Helen M. Dresen, 78

Helen Meta Dresen, 78, of Kalispell, died Friday at Kalispell Regional Hospital, following an illness with cancer. 18 Aug 1990

She was born Aug. 16, 1911, in Newport, Wash., to Arthur and Olga Griffin. Her father was a railroad agent and telegrapher, and the family lived in nearly every whistlestop between Spokane and Havre.

She attended school in Rudyard, Inverness, Wisdom, and then Kalispell from 1922 on, except for a year in Lewistown.

On Oct. 14, 1930, she married Pete Dresen, a rancher in the Big Hole Basin. They bought a ranch near Marion in 1933 and lived there until 1938. They sold that ranch and bought one along the Canadian border between Babb and Del Bonita. They raised purebred Columbia sheep until World War II made it hard to hire ranch hands. After 1943, the Dresens raised purebred Hereford cattle. They also raised horses and farmed several hundred acres of grain.

After Pete died of cancer in 1952, Helen leased the ranch and moved to Dillon, where she graduated from Western Montana College in 1956 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education. She was then hired as an English teacher and librarian at Cut Bank High School. During summers, she worked toward a master's degree in librarianship at the University of Washington, graduating in 1963.

From 1967-1974, she was at Montana State University in Bozeman under a joint appointment to the University library and the College of Education. She returned to Cut Bank High School in 1974, and retired in 1976. She later moved to the Flathead Valley, living in Lakeside and then Kalispell since 1986.

She had many hobbies and interests, including reading, painting, snowshoes, snowmobiling, photography, birdwatching, exploring country roads, gardening, knitting and crocheting, and spending time with her grandchildren.

She was a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Cut Bank, and belonged to the P.E.O. Sisterhood in Cut Bank, Bozeman, and Kalispell. In 1986, she served on the steering committee that organized the statewide Friends of Montana Libraries, and was also active in the Crimestoppers program in recent years.

She was also a member of the Montana Library Association, Phi Kappa Delta honorary in Bozeman, Delta Kappa Gamma honorary in Kalispell, the Audubon Society in Bigfork, and the A.A.U.W. She was active in Eidsvold Lutheran Church in Somers, and enjoyed making quilts for World Relief.
