

24 Sept 1994
William J. Yenne

CAPITOLA, Calif. — William J. Yenne, 86, a well-known horseman who worked for many years in Glacier National Park and Flathead National Forest, died Saturday.

He was born Aug. 4, 1908, in Creston.

He started working for the federal government in 1928 as a packer in Blackfeet National Forest, as a part of what is now Flathead National Forest.

He was a packer in Glacier National Park starting in 1932.

During World War II he worked at the Todd Pacific Shipyard. After the war, he was in charge of trail maintenance at Grand Canyon National Park and in 1952 returned to Glacier where he was in charge of roads as well as trails until retiring in October 1969.

Bill Yenne

He continued to be active in the mountains of Montana and the West after his retirement.

He is survived by one son, William P. Yenne, of San Francisco, Calif.; two granddaughters, Azia and Annalisa, both of San Francisco; his former wife, Doris, of Santa Cruz, Calif.; his longtime companion, Demaris Ann Smith, of Scotts Valley, Calif.; one brother, Tom Yenne, of Bigfork; three sisters, Frances Gudgel, San Jose, Calif., Ann Hollinberger, Creston, and Florence Marken, Kalispell; and numerous other relatives.

No memorial services will be held at his request. HIT

Alyce Ruth Young, 79

Alyce Ruth Young, 79, died at her home in Kalispell on Friday, Jan. 21, 1994.

She was born Nov. 27, 1914, in Gildford to Norman and Ethel Mundhenk. She received her education in Gildford, and on Sept. 15, 1939, she married Raymond F. Young. They later moved to Kalispell.

She worked at the apparel department of B&B for about eight years. She was a devoted member of the First Baptist Church for many years.

She was known by all who loved her as "Grandma Young." That filled her with great joy.

She was preceded in death by her husband on Sept. 27, 1989; an infant son, Robert; sister Bonnie Gelhaus and a brother, Norman Mundhenk.

She is survived by a daughter, Cathy Kock-Martinez of Estancia, N.M., and grandson, Shaun R. Kock, in the Navy in Hawaii; son Raymond Young, Jr., his wife, Vicki, and their children Raymond Luverne, Kristina Lee, Jason Robert and Jolene Marie, all of Kalispell; sisters Vivian Hall, and her husband, George, of Seattle, Inez Sticka, and her husband, Ray, of Salem, Ore., and Esther Bowman, and her husband, Adam, of Bigfork; her twin brother, Alvin R. Mundhenk, of Alhambra, Calif.; her lifelong friend, Marvle Croskrey, of Kalispell, and many nieces and nephews.

A funeral is scheduled at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Rev. Kenneth Mottram, pastor of First Baptist Church, is to officiate. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the Flathead Shrine Transportation Fund, PO Box 762, Kalispell, or to the First Baptist Church, 301 W. Wyoming, Kalispell.

Grant Carlton Young, 20

Grant Carlton Young, 20, of Kalispell, died of injuries sustained in a farm accident on Tuesday, Dec. 6, 1994.

He was born Dec. 31, 1973, in Colorado Springs, Colo., to Meryl and Kathy Young. As a young boy, he moved to Phillipsburg where he received his early education. About two and a half years ago, he came to Kalispell and graduated from Flathead High School in 1993.

He was employed on the Tutvedt farm for the past year and a half. He loved hunting, fishing and other outdoor activities.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Natalie Young.

Survivors now include his mother, Kathy McKeeman and stepfather, Phil McKeeman, of Kalispell; his father, Meryl Young, of Anaconda; a sister, LeeAnn Marie Young, of Kalispell; grandmother, Ada Dean; grandfather, Jim Young, of Cripple Creek, Colo.; great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Savage, of Spokane; and a number of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at today at 2 p.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Nathan Bemis, pastor of Bible Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Walter S. Young, 91

Walter S. Young, 91, of Kalispell, died at his home on Monday, Aug. 29, 1994, of natural causes.

He was born April 28, 1903, in Boston, Mass., to William and Mary Anna Young.

He came to Montana in the late 1920s and worked for the Forest Service in Warland, where he married his wife, Marie.

In the 1930s he moved to Kalispell, where he and his brother-in-law had managed Walt's Conoco Station. He then worked for Flathead Motor Sales as a body mechanic for 17 years. He had worked as shop foreman for Gary's Motors Body Shop from 1958-1960 and then at Manions Auto from 1960-1962 and from 1962 until 1967 worked at Bell Manufacturing.

He had been the worshipful master of the Kalispell Masonic Lodge No. 42 A.F.&A.M. and was secretary/treasurer for the Masonic Lodge until his retirement in 1985. He served on the City Council in Kalispell in the 1950s and was a leader in Boys Scouts of America.

Walter was an active member of Epworth United Methodist Church in Kalispell and was instrumental in starting the Smith Memorial Day-Care Center.

Walter and his wife, Marie, had been active in square dancing and round dancing in the Flathead for numerous years. They would have celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary this October.

He is survived by four children, Dennis Young and his wife, Joan, Mariann Norick and her husband, Chuck, and Scott Young and his wife, Barb, all of Kalispell, and Sheryl Beck of Orange, Calif.; eight grandchildren, Walter Wilson, Mike Young, Barbara Carter, Joanna Chouinard, Julie Krause, Jennifer Krause, and Darcy and Brandy Young; several great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday in Epworth United Methodist Church with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens with ritualistic Masonic Rites conducted by members of the Masonic Lodge.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 6 p.m. today.

The family suggests memorials may be made to the Smith Memorial Day-Care Center, 329 Second Ave. E., Kalispell; or to the Montana Masonic Home, P.O. Box 45, Helena, MT 59601.
