1990 Adam E. Funk, 78

Adam E. Funk, 78, died Nov. 15 at St. Luke's Nursing Home in Ronan following a long illness.

He was born Oct. 31, 1912, at St. Ignatius, the son of Edward and Lucy Funk. His family moved back to the family homestead in the Lower Valley when he was a youngster, and he lived the rest of his life in the Flathead Valley.

On Nov. 4, 1933, he married Alma Bruch.

Surviving family members include his wife at the family home in Kalispell; three sons, Ed of Ronan, Roy of Juneau, Alaska, Chuck of Yakima, Wash.; a daughter, Eloise Harris of Villa Park, Calif.; one brother, Oscar of Georgetown, Calif.; two sisters, Velda Johnson and Anna Johnson, both of Kalispell; 12 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one sister, Ruby Brown; two brothers, Ken and Tom; and a grandson, Mark.

Mr. Funk was well-known as a horseman and teamster. In 1942, he began working as a packer for the U.S. Forest Service out of Schaffer Ranger Station.

In 1957, he received from the Forest Service a "Certificate of Merit," the first such award ever given a packer, when he was temporarily transferred to the Swan District because he was the only packer who could "pack tandem."

On July 20, 1985, he was honored with another certificate from the Forest Service "for distinguished service" which included being inducted into the "Flathead National Forest Backcountry Hall of Fame."

Mr. Funk retired from packing in 1973 but remained active driving teams and working with horses until he became ill a year ago.

At his request, there was no funeral and his body has been donated to the WAMI Science Program at Montana State University.

A memorial fund has been established at Children's Hospital in Seattle where two of his granddaughters are nurses. Contributions may be sent: In Memory of Adam E. Funk, Children's Hospital Foundation, P.O. Box C5371, Seattle, WA 98105.
