

1991 Alfred Paul LaCroix, 65

Alfred Paul LaCroix, 65, Kalispell, died Oct. 6 in Kalispell Regional Hospital of heart disease.

He was born May 5, 1926, in Rolette, N.D. He attended school there and graduated from Rolette High School.

He then worked on the family farm until entering the U.S. Army Air Corps. Following his discharge from the Air Corps, he returned to the Rolette area where he farmed.

He married Betty Bush LaCroix on Nov. 19, 1954.

He had worked in construction, plumbing and custodial services in the Rolette area. In 1970, he moved to Kalispell, where he continued his custodial services for School District No. 5 until starting his own janitorial business.

He was an active member of the Flathead Association for Retarded Children and also a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

He is survived by his wife, Betty, at home; five sons, Dan of Susanville, Calif., Rich of Sioux Falls, S.D., Ted of Arlee, Mike of Kalispell, and Robin of Seattle, Wash.; two daughters, Cindy of Missoula and Laurie of Kalispell; and 11 grandchildren. He is also survived by one brother, George of Spokane, Wash., and two sisters, Viola Espe of Snohomish, Wash., and Angeline Harrison of Fairbanks, Alaska.

Rosary will be recited in Johnson Mortuary Chapel at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday. Mass of the Christian Burial will be celebrated at 4 p.m. on Wednesday in St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Michael O'Neill as celebrant.

The body will be forwarded to Niewoehner Funeral Home in Rolette, N.D., where services and burial will be held in Maryville Cemetery at 1:30 p.m. on Friday.

Erwin Laird, 86 1991

Former Kalispell resident Edwin Laird, 86, died April 2 at a Nanaimo, British Columbia, hospital after a brief illness.

While in Kalispell, he was employed by Pacific Power and Light Co.

Survivors include his wife, Fay; two sisters; and several nephews and nieces.

Graveside services were April 5 in Nanaimo.

Ruby Lammerding, 80

Ruby Lammerding, 80, died at Brendan House Thursday.

Survivors include her daughter, Frances Sommars of Kalispell; a granddaughter; and three great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary today from 1-4 p.m. for visitation.

The body is being forwarded to Holland-Bonine Funeral Home in Havre, where rosary will be recited Tuesday at 7 p.m. Graveside services and burial will be Wednesday at Calvary Cemetery at 4 p.m. in Havre.

Jeremy D. 'Rat' Lancer, 38

Jeremy D. "Rat" Lancer, 38, died Aug. 30 of injuries sustained in a car accident. 1991

He was born April 5, 1953, in Camp Pendleton at Oceanside, Calif., to Roland and Francis Loos.

As an only child, Jeremy was raised in California and Montana. He lived in the Flathead Valley from 1979 until 1984.

In 1984, he moved to the Reno area where he stayed until the spring of 1991, when he returned to the Flathead.

Jeremy was a plumber until a work-related injury forced him to give up that occupation. At the time of his death, he was employed at Gold Rush Pawn in the Harley department.

He is survived by his parents, Roland, of Oceanside, Calif., and his mother, Francis, of Reno, Nev.

Jeremy loved the Flathead and considered it his home. He was an avid Harley-Davidson enthusiast and had many Harley brothers and sisters who will miss his dearly.

Cremation has taken place. A memorial ride will begin at 1 p.m. on Saturday at Gold Rush Pawn parking lot. All his friends are invited, and automobiles are welcome.

Lyle D. Lane, 65

Lyle D. Lane, 65, a former resident of Kalispell, died March 12 at his home in Chewelah, Wash. ¹⁹⁹¹

He was a self-employed logger and owned a sawmill at Lake of the Woods east of Kalispell.

In 1969, he moved his family to Chewelah, Wash., to take over the dairy farm his parents owned.

He sold the farm and retired two years ago.

He was preceded in death by a son, Larry, in 1965, and his parents, Earl and Frankie Lane.

He is now survived by his wife, Grace, at the family home; eight children, Vicky Rogers of Kalispell, Susan Votapka of San Diego, Calif., Tom and Steve Lane and Alicia Riese of Chewelah, Bill Lane and Laura Lane of Ataskadero, Calif., and Donna White of Hawaii; and 15 grandchildren.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday, March 15, at Chewelah.

1991
Della LaRock, 78

Della Bernice (Irvine) LaRock, 78, Polson, died Dec. 13, along with a longtime friend and companion, Jack Erkkila, of injuries sustained in an auto accident on Highway 93 just north of Polson.

She is survived by three children; two sisters; two brothers; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A joint memorial service will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Bayview Funeral Home Chapel in Polson is in charge of arrangements and cremation.

Memorial donations may be made to Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, to the Humane Society-Area-Lake County Inc., c/o Security State Bank, Box 1291, Polson 59860, or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Clifford LeBrun, 60

Clifford R. LeBrun, 60, of Polson, died Saturday. 19 Jan 1991

He worked for Plum Creek Timber Co. Inc. in Pablo for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Mary

Ann, of Polson; five children, including Peggy S. Boon of Thompson Falls; and 11 grandchildren.

Rosary services will be Monday at 7 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Polson. Mass of Christian Burial will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the church. Burial will follow at Lakeview Cemetery with military honors.

Mosley-Shrider Funeral Home of Polson is in charge of arrangements.

Clarence R. Lenarz

EUREKA — Clarence R. Lenarz, 87, a handyman, died at his Eureka residence Sunday of natural causes.

26 May 1991
Graveside services will be Thursday at 11 a.m. at the Tobacco Valley Cemetery.

He was born at Kenmare, N.D., and lived in North Dakota, Idaho and the Flathead area until he moved to Eureka in the early 1930s.

He married Leona Olson in 1938 in Kalispell.

He worked odd jobs as a handyman until recent years.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Christie Lucero of Havre; sisters, Mable Leonard and Bertha Peter, both of Eureka, and Elizabeth Wogland, Sun City, Ariz., and two grandchildren.

Vial Funeral Home is handling arrangements. J.F.

Alma Dabol Lauckner, 79

Alma Dabol Lauckner, 79, of Kalispell, died in Brendan House on Wednesday, Jan. 9, following a lengthy illness. 1991

She was born Aug. 15, 1911, in the country of Latvia to Jacob and Minnie Dabol. She moved to the United States with her family in 1913, becoming a United States citizen in 1955. She lived in Nevada with her family and attended the Glad Tidings Bible Institute in Oakland, Calif., graduating in 1938.

On April 12, 1941, she married Herman Lauckner in Medicine Lake, Mont. They lived in Fallon, Nev., until 1936, when the family moved to Kalispell. In 1981, she moved to Moses Lake, Wash., returning to Kalispell in June 1990.

She was a member of the Christian Center Assembly of God for many years and was active in the women's ministry.

She enjoyed being a homemaker and her hobbies included needlepoint and gardening.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Herman, in 1969; her daughter, Ida Blackwell in 1989; a brother, John Dabol and a sister, Emily Rutman.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Larry and Marcia Lauckner of Renton, Wash.; son and daughter-in-law, Al and Phyllis Lauckner of Moses Lake, Wash.; son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Rose Lauckner of Kalispell; two granddaughters, Kym Farman and Jana Lauckner of Renton, Wash.; six grandsons, Tom Blackwell of Idaho Falls, David Blackwell of Kalispell, Randy and Shawn Lauckner of Kalispell, Greg Lauckner of Renton, Wash., and Kevin Lauckner of Moses Lake, Wash.; and two great-granddaughters, Siera and Nataly Farman.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday in the Christian Center Church Assembly of God in Kalispell with the Rev. Robert Ross officiating.

Friends and family may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 p.m. today. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests memorials be sent to the Christian Center Music Department, 255 Summit Ridge Drive, Kalispell 59901.

John H. Laughlin, 67

John H. Laughlin, 67, Hungry Horse, died Jan. 10 in the veterans hospital in Spokane. 1991

Survivors include a sister; two brothers, including George, Polson; two sons; one daughter; one stepdaughter, Rita McClanahan, Columbia Falls; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Cremation has taken place and there will be private graveside services later. Memorials to ALERT are suggested.

Bertha E. Lawson

Bertha E. Lawson, 80, died Monday, June 17, 1991 in Federal Way, Washington.

She was born July 7, 1910 in Frisco, Oklahoma and was formerly a resident of Whitefish, Montana.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Gilbert F. Lawson. She was a former member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Kansas.

She is survived by two sons, Wayne Lawson, Kent, WA and Lonnie Dale Lawson of Sumner, WA; two brothers, James Patton, Seattle, WA and Pascal Patton, Whitefish, MT; two sisters, Elva Johnson, Whitefish and Roxy Altimus, Whitefish, MT; three grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held on Friday, June 21 at 2 PM in the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery of Kalispell, Montana. Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish is in charge of arrangements.

Robert L. Leach, 87

Robert L. Leach, 87, of Kalispell, died in Brendan House on Wednesday, Sept. 18, of natural causes. 1991

He was born Jan. 25, 1904, in Kalispell, a son of Fred E. and Sarah Ida (Afflerbaugh) Leach. He spent his early years living with his family in Washington, California and eastern Montana, later returning to Kalispell.

On Nov. 26, 1930, he married Florence Buck of Creston. They bought the home farm in LaSalle in 1931 and have resided there since.

During the early years he helped with the community church and Sunday school at LaSalle and later transferred to the Baptist church of Columbia Falls. In more recent years he became a member of Central Bible Church of Kalispell.

He was active with the junior county fair and later the Northwest Montana Fair, especially with the LaSalle Community booth.

He was also part of the Farmers Market since its start 15 years ago in the Valley Bank lot.

He served a term as master of the LaSalle Grange.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Ray Leach; one sister, Myrtle Vose; one grandson, Steve Bolduan; and two great-grandchildren, Craig and Amy Bolduan.

Survivors include his wife, Florence, at the family home; one daughter, Arleta Bolduan of Winona, Minn.; one son, Frederick R. Leach, of Turlock, Calif; six grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; one sister, Florence Schluter of Chicago, Ill.; one niece, Lois Vose Montgomery of Seattle; and one nephew, Dr. Robert Schluter of Chicago.

Graveside services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 21, at Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends will meet at the cemetery for services. A memorial service will be held following the graveside service at 2 p.m. at Central Bible Church with the Rev. Ron Youde officiating.

Family and friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 6 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

The family requests no flowers, but lots of prayers.

Camille Laws

Camille K. Laws, age 2 days, Columbia Falls died last Tuesday evening at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. 29 Oct 1991

She was born October 20, 1991, in Whitefish.

She is survived by her parents, Bruce and Mary Laws of Columbia Falls; her grandparents, Ed and Yvonne Broad of Kalispell and Bill and Billie Laws of Thompson Falls; her great grandparents, Earl Oliver of Thompson Falls, Emma Broad of Kalispell, and Lyle and Bonnie Spaugh of Elephant Butte, New Mexico; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

A funeral service was held Saturday, October 26, at the L.D.S. Church in Columbia Falls. Burial followed in Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Kalispell.

John Henry Leib, 74

John Henry Leib, 74, Eureka, was taken to the Whitefish hospital and died there Monday afternoon, May 20, 1991

He was born on Pinkham Creek, Eureka, on Aug. 2, 1918, to Milo and Mattie Leib.

John's remains will be cremated and his ashes put on his place on Pinkham Creek, a part of the old Leib homestead where he was born. His parents and a sister are buried in the Leib Cemetery there.

John is survived by his wife, Louise, who is now in Eureka. He has a daughter, Geri Ax, Kalispell; sons, Maurice Leib of Columbia Falls, and Alan Leib of Eureka; 11 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; a brother, Joseph Hamilton, and sisters, Alice Wilson and Marie Roose, all of Eureka; and numerous nieces and nephews.

John worked in the woods in Lincoln County, the majority of his years. He also worked on the construction of Libby Dam on a rock-drilling rig. He worked for the Forest Service from 1976 until his illness.

A memorial with tributes to John will be held at the Pinkham schoolhouse at 2 p.m. June 2 with a potluck dinner. Family and friends are urged to come and participate. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family by the community.

Clifford Lengstorf, 60,

Clifford Lengstorf, 60, formerly of the Flathead, died of a heart attack Friday at Gritman Memorial Hospital in Podtatch, Idaho.

He was superintendent of Bennett Lumber Co in Podtatch.

He was born Aug. 7, 1930, in Butte, to Charles and Jeanette (Boe) Lengstorf. He moved to Minnesota with his family in 1933. He attended schools in Marcell and Deer River.

He moved to Kalispell in 1947 and where he married Margie Triplett. They later divorced.

He moved to Podtatch in 1979, when he started work at Bennett.

On June 2, 1980, he married Grace Helmuth-Kallis in Moscow, Idaho.

He enjoyed the outdoors, hunting, fishing, and working on his ranch.

Survivors include his wife in Podtatch; four sons, Clifford Jr. of Gaston, Ore., Dan of Dillon, Archie of Podtatch, and Shane of Warm Springs; a daughter, Debra Clinton of Eureka; two stepdaughters, Michelle Korriea and Heather Kallis, both of Missoula; three sisters, Cecelia Bertram of Kalispell, Alice Gamble of Spokane, Wash., and Laura Rajala of Big Fork, Minn.; three brothers, John Lengstorf of Kalispell, Floyd Lengstorf of Cresswell, Ore., and Charles of Louisville, Ky.; and 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were conducted in Podtatch.

Patrick H. Lenz, 29

Patrick H. Lenz, 29, formerly of Columbia Falls, died March 30 at Columbus Hospital in Great Falls.

He was raised and educated in Columbia Falls. For the past two years he was a woodworker in Great Falls.

He is survived by his mother; a brother; four sisters, including Brenda Ramsey and Ruby Beach, both of Columbia Falls.

A graveside committal of the urn will be Friday at 1 p.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Arrangements are by Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

Sharon Lee Lepo, 40

Sharon Lee Lepo, 40, died of lymphoma cancer at her home in Whitefish on April 30, 1990.

She was born July 2, 1950, in Hamilton, to Tony and Anna Mavros.

Sharon attended school in Hamilton and later graduated from the University of Montana.

On Aug. 10, 1979, she married John Lepo.

She is survived by her husband;

her parents, Tony and Anna Mavros of Hamilton; two brothers, Michael of Hamilton, and James of McCall, Idaho; many friends; and the children whose lives she touched during her 19 years of teaching in Martin City and Columbia Falls.

Cremation has taken place, and no services are planned. A gathering of friends to share memories will be held at her home in Whitefish on Friday, May 10, from 4-7 p.m.

Memorials may be made to the charity of one's choice or to the Sharon Lepo Fund at any local branch of First Federal Savings Bank.

Joyce Elaine Lewis, 53

Joyce Elaine Lewis, 53, of Bellingham, Wash., died Aug. 6 at her home. 1991

She was born Dec. 30, 1937, in Glasgow.

She enjoyed singing and was a member of the Sweet Adelines in Bellingham.

She was preceded in death by her father, Sidney Moir, in 1971.

She is survived by her daughter, Carinne Wickman, and son-in-law, Jay Wickman, of El Granada, Calif.; a son, Scott Lewis, and daughter-in-law, Stacy Lewis, of Spokane, Wash.; her mother, Goldie Moir Goss of Kalispell; a sister, Vivian, of Port Orchard, Wash.; and a grandchild, Kelsey Elaine Wickman.

Memorial services were held Friday in Bellingham at Westford Funeral Home.

Graveside services will be in Kalispell today at 2 p.m. at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Carol Ann Lilienthal, 41

Carol Ann Lilienthal died July 6 at Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane, Wash. 1991

She was born in Salem, Ore., on Sept. 27, 1950. She was raised in Columbia Falls. She was a resident of Spokane for 22 years.

Carol worked as a registered nurse at Sacred Heart Hospital for 20 years. She was a member of St. Peters Parish.

She was preceded in death by her father, Bruce Livingston on March 19, 1991. She is survived by her three children, Tracie, 19, Amy, 13 and Charles, 11; her mother Nona Livingston; her grandmothers of Columbia Falls and her two brothers.

A memorial service was held for her at St. Peters Church on July 8 in Spokane. Graveside services to be announced later at Woodland Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

1991 Irene I. Lindbom, 83

Irene I. Lindbom, 83, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital on Dec. 4 of natural causes.

She was born Dec. 2, 1908, in Red Lodge a daughter of Victor and Helga Heino. She received her education and spent her early life in Red Lodge.

On April 20, 1930, she was married to Waino Lindbom in Butte. They celebrated 61 years of marriage this last year.

The couple lived in Butte for about 17 years, and had also lived in Darby. They have made their home in Kalispell since 1945.

Mrs. Lindbom had been bookkeeper for her husband's operations at Flathead Mines for over 25 years.

She was of the Lutheran faith.

She was preceded in death by her one brother, William Heino, and is now survived by her husband, Waino at the family home; two sons, Donald Lindbom of Kalispell, and Frank Lindbom of Phoenix, Ariz.; one daughter, Mary Ann Lindbom of Kalispell; two sisters, Elmy Tastula of Darby and Ellen Moe of Gainsville, Ga.; six grandsons; three great-granddaughters; and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Gary Gilthvedt, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

The family suggest memorials be made to American Cancer Fund, P.O. Box 1002, Kalispell.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Saturday.

Jeremy I. Lindquist, 13

Jeremy I. Lindquist, 13, died Tuesday in a boating accident off the Oregon coast. He was a lifetime resident of Fortine. 23 July 1991

On Jan. 19, 1978, he was born to Michael and Linda (Burgess) Lindquist in Whitefish. He was a student of home schooling for the past two years, after attending Fortine School for five years.

He attended Fortine Christian Missionary Alliance Church and was a member of its Awana's group. He played baseball on Babe Ruth, Pee Wee, and Little League teams of Fortine and Eureka, and was an avid baseball card collector.

Surviving are his mother, Linda Lindquist of Fortine; a brother, Ben Lindquist; his sister; Meranda Lindquist; and special sister, Kristine Mitchell — all of Fortine; his grandparents, Verona Lindquist of Blue River, Ore., Keith and Lenore Burgess of Fortine, and Daisy Yeran of Fort Benton; his great-grandparents, Ted Burk of Eureka, Ruby Burgess of Mennewaukan, N.D., Leona Simmons of Kalispell, Roslin Garbe of Kalispell, and Marie Holts of Haycreek, Minn.; and many uncles, aunts, and cousins.

His father, Michael D. Lindquist; his grandfather, Daniel Lindquist; and his uncle, Larry Lindquist, also died in the boating accident.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Fortine Missionary Alliance Church, with Pastor Paul McKibben officiating. Interment will follow at Fortine Community Cemetery.

Friends are invited to attend a dinner at the church following the services.

Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish is in charge of local arrangements.

Michael Daniel Lindquist, 36

Michael Daniel Lindquist, 36, died Tuesday in a boating accident off the Oregon coast. 23 July 1991

On March 5, 1955, he was born to Daniel and Verona (Wobig) Lindquist in Red Wing, Minn.

He married Linda Burgess on Dec. 2, 1974, in Red Wing.

As a resident of Fortine for the past 14 years, he worked as a millwright for Plum Creek Manufacturing Co.

He attended Fortine Christian Missionary Alliance Church and Assembly of God Church of Eureka, was an active participant in the Fortine Pee Wee and Little league programs and was an accomplished songwriter and singer. He enjoyed bow hunting, rifle hunting, fishing, and hiking. He loved the mountains and the beauty of God's handiwork.

Surviving are his wife, Linda, of Fortine; his son, Ben, of Fortine; his daughter, Meranda, of Fortine; his mother, Verona Lindquist of Blue River, Ore.; his grandmother, Marie Holts of Haycreek, Minn.; his brothers, Steve Lindquist of Pablo and Danny Lindquist of Pepin, Wisc.; his sisters, Iva (Gary) Hanson of Harrisburg, Ore., and Diane Finch and DeAnna Lindquist of Blue River.

His son, Jeremy Lindquist; his father, Daniel Lindquist; his brother, and Larry Lindquist also died in the boating accident.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Fortine Christian Missionary Alliance Church, with Pastor Paul McKibben officiating. Interment will follow at Fortine Community Cemetery.

Friends are invited to attend a dinner at the church following the services.

Sarah Ann Line, 95

Sarah Ann Line, 95, a former Whitefish resident died April 10 in Colfax, Wash. 1991

She and her husband were Whitefish-area farmers.

She is survived by a son; three daughters, including Lilly Westlund, Whitefish; 13 grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be Sunday 1-7 p.m. at Austin Funeral Home, Whitefish. Rosary will be recited Sunday at 7 p.m. at the funeral home. A funeral Mass will be Monday at St. Charles Catholic Church at 11 a.m. Burial will be at Whitefish Cemetery.

Douglas B. Lister, 74

Douglas B. Lister, 74, Kalispell, died Tuesday morning, Jan. 15, of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital. 1991

He was born June 21, 1916, at Bassana, Alberta, the son of Gordon and Bertha Lister. He was raised and educated at McAdam, New Brunswick.

As a young man, he was involved in a number of different business pursuits, both across Canada and in the United States.

On Oct. 5, 1944, he married Germaine Marie Brassard at Calgary, Alberta, and they made their home in Edmonton. The Listers moved to Kalispell in 1948.

Mr. Lister was a foreman during the construction of the Hungry Horse Dam and later owned and operated Doug's Mobile Home Sales and Service in Kalispell for more than 20 years.

After retirement in the mid-1970s, he kept busy with various real estate interests.

He had been a very active member of the First Church of the Nazarene in Kalispell.

An avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, horsemanship, and snowmobiling.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Germaine, on Nov. 19, 1989; his parents; and a brother, Irvin Lister.

Surviving are three daughters, Alberta Lister, Maxine Pond, and Marceline Maroney, all of Kalispell; two sons, Gordon of Crow Agency, and Mark of Kalispell; three sisters, Lavenia Barney of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Ruth Eales and Joy Kneabone, both of McAdam; 10 grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

The family will receive friends at the family home on Holt Stage Road east of Kalispell tonight from 7-9.

Memorial services will be Friday, Jan. 18, at 1:30 p.m. at the First Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Larry D. Coen officiating.

Arrangements are by the Weatherford Funeral Home & Crematory in Kalispell.

Memorials to Summer Bible Camp Scholarship Fund of First Church of the Nazarene, 1295 Whitefish Stage Road, Kalispell, are suggested.

Edna Ruth Little, 78, 17 Jan 1991

Edna Ruth Little, 78, of Kalispell, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Thursday evening.

She was born Dec. 28, 1912, in Herreid, S.D., to George and Bertha Pool. She received her education in Medicine Hat, Canada, and in Shelby.

She then moved to Great Falls, where on Oct. 8, 1929, she married Jack E. Little. They purchased the Star Cigar Store and Little's Lanes Bowling Alley, which they operated until the death of Mr. Little in 1955. She continued with the business operation until 1969, when she retired. She then traveled and lived in Reno with her family. She moved to Kalispell in the early 1980s.

She was a member of the Methodist church and was active in the work of the Elks and Eagles Lodges.

She is survived by a son, Tom Little of Kalispell; a daughter, Jacqueline Smith of Lakeside; three sisters, Rose Dent and Ruby Davis of Placerville, Calif. and Gladys Schrader of Vacaville, Calif.; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Cremation has taken place. Memorial services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Immanuel Lutheran Home Chapel with the Rev. Marshall Moen officiating. The family suggests memorial be made to Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Bruce J. Livingston, 60

Bruce J. Livingston, 60, 1991 passed away Tuesday, March 19, at Kalispell Regional Hospital in Kalispell.

He was born Jan. 2, 1931, in Shelby, to Bruce J. and Doris Livingston. He was raised and educated in Shelby until he was 14. He then moved to Columbia Falls where he attended school.

He was married to Nona R. Downes on Aug. 2, 1950, in Missoula.

He worked on the Hungry Horse Dam Construction and on the construction of other dams in the northwest.

He worked on the construction of the Anaconda Aluminum plant and then worked at the aluminum plant for 35 years.

He enjoyed the outdoors, hunting and fishing.

He is preceded in death by his father.

He is survived by his wife, Nona of Columbia Falls; a daughter, Carol Lilienthal of Spokane, Wash.; two sons, Jim Livingston of Columbia Falls and SSgt. Dan Livingston in Saudi Arabia; his mother, Doris Durham of Columbia Falls, and 10 grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Saturday, March 23, at 2 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Tod Fox will officiate. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Visitation will be Friday, March 22, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The casket will not be opened after the service.

Taft H. Livingston, 82

Taft H. Livingston, 82, Kalispell, died Sunday, March 3, of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital. 1991

He was born Dec. 1, 1908, near Kalispell, the son of William F. and Carrie Livingston. He was raised and educated in the Kalispell area.

As a young man he worked in valley sawmills and also farmed.

During the Great Depression, he was with the Civilian Conservation Corps.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a medic aboard a hospital ship.

Following his honorable discharge, Mr. Livingston returned to Kalispell and worked in area sawmills for a number of years. He then was employed by the city of Kalispell until retirement.

He was an enthusiastic fisherman, whether on the ocean, a river or the ice.

Mr. Livingston belonged to the Christian Center Assembly of God.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Smith Livingston.

He is survived by a sister, Clara Bates of Sedro Woolley, Wash., six nieces and nephews; and a number of other relatives and friends.

Friends may call at Weatherford Funeral Home today until 7 p.m.

Funeral services will be Friday at 10:30 a.m. at Weatherford Chapel with the Rev. Robert D. Ross of Christian Center Assembly of God officiating. Burial will follow at Conrad Memorial Cemetery, with military honors presented by the United Veterans of the Flathead.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 1002, Kalispell 59903-1002.

Alcinda 'Cindy' Margaret Wilson Lockhart, 92

Alcinda "Cindy" Margaret Wilson Lockhart, 92, of Kalispell, died of natural causes Wednesday evening at Immanuel Lutheran Home. 4 Sept 1991

She was born Jan. 21, 1899, in Canton, Mo., to James and Emma Jane Wilson. She attended Canton area schools, and at the age of 18, she married Herbert Dean Lockhart Nov. 12, 1917, in Canton.

They moved in 1917 to Kalispell, where they farmed and Herbert ran the Lakes Feed Store. Mrs. Lockhart lived in Kalispell since.

While living in the Lower Valley, she enjoyed her friends, the Lower Valley Ladies Aid, Mountain View Birthday Club, and Somers Bible Study Group.

She was active in church-related activities. She was a member of Northwest Missionary Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Herbert, on Nov. 1, 1964, and an infant daughter.

Survivors include four children, E. Dean Lockhart and Lawrence (Larry) Lockhart, both of Kalispell; Beverly Brickett of Helena, and Ronald Lockhart of LaPalma, Calif.; a sister, Leora Nelson of Canton; 12 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; and 13 great-great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be Monday at 10:30 a.m. at Conrad Memorial Cemetery with Pastor John Stanearth of Northwest Missionary Baptist Church officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for services.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary today from 1-4 p.m. for visitation.

Margaret Eckelberry Logan, 97

Margaret Eckelberry Logan, 97, slipped into the presence of the Lord on Oct. 4, after a good and fruitful life of 97 years. 1991

She was born June 27, 1894, the eldest of seven children of Mina and Meade Eckelberry. Her birthplace was in the Montford community. She attended grade school there and graduated from Flathead County High School with the class of 1915.

After teaching school at Thompson River for one year, she was married to Frank O. Logan of Kalispell on Nov. 29, 1916. They farmed first in the Montford area and for several years in the Pine Grove community before moving back to the farm which her grandfather had homesteaded and where she resided before moving to the Brendan House in 1988.

She was of the Baptist faith.

She was preceded in death by her husband on Sept. 29, 1966; three brothers; two sisters and a grandson.

She is now survived by three children, Darrell of Kalispell, Thelma McCarty of Helena and Jackie Donovan of Kalispell; five grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; her youngest sister, Erma Benner; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Bruce Smith of Mountain View Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Tuesday for visitation.

Ruth Marie Luke, 71

Ruth Marie Luke, 71, of Kila, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on Monday, Feb. 18, 1991.

She was born Sept. 6, 1919, in Oldham County, Texas, a daughter of Robert and Neile Kelso.

While she was quite young she moved with her family to Colorado and later to Montana.

She attended schools in Colorado and Somers, and graduated from Flathead High School.

As a young woman she worked for the Somers Lumber Company in Somers, Walters Trees, and the cherry warehouse in Kalispell.

On Aug. 19, 1946, she was married to Floyd Luke in Kalispell. She and her husband owned and operated a store and service station in Batavia before buying their ranch.

Mrs. Luke spent the rest of her life as a rancher and horsewoman. Her life was dedicated to her family, the ranch and her horses.

She was a member of the American Quarter Horse Association, Montana Paint Horse Association, Flathead Valley Paint Horse Association, and Western Montana Paint Horse Club.

She loved to show horses and was the High Point Amateur in 1990.

She had won numerous ribbons and trophies in horse events and shows over the years.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister.

She is now survived by her husband, Floyd E. Luke, at the family home; two sons, William McIntyre of Kalispell and Donald Luke at the family home; one daughter, Neila Pluid of Kila; two brothers, Robert Kelso of Kalispell and Tod Kelso of Sunburst; her two sisters-in-law; son-in-law; daughter-in-law; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of Lakeside Chapel, officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Friends and relatives may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 p.m. today.

¹⁹⁹¹ D. W. Lukenbill Jr. 18

Douglas Wayne Lukenbill Jr., 18, Columbia Falls, died March 12. He was a senior at Columbia Falls High School.

Survivors include his parents, Doug and Theresa Lukenbill and James and Jolie Arnold, all of Columbia Falls; two brothers, Nathaniel Peterson of Whitefish, and Ryan Lukenbill of Columbia Falls; a stepbrother, James R. Arnold of Kalispell; a sister, Melissa Lukenbill of Columbia Falls; three stepsisters; paternal grandparents, Martha and Russell Lukenbill of Kila; maternal grandfather, Shorty Fish of Columbia Falls; and great-grandparents, Cherie and Douglas Dar-sow of Columbia Falls.

Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. Interment will be later at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Arrangements are by Van Leu-ven Funeral Home.

James B. Loggins, 20

James B. Loggins, 20, Columbia Falls, died Tuesday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital of injuries from an automobile accident. 14 May 1991

Mr. Loggins was a self-employed electrician.

He is survived by his wife, Ginger, at home in Columbia Falls.

Private memorial services will be 10 a.m. Friday at Van Leuven Funeral Home, Columbia Falls. Interment will be in San Augustine, Texas, at a later date.

Marvin Leland Lund, 59

Marvin Leland Lund, 59, of Condon and Columbia Falls, died of heart disease at St. John's Hospital in Libby Wednesday. 1 Mar 1991

He was born Nov. 1, 1931, in Crosby, N.D., to Emil and Lilly Lund.

He received his education in Minnesota and then entered the U.S. Army, serving for three years.

He then moved to Montana and was employed at the Anaconda aluminum plant in Columbia Falls for several years.

He married Laura Beebe and they were later divorced.

He performed construction work throughout Flathead and Lincoln counties.

He was a member of the V.F.W. and the operators union.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by three children, Dennis, in the U.S. Air Force in New Mexico, Kimi Bowdish of Anchorage, Alaska, and Robert Lund of Kalispell; four brothers, Harold and Howard Lund of Warroad, Minn., Lawrence Lund of Oregon City, Oregon, and Reuben Lund of Wichita, Kansas; two sisters, Evelyn Anderson and Leona Styler, both of Condon; four grandchildren; Shelby and Jessica Bowdish of Anchorage, and Sarah and Michael Lund of Cannon, N.M.; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Monday at 10 a.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Gary Gilthvedt, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, officiating.

Vincent A. Lundgren, 73

Vincent A. Lundgren, 73, a resident of East Evergreen, Kalispell, died Monday, April 1, at his home of natural causes. 1991

He was born Feb. 1, 1918, the son of Astrid and Anders Lundgren in Denver, Colo.

Vincent was raised and educated in Denver and in his younger years he and his brothers owned a private business, until he joined International Harvester. This job took him and his family to Seattle and Spokane.

In 1960, he moved his family to the Flathead Valley and was employed as service manager for Manion's. He did work for different dealerships before retiring in 1980. His energy and love for life continued as he worked part time for Skyline Bowl and Wayne Jensen Adjusters.

Vince loved Montana, often taking in its history touring the state with his family and camper in tow. He loved the mountains of Glacier, the float trips down the Swan River and fishing on Koochanusa, but most of all he loved his family and celebrated life with them and his many friends. He loved. He is loved.

Vince was married to Patricia Comstock on Jan. 25, 1945, in Denver, Colo. From this 46 year union were born one son, Jerry Lundgren of Kalispell, and one daughter, Joey Kositzky of Whitefish.

He is now survived by his wife, Pat, at the family home; Jerry and Joey; one grandson, Anders Lundgren, and one granddaughter, Bree Kositzky; one sister, Anne Nyberg, and a brother, Hank Lundgren, both of Denver, Colo.; and a number of other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and one brother, Lennart.

Funeral services will be Friday, April 5, at 1 p.m. at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Ken Peterson of the First Presbyterian Church of Whitefish officiating. Burial will be made in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

There will be visitation for friends and family at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish on Thursday, April 4, from 4 to 8 p.m.

1991 Darvin E. Lundstrom, 65

Darvin E. Lundstrom, 65, Columbia Falls, died Oct. 16 at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

Darvin was born Oct. 11, 1926, in Malta a son of John A. and Clara Lundstrom. He attended school in Malta.

He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Following his discharge, he moved to Columbia Falls.

He was employed by his brother, E. J. Lundstrom, in the excavation and transfer business from 1946 until 1950. Darvin was manager of the V.F.W. Club in Columbia Falls from 1950 to 1956. He was a police officer from 1957 until 1978, when he retired as the police chief of Columbia Falls.

Darvin was married to Kathryn Ellman on June 30, 1951 in Columbia Falls.

He is preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Frank Lundstrom.

Darvin is survived by his wife, Kathryn of Columbia Falls; a daughter and son-in-law, Karen and Mike Huston of Columbia Falls; three grandchildren, John, Michelle and Angela Huston of Columbia Falls; three brothers, E. J. Lundstrom of Columbia Falls, Clifford Lundstrom of Malta and Boyd Lundstrom of Tacoma, Wash.; two sisters, Amanda Murphy of Miles City, and Doris Mavencamp of Malta; and many nieces and nephews.

Darvin was a charter member of the Columbia Falls Ambulance Association, North Valley Search and Rescue Association and the North Valley Eagles Aerie No. 4081. He was co-chairman of the Salvation Army Service Extension Unit in Columbia Falls. He was a retired member of the Columbia Falls Volunteer Fire Dept.

A funeral service will be Saturday at 10 a.m. at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Patrick McGurk will officiate. Burial will follow in Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery with military graveside honors.

Visitation will be today from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

The family has suggested that memorials be made to Jaws of Life Fund, c/o the Columbia Falls Fire Dept., P.O. Box 1080, Columbia Falls.

1991 Cecilia Katherine Lyonais, 81

Cecilia Katherine Lyonais, beloved wife, mother, sister and grandmother, died June 15, in Brendan House in Kalispell, and is now at peace.

She was most dear to all who knew her, as a fine and gracious lady who gave herself to her family, friends and community.

She was born Oct. 10, 1909, in Watkins, Minn., the sixth of 12 children born to Michael and Elizabeth (Yarnish) Smith.

She moved with her family to Oriska, N.D. in 1911, then to McGregor, N.D. a year later where she attended school.

She received her teaching certificate at Minot, N.D.

She met Edward Lyonais while teaching in Williston, N.D. and they were married July 6, 1932. In 1938, the couple moved to Kalispell where they raised their seven children.

In Kalispell, Mrs. Lyonais was an active member of St. Matthew's Church and school, always willing to help those in need.

She taught school for 35 years, 17 of those years teaching kindergarten at her home.

She loved history, particularly teaching Montana history to students of all ages. She was a contributing author of a book on Montana history, and also an active member of the Flathead Historical Society.

Mrs. Lyonais was preceded in death by her parents; four brothers and two sisters.

She is survived by her husband, Edward, at home; one son, James Lyonais and his wife, Carol, of Borning, Ore.; six daughters, Mrs. Don (Janice) Burnell presently in Germany, Mrs. Bob (Doris) Davis of Livermore, Calif., Christine Neal of Hubbard, Ore., Gail Mitchell, Mrs. Jim (Patti) Slack, and Judy Carr, all of Kalispell; two brothers, Art Smith of Kalispell and Michael Smith of McGregor, N.D.; three sisters, Ersella Allen of Ephratta, Wash., Marie Jacobsen of Seattle, Wash., and Margaret Turner of New Town, N.D.; 27 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Christian wake services will be held at 7 tonight in Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Mass of the Christian Burial will be held at 12:10 p.m. on Tuesday in St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Bob Noonan as celebrant. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Memorials in her memory may be made to the Comfort Care Center at Brendan House; Flathead Industries for the Handicapped or Montana Historical Society.