

Leonard Hetrick, 85

Leonard Earl Hetrick, 85, died at his home in Kalispell on Saturday, July 29, 1995.

He was born April 6, 1910, in Blue Hill, Neb., to Oliver W. and Dora E. Hetrick. He lived his younger years in Belgrade, Neb., attending grade school and graduating from high school in 1927.

After high school, he moved with his family to Marceline, Mo. He attended college at Central Methodist College, graduating from Sweeney Conservatory of Music in Fayette, Mo. He then attended the University of Missouri at Columbia where he graduated with a master's degree in music education in 1939.

He loved music and, especially teaching music. He taught band and vocal at Breckenridge, Mo., from 1933-1935, then taught band at Marcelline from 1935-1938. During that time he also taught summer band in Anselmy, Neb., New Cambria and Marcelline, Mo. He was also the drum major for the ladies' and men's American Legion Drum and Bugle Corp during the summers of 1935-1936.

On June 11, 1939, he married Ruth Zurcher in Marceline. They traveled across the country for a teaching position in Whitefish. Initially, he taught band and vocal until the early 1950s when the program had grown to a point a full-time vocal teacher could be hired.

During the summer of 1941, he worked in Glacier Park as a seasonal park ranger. He joined the Army in 1942 and served as the principal clarinetist in the Army-Air Force Band at Shepherd Field, Texas and Camp Stoneman, Calif. After his tour of duty he returned to his teaching profession in Whitefish in September of 1945.

He and his bands received many honors over the years. He was especially proud of the fact his band of 1949 was the last band to receive a superior rating. He also received the distinguished service award from the University of Montana for outstanding contribution to school bands. His musical groups performed at multitudes of civic and community events during his tenure as band director. He believed in supporting the community, especially since he was supported so well by the community.

He was a dedicated teacher of young people through music and touched many lives in his unique way. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather.

He was president of the Montana Music Educators' Association from 1949 until 1951. He was a 55-year charter member of Beta Mu Fraternity.

He was very active in his community, belonging to the Lions Club where he directed a men's glee club, Whitefish Lake Golf Club Board of Directors, Masonic Lodge No. 64, AF & AM where he was a life member, and the Methodist Church.

He served as a board member of the Whitefish Credit Union from 1960 until his death. He was chairman of the Whitefish Credit Union for 22 years. He received the Outstanding Citizen Award presented by the Chamber of Commerce in 1977.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth, in October of 1985. He married Helen Tate in Whitefish in May of 1987.

He is survived by a son, Douglas, and Cathy Hetrick of Kalispell; two daughters, Lynn and Jim Scaif of Kalispell and Frances Butler of Fayetteville, Ark.; six grandchildren, Chris and Libby Hetrick of Kalispell, Amy Hetrick of San Antonio, Texas, Ryan Hetrick, serving with the Army in the Republic of South Korea, and Zach and Katie Butler of Fayetteville; and numerous other nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be held Thursday at 7 p.m. at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Memorials would be appreciated to the Leonard Hetrick Music Scholarship fund, c/o Whitefish Credit Union or the Whitefish Methodist Church. Arrangements and cremation by Buffalo Hill Funeral Home of Kalispell.
