

DI

VIOLA DALY

Viola Pearl Daly, 79, Kila, died May 9 of natural causes at Deaconess Hospital in Spokane, WA. 1989

She was born April 8, 1910 at Coal Creek, BC, the daughter of Andrew and Frances Burlingham.

She was married to Walt Colby, Jr., and they made their home in the Flathead Valley. They divorced eight years later. She later married Bill Gill, a Canadian citizen, and he died during World War II.

On November 1, 1951, she married John Daly in Kalispell.

Mrs. Daly was preceded in death by her husband, John Daly, in 1976; a daughter, Frances Knutson; a brother, Andrew Burlingham, Jr.; and a sister, Edith Bowers.

She is survived by her companion, Warren McCray, of Kila; one sister, Mrs. Howard (Ellen) Hume of Palm Springs, CA; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Burial followed at C.E. Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

WP

Fred Dark, 69 4 Jan 1989

Fred Dark, 69, of Whitefish, died at his home Wednesday.

He is survived by his wife Sherleigh at the family home in Whitefish; a daughter, Donna Frasher; and two sons, Lawrence Davis and Channing Nagel.

No services are planned at this time. Remembrances are suggested to the VFW. Cremation and arrangements are by Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. 8 Jan 1989

WP

Richard A. Damschen, 66

21 May 1989

Richard A. Damschen, age 66, Martin City, died Sunday at the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish of cancer.

He was born Nov. 23, 1922, in Fort Benton, to Roy and Myrtle M. Damschen. He was raised and educated in Havre, graduating with the Havre High School class of 1939.

In 1943, he joined the U.S. Navy and served until he was honorably discharged in 1946. He then moved to Poulso, Wash., and several years later moved to Bremerton, Wash., and was employed in the U.S. Navy shipyards there until he retired in 1980. In 1982, he moved to Martin City to reside.

He was a member of the Bremerton Eagles and enjoyed bowling, shuffleboard and fishing.

He was married to Ruth M. Keene on July 27, 1946, in Chinook, and is now survived by her at their home in Martin City.

Other survivors include three daughters, Alana Woolard and Jacqueline Widman, both of Tacoma, Wash., and Ginny Howard of Silverdale, Wash.; four sons, Robert McGraw of Tempe, Ariz., Gary Damschen of Hungry Horse, William Damschen of Silverdale, Wash., Jaimie Damschen of Bremerton, Wash.; three brothers, Roy Damschen of Havre, Robert Damschen of Big Sandy, and Don Damschen of Poulso, Wash.; 14 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

He was preceded in death by one son, Richard A. Damschen Jr. in 1968.

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Ralf Kalms, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church of Whitefish, officiating. Cremation has taken place. Ashes will be buried at the Forest Lawn Cemetery in Bremerton, Wash., later this week.

TVN

Sam Dasios, 58

29 June 1989

Sam Dasios, 58, of Troy, died Thursday evening at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane, Wash.

He was born June 11, 1931, at Agiatrias, Greece, the son of Chrisostomos Panagiota Dasios.

He spent his early childhood in Greece, serving in the Greek army at the age of 15. He came to America at the age of 17, then coming to Troy, where he had attended high school.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1954 to 1956. Following his honorable discharge he returned to the Troy area where he had been employed by the J. Neils Lumber Co. and later the St. Regis Paper Co. He later engaged in independent logging contracting and also in real estate.

He married Fotula Diamanti in March of 1979 at Troy.

He had been a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is survived by his wife Fatula of Troy; two sons, Jim Dasios, of Troy, and Chris Dasios, living in Greece; a brother, Konstantinos Dasios, also residing in Greece; and one grandchild.

Services will be conducted Monday at 11 a.m. at the Troy United Methodist Church with Rev. Derf Bergman officiating. Burial with military honors will follow at Milnor Lake Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home.

WP

Jim 'Shorty' Davenport, 81

27 March 1989

Jim "Shorty" Davenport, 81, Kalispell, died Monday of natural causes at the Colonial Manor in Whitefish.

He was born Dec. 21, 1907, at Soldiers Grove, Wis. He was raised and educated near Soldiers Grove.

In 1933, he married Martha Isler in Illinois, and they farmed in northern Wisconsin. She preceded him in death in 1936.

Mr. Davenport moved to the Kalispell area in 1950, and worked in logging for many years.

He is survived by one daughter, Rose D. Arnoux and her husband, Donald, in Post Falls, Idaho; three grandchildren, James D. Arnoux of Salem, Ore.; Randy L. Bronson of Whittier, Calif. and Tina Malkuch of Kalispell; four great-grandchildren; two brothers, Jay Davenport and his wife, Priscilla, of Columbia Falls, and Sam Davenport and his wife, Mary, of Madison, Wis.; one sister, Mae Fisher of Milwaukee, Wis.; a son-in-law, Lee Bronson of Kalispell; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Columbia Falls, with James Durham officiating.

Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home & Crematory in Kalispell.

HHN

Dan Andrew Davis, 84

Dan Andrew Davis, 84, died Wednesday evening of natural causes at his home near Kalispell. Nov 1989

He was born July 28, 1905, at Grand Park, Minn., the son of Andrew and Dora Davis. He was raised and educated in Minnesota, then became a trapper as a young man.

In 1932, he married Ruth Evelyn Nyggard in Minnesota, and they lived in Minnesota and Wisconsin until moving to Anacortes, Wash., in 1936, where he was employed at a pulp mill. Mrs. Davis passed away in 1938.

Mr. Davis moved to Monroe, Wash., in about 1940, where he worked as a choke setter for Stanley Crowell Logging. He came to Kalispell in 1965, and worked as a fire boss for the U.S. Forest Service for the next 16 years.

Mr. Davis was still an active trapper, and trapped each year in the Twin Bridges and Three Forks areas. He was a life member of the National Trappers Association, and memorial contributions are suggested to that organization.

He is survived by a son, Rolland D. Davis, of Burlington, Wash.; a daughter, Marlene Nettle of Everett, Wash.; two sisters, Myrtle Stratton of Columbia Falls, and Eva Green of Edmunds, Wash.; a brother, Billy Davis of Fort Wayne, Ind.; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell with the Rev. C. Fred Crowe officiating. Memorial services will also take place in western Washington. Urn burial will take place at Grand View Cemetery in Anacortes.

X DAVIS

A Polson woman and her 3-month-old son died at 7:30 p.m. Saturday when the vehicle she was driving left Montana 35 near Polson, rolled down a bank and struck a tree. The patrol said the victims were Terry Anne Davis, 20, and her son, Lenny.

X

Vella Deaver, 82

14 July 1989

Vella Deaver of Bigfork, 82, died Friday at Kallispell Regional Hospital after a brief illness.

She was born Feb. 28, 1907, at the family farm on Irish Ridge near Viroqua, Wis., to Albert and Anna Peterson. She was raised and educated in rural Viroqua.

On May 20, 1949, she married Harry A. Deaver in Waukon, Iowa, and they farmed for several years near Viola, Wis. The Deavers then lived in Mesa, Ariz., for about 22 years, and had lived in Bigfork for the past 13 years.

Mrs. Deaver is survived by her husband, Harry, at the family home; a son, Lyle Jeffries of Butler, Mo.; two daughters, Delores Newbauer of Melbourne, Fla., and Betty Jane Grim of Viola; a brother, Lawrence Peterson of Viroqua; 11 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; an infant son, Donald; an infant daughter, Rose; brothers Oscar, Albin, Willis and Clarence Peterson; and sisters Alma Christenson, Jennie Peterson and Millie Clemmets.

Weatherford Funeral Home in Kallispell has forwarded the remains to Thorson Funeral Home in Viroqua.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at Thorson Funeral Home Chapel, with burial at Viroqua Cemetery.

HHN

LAURA DECKER

Laura G. Decker, 47, passed away February 7 at her home near Columbia Falls. 1989

She was born December 7, 1941 in Forsythe, to Jack and Mary Winters.

She was married to Calvin L. Decker on September 27, 1959 in Wallace, ID. They lived in Glendive, MT until moving to Columbia Falls three years ago.

She was preceded in death by her father.

She is survived by her husband, Cal, of Columbia Falls; one daughter, Shanda, of Columbia Falls; seven sons, Kevin of Fallon, NV, Clint, Shawn, Shane, Brent, Rocky, and Justin of Columbia Falls; her mother, Mary Winters, of Columbia Falls; two sisters, Doris Guenther of Columbia Falls and Lucille Hobbs of Great Falls; two brothers, Bill Winters of Hungry Horse and Jack Winters of Alaska; one grandson, Zane Decker, of Columbia Falls; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service was held at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Cremation has taken place.

The family has suggested that memorials be made to a trust fund being set up for the children.

TVN

Doris I. DeLong, 76

Doris Irene DeLong, 76, Fortine, died Monday evening at North Valley Hospital. 27 FEB 1989

She was born and raised in Oklahoma.

Her husband, Clyde, died in 1987. She moved to Montana in 1988 and lived with her in-laws, Helen and Jim DeLong.

She is survived by the DeLongs and a brother and a sister.

Private burial will be in Valley of the Sun Memorial Park, Chandler, Ariz.

TVN
Donald Denison Jr., 42

1989
Donald I. Denison Jr., 42, died June 18 of injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident near Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

He was a miner and was working near Kellogg, Idaho, at the time of his death.

Survivors include a daughter, Corina, a son, Donald, and his mother, Opal Tallmudge, all of Troy; his father; and four sisters, including Darlene Nicolass, Troy.

Services are 2 p.m. today at Troy Church of God. Burial will be at Milner Lake Cemetery.

KN

William A. Denton, 90

William A. Denton, 90, of Litchfield, Conn., died Sept. 16 in Brendan House. 1989

He was born Oct. 26, 1898, in Brooklyn, N.Y., the son of John and Charlotte Denton. He was educated in local schools.

He worked for the Boy's Athletic League and the Girl's Vacation Fund of New York City. Mr. Denton supervised the summer activities of both organizations. He retired in October 1963.

He was married to the former Sylvia Thompson and she preceded him in death in 1980.

He was an active member of the Litchfield Congregational Church of Litchfield, Conn.

He is survived by one daughter, Arline McCleary of Kalispell; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; two sisters, Charlotte Stern and Sadie Schnetzer, both of Port Jefferson, Long Island, N.Y., and one brother, Theodore Denton of Stuart, Fla.

Private family burial was made in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family wishes any memorials be made to Flathead Hospice.

X
Norma Derflinger, 70

19 June 1989
Norma Ballard Derflinger, 70, Bigfork, died Monday morning at a relative's home in Bigfork.

Survivors include her sister, Sally Cory of Bigfork, and two daughters.

No local services are planned. Cremation has taken place.

KN

Glen T. Dern, 81

18 Aug 1989

Glen T. Dern, 81, West Valley, died Friday of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Aug. 10, 1908, in Belmont, Kan., the son of George and Amelia Dern. At the age of 6, he moved with his parents to Kalispell. He received his education at Prospect Park School.

On Sept. 27, 1954, he married Halbertha Locken in Kansas, and they made their home in the West Valley area. Mrs. Dern died in 1985.

Due to poor health, he made his home at the Flathead County Care Center for the past four years.

Mr. Dern is survived by a brother, Clifford Dern of Kalispell; a sister, Mrs. Ray (Vera) Clark of Cozad, Neb.; five nieces; three nephews; and a number of other relatives and friends.

He was also preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, two dying in infancy.

Friends may call at Weatherford Funeral Home Tuesday from noon until 7 p.m.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Weatherford Chapel. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

X

Andrew Diemunsch

Andrew Scott Diemunsch, 2-month-old son of Charles and Nancy Diemunsch of Libby, died of sudden infant death syndrome May 26, 1989

He is survived by his parents and several grandparents.

Services are 2 p.m. today at Vial funeral Home. Burial will be at City of Libby Cemetery.

TVN

Harold Arne Diesen, 76

18 Sept 1989

Harold Arne Diesen, 76, Kalispell, died Monday evening of natural causes at his Kalispell home.

He was born Oct. 29, 1912, in Benson County, N.D., the son of Carl and Anne Diesen. He was raised and educated near Jamestown and Devils Lake, N.D. Mr. Diesen farmed and worked as a blacksmith in his youth, and then became an automobile mechanic.

On Jan. 18, 1937, he married Ella Swenson at Stoney Lake, N.D., and they lived at Devils Lake until coming to Montana in 1951. After seven years in Glasgow, the Diesens spent three years in Whitefish and several years in Eureka before moving to Kirkland, Wash. They retired and moved to Kalispell about 10 years ago.

Mr. Diesen had been active at the Kalispell Senior Citizens Center, and attended both Stillwater Free Lutheran Church and Northridge Lutheran Church.

He is survived by his wife, Ella, at the family home; five sons, Carl and Harlan, both of Kirkland, Lee of Federal Way, Wash., Wayne of Usk, Wash., and Harold Jr. of Missoula; one daughter, Mrs. Ted (Ina) Clarke of Kalispell; two sisters, Gina Olson of Kirkland, and Signe McGuire of Granite Falls, Minn.; two brothers, Albert of Farmington, Minn., and Norman of Wolf Point; 18 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Friends may call at the Weatherford Funeral Home until 7 tonight and Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., after which the casket will remain closed.

Funeral services will be Friday at 2 p.m. at the Weatherford Chapel with the Rev. Randall Nicolai, pastor of Northridge Lutheran Church, officiating. Cremation will follow the services.

KN

Nancy Madison Dillon, 61

Nancy Madison Dillon, 61, of Kalispell and Sun City, Ariz., died Nov. 15 in Sun City, 1989

She was born Aug. 15, 1928, in Vandalia, Ill.

She lived in Kelso, Wash., from 1951 until 1978, when she moved to Arizona. She lived in Kalispell six months out of the year and in Sun City six months.

She was proprietor of an upholstery shop.

She was past president of the Ladies of the Elks Lodge in Kelso, Wash.; vice president of the Tam O'Shanter Park Organization Committee; and attended the Presbyterian church.

Survivors include her close friend, Clifton Dillon of Kalispell and Sun City; her mother, Beulah Covey of Tacoma, Wash.; a daughter, Vickie Markancek of Sacramento, Calif.; two sons, Ronald Madison of Kelso, Wash., and Terry Madison of Anchorage, Alaska; two brothers, Frank Bates of Olympia, Wash., and Chester Bates of Puyallup, Wash.; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be Monday at 1 p.m. at Dahl's Ditlevsen-Moore Funeral Home in Kelso with the Rev. John Steppert officiating. Interment will be at Cowlitz View Memorial Gardens.

Memorials are suggested to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 1, Longview, Wash.

Dahl's Ditlevsen-Moore Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

KN

Herman J. 'Swede' Disrud, 67

Herman J. "Swede" Disrud, 67, died of cancer at the Jacobson Memorial Hospital in Elgin, N.D., on Nov. 29.

Born in Shields on April 13, 1922, to Mike and Ruth (Dybing) Disrud, this longtime cowboy and cattleman attended school until joining the Navy in 1942. It was during his tour of duty through 1946, that Mr. Disrud acquired the nickname "Swede."

Mr. Disrud and his wife, Helen (Moss) Disrud, who survives at the family home in Flasher, were married in April 1945. After discharge from the Navy, the Disruds moved to Jacksonville, Ill., and farmed for 10 years before moving to Kalispell where they spent 14 years.

They returned to Flasher in 1969, where Mr. Disrud was in the John Deere Implement dealership for several years. They have spent the past 12 winters in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. Disrud was a member of the Royal Arch 3 Masons in Jacksonville, Ill.; a member of the Scottish Rites of Bismarck; served as master of AF&AM 106 Lodge in Flasher; and was a member of the American Legion Post 69 in Flasher.

Besides his wife, Helen, Mr. Disrud is survived by a daughter and son-in-law, Mary Lou and Richard Stevens, Glendale, Ariz.; a sister, Mrs. Herb (Agnes) Rodenbough of Flasher; one brother, Al of Waverly, Iowa. There are four nephews and two nieces.

Preceding him in death were his parents; one brother, Henry; and a son, Michael, who passed away in 1987.

Memorial services were Dec. 4 at Flasher High School Gymnasium with Pastor Anne West officiating. Private interment was at the Fairhill Cemetery in Flasher.

KN

Alice M. Ditsworth, 100

Alice M. Ditsworth, 100, Kalispell, died in Immanuel Lutheran Home on Thursday morning 21 April 1989

She was born July 17, 1888, near DeKalb, Ill., a daughter of James and Eva Cruikshank.

As a child she moved with her parents to Algona, Iowa, and graduated from Algona High School in 1909. She later attended Cornell College in Iowa.

She taught school at Lakota, Iowa, as well as rural schools surrounding Algona, Iowa.

On Feb. 16, 1918, she and John Ditsworth were married and farmed near Algona until 1939, when they were forced to retire due to his poor health. During this marriage three children were born: Margaret (Lykins) Brown of Kalispell, and two sons, Robert Ditsworth of Renton, Wash., and Dr. Richard Ditsworth of Tempe, Ariz.

She enjoyed her 10 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

She became a widow on July 14, 1946, and continued to live at Algona, Iowa, until 1968. She made her home with her daughter and husband until April, 1980, when she entered Immanuel Lutheran Home.

During this time she traveled extensively around the United States. One of the highlights of her life was in 1969, at age 81, when she visited Cavan County, Ireland. This is where her father lived until he was 21, and in 1873 immigrated to America.

In addition to her family, her main interests were reading, traveling, corresponding, music, keeping current on the news, and her many close friends. Because of her very cheerful disposition and bright outlook toward life, everyone enjoyed her company.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, three brothers and one sister. She is now survived by her daughter and two sons, grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ditsworth will be held at 3 p.m. on Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marshall Moen, Immanuel Lutheran Home chaplain, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials to Immanuel Lutheran Home. Friends may call at the funeral home for visitation until 8 tonight.

WP

GROVER DOOLEY

Grover C. Dooley, 93, a long time Whitefish resident, passed away in Seattle, WA on January 28, 1989

He was born October 28, 1895 in Jerome, IA and spent his early years as a coal miner before coming to Whitefish in 1915. He went to work for The Great Northern Ry. Co. and after 50 years of service he retired as a conductor.

On October 25, 1918, he married Mable Phillips in Columbia Falls. She preceded him in death in 1969. He married Ettamae Norgren in 1974 at Anaheim, CA and she preceded him in death in 1978. He was also preceded in death by a daughter, Arlabelle, in 1923; a granddaughter, Shirlee Jane Newman, in 1973; five brothers; and one sister.

Survivors include his son, Clayton, Seattle, WA; two daughters, Gwendolyn A. Newman, Whitefish and Amarylis Hiebert, Missoula; a foster daughter, Rosemary Purcell, Portland, OR; and one sister, Marie Olson, Ottumwa, IA.

Cremation has taken place. Memorial services will be at 1 p.m. on March 4 at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish.

The family will be at 816 Park Ave., Whitefish, after 4:30 p.m., after the services are held.

A memorial has been established at The Stump Town Historical Society in The Great Northern Section at Whitefish. Memorials can be sent to P.O. Box 97, Whitefish, MT 59937.

DI

Alice B. Donner, 92

1989

Alice Bertha Donner, 92, a former Kalispell resident, died June 29 at a Myrtle Creek, Ore., hospital.

She had lived most of her life in Kalispell, but had live with her daughter, Irene Dalziel, Myrtle Creek, for the past two years after suffering a stroke.

At her request, there will be no funeral services.

DI

Adele Doughan, 65

Sister Adele Marie (Damian) Doughan, 65, died at Sacred Heart Convent, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on Sunday, 19 MARCH 1989

She had been a teacher at St. Matthew's School, Kalispell, and was a teacher at St. Joseph School, DeWitt, at the time of her death.

Survivors include her mother and two sisters.

Services were Wednesday at Sacred Heart Chapel. Burial was at Mount Calvary Cemetery.

WP

William 'Bill' Donsbach Sr., 89

26 July 1989

William "Bill" Donsbach Sr., 89, of Whitefish, died Wednesday at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

He was born Jan. 25, 1900, in Argenthal, Germany, a son of Adolf and Katherina Donsbach. He was raised and educated in Germany and graduated from the University of Heidelberg with a degree in law.

At the age of 29, he moved to Whitefish where he was one of the original pioneers of the upper Stillwater River.

He homesteaded and raised dairy cows and contracted with the Great Northern Railroad in cutting posts and ties.

Mr. Donsbach started the Stillwater Timber Company and was president of the corporation until the time of his

He married Katherina Baumgarten in Whitefish on Feb. 19, 1931, and she preceded him in death on May 1, 1972.

He was active in the Grange and was past master of the Bissell Grange. He was a director of the Lincoln Electric Co-op for 27 years and was a past 4-H leader.

He is now survived by his cousin at the family home, Hugo Walter; two sons, William Jr. of Whitefish, and Kurt of San Diego, Calif.; one brother and three sisters, all of Germany; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated Saturday at 10 a.m. at St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens, Kalispell.

Rosary will be recited tonight at 7:30 at Austin Funeral Home Chapel in Whitefish.

Arrangements are under the direction of Austin Funeral Home.

HHN

Paul Dowler, 72

Paul Dowler, 72, died Thursday morning at his home near Columbia Falls, 3 Aug 1989

He was born July 2, 1917, in Duluth, Minn.; to James and Bernice Dowler. He was raised and educated in northern Minnesota. He attended two years of college following his graduation.

He served in the Army Air Force from April 1942 to November 1945.

In 1946, he moved to Columbia Falls where he worked for Superior Builders. In time, Mr. Dowler was promoted to general manager. He later became part-owner of Superior Lumber Company with Fran Guest. He retired in 1983.

He was married to his wife, Rita, in 1984 in Kalispell.

He was a longtime member of Hoo Hoo International, an avid sportsman, bowler and golfer.

He is preceded in death by his parents, one sister, an infant daughter, and his wife, Ruth, in 1982.

He is survived by his wife, Rita, at the family home; two sisters, Marabelle Blessing of Longmont, Colo., and Beatrice Thomson of West Covina, Calif.; one brother, Dick Dowler of Columbia Falls; a brother-in-law, Reynold Theno of Little Falls, Minn.; his stepmother, Lucille Dowler of Park Rapids, Minn.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Howard Hunter, of the United Methodist Church, will officiate. Cremation has taken place.

The family has suggested memorials to the Northwest Humane Society or the Flathead Animal Shelter.

KN

Florence E. Doyle, 75

Florence E. Doyle, 75, of Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital on Sunday morning, Dec. 31, of natural causes.

She was born May 19, 1914, in Matawan, N.J., a daughter of Monmouth and Elizabeth Hughes. She was a graduate of the Matawan High School in New Jersey.

On July 12, 1936, she was married to Harold Doyle in West Keansburg, N.J. They raised their children there and later made their home in Barrington, N.H.

Mrs. Doyle had worked as an accountant prior to her retirement.

Following the couple's retirement, they moved to Kalispell.

Mrs. Doyle is survived by her husband, Harold, in North Valley Hospital Extended Care Unit in Whitefish; her three daughters, Shirley Short of Brunswick, Maine, Noele Clews of Potomac, N.H., and Toren McCarthy of Kalispell; her mother, Elizabeth Hughes in New Hampshire; a brother, Arnold Hughes, and a sister, Elsie Dolson, both in Alabama; and her grandchildren, Sonia, Eric and Marty Voskuil, Natasha and Christiana Clews and Madison and Logan Hutchin.

Funeral services for Mrs. Doyle will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

KN

Henry T. Duffy, 83

Henry T. Duffy, 83, of Kalispell, died on Friday, Dec. 29, in Mesa, Ariz. He was born Aug. 13, 1906, in Anaconda, the son of Edward and Eva Duffy. On Nov. 1, 1928, he was married to Anona E. Smyth, and they had been married over 61 years.

Mr. Duffy had been a bus driver for the Intermountain Bus Company for 37½ years prior to his retirement.

He had served on the Kalispell City Council.

He was a member of Central Christian Church and had served as an elder of the church. He was a member of Kalispell Masonic Lodge No. 42 AF&AM, and had served as past master, past commander and past high priest. He was also a past worthy patron of Adah Chapter No. 17, Order of the Eastern Star, and past exalted ruler of the Kalispell Elks Lodge.

He is now survived by his wife, Anona, at home; one son, George Duffy and wife, Karen, of Laguna Niguel, Calif.; three granddaughters, Kristi Larken of Riverside, Calif., Shellie Madison of Sunnyside, Calif., and Marci Canip of Laguna, Calif.; two grandsons, Patrick Duffy of Bullhead City, Ariz., and Mitch Duffy of Mesa, Ariz.; two great-granddaughters and six great-grandsons.

Funeral services for Mr. Duffy will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday in Central Christian Church with the Rev. Jim Simpson officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens where ritualistic Masonic rites will be conducted by Kalispell Masonic Lodge No. 42 AF&AM. Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 p.m. today.

WP

Carl Wilhelm 'Bill' Dukleth, 83

Carl Wilhelm "Bill" Dukleth, 83, a familiar figure in Whitefish for six decades, died Monday afternoon in North Valley Hospital, a month after falling on the sidewalk near his apartment in Mountain View Manor. He had been in the hospital since.

He was the last remaining child of nine born to Oluf and Ellen Dukleth, prominent pioneer residents of the Flathead Valley.

He was born March 2, 1906, in Hendrum, Minn. In 1907, the family moved to a farm in the Lower Valley, south of Kalispell.

Mr. Dukleth was graduated from Flathead County High School in 1926.

Except for the time he spent on jobs in Spokane and Seattle, where he was a shipyard welder in World War II, he lived nearly all his life in the valley. For 12 years he cut poles and made posts on land he owned on the Stillwater River west of Whitefish.

He also raised strawberries and apples at the home he shared with his mother on West Second Street.

Mr. Dukleth was a close follower of the Whitefish and Kalispell athletic teams and of major league baseball.

The youngest in the family, he was preceded in death by his sisters, Mrs. Ed (Emma) Grinde, Mrs. Ed (Ann) Harris and Mrs. Gustave (Olga) Tungseth, and his brothers, Oscar, Martin, Gustave, John and Alvin.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews, including Marjorie Grinde of Kalispell, and Edna Kelch, Owen Dukleth and Owen Grinde of Whitefish.

Austin Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Rev. Raif Kalms, associate pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, will conduct memorial services at 11 a.m. Saturday in Mountain View Manor, 100 East Fourth St.

Memorial donations may be made to Christ Lutheran Church in Whitefish.

KN

Harley Wayne Dunham, 61

Harley Wayne Dunham, 61, died at his home in Kalispell on Saturday evening. 16 Sept 1989

He was born Sept. 15, 1928, in Kalispell, the son of Selmer J. and Agnes A. Dunham. He had attended Kalispell schools and was also a graduate of the University of Montana in Missoula.

He had worked for Ferguson Shoes for a time. In 1948, he entered the U.S. Navy where he served until receiving his honorable discharge in 1952.

He had been employed with Engebretson Gravel Company for a time and was then manager of the Kalispell Lumber Company for 23 years until it was sold. He was then bookkeeper-accountant for the Gene Lenz Construction, and later worked for Norco Gas Company until his retirement.

He is now survived by his wife, Leona Dunham of Arlee; a son, Michael A. Dunham of Kalispell; a daughter, Nancy Dunham of Missoula; his mother, Agnes A. Dunham at the Immanuel Lutheran Home in Kalispell; a brother, Stanford Dunham of Boise, Idaho; a grandson, Harley Coates of Kalispell, and four nephews.

Funeral services for Mr. Dunham will be held at 10 a.m. on Thursday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary until 7 tonight for visitation.

The family suggests memorials be made to Immanuel Lutheran Home.

KN

Ina Mae Durham, 73

3 April 1989

Ina Mae Durham, 73, died at her home in Kalispell on Monday evening.

She was born May 14, 1915, in Glasgow, a daughter of David B. and Cora A. Siddens.

She was a graduate of the Hinsdale High School, Hinsdale.

On Nov. 28, 1935, she was married to Curtis M. Durham in Glasgow.

In 1936, the couple moved to Kalispell and made their home here since that time.

Mrs. Durham was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Curtis, on July 26, 1982, and is now survived by six daughters, Carrol Norman of Kent, Wash., Margaret McCubbins of Kenai, Alaska, Joan Hall of Flora Vista, N.M., Denise Woodward and Marilyn Johnston, both of Orem, Utah, and Laurie Scott of Las Vegas, Nev.; one brother, Eugene Siddens of Duvall, Wash.; 35 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Durham will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints with Bishop Don Garner officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary until 8 tonight for visitation.

KN

Raymond 'Bud' Durtsche, 62

16 Aug 1989

Raymond Harold "Bud" Durtsche, 62, of Kalispell, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Wednesday morning.

He was born May 7, 1927, in Minot, N.D., a son of Edward and Mabel Durtsche. He received his education in Wyoming, and on Aug. 16, 1945, he entered the U.S. Army at Ft. Douglas, Utah. He served until receiving his honorable discharge on Jan. 16, 1947, at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He returned to Montana and engaged in woods work in the Flathead for a time. He was then employed as a truck driver for several trucking firms, including City Transfer and Mayflower, and retired from Valley Transfer and Storage.

He was a member of the local Teamsters union. He was an avid fisherman and hunter.

On June 7, 1947, he was married to Betty Morgan in Kalispell and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by two sons, James and Gerald Durtsche, both of Kalispell; a brother and sister in California; two half brothers, Francis Major of Swan Lake and Lawrence Major of Portland; a stepsister, Nina Major of Portland; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services for Mr. Durtsche will be at 1 p.m. Monday in Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for services. They may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 1-4 p.m. today.

D1
Lucille Dutton, 72

Lucille Dutton, 72, died of heart failure Dec. 18 at St. John Lutheran Hospital, Libby. 1987

She was born in Bigfork to William and Nancy Simpson, raised and educated there, and moved to Libby in 1937.

She is survived by two daughters; two sons, Ed and Merritt, both of Libby; three sisters, Bonnie Lebert and Vera Ballanger, both of Kalispell, and Edith Pival, Libby.

Services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at Libby Assembly of God Church. Burial will be at City of Libby Cemetery.

IDA C. DYER

HHN
Area deaths

Word has been received of the death of former Columbia Falls resident Ida C. Dyer, 89, on Feb. 7, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. She was born Dec. 21, 1899, on the family homestead near the Half Moon school, a daughter of Marietta and Landon Dyer. She attended Half Moon School until the family moved to Havre after the death of her mother. She completed high school in Havre and then attended Iowa State College, majoring in engineering. After the death of her father in 1922 she quit engineering school and taught school at Coram, Havre and Fish Trap near Dillon. She then attended the University of California at Berkeley, finishing in the late 1930s. When World War II started, she worked in the defense industry until joining the WACs. After her discharge she worked for the Veterans Administration at Long Beach, Calif. until she retired. She was preceded in death by her parents, and four brothers. She is survived by one sister, Eathel Cullen, Butte, and several nephews and nieces.

Cremation has taken place and burial of the cremains in Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls will take place at a later time.

TVN
Donald Z. Dutton, 64

TROY — Donald Z. Dutton, 64, of Bull Lake, died of cancer Wednesday at the Kootenai Medical Center in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Mar. 1987

He was born in Libby and raised and educated there. He served as a finance director for the Department of Energy in Richland, Wash., retiring in 1981. He and his wife moved to Bull Lake in 1982.

Survivors include his wife of Bull Lake; a daughter; three sons; a sister; and three brothers, Lovell Dutton, Merritt Dutton and Dick Dutton, all of Libby.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Libby United Methodist Church with the Rev. Robert Foote officiating. Burial with military graveside honors was at the City of Libby Cemetery.

M
Gladys M. Dygert, 86

3 June 1987
Gladys M. Dygert, 86, formerly of Kalispell, died in the Riverside Health Care Center in Missoula on Saturday.

She was born March 12, 1903, in Kalispell, a daughter of James and Fannie Walter. She had attended Kalispell schools and was a graduate of Flathead County High School.

She was married to John Keller in Kalispell, and they had farmed for several years. She was later divorced.

On Oct. 14, 1961, she was married to Morris Dygert in Kalispell. Mrs. Dygert had owned and operated Lee's Truck Stop Cafe for several years.

She had been a member of the Northwest Country Club and the Central Christian Church.

She is now survived by her husband, Morris, in Missoula; two stepdaughters, Ann Severson of Missoula, and Dolores Fishel of Kalispell; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews including Bonnie Ulrich and Jim and Dick Walter, all of Kalispell.

She was preceded in death by her parents and five brothers.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dygert will be held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. George Tolman, pastor of Central Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.