Beatrice M. LaRoque, 80

12 Jan 1990
Beatrice Marie LaRoque, 80, of Kalispell, died of natural causes Friday at Flathead County Care Center.

She was born June 4, 1909, in Bradley, Mich., the daughter of Fred and Bessie Maude Olmstead Sackett, second-born of seven sons and four daughters.

Her parents established a homestead in Wolf Point, where they lived until two years of drought forced them to move back to Michigan in 1925. Beatrice and four brothers and sisters stayed behind to sell cattle and household possessions before moving back to Michigan in 1926.

While in Michigan, she worked in a paper mill and a box factory, and later trained as a meat cutter.

In 1930, she married Harold Francis McNeil in Michigan. They moved to Kalispell in the summer of 1947 and built a home on property adjacent to Harold's parents' on Holt Stage Road. She worked as a waitress in several local restaurants, including the Temple Tea Room and Hennessey's.

The couple returned to Michigan from 1958 to 1962 and later moved to Santee, Calif., so that she could be close to her two daughters. She returned to Kalispell in 1977.

She was a member of Community Alliance Church.

She is survived by a son, Keith L. McNeil of Corvallis; three daughters, Joyce E. Pyles of Union, Ore., Donna M. Rail of Grass Valley, Calif., and Carol Williams of Kalispell; three brothers, Herbert Sackett and Dick Sackett, both of Kalamazoo, Mich. and Bernard Sackett of Stevensville, Mich.; two sisters, Jean Hewitt of Allegan, Mich. and Vivian Heineman of Oroville, Calif.; 10 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Community Alliance Church with the Rev. Paul Gunther officiating. Private family burial has taken place at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Those who wish may contribute memorials to Community Alliance Church in care of "Workbench Ladies."

Jacqueline Bea 'Jackie' Larson, 65

Jacqueline Bea "Jackie" Larson, 65, Kalispell, died Wednesday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital following a lengthy illness with heart disease. 4 April 1990

She was born March 24, 1925, at Humboldt, Kan., the daughter of William and Joyce Gifford. Orphaned at an early age, she was raised by her foster parents, William and Minnie Ronsick. Jackie grew up and graduated from high school at Humboldt.

In her teens, she worked at a drug store soda fountain. During World War II, she was proud to help her country as a riveter at the Boeing plant in Wichita, Kan.

In 1944, she married Gordon Larson in Humboldt, where the couple lived at first. They later moved to Lincoln, Neb.; Fergus Falls, Minn., and Minot, N.D. They divorced in the mid-1960s.

Jackie then lived in Seattle, where she was a meat wrapper, and Portland, Ore., where she worked as personnel recruiter for Weaver Airline School.

In about 1971, she came to Kalispell. Her love of working with people is reflected in the variety of jobs she held in the Flathead Valley. Jackie was a Forest Service camp cook, and then was assistant manager at the B&B Restaurant. She leased and operated the Log Cabin Cafe in Hungry Horse for about a year, followed by a period working as an oilfield camp cook. Jackie delivered The Daily Inter Lake for a number of years, driving around Flathead Lake in all kinds of weather and road conditions.

From 1984 to 1987, she was area coordinator of the Job Service "Green Thumb" program. She was forced to retire at age 62 following a heart attack.

All her life Jackie was a hard worker and always played a special role in the lives of her daughters.

In recent years, she had become an avid bingo player.

Surviving family members include two daughters, Mrs. Rowland (Bonita) Baker of Whitefish, and Marcelle Larson of Helena; two granddaughters, Shiloh Baker of Whitefish, and Pavielle Larson of Helena; one brother, William Ronsick of Kansas City, Kan.; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Friday, April 6, at 3 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Duane Hull, pastor of Kalispell Christian Church, officiating. Memorial services will also take place at Humboldt at a later date, with urn burial at Mount Moriah Cemetery in Humboldt.
