

94 Dorothy H. Raine, 63

Dorothy H. Raine, of Rancho Murieta, Calif., died June 24 of pancreatic cancer. She was 63.

She was born Feb. 9, 1933, to Sam and Trulia Head, in Prescott, Ariz. A graduate of Arizona State University, she taught elementary school in Maracaibo, Venezuela, for children of the employees of Creole Petroleum Co. and then in public schools at Phoenix, Ariz. There, she met Carl Raine, marrying him in 1959.

A beloved and devoted wife and mother, she made her home with her family in a number of communities in the United States. Before moving to California, she had most recently lived in Aurora, Ohio, for three years and Boulder, Colo., for 10. She had planned to move to Whitefish later this year, where her family has a home under construction.

She was active in many civic and charitable undertakings in each of the several communities where she lived. She was an avid supporter of reading and the arts and an exemplar of kindness, civility and quiet strength of the human spirit. She especially enjoyed the many friends and associations made through her active interests, including golf, bridge, travel and the horses and domestic pets that were an important part of her life.

Survivors include her husband; daughters Cynthia Raine Benkelman and Julie Raine, both of Whitefish; her mother, of Thatcher, Ariz.; brothers Dale Head, of Phoenix and Don Head, of Scottsdale, Ariz. and sister Diane Jones of Central, Ariz.

A memorial celebration of her life is to be held with family and friends in Whitefish.
