

DI

Carolyn Ann Cada, 81

Carolyn Ann Cada, 81, formerly of Columbia Heights, died in Colonial Manor in Whitefish on July 14, 1989. She lived there with her family until 1985.

She was born Sept. 13, 1907, in Choteau, a daughter of Franklin and Ethyl Long.

She lived in Eureka before her marriage where her mother was a school teacher and her father was a doctor and state legislator.

She attended college in Cheney, Wash.

On Sept. 13, 1939, she was married to John Cada, of Ural, in Eureka. They later moved to Columbia Falls where she managed Carolyn's Grocery in Columbia Heights from 1946 to 1975. She lived there with her family until 1985.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John, on March 17, 1988, and is now survived by three sons, Frank Cada, of Loveland, Colo.; John Cada of Bozeman; and George Cada of Kalispell; and two brothers, George Long of Portland, Ore.; and Franklin Long of Ithica, N.Y.

Memorial services for Mrs. Cada will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Bonnie Robinson officiating.

DI

Delano A. Caffyn, 52

Delano A. Caffyn, 52, formerly of Great Falls, died Monday at the Montana Veterans Home, Columbia Falls.

Survivors include three children and his mother.

Burial will be 10 a.m. Thursday at the Montana Veterans Home Cemetery.

DI

ROBERT CALBICK

Robert R. Calbick, 66, Kalispell, died in the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish on January 18, 1989.

He was born August 26, 1922, on the family farm in the Egan area at Creston, a son of Allen and Helena Calbick.

He is now survived by his wife, Lenore, at home; a son, Don, of Kalispell; a daughter, Karen Armstrong, of Helena; two brothers, James of Kalispell, and Jack of Juneau, AK; and a sister, Ethel Gelineau, of Kalispell.

Funeral services for Mr. Calbick were held at the Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial was in the Glacier Memorial Gardens.

DI

VERN CAMPBELL

Vern R. Campbell, 70, Bigfork, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on June 19 of natural causes.

He was born October 7, 1918, in Anaconda, a son of Charles and Elsie Campbell.

He is now survived by his wife, Opal, at the family home in Bigfork; two sons, Ron of Boise, ID and Kirby of Missoula; a brother, William, of Opportunity, Montana and three grandchildren.

Private graveside services will be held in the Lonepine Cemetery in Bigfork.

DI

EVELYN A. CANTRALL

Evelyn A. Cantrall, 81, died November 6, at the North Valley Extended Care Unit in Whitefish.

She was born February 22, 1908, in Seattle, Washington, the daughter of Ed and Bertha Metevevier. Evelyn was raised and attended schools in the San Diego, California, area and graduated from high school there. On November 9, 1925, she married Jerry Cantrall, and the couple made their home in the San Diego area before moving to Montana in 1984.

She is survived by her husband Jerry in Whitefish; two sons, Richard Cantrall in Kalispell, and Robert Cantrall in Sacramento; a daughter, Marla Champlin in Whitefish; 8 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were November 8, at the funeral home. Burial followed at the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Kalispell.

DI

Carmel L. Carr, 58

Carmel L. Carr, 58, Libby, died of a heart attack Thursday at St. John's Lutheran Hospital, Libby.

He was a woods worker until becoming disabled in 1982.

Survivors include his wife, Myrl, Libby; two daughters, Theresa Cumberley, Libby, and Delorse Stratton, Coram; two sons, Mark, Libby, and Ashley Hungry Horse; his mother, Ellen Basham, Troy; a sister, and two brothers, including Carlile Carr, Troy.

No services are planned at this time. Cremation has taken place.

DI

Clide I. Carr Jr., 69

Clide I. Carr Jr. passed away at his home in Sun City, Ariz. Sept. 10.

He was born in Kalispell on June 9, 1920, and was preceded in death by his father, Clide I. Carr Sr., his mother, and a sister, Jean Hitchcock.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, in Sun City, Ariz.; Bruce and Craig in California; a daughter, Cynthia, in Texas; a brother, Bill Carr, in Kalispell; and two sisters, Bea Madison of Kalispell and Della Veal of Apache Junction, Ariz.

Clide attended Kalispell schools, and after graduation from Flathead County High School, graduated from the University of Montana and went directly into the Air Force. After the war, he continued his education on a fellowship to Berkeley, Calif., where he earned his doctorate in physical chemistry.

For 30 years, he worked with the Uniroyal Tire and Rubber Company. He retired in 1982 as director of research and development.

He and his wife retired to Arizona, where he was able to indulge his interests in church work, singing in glee clubs and quartets, bowling, swimming, playing tennis and reading. He was a happy-go-lucky fellow who loved people and was always interested in their opinions and ideas.

Services were conducted in the Sun City Christian Church in Sun City on Sept. 16.

DI

Elsie M. Carter, 79

Graveside services for Elsie Montgomery Carter will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Friends will meet at the cemetery for services.

Mrs. Carter, 79, formerly of Kalispell, died in Vista, Calif., on Nov. 2, 1989.

She is survived by a brother in Billings.

DI

POLSON — Inez Christine Carter, 63, of Missoula, died of cancer Sunday at St. Joseph's Nursing Home in Polson.

She was born March 11, 1925, in Kalispell to Jakob and Louisa Reimers. She moved with her parents to the Pablo area. She was raised and attended schools in Ronan, graduating from Ronan High School in 1944.

She was employed by an aluminum plant near Spokane for eight months before she married Robert White on Feb. 12, 1944. They were later divorced.

Inez C. Carter, 63

13 Feb 1989

On April 3, 1970, she married Willard Carter in Pablo.

Mrs. Carter worked as a clerk for Pablo schools and served as a coordinator for home demonstration agents in western Montana. She was also an avid bowler, serving as a league secretary for 11 years. She was a 10-year member of Missoula Ladies' Stitch n' Sew Club and a wonderful homemaker.

She was preceded in death by a brother, her father and a son.

Survivors include her husband, Missoula; her mother, Ronan; three daughters, Marsha Becknick, Pablo;

Linda Coulter, Polson, and Roberta Lopez, Kennewick, Wash.; two sons, Douglas and Duane White, both of Pablo; a sister, Jennie Carlson, Eloy, Ariz.; 24 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services are tentatively set for 2 p.m. Thursday at Pablo Christian Church with the Rev. Dewey Obenchain officiating. Burial will be at Mountain View Cemetery in Ronan. Arrangements are under the direction of Shriber's Mortuary of Ronan.

The family suggests memorials to Ronan Senior Citizens Center.

DI

SUE ANN LIVESAY CAVE

Sue Livesay Cave, age 38, passed away peacefully November 1 at the family home in Nehalem, Oregon, 1989.

Born to Clark W. and Ruth F. Livesay on February 17, 1951, in Kalispell, Montana. Sue attended area schools, and in 1969 married Steven Cave; they later divorced. She was the resident manager of the Sunshine House (adult foster care) at the time of her death.

She was preceded in death by a son, Joshua, and is survived by a daughter, LaDonna, at the family home; a grandmother, Lucille Rose; mother, Ruth Rose; stepfather, Gerald Rose; sisters Sherry Lee, Josephine Dopp, and Gerri Willey, all of Kalispell; a sister, Carla Bateman of West Jordan, Utah; a foster mother, Pat Gideons of Nehalem, Oregon; two brothers, Robm Rose and Patrick Rose, both of Kalispell, Montana, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Sue was a member of the Rainbow Christian Church and captain of her bowling team; she also found great joy in collecting clown memorabilia.

She was a loving mother, daughter and sister and will be dearly missed by all who knew her love, humor and friendship.

Services were held November 4 in Nehalem, Oregon.

DI

Ellen Cassel, 67

Ellen M. Cassel, 67, Libby, died of emphysema Oct. 7 at Libby Care Center, 1989.

She was born and raised in Kalispell and married Lloyd D. Cassel here in 1944.

She is survived by her husband, Lloyd, Libby; three daughters, including Sandra Wagner, Libby; three sons, including David, Libby; two sisters; and a brother.

Services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Vial Funeral Home. Burial will be at City of Libby Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to Libby Hospice or Libby Volunteer Ambulance.

DI

Elmer J. Chaffee, 82

15 Feb 1989

Elmer J. Chaffee, 82, Kalspell, died Monday morning at Kalspell Regional Hospital following a lengthy illness with emphysema.

He was born Aug. 23, 1906, at Dent, Minn., and came with his family to Westby at age 7. He went to school at Westby, Crosby and Daleview.

As a young man, he went to work for the Sioux Line Railroad, mostly near Outlook. He retired as a section foreman with the Sioux Line in 1969.

On July 19, 1926, he married Lucille Desonia at Plentywood, and they later divorced.

He married Vera Friberg on March 21, 1969, at Plentywood, and they lived at Outlook until moving to Kalspell in 1972.

Mr. Chaffee is survived by his wife, Vera, at the family home in Kalspell; two daughters, Mrs. Gordon (Fay) Robert, son of Missoula, and Jeanette Chaffee of White Plains, N.J.; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Merlin (Beverly) Pederson of Bowersville, Minn., Mrs. Ewing Oleson of Kremmling, Minn., and Mrs. Charles Kalspell of Kalspell; and three granddaughters, two sisters, Eunice Christensen and Della Johnson, both of Plentywood; 23 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren and other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Lucille, and by three brothers, Earl, Ralph and Norman.

Viewing will be today from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Rosary will be recited tonight at 7 p.m. at Weatherford Chapel.

Mass of the Resurrection will be Thursday at 10 a.m. at Risen Christ Parish, with the Rev. Father Bernard J. McCarthy as celebrant. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

DI

Kathryn 'Kathy' J. Chapin, 33

Kathryn "Kathy" J. Chapin, 33, Columbia Falls, passed away Sunday morning (Oct. 1) at Kalspell Regional Hospital of cancer.

She was born May 20, 1956, in Kalspell to Menno and Lola Miller. She was raised in the Creston area and attended school at Echo School and Bigfork.

She was married to Michael D. Chapin on Sept. 28, 1974, in Bigfork. They have made their home in Columbia Falls since then. For the past two years, she has been affiliated with Crystal Creations in Kalspell.

She was active in the North Valley Search and Rescue for several years.

She is survived by her husband, Michael, of Columbia Falls; two sons, Mike and Chris of Columbia Falls; her parents, Menno and Lola Miller of Poison; three sisters, Rochelle LaValley and Elaine Miller of Seattle, and Dawn Collins of Salem, N.H.; one brother, Robert W. Miller of Whittier, Calif.; two nieces; two nephews; and numerous other relatives and friends.

A funeral service will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Kathy Cooper of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church will officiate. Burial will follow in Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Visitation will be Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

The family has suggested that memorials be made to Flathead Hospice, North Valley Search and Rescue or to the Columbia Falls Ambulance Association.

DI

Madge I. Chapman, 77

Madge I. Chapman, 77, Whitefish, died of natural causes Thursday in North Valley Hospital of Whitefish.

She was born Dec. 17, 1911, a daughter of Maurice R. and Myrtle I. More. The family moved to Columbia Falls in 1924, where she was raised and completed her education.

In 1934, she married Arthur W. Howke and they lived in Half Moon for a number of years.

He preceded her in death on June 26, 1965, and she later moved to Whitefish. For a number of years she was employed at the office of Dr. W.S. Miller and Dr. J.E. Johnson in Whitefish.

In 1972, she married Lyle Chapman of Columbia Falls. He preceded her in death in 1980.

She is survived by two stepdaughters, Mrs. Dick (Laverne) Lindsley, and Mrs. Leo (Betty) Smith, both of Columbia Falls; three sisters, Aletha Waldron of Sunnymeade, Calif., Mildred Hansen of Whitefish, and Joyce Petram of Anchorage, Alaska; and numerous other relatives.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Howard Hunter of Columbia Falls Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

DI

Naomi Chenault, 87

Naomi Chenault, 87, Kalispell, died late Saturday evening in the Immanuel Lutheran Home. 25 March 1989

She was born March 2, 1902, in Cove, Ore., a daughter of Junius and Josie Chenault. She was raised with an older brother and a younger sister, and enjoyed horseback riding as a child.

She was a graduate of the Milton Freewater High School near her home and a graduate of the Western Oregon College of Education near Portland, Ore.

She taught school at Albany, Ore., for a time, and in 1921, she moved to Kalispell. She had taught the second grade at the Erod Elementary School in Kalispell for over 40 years prior to her retirement in 1967.

She was a longtime and active member of the Central Christian Church and had taught Sunday School there for many years.

She loved children and enjoyed classical music, knitting, sewing and homemaking. She had traveled throughout the United States and to Mexico and Canada.

She was a member of the Montana Education Association and a past member of the Kalispell Teachers Association.

She is survived by several nephews and cousins, however, her favorite people were her friend, Louise Hanger, and the son they adopted and raised together, Donald L. Hanger. Donald, his wife and two daughters live in Annandale, Va. The Hanger family of Missoula have also been very close to Miss Chenault.

Funeral services for Miss Chenault will be held at 10 a.m. on Wednesday in Central Christian Church with the Rev. George Tolman and the Rev. Gary Shoemaker officiating. Burial will be made in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to Central Christian Church.

DI

Claude M. Christensen, 82

Claude M. Christensen, 82, of Columbia Falls, passed away Friday at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. 19 March 1989

He was born February 28, 1907, in Raleigh, N.D., a son of Jens and Martina Christensen.

He moved with his family to Columbia Falls in 1948 from Enamclaw, Wash. He was part-owner of the local blacksmith shop and later a member of the Plumbers and Pipefitters Union, working on many area construction sites. He enjoyed fishing, dancing, playing cards, walking, and socializing.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Hazel, in 1981.

He is survived by a son and daughter-in-law, Roger and Judy of Indonesia; a daughter and son-in-law, Janice and Chuck Somers of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; two brothers, Alfred of Spooner, Wis., and Robert of Broadus; his special friend Mary Becker of Columbia Falls; eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

At Mr. Christensen's request, no flowers or memorials are requested. Friends are invited to the memorial service Monday at 11 a.m. at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Thomas Gopp officiating. Burial of the ashes will be at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. Van Leuven Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements and cremation.

DI

Kenneth W. Christison, 81

A memorial service will be held Saturday, Dec. 23, at 10 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church for Kenneth Watt Christison, who died Nov. 23 at the age of 81 at Kalispell Regional Hospital. 1989

Chris, as he was known to his family, friends and thousands of students, was born on March 20, 1908, in Sixteen, Mont., the son of James and Isabella Christison, both of whom came to the United States from Scotland in the early 1900s.

Chris completed high school in Bozeman and was graduated from Montana State University in 1930. He taught in Eureka for 12 years before coming to Kalispell where he taught at Flathead High School for 31 years.

On Oct. 30, 1936, Chris was married to Violet Trenne in Kalispell and they were married for 53 years.

Chris was a member of First Presbyterian Church where he served as both an elder and a trustee.

He was a 50-year Mason with membership in Bozeman, Eureka, and Kalispell Lodge 152 AF&AM. He was a 50-year member of Eastern Star in Eureka Chapter No. 64 and Adah Chapter No. 47 in Kalispell, and was a past patron.

Chris served on the advisory board of A.D. MacDonald Chapter, Order of Demolay, and was a member of the Demolay Legion of Honor.

He served on the advisory board of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, and was a member of Grand Cross of Colors.

He was also an honorary member of the Future Farmers of America.

He is survived by his wife, V. Kalispell; two daughters, Carol Springer and Linda Haden, both of Billings; one son, Kenneth; and daughter-in-law, Sharon, of Mill Valley, Calif.; and eight grandchildren.

Memorials may be made either to First Presbyterian Church or to the Kenneth W. Christison Memorial Fund at Flathead High School.

DI

Hazel Christensen, 62

Hazel Christensen, 62, Troy, died Feb. 12 at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane.

She and her husband, Oliver "Bud" Hensley, moved to Lincoln County in 1948. He died in 1969.

In September, 1969, she married Merle Christensen and they lived in Survivors include her husband Merle Troy, a daughter, a brother, two sisters, and two half brothers.

Services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at Troy's Church of God.

Memorials to the American Cancer Society, 548 Pioneer Road, Libby 59923, have been suggested.

DI

Doris Christianson, 64 5 Feb 1989

Doris Irene Christianson, 64, Polson, died Feb. 3 of cancer at Presbyterian Hospital in Denver.

She was born Jan. 13, 1925, in Conrad, Mont., the daughter of John McDonald and Alta Gillespie, both now deceased.

On Nov. 8, 1943, she married Arvid C. "Chris" Christianson in Kevin, Mont. She was a homemaker and avid gardener and she enjoyed arts and crafts, reading and her grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, of Polson; three daughters, Chris Ann Borla and her husband Joe, of Loveland, Colo., Cheryl Shinton and her husband Gary, of Longmont, Colo., Janet Warnock and her husband Greg of Longmont, Colo., three brothers Jack McDonald of Rollins, Wyo., Marvin McDonald and wife Ann of Oilmont, Mont., Loren McDonald and wife Marilyn of Thermopolis, Wyo.; sister Florence Ladd of Kalispell; and three grandchildren, Thad Miller and Melinda and Andrea Borla.

Memorial services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Kibbey Fishburn Funeral Home in Loveland, Colo. The Rev. William Davidson of Clating. Cremation has been conducted.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society of Montana or the American Lung Association of Montana.

DI

Kenneth W. Christison, 81

Memorial services for Kenneth Watt Christison of Kalispell are scheduled for later in December. The exact date will be announced later. 23 Nov 1989

Mr. Christison died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Thursday.

The family suggests memorials to First Presbyterian Church, Kalispell.

DI

Gladys E. Clark, 76

Gladys E. Clark, 76, Kalispell, died Tuesday morning at Immanuel Lutheran Home after a lengthy illness.

She was born Dec. 11, 1912, in Thief River Falls, Minn., the daughter of Tellof and Tina Loyland. As a young adult she moved to Chicago where she lived with her sisters.

While there, she met her future husband, Vint R. "Pat" Clark, who was raising two young sons. They married on July 9, 1938, in LaPorte, Ind.

The Clarks lived in Washington, Minnesota, Iowa, and California. Mr. Clark preceded her in death on July 31, 1967.

Mrs. Clark later moved to Oregon, and finally to the Flathead Valley, where she had lived since 1977.

Her greatest joy was her family. She also loved to travel, which led her to Norway, New Zealand, Mexico, Hawaii, and other places. Mrs. Clark's creativity and love for the beauty of God's world were expressed in her painting and sewing.

LOYLAND

Surviving are three sons, Sam and Jim Clark, both in Seattle, and Gene Clark of Kalispell; two daughters, Mrs. Gary (Karen) Gunderson and Mrs. Roger (Kathy) Rich, both of Kalispell; four sisters, Theodora Anderson of Erie, Minn.; Lillian Banner of Morton Grove, Ill.; Clara Haugen of Bigfork, and Amber Walker, of Hibbing, Minn.; and numerous grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Clark was preceded in death by her husband, Pat; an infant son, Steven; her parents; and two brothers, Olaf and Alvin Loyland.

Friends may call at the Weatherford Funeral Home on Friday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Weatherford Chapel with the Rev. David Graham, director of Youth With A Mission, Lakeside, officiating. Burial will take place at Glen Haven Memorial Park in the San Fernando Valley of California.

DI

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Margaret Turner Clack, 105, a longtime summer resident at the head of Lake McDonald, died Aug. 12 in Memphis, Tenn. She was born April 29, 1884, in Baltimore, Md. She married Henry Earl Clack in 1903. They lived in Havre for many years where they contributed to the development of the library, hospital, First Presbyterian Church and the Girl Scout House, all in Havre. The dining hall at Memphis University is named in her honor. The family spent summer months at their Lake McDonald home. In 1979, she moved to Memphis to live near a daughter. Surviving are two daughters, Margaret Clack Askew Hood of Memphis and Eleanor Clack McCurdy of Port Townsend, Wash.; 17 grandchildren; 35 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren. Memorials may be sent to the H. Earl Clack Museum, P.O. Box 1484, Havre, Mont. 59501.

DL

Verne F. Clark 66

80 Oct 1989

Verne F. Clark, 66, East Lakeshore, died Sunday at Kalispell Regional Hospital following a lengthy fight with cancer.

He was born April 11, 1923, at Missoula, the son of Don and Nellie Clark. He was raised in the Bigfork area on the East Lakeshore, graduating from Bigfork High School.

During World War II, he served in the U.S. Navy as a carrier pilot in the Pacific Theater. Following his honorable discharge, he spent a few years in California before moving to Missoula.

On Oct. 2, 1949, he married Patricia Ryan in Kalispell, and they made their home in Missoula until coming to the East Lakeshore in 1967.

Mr. Clark was employed by Montana Powder and Equipment Company for most of his working career, selling heavy equipment to industrial users. He later worked for Anaconda Aluminum Company, retiring in 1985.

An avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed hunting, fishing and camping with his children. Mr. Clark was a Mason and had been active in the Lodge in the past.

Mr. Clark is survived by his wife at the family home; two sons, Edmund V. Clark, Newark, Calif., and Barrett F. Clark, San Diego, Calif.; a daughter, Runelle Clark Stubbs, Kalispell; three sisters, Effie Dockstader, Bigfork, Margaret Ratchford, Townsend, and Wanda Baillie, Great Falls; one brother, Don Clark, Bigfork; three grandchildren, Jenny Ann and Maureen Gail Clark, both of Newark, and Robert Barrmund Stubbs, Kalispell; and a number of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and by two brothers, Fred and Dick.

Friends may call at Bigfork Funeral Home until tonight.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Bigfork Funeral Home, with Bonnie Robinson and Julia Brist officiating. Burial will follow at Lonepine Cemetery, with military honors provided by the United Veterans of the Flathead.

DL

Helen Harriet Claypool, 71

9 Dec 1989

Helen Harriet Claypool, 71, died at her home in Kalispell on Saturday evening.

She was born May 26, 1918, in Helena, a daughter of Albert W. and Ruth Burgess Heidel. At an early age she moved with her family to Broadus, where she received her elementary education and graduated from high school in the class of 1935. She then attended the University of Montana, graduating in the class of 1939.

She then taught music at Jordan for a short time.

On Aug. 17, 1940, she was married to Donald F. Claypool in Columbus. The couple then moved to Libby for a short time before moving to Seattle, where they lived for four years during the war. In 1945 they moved to their farm west of Kalispell where they have since resided.

Mrs. Claypool was a member of Epworth United Methodist Church and was secretary of the United Methodist Women's group for approximately 30 years. She was a 50-year member of the Adah Chapter No. 17, Order of the Eastern Star, and a member of Oro Y. Plata organization. She enjoyed music.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, and is now survived by her husband, Donald, at home; two sons, David of Baton Rouge, La., and Robert of Scio, Ore.; one daughter, Kathryn Quast of Great Falls; a brother, Donald Heidel of Broadus; a sister, Ruth Clark of Red Lodge; seven grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials be made to Epworth United Methodist Church or the Parkinson's Disease Foundation.

Friends may call at the funeral home for visitation until 8 p.m. today.

DL

Donnie L. Coates, 38

Donnie Lee Coates, 38, of Kalispell, died Wednesday at Kalispell Regional Hospital of heart failure. He was a welder by trade. 23 Aug 1989

He was born Dec. 28, 1950, in Atalla, Ala., and was raised in Alabama until age 8, after that, the family lived in a number of different cities, following the military career of his father.

Mr. Coates served with the U.S. Army Infantry in Vietnam.

He came to Kalispell from the Denver area about three years ago.

Mr. Coates was preceded in death by his mother, Ruby Mabe Coates.

Survivors include his father, Merrill

J. Coates Sr., of Aurora, Colo.; a son, Harley Coates, of Kalispell; two brothers, Merrill J. Coates Jr. and Quintin L. Coates, both of Aurora; a sister, Marylyn J. Turney of Ft. Benning, Georgia; and a number of other relatives and friends.

Memorial services will be Monday at 2:30 p.m. at the Salvation Army, 204 Seventh Avenue West, with Capt. William Hathorn officiating. Services will also take place in the Denver area at a later date.

Arrangements and cremation are by Weatherford Funeral Home and Crematory.

DI

Leonard L. Cobler, 64*28 April 1989*

Leonard L. Cobler, 64, of Kalispell, died early Friday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital following a brief illness with cancer.

He was born Aug. 27, 1924, in Gridley, Kan., the son of Clarence and Anna Bell Cobler. He lived in Kansas until age 15, and was a farmhand in his early teens. He then moved to Denver, where he worked as a parking attendant.

On Dec. 19, 1940, he married Anna A. Gaswint in Covington, Ky. Shortly thereafter, he entered the U.S. Navy and served on destroyer escorts in both the Atlantic and Pacific Theatres during World War II.

Following Mr. Cobler's honorable discharge in December of 1945, the family lived in California and Arizona for several years. The Coblers then lived in various places throughout the Pacific Northwest for a number of years, while Mr. Cobler was an insurance agent. They settled in the Smith Valley area near Kalispell in 1967.

After driving a logging truck for several years, Mr. Cobler worked at Montana Saw Service until it was destroyed by fire. He then was employed by Plum Creek Timber for 15 years, retiring in 1986. He had done saw filing throughout the Flathead Valley for years, and operated Len's Saw Shop from his home after retirement.

An active outdoorsman, he enjoyed bringing in his own wood. He was a member of Epworth United Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife Anna at the family home; four sons, LeRoy, Leonard A., and Malcomb Cobler, all of Kalispell, and Melvin Cobler of Portland, Ore.; a daughter, Lois Wilson, also of Kalispell; three brothers, Charles Cobler of Kalispell, Dean Cobler of San Jose, Calif., and Don Cobler of Churchill, Md.; five sisters, Velma Taylor of Brandenton, Fla., Lillie Rees of Wichita, Kan., Dorothy Doty and Lucille Haines, both of Great Bend, Kan., and Stella Dunn of Kent, Wash.; eight grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and numerous other relatives.

Friends may call at Weatherford Funeral Home today from 3-6 p.m., and Monday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at Epworth United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt officiating. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens, with military honors provided by local veterans.

DI

Francis W. Cody, 80

Francis W. Cody, 80, Troy, died July 5 at Libby Care Center. 1989

He and his wife, Willene, moved to Troy in 1948 where Mr. Cody operated a small saw mill.

The couple moved to Libby Care Center in 1984.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, including Barbara Daniel Troy; three stepsons, including Charles Whitson, Polson, and Don Whitson, Libby.

Graveside services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at Milnor Lake Cemetery.

Memorials to Kootenai Wildland Alliance, Box 588, Libby 59923, or Cabinet Backcountry Horsemen, Box 949, Libby 59923, or Libby Care Center, 308 E. Third St., Libby 5993.

DI

Merle W. Colony, 89*23 July 1989*

Merle W. Colony, 89, West Glacier, Officers Association, died Sunday of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Oct. 17, 1899, at Burr Oak, Kan., the son of Charles S. and Nellie Jane Colony. He spent his early years in Foster County, N.D., where he graduated from high school. After attending one year of normal school in North Dakota, he attended two years at the University of Indiana at Valparaiso.

On Dec. 11, 1926, he married Adeline Viola Bromling in Seattle, Wash., and they lived in San Diego, Hawaii, Florida, and Denver, Colo. Mr. Colony was an electrician in the U.S. Navy from 1922 to 1942, retiring as a chief warrant officer.

Mr. Colony then worked as an electrician for the National Bureau of Standards at Boulder, Colo., from 1957 to 1967, where he permanently retired.

He was a member of the Elks Club in Boulder, as well as the Retired

Mrs. Colony passed away on March 14, 1989; and Mr. Colony came to live with his son in West Glacier in May.

He is survived by one son, William Merle Colony of West Glacier; a brother, Edward Colony of Spokane, Wash.; three sisters, Ruth Arglin, Dorothy Ditton and Effie Bromling, all of Spokane; three grandchildren, Serena Colony of West Glacier, Bruce W. Colony of San Diego, and Brian Colony of Ahoha, Ore.; and a number of other relatives.

Private memorial services will be conducted by the family at a later date. Arrangements are by the Weatherford Funeral Home & Crematory in Kalispell.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Montana, P.O. Box 2802, Great Falls 59403-2802.

DI

Doris Collier, 45

Jan 1989

Doris "Dee" Collier, 45, Marion, died Monday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born March 2, 1943, at Gorman, Texas, the daughter of Wilburn R. and Iweeta Atchley. At age 10, she came with her family to El Cajon, Calif., where she completed her education.

On Sept. 15, 1984, she married Randy Collier at Silverdale, Wash. They had lived in the Flathead Valley since September 1986. Mrs. Collier was employed as a cashier at the B&B restaurant in Kalispell.

She is survived by her husband, Randy, at the family home; three sons, Douglas Mink of Bremerton, Wash.; Alan Andrews of Seattle, Wash.; and Gary Andrews of Port Gamble, Wash.; one granddaughter and one grandson; her parents, Howard and Iweeta Harrington of Santee, Calif.; two sisters, Rhonda Pendleton of Santee and Brenda Minor of Anchorage, Alaska; one brother, Gene Brewer of Santee; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell with Rev. David Carnes, pastor of Agape Christian Church, officiating. Cremation has taken place at the Weatherford Crematory.

DI

Margaret D. Collier, 85

July 1989

Mrs. Margaret D. (Rock) Collier, 85, of Kalispell, died in Brendan House Thursday.

She was born Nov. 6, 1903, in MacIntosh, Minn., a daughter of Lars and Anna Nokieby. She was one of 12 children. She spent her early life in Minnesota, and in 1911, she moved to Galata, Mont., with her family, where they homesteaded.

In 1921, she was married to Leland Rock in Prosser, Wash. They later moved to the Flathead Valley, and Mr. Rock died March 6, 1961.

On Sept. 2, 1966, she was married to Max Collier in Kalispell and was preceded in death by him on Aug. 27, 1988. She attended the First Baptist Church.

She was also preceded in death by a son, Kenneth Rock.

She is survived by a son, Ronald Rock of Montrose, Colo.; a daughter,

Shirley Fetterhoff of Sumner, Wash.; a stepdaughter, Sandra Inabnit of Kalispell; nine grandchildren, Bill Fetterhoff of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Rick Fetterhoff of Kalispell, Laurie Safford of Sumner, Wash., Tami Rock and Bobby Rock of Montrose, Colo., Sharon Cuplin of Butte, Linda Gustafson of Alberton, John Inabnit of Kalispell and Chris Inabnit in the armed services; 12 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson, and several brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Kenneth Mottram, pastor of the first Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary from 1-5 p.m. today for visitation.

DI

Alma Collins, 70

Alma Collins, 70, died at Lake View Care Center in Bigfork this morning. 14 April 1989

Survivors include two sons, Allen Lieb, Libby, and Maurice Lieb, Columbia Falls.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

DI

Walter H. Conn, 86

Walter Harold Conn, 86, of Whitefish, died of natural causes Monday at Colonial Manor in Whitefish.

He was born June 27, 1903, in Rice Lake, Wis., the son of Harry and Leona Conn. He was raised in the Menominee, Wis., area until the age of 14, when his family came to Whitefish.

He had various jobs throughout his life, including a cook on a fishing boat in Alaska; the WPA in the Whitefish area; and the CCC at Fish Creek in Glacier National Park. He was primarily a boilermaker and brakeman for more than 43 years with the Great Northern Railroad, retiring in 1955.

On Jan. 1, 1930, he married Pearl Warwick in Havre and the couple made their home in Whitefish.

His hobbies were hunting and fishing. He was a member of the Episcopal Church, the Loyal Order of Moose No. 642 in Whitefish, and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

He was preceded in death by his wife Jean in 1976 and a son, Bill Conn in 1988. Survivors include a son, Vance Conn in Whitefish; a brother, Robert Conn in Kalispell; two granddaughters, Katy Conn in Whitefish and Janie Conn in Missoula.

Viewing will be from 12-6 p.m. Tuesday at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral chapel. Burial will follow at Whitefish Cemetery. Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish is in charge of arrangements.

DI

LaVerne E. 'Monty' Connor, 76

LaVerne E. "Monty" Connor, 76, of Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital on Wednesday.

He was born Oct. 23, 1912, in Waterberry, Neb., a son of Robert Lee and Louise Connor.

As a child he moved with his family to eastern Montana where he received his education.

He then worked as a cowboy and ranch hand, and during the World War II years worked in the shipyards in Seattle.

He then came to Kalispell where he operated his own second-hand shop "Connors Bargain Shop" for the last 45 years.

He loved life and his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

On July 22, 1923, he was married to Alice L. Smith in Chinook, and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by two sons, Lyle L. Connor of Marysville, Wash., and Bernard J. Connor of Sidney; one daughter, Jean Stafford of Kalispell; three brothers, Clarence of Columbia Falls, Robert and Donald Connor of Havre; two sisters, Gertrude Berg of Great Falls, and Frances Minnick of Havre; 10 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one son, Harold E. Connor, and five brothers, Ralph, Harvey, Lewis, Cecil and Richard.

Funeral services for Mr. Connor will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 tonight.

Funeral services for Mr. Connor will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 tonight.

Funeral services for Mr. Connor will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 tonight.

DI

MYRTLE COUSINEAU

Myrtle Webb Cousineau, 82, formerly of Kalispell, died at her home in Graham, WA on June 5, 1989.

She was born January 23, 1907 in WI, a daughter of Henry and Alice Webb. She has lived in WA for the past number of years.

She is survived by her husband, Lewis, of Graham, WA; two sons, Lewis of Columbia Falls and Bill of New Orleans, LA; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Graveside services were held at the Conrad Memorial cemetery. Friends met at the cemetery for the services.

DI

Lorena A. Cook, 89

Lorena A. Cook, 89, died Feb. 25 in Portland, Ore. 1989.

She moved with her family to Eureka in 1915 where she completed her education. She had lived in Portland since 1948.

She is survived by two daughters, including Beatrice McLaughlin, Kalispell, a sister, Pearl Larsen, Kalispell, and a brother.

Services and burial were Feb. 28 in Portland.

DI

Edward Countryman, 82

Edward C. Countryman, 82, of Eureka, died of natural causes Monday at Mountain View Manor.

He was born Oct. 18, 1906, in Dows, Iowa, to Charles and Clara Countryman. The family moved to Washington, where they lived in Kettle Falls, Chewelah and Addy.

On June 2, 1931, he married Anna Norman in Addy.

He came to Troy in 1949 and moved to Eureka in 1960. He operated a sawmill in Eureka and a restaurant in Rexford with his wife.

He was preceded in death by his wife in 1985 and a daughter, Alberta, in 1947.

Survivors include five sons,

Donald, Wichita, Kan.; Byron, Clark Fork, Idaho; Allen, Sagle, Idaho; George, Eureka; and Richard, Oregon City, Ore.; six daughters, Erna Carr, Apache Junction, Ariz.; Joan Basham, Homer, Alaska; Dora Eckhoff, Tigard, Ore.; Carol Mullen, Troy; Velma Trombly, Vancouver, Wash.; and Mattie Dickinson, Oregon City; a brother, Luke; and a sister, Millie Malley, both of Troy; 32 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be until 8 p.m. today at Vial Funeral Home in Eureka.

Services will be 3 p.m. PDT Thursday at the Addy Cemetery in Washington.

DI

WHITEFISH—Winifred Cox, 87,

of Whitefish, died Jan. 8 at the Immanuel Lutheran Home, Kalispell. She was born June 28, 1901, in Ely, Minn. At a young age she moved with her family to Four Lakes, Wash. After high school, she worked as a telephone operator for the Great Northern Railroad at the Spokane depot. She married Victor E. Gray in 1922 in Spokane and they settled in Whitefish in 1923. She was past worthy matron of the Eastern Star, and belonged to a number of other civic groups. Her husband died in 1975 and she moved to the Immanuel

DI

Gertrude Coutts, 77

Mrs. Gertrude M. Coutts, 77, formerly of Kalispell, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Thursday.

She was born May 25, 1911, in Renville County, N.D., a daughter of John and Clara Wigness. She attended Eden Valley School in Renville County.

On Feb. 25, 1935, she was married to Warren W. Coutts in Minot, N.D. In 1941, they moved to San Francisco, where Mr. Coutts was employed with the shipyards for three years. In 1944, they moved back to Sherwood, N.D., where they farmed. In 1970, they moved to Kalispell and lived here until two years ago, when they moved to Phoenix, Ariz., to be near their daughter.

Mrs. Coutts was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Nyle Wigness; and a sister, Nellie Wigness.

She is survived by her husband, Warren, presently in Kalispell Regional Hospital; a daughter, Candye Garner of Phoenix; a brother, Willard Wigness of Sherwood, N.D.; two granddaughters, Judith Ann and Patricia Lynn Garner, both of Phoenix; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Coutts will be at 11 a.m. Monday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Wayne Pris, pastor of the Eidsvold Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

DI

Pat Couvillion, 69

Pat Couvillion, 69, of Libby, died March 5 at St. John's Lutheran Hospital in Libby. 1989

He worked as a biologist and game warden in Lincoln County until 1956. He then operated an appliance repair shop and also sold motorcycles and automobiles.

He served in the Army in World War II, and was awarded the Silver Star.

Survivors include a son, Rocque, of Florence.

Services will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday in Libby Christian Church, with military honors to follow.

DI

Forrest L. Coverdell, 76

Forrest L. Coverdell, 76, of Kalispell, died in Lake View Care Center in Bigfork Wednesday morning.

He was born June 19, 1913, in Bigfork, a son of Leo O. and Ida Coverdell. He had attended Bigfork schools and had ranched at Bigfork.

On Oct. 18, 1934, he was married to Esther Swallow at Echo Lake. The couple continued to ranch at Bigfork until his retirement at the age of 45 years due to ill health. Following retirement, they spent winters in Quartzsite, Ariz., for over 20 years.

Mr. Coverdell had attended the Methodist church.

He is now survived by his wife, Esther, at the family home; two daughters, Beverly Josephson of Big Timber, and Shirley Arnold of Anchorage, Alaska; a brother, Floyd Coverdell of Bigfork; two sisters, Violet Nichols and Hazel Croskrey, both of Bigfork; two granddaughters, Lorri Whalen of Warrensburg, N.Y., and Terri Arnold of Huntington Beach, Calif.; three grandsons, Mark Josephson of Big Timber, Jon Josephson of Portland, Ore., and Joe Josephson, attending the University at Calgary, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Graveside services for Mr. Coverdell will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. Ron Pierce, pastor of the Swan Chapel, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Bigfork Quick Response Unit or to the charity of donor's choice.

Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 tonight and from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. Saturday.

DI

Ruth M. Covill, 80

Ruth M. Covill, 80, Columbia Falls, died Nov. 4 at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. 1989

She and her husband, Raymond, moved to Columbia Falls in 1972.

Survivors include her husband, Columbia Falls, and three sons.

Visitation will be until 6 p.m. today at Van Leuven Funeral Home.

Services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. Burial will be at Woodlawn Cemetery.

DI

Marjorie C. Crawford, 69

Marjorie C. Crawford, 69, died at her home in Dayton Monday.

She recently made two trips to the National Cancer Institute Research Center in Frederick, Md., as a volunteer in research, pioneering the use of experimental cancer treatments previously unused in humans.

She was born Aug. 31, 1919, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and married J.M. (Matt) Crawford in Ida Grove, Iowa, in 1943.

Their daughters, Ann Louise Howard, now of San Francisco, and Catharine C. Hultgren of Ida Grove, were both born in Iowa.

DI

Raymond Cowles

Memorial Mass for Raymond C. Cowles, 73, of Columbia Falls is 8:30 a.m. Monday at St. Richard's Catholic Church, Columbia Falls. Mr. Cowles, Major, USMC, Ret., died Monday at a Catholic home near Columbia Falls. 1989

He was born Dec. 10, 1915, in Woodhull, Ill. to Dr. George and Myrtle Cowles. He graduated from Notre Dame University as a mining engineer.

He enlisted in the Marine Corps and after electronics training at Harvard University and MIT, he served with the 3rd Marine Division and received a Marine Corps Commendation for bomb disposal duties. He later served with the 1st Marine Division in Korea as an engineering officer. He later worked in civil service for the Air Force and received an Air Force decoration for support of Vietnam operations.

In 1950, he married Eugenia O'Neill, a Butte native. He had lived at the Veterans Home the past few years.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Eugenia, on Dec. 17, 1988; two brothers and a sister.

Surviving are a son and daughter-in-law, Barry and Barbara Cowles, and granddaughters, Kathleen of Ocala, Fla., John of Iowa, and Robert of St. Louis, Mo.; two sisters, Kathleen Frysinger of Moline, Ill., and Mary Sacco of Rock Hill, S.C.

Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Van Leuven Funeral Home, Columbia Falls.

DI

Beverly Mae Crennen, 58

Beverly Mae Crennen, 58, of Bigfork and Lake Bluffs, Ill., died from an injury as a result of a traffic accident on the east shore of Flathead Lake Wednesday.

Private memorial services will be held later in Lake Bluffs, Ill.

15 Jun 1989

DI

Joan Crouch, 74

8 Nov 1989

Joan Crouch, 74, died in Cranbrook, B.C. Canada, Wednesday.

Survivors include her daughter, Julie Robinson of Kalispell.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Glacier Memorial Gardens with Dr. Charles F. Kriner, pastor of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Friends will meet at Johnson Mortuary and proceed to the cemetery.

DI

HUBERT CRIDER

Hubert E. Crider, 84, Whitefish, passed away April 11 at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. 1989

He was born April 8, 1905 in Dora, MO, a son of Luther J. and Carrie Crider.

He married Opal Lingle in Jordan, MT on August 19, 1929 and she preceded him in death October 31, 1970.

He is now survived by two daughters, Bonnie Frelich of Whitefish and Lorene Sergent of Glasgow; two sons, Lee of Pt. Orchard, WA and James of OH; 15 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held for Mr. Crider on Friday, April 14, at 1:00 p.m. at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Burial will be the following week in Glasgow.

DT

1989

BUTTE (AP) — Memorial Mass for Butte native and former Montana broadcaster Frank L. Crowley was Thursday in Claremont, Calif.

Crowley died Nov. 20 at a Pomona, Calif., hospital after suffering a heart attack. He was 59.

Crowley entered broadcasting after serving with the Navy during the Korean War, beginning as an announcer and broadcaster at radio KANA in Anaconda in 1954.

Over the years he held various positions at radio and television stations in Kalispell and Missoula. He bought radio station KQTE in Missoula in 1962 and changed its call letters to KYLT.

During the 1960s, Crowley was involved in acting and appeared as an extra and a stuntman in episodes of the television series "The High Chaparral."

Survivors include his wife, Sarah Crowley of Pomona; daughter Cam Seabury of Missoula; and son Frank P. Crowley of Spokane, Wash.

DI

Alison Verley Crossley, 73

NOTICE

Alison Verley Crossley, 73, died in Immanuel Lutheran Home on Thursday afternoon, 24 Aug 1989.

She was born May 14, 1916, in Decker, a daughter of Alfred and Pearl Verley. She began her education in Wyola and in 1925, moved with her family to Libby where they lived until 1930, when they moved to Kalispell.

On Oct. 13, 1943, she was married to Glen Crossley and they continued to live here until 1950. The couple then started picking fruit in various areas until 1970 when they moved to Wenatchee, Wash.

Mrs. Crossley was preceded in death by her husband, and in 1981 she returned to Kalispell. She has been in a nursing home for the past two years.

She was of the Baptist faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Dorothy Kirkland and Geneva Hemmer; and three brothers, Clifford, Alford "Stub" and Harold Verley.

She is now survived by one sister, Mable Harrison of Great Falls; one brother, Everett Verley of Kent, Wash.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Crossley will be held at 3 p.m. on Saturday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Chris Blackburn of the Bible Light Baptist Church officiating. Cremation will follow the services.

DI

Carlyle P. Crum, 89

1989

Carlyle P. Crum, 89, a former resident of Whitefish, died March 20 at his daughter's home in Sequim, Wash.

He was born June 17, 1899, in Jamestown, N.D., a son of James H. and Cora Crum. He moved to Bellingham, Wash., in 1906. He began coming to Whitefish in 1907 to visit his father who owned Crum's Cash Store at 217 Central Ave.

Mr. Crum was a veteran of World War I, serving in France. He spent most of his life in supervision and office management.

In 1956, he and his wife, Dorothy, moved to Whitefish. At this time he was in the payroll department at Glacier National Park headquarters. He then was appointed to the job of manager-secretary of the Whitefish Chamber of Commerce. He held this position for 7½ years until he was appointed city clerk for the City of Whitefish, a position he retired from in 1977. He moved to Sequim in 1978.

Mr. Crum was a Mason, being a 62-year member of Union Lodge No. 43 AF&AM in McMinnville, Ore. He was a member of Eastern Star, being a member of Vista Chapter No. 44, OES, Whitefish, and was on the board of the Order of Rainbow for Girls of the Whitefish Assembly for six years and was the first Rainbow Dad of the assembly.

He was past commodore of the Whitefish Lake Boat Club, a 70-year member of the American Legion, being a charter member of Roosevelt Post No. 108, Whitefish. He spent 31 years as a member of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, being bugler, bass drummer and drum major, 26 years in Bellingham and five years in Seattle. He was past president of the Washington Drum and Bugle Corps Association and a past member of the National Drum Majors Association.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy, in 1984. Mr. Crum is survived by one son, Dow Crum of Whitefish; a daughter, Gloria Mashburn of Sequim, Wash.; eight grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Ken Peterson of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will follow at Whitefish Cemetery with Masonic and military graveside rites.

Memorials have been suggested to the Whitefish Historical Society.

DI

Phyllis 'Kay' Curtis, 49

29 July 1989

Phyllis "Kay" Curtis, 49, died at her home in Bigfork on Saturday of a pulmonary embolus.

She was born Jan. 13, 1940, in Roundup, the only child born to Dave P. and Vera G. Wall. She had received her education in Roundup and had graduated from Roundup High School.

She was married to Gerald Turley and the couple had farmed and ranched in the Bull Mountains south of Musselshell. She was preceded in death by her husband, Gerald, in 1981.

On Dec. 23, 1988, she was married to Duane Curtis in Roundup and the couple have made their home in Bigfork since that time.

Mrs. Curtis was one of the founders of the Montana EMT group and was active in that group as well as active in EMT training in the Billings and Roundup hospitals. She had taught many CPR classes and worked many rodeos in the Roundup area.

She was a member of the Bigfork Rod and Gun Club and had been active in church and community activities.

She was preceded in death by her father, Dave Wall, in 1964, and is now survived by her husband, Duane Curtis, at the family home; six children, David, Dale and Danelle Turley, all of Roundup, Don Turley of Hysham, Dennis Turley of Midland, Texas, and Dianna Turley of Melstone; four step-children, Wade and Sanford Curtis, both of Bigfork, Craig Curtis of Deer Park, Wash., and Thiery Ewing of Coos Bay, Ore.; her mother, Vera Wall of Roundup; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Curtis will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday in the Little Brown Church at Bigfork with the Rev. Ron Pierce, pastor of the Swan Chapel, officiating. Following the services the body will be forwarded to the Wier Funeral Home in Roundup where services are being planned for Wednesday afternoon. Burial will be in the Musselshell Cemetery there.

Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 p.m. today.

The family suggests memorials to the Flathead Sheriff's Posse Scholarship Fund or the Bigfork Quick Response Unit.

DI

Edith E. Cusick, 73

13 Sept 1989

Edith E. Cusick, 73, Kallispell, died Wednesday at Brendan House of natural causes.

She was born March 7, 1916, at Shelby, the daughter of Douglas and Gertrude Parker. She spent most of her early life in the Sweetgrass area. Mrs. Cusick boarded at St. Matthew's School in Kallispell, and graduated from St. Matthew's High School in 1934.

She then worked at Toole County State Bank in Sweetgrass and later in the post office there for a short time.

On Dec. 28, 1935, she married Ed Cusick at Coutts, Alberta. They lived in Kallispell for a short time, and then moved to Coalinga for about nine years. They returned to Kallispell in 1945.

She was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Kallispell. Surviving are her husband of the family home in Kallispell; four sons, John E. Cusick, Gregory D. Cusick, Douglas M. Cusick, all of Kallispell, and Gary J. Cusick of Morena Valley, Calif.; one daughter, Jeanne M. Graham of Kallispell; one brother, James Parker of Shelby; one sister, Genevieve Thompson of West Glacier; 14 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and numerous other relatives.

Mrs. Cusick was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, and two sisters.

Friends may call at the Weatherford Funeral Home today until 7:30 p.m.

Rosary will be held at the Weatherford Chapel tonight at 8 p.m.

Mass of the Resurrection with the Rev. Edmund Smith as celebrant will be Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at St. Matthew's Catholic Church. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens.