicholson, and Wendy Wengler, both of St. Louis; three stepbrothers, Jerry, Mark and Russell Wheaton, all of St.

Louis; and numerous aunts and uncles.

Visitation will be from noon to 2 p.m. Thursday at Bell Funeral Home in Pacific, Mo., with services at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Iron Mountain Cemetery, Iron Mountain, Mo.

3 Nov 1986
Shirley Maynard, 37

LIBBY — Shirley J. Maynard, 37, Libby, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Monday evening of complications from diabetes.

She was born June 23, 1948, in Libby, to Frank and Joy Seaford. She was raised and educated in Libby.

She is survived by a son, Richard Maynard, Libby; her parents, Frank and Joy Seaford, Libby; a sister, Barbara Clemons, Libby; and numerous other relatives.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Friday at Vial Funeral Home in Libby with the Rev. J.E. Jacobson officiating.

Interment will be in the City of Libby Cemetery.

Jeanette Mayo, 37

^{22 June 1986}
Jeanette Drewry Mayo, 37, died of natural causes Sunday in Neuman Lake, Wash.

She was born Aug. 21, 1948, in Whitefish, to Ellis and Mildred Drewry. She was raised in Columbia Falls and graduated from Columbia Falls High School.

She married Paul Mayo and worked as a watch maker and jeweler for her husband's business.

She also lived in Norfolk, Va., and Orofino, Idaho.

She was a member of Falls Full Gospel Tabernacle and was active in church work. She sang solos and with trios.

Survivors include her parents, Ellis and Mildred Drewry of Columbia Falls; a sister, Elaine Nash of Columbia Falls; a brother, Loren Drewry of Kalispell; a son, Jay, and two daughters, Jubilee and Gayle, all of Neuman Lake, Wash.

Services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Full Gospel Tabernacle, 1885 Horse Haven, Post Falls, Idaho.

LLOYD MAZE 1928

Lloyd Clarence Maze, 71, a retired East Portland electrical construction worker, died in a Portland hospital September 28.

He was born February 1, 1916 in McKenzie County, North Dakota. He served in the U.S. Army from 1941 to 1945. He worked in Willison, ND, St. Paul, MN and Kalispell and retired in 1975. He is survived by his wife, Vivian, of Portland; two sons, Keith of St. Paul, MN and David of Aurora, CO; two stepdaughters in Portland; three daughters, Judy Sky, Mary Medellin and Diana Goodale all of St. Paul; two brothers, Alvah of Stockton, CA and Hyla of Kalispell; two sisters, Neva McClain of Coram and Vannie Bourrett of Cottonwood, AZ; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by three brothers and a sister.

Graveside services were held in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with Rev. Dr. Eugene Mockabee, pastor of Central Christian Church, officiating, and military honors were conducted by local veterans organizations. The family suggest memorials be made to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 1002, Kalispell.

^{5 Feb. 1986} Harold Maze, 64

Harold L. Maze, 64, died Wednesday evening of an apparent heart attack suffered while driving on Montana 35 south of Bigfork.

A retired power-company lineman, he moved to Kalispell last year after retiring in Columbia Falls.

He was born July 11, 1921, in Havre to Luther and Louise Maze. He was raised and educated in Havre, then went to work for Dow Trucking and then Montana Power Co.

In 1951, he married Audrey Goulet in Havre. They lived on Montana's Hi-Line, in Idaho — where he worked for Pacific Power & Light Co. — and then in Anchorage, Alaska, where he was a lineman for the Chugach Electric Co. between 1958 and 1980. He moved to Columbia Falls upon retirement.

He was a World War II veteran of the Army, as well as a Mason and a Shriner.

Surviving are his wife, Audrey, at home; two sons, Marvin in Anchorage and Edward in St. Marys, Alaska; two daughters, Sandra Jay of Houlton, Maine, and Diane Slocumb of Midland, Mich.; his mother, Louise Maze of Bigfork; five sisters, Louise Nelson of Hungry Horse, Eva Ellis of Columbia Falls, Minnie Simpson of Havre, Lorraine Fraley of Anchorage and Audrey Halcomb of Lincoln City, Utah; five brothers, Archie in Helena, Norma in Havre, Gordon in Spokane, Harvey in Great Falls and Scott in Devon; and 11 grandchildren.

Visitation will be at Monday from 6-8 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the funeral home with the Rev. Bob Orear of the Church of Christ in Columbia Falls officiating. Burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

0 11/11/86
Iva McAndrew, 77

Iva Mae McAndrew, 77, a former Bigfork resident, died of natural causes Thursday in Sandpoint, Idaho.

She was born July 28, 1908, in Canton, S.D. She owned a nursing home in Missoula and resided in Bigfork before moving to Sandpoint in January 1986.

She was preceded in death by her husband, retired Navy Chief Quartermaster James A. McAndrew, on Dec. 24, 1985.

She was a member of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

Survivors include a son, Donald E. Woehler, Sandpoint, Idaho; a daughter, Mildred A. Field, Bigfork; a stepdaughter, Frances Badali, Washington, D.C.; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. McAndrew will be buried at 3 p.m. EDT Wednesday in Arlington National Cemetery, beside her husband.

EARLE McCAULEY 1986

Earle J. McCauley, 91, Kalispell, died October 20 of natural causes at Bigfork Convalescent Center. He was born December 28, 1894 in Ashland, Wisconsin, the son of Edward and Josephine McCauley. He lived in Ashland until age 16, then in Neenah, and then in Duluth, Minnesota, where he was a bellhop at the Spalding Hotel. In 1917 he married Anna Berggren in West Duluth, and she preceded him in death in 1924. From 1919 to 1922, Mr. McCauley worked for the Duluth Mesabi and Northern Railroad in Proctor, Minnesota; then for the next five years he was a machinist in a Duluth ironworks. In 1927, he moved to Spokane, Washington and worked as a mail handler at the Great Northern Depot until retiring in 1960. On October 13, 1960 he married Cora Hicks in Whitefish, and they lived in Electric City, Washington until moving to Kalispell in 1970. Mr. McCauley was a resident of the Bigfork Convalescent Center since 1980. He was preceded in death by his wife, Cora, in 1981, as well as by a brother and three sisters.

Surviving are a son, Edward, of Granger, WA; a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Lola) Anderson of Kalispell; a brother Robert Boetcher of Phoenix, AZ; six grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Graveside Funeral Services were held October 23 at Conrad Memorial Cemetery, under the direction of the Weatherford Funeral Home. Officiating was Rev. Dennis Masters, Pastor of Bigfork Chapel, Assembly of God.

Homer McClarty, 85

14 Jan 1986
Homer Joseph McClarty, 85, a lifelong resident of Kalispell, died Saturday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born August 4, 1900, in the Lower Valley, a son of Joseph and Catherine McClarty.

He attended the Rousselle Elementary School, and high school in Somers and Kalispell. He later attended Gonzaga University in Spokane.

He was in the sawmill business for many years, sawing ties for the government during World War II. He had been employed with Kirkpatrick Brothers in construction, working for Flathead County and the Montana Highway Department, doing finishing work in highway construction throughout the state. Prior to his retirement in 1976, he operated the McClarty Drilling business for 40 years.

He was a lifetime member of the Kalispell Eagles Lodge and the Kalispell Elks Lodge. He was a charter member of the Water Well Drillers Association and secretary-treasurer for the Musicians Union Local 552 for 18 years. He had played the drums in many bands, and had several of his own bands, including the Yellow Jackets.

On August 4, 1921, he was married to Beryl Thelma Elwood in Missoula, and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by two sons, Elwood McClarty of Kalispell, and Jack McClarty of Collegedale, Tenn.; one daughter, Bonnie Craft of Kalispell; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Edmund Smith of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating.

Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 1-6 p.m. today.

Helen C. McClench

1 Oct 1986

Helen C. McClench, 81 of Whitefish died Sept. 24 at the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

She was born March 15, 1905 in Adel, Iowa to John and Anna B. Collins.

As a young girl she moved with her parents to Sidney where they lived several years.

They then moved to Eureka where

Helen graduated from high school.

She then went to beauty school in Spokane for several summers and for a number of years worked as a beautician at the East Glacier Hotel.

Later she bought a beauty shop in Whitefish and operated it for many years. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Whitefish.

On Oct. 29, 1929, she married

Warren G. McClench in Kalispell and he preceded her in death in 1970.

She is survived by several nieces and a number of cousins.

Services were Sept. 29 at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish.

Interment was at the Whitefish Cemetery with the Reverend Darrel Aleson of the United Methodist Church of Whitefish officiating.

William Frank McCoy

31 Mar 1986

William Frank "Mac" McCoy, 82, an area resident for more than four decades, died Monday at his Newport, Wash., home of apparent heart failure.

Born March 4, 1904 at Chicago, his parents were William and Mary Gibson McCoy and he was a direct descendent of the McCoy's involved in the legendary McCoy-Hatfield feud.

He was married to the former Lois Bissel of Nashua, on March 4 1936 at Glasgow, Mont., with whom he recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They moved to the Spirit Lake area in 1942 and to Newport in 1953. McCoy worked as a self-employed mechanical contractor in the area for over 20 years.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Spirit Lake, the Panhandle Shriners of Sandpoint, the Scottish Rite and a past Master Mason of the Spirit Lake Lodge.

McCoy was an active horseman and enjoyed horses and trail rides. When in his 60s, he was awarded a championship at the Shetland Chariot event at Spokane.

He is survived by his widow, Lois at their home; two sons, Bill McCoy of Freeman Lake and Bud McCoy of Lewiston; one daughter, Betty M. Kohfeld of Bellevue, Wash., and three grandchildren.

Survivors also include two sisters, Dolly Nichols and Silvia Norby, both of South Dakota, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a brother, William B. McCoy, about 1974.

No funeral service is planned and the body was cremated privately. Sherman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials may be made to the Shriner Hospital Foundation or the Spirit Lake Masonic Maintenance Fund.

15 Feb. 1986
B.H. McCubbins, 56

Byron H. McCubbins, 56, Kalispell, died of a heart attack Saturday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born July 4, 1929, on Eckler Mountain in Dayton, Wash., the son of Floyd and Alta McCubbins. He grew up and attended school in the Dayton area and graduated from WA-HI High School at Walla Walla in 1947.

He joined the Navy after graduation and served for two years in Subic Bay, Phillipines. He returned home and was active in the Naval Reserve for four more years.

On Feb. 25, 1950, he married Vonda Fairchild in Clarkston, Wash.

He worked for Benzel Welding, Baumgartner Sheet Metal, Bird's Eye Frozen Foods for five years, and Nuxall Brothers Contractors. He then was a foreman for Sky Dicks Sheet Metal in Walla Walla.

The McCubbins moved to Missoula in 1959 and he worked for Glen Ford Heating. He brought that business to Kalispell in 1962. The McCubbins started Byron's Heating and Sheet Metal in Kalispell in 1964.

He was a member of Kalispell Eagles and North Valley Eagles clubs. He was also a member of the Bitterroot Legion of the Moose, and a past governor of the Moose Lodge with a fellowship degree.

He was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He enjoyed racing hydroplanes and was formerly a member of the American Power Boat Association. His latest interest was rock hunting.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters and a brother.

Survivors include his wife, Vonda, at the family home; two sons, Floyd McCubbins, Hungry Horse, and Charles McCubbins, Columbia Falls; two daughters, Mrs. Byron (Deana) Sundberg, Kalispell, and Mrs. Bernie (Rahni) Juelfs, Sidney; two sisters, A. Viola Kelly and Mrs. Roy (Bobbie) Englund, both of Spokane; six grandsons and two granddaughters; and many nieces and nephews.

Viewing will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday at Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. Burial with military honors will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Loyal Order of Moose Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 5235, Kalispell, Mont. 59901.

13 July 1986
M. McCulloch, 78

Mildred E. McCulloch, 78, died Sunday morning at her home in Kalispell.

She was born July 11, 1908, in San Bernardino, Calif., a daughter of Henry and Sarah Luening.

She was a graduate of the normal school in Greeley, Colo., and taught in Colorado for several years.

On Dec. 30, 1930, she married Edgar L. McCulloch in Fort Collins, Colo.

In January 1951, she was employed as a social worker for the Montana State Department of Welfare and also worked with the Council on Aging until her retirement in August 1974.

She was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church and the Toastmistress International.

She was preceded in death by seven brothers and sisters.

Survivors include her husband, Edgar, at home; four daughters, Mrs. P.W. (Patricia) Woodruff of Elk, Wash., Barbara Austin of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Don (Cathleen) Manning of Sidney, and Mrs. Gary (Terry) Glenn of Medical Lake, Wash.; 14 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Thursday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Michael O'Neill of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Clarence McDaniel

Graveside memorial services for Clarence F. McDaniel, a former Kalispell resident, will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at Glacier Memorial Gardens. McDaniel died on Jan. 3, 1986, of natural causes at his home in Camas, Wash.

He was born May 22, 1904, in McHenry, N.D., the son of Fred and Mary McDaniel. He farmed north of Chester from 1925 until moving to Kalispell area in 1950. He had moved to Camas shortly before his death.

McDaniel was preceded in death by his first wife, Margaret Loehr McDaniel, in 1946, and a son Alvin in 1979.

He married Nella Moore in November 1952, and she survives him at the family home. Also surviving are three sons, Charles McDaniel of Havre, Earl McDaniel of Columbus, and Vern McDaniel of Chester; two daughters. Verna Wood of Havre

Alice McDonald

SACO--Former Saco resident Alice McDonald died July 15 at Everett, Washington following surgery.

She was born on March 5, 1918, at Valley Town, North of Saco, to Mr. and Mrs. Axel Hjort.

She married Earl McDonald and lived many years at Saco before moving to Washington.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, July 19, at Monroe, Washington with Purdy and Kerr Funeral Home in charge of services. Burial was at the Sultan Cemetary at Sultan, Washington where her husband, Earl, is buried.

Survivors are her children; Elaine Denit, Karen Whalen, Susan Owen, Ray, Rex, and Terry.

and Joyce Tempel of Kalispell; a stepson, Seley Eugene Moore of Bremerton, Wash.; three stepdaughters, Sylvia Winterowd of Rochester, Wash., Georgia Carr of Libby, and Marjorie Walker of Vancouver, Wash.; 14 grand-children; 11 step-grandchildren; and a number of great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were previously conducted at Bible Presbyterian Church in Kalispell.

Weatherford Funeral Home is in charge of local arrangements

Memorial contributions may be made to the Heart Fund.

16 May 1986

Cecil McElwain, 80

Cecil H. McElwain, 80, Half Moon, died Friday at Brendan House.

He was born Aug. 21, 1905, in Sprague, Wash., to James H. and Grace M. McElwain.

The family moved to Whitefish in 1917, where he finished his education.

He married Mildred A. Hill on Oct. 6, 1926, in Kalispell. They settled in the Half Moon area where they resided for the past 60 years.

He worked for Stoltze Lumber Co. for 46 years as a sawyer and millwright. He retired in 1970.

He was an avid hunter, fisherman and reader.

He was preceded in death by two half brothers and two sons, James and LeRoy.

Survivors include his wife, Mildred, at the family home; two daughters, Dorothy Barnaby of Columbia Falls and Vera McElwain of Salem, Ore.; three half brothers, Joseph Eason of Whitefish, and Henry and Richard Eason of Portland, Ore.; 12 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Burial will be in Whitefish Cemetery.

The casket will not be opened after the service. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday and from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday.

26 Jan, Ida M. McDonald, 83 1986

Ida M. McDonald, 83, Columbia Falls, died Sunday at North Valley Extended Care.

She was born March 21, 1902, in Two Harbors, Minn., to Matt and Mary Salo. As an infant, she moved with her family to Geysler, where she grew up and attended school. She attended normal school in Lewistown and taught in the Geysler area for a short time.

She married Joseph J. McDonald in 1921 in Lewistown.

They ranched in the Cottonwood Creek area of Lewistown for many years. They then operated the Big Sag Ranch in the Geraldine area during the 1940s.

In 1948, they moved to Great Falls. After the death of her husband in 1963, she moved to Columbia Falls to be near her son.

She was also preceded in death by a brother.

Survivors include two sons, Ted McDonald of Columbia Falls, and Fred McDonald of Fremont, Calif.; a daughter, Kay Walrack of Hawaii; four sisters, Jennie Wadell and Anne Watne, both of Los Angeles, Calif., Hilja Moe of Helena, and Betty Casbon of Hawaii; nine grand^{er} children, and six great-grandchildren.

A rosary will be recited today at the O'Connor Funeral Home in Great Falls. Mass will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Thursday at Holy Family Catholic Church in Great Falls. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery near Great Falls.

Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls is in charge of local arrangements.

Lucille McFarlen, 65

^{to May 1986}
Lucille "Frenchy" McFarlen, 65, formerly of Kalispell, died of cancer Tuesday at a niece's home in Great Falls.

She was born June 30, 1920, in Wild Rice, N.D. She was educated in Daniels County and graduated from high school in Scobey in 1941. She worked as a waitress in Culbertson and then moved to California where she worked for Douglas Aircraft for two years during World War II.

In 1949, she returned to Montana, moving to Great Falls, where she was employed by the Park Hotel and the Rainbow Hotel.

In May 1959, she married Felix Wicka in Great Falls. She continued to work at various locations in the Great Falls area. Mr. Wicka died in 1967.

In 1967, she married Kenneth McFarlen. He preceded her in death in 1974. After his death, she moved to Scobey where she lived until 1981. She then managed a restaurant in Hot Springs for one year and moved to Kalispell in 1982.

She returned to Great Falls on March 23, 1986, due to ill health.

She was a member of the Eagles Lodge and the Catholic Church.

Survivors include a son, Terry Wicka of Pensacola, Fla.; a brother, Louis Parent of Beckermeyer, Ill.; five sisters, Alma Carrier and Beatrice Shuman, both of Scobey, Jeanette Karr of Gardena, Calif., Alice Ellertson of Lewistown, and Lorraine Johnson of Bigfork; four stepchildren, Judy Royland of Great Falls, Janet Zimmerman of Rapid City, S.D., John McFarlen of Arvada, Colo., and Jerry McFarlen of La Jolla, Calif.; two grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by three brothers.

A vigil service will be at 5:30 p.m. today at O'Connor Funeral Home in Great Falls. Cremation will follow. A memorial service will be at a later date in Scobey.