

1991 Richard Earl Dahl, 74

Richard Earl Dahl, 74, died at his home in Kalispell on Tuesday, Jan. 14.

He was born April 27, 1922, in Watford City, N. D., to Gilbert and Hannah Dahl. He came to Montana in his early years and was a graduate of Missoula High School.

He worked at logging and carpentry and construction throughout western Montana until he retired. He served in the U.S. Army from 1942 through 1945, and served at Normandy.

He is survived by a son, Richard Dahl, and his wife, Janet, of Kalispell; daughters Louise Davis, of Monticello, Minn., and Mae Metcalf, of Hysham; eight grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

A funeral will be 2 p.m., Tuesday, at Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery, with military honors conducted by United Veterans of the Flathead.

1991 Beverly Jo Davis, 68

Beverly Jo Davis, 68, of Kalispell, died Tuesday, April 2, at her home.

She was born Sept. 10, 1928, to John and Molly Wombold Cibulski, in Malta.

She worked for several businesses around Kalispell. She married Tommie L. Davis on March 24, 1978, in Kalispell.

She was a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church in Somers and a 25-year member of the Eagles. She served as Eagles president.

She is survived by her husband, Tommie, in Kalispell; daughter

Karen Koechel, of Mesa, Ariz.; sister Anna Lee Booth and husband, Stan, of Mesquite, Nev.; step-sons Joe and Tim, Davis, both of Kalispell; step-daughters Sheri DeHart and husband, Randy, of Seattle and Diane Schlock, and husband, Randy, of Medford, Ore.; 10 grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

A funeral will be 10 a.m., Monday, at Johnson Mortuary, with Pastor Daniel Lambert, of Easthaven Baptist Church, officiating. Visitation will be 1-4 p.m. today at Johnson Mortuary.

1991 Edward Joseph Dauphine, 58

Edward Joseph Dauphine, 58, of Libby, died Jan. 8 in Tacoma.

He was born April 3, 1938, in Poplar, to Francis and Helene Dauphine. He was raised in Montana.

He joined the Navy in 1955, serving four years. In 1959 he joined the U.S. Air Force. He served two tours in Vietnam. He retired as a master sergeant in administration at Fairchild Air Force Base in Spokane in 1977. He then worked as a postal carrier, retiring in 1987.

He enjoyed fishing, writing and traveling. He was a member of the Disabled American Veterans in Spokane.

He is survived by sons Joseph

Edward Dauphine, of Post Falls, Idaho, Edward Joseph Dauphine Jr., of Virginia and step son Lyle Gonzales, of Post Falls, Idaho; daughters Susan Dauphine, of Carson City, Nevada, Nicole Dauphine, of Carson City, Nevada, step daughter Stacey Kolterman, of Rathdrum, Idaho; brother George Dauphine, of Libby; mother Helene Dauphine, of Libby; grandchildren Stacie Dauphine, Amanda Lyn Taylor, Jordan Kolterman, Cody Jaymz Gonzales.

A private military service was held at Coeur d'Alene Memorial Gardens with the Post Falls American Legion officiating. Arrangements are by Coeur d'Alene Memorial Funeral Home.

3 Nov 1991 Jean Dawson, 83

Jean Bolyard Dawson, 83, died Monday at the Libby Care Center.

Survivors include her daughter, Kathy Kiser and her husband, Bill, of Kila; son Bob Dawson and his wife, Frances, of Libby; four granddaughters, Christine, Debbie, Linda and Tracy; and two great-grandchildren, John and Allyson.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Wednesday and until noon Thursday at the Nelson & Vial Funeral Home. Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. Cal Noble officiating.

Vernon P. Day, 94

Vernon P. Day, 94, passed away Friday, Feb. 7, 1997, at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born July 31, 1902, in Colfax, Wash., to Elgie and Alice Day. He lived and went to school in Washington. After high school, he attended Washington State University where he received his electrical engineering degree. He then attended the University of Montana where he received his masters degree in education.

He married Marie Peterson on Aug. 3, 1932, in Clarkston, Wash. They lived a short time in Polson, then moved to Kalispell in the mid-1930s.

He was a teacher at the junior high for several years, then moved on to teach math and drafting at Flathead County High School. He served as dean of boys, and spent two years as the principal of Flathead County High School. He retired as the assistant principal in 1967.

He was an avid fisherman, loved hunting, and spent many pleasurable hours in his garden.

He was a member of Masonic Lodge 42, and had served as worthy patron for Eastern Star. He was a very active member of Kalispell Kiwanis, and a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Kalispell.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and two sisters, Mona Cowles and Audrey Pierce.

He is survived by his son, Dr. Donald Day and his wife, Dr. Karen Gruner, of Ijamsville, Md.; daughter, Dr. Nancy Day, and her husband, Dr. Sanford Asher of Pittsburgh; and a granddaughter, Rachel Asher, of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Buffalo Hill Funeral Home with the Rev. Larry Gaylord of First Presbyterian Church of Kalispell officiating. Burial will follow at Conrad Cemetery with Masonic Lodge 42 doing graveside rites. A reception will be held at the Presbyterian church following the services. The family asks that in lieu of flowers donations be made to the Presbyterian church.

Christine Smith Dean, 94

Christine Smith Dean, known as "Christy", 94, died in the Immanuel Lutheran Home on Wednesday, May 7, 1997.

She was born Nov. 1, 1902, in Philipsburg. Her mother and father were of Scottish descent. Her father ranched, logged and mined for gold. She was the fourth of nine children. In her teens the family moved to Creston.

She completed her junior year at Flathead High School and then entered the University of Montana at Missoula. She earned a degree in education with majors in history, English and sociology. She accepted a teaching position at Fairview High School where she met Lawrence Dean. They were married June 1, 1926. He was the principal at Fairview and spent his lifetime in teaching and school administration.

She was preceded in death by Lawrence, who died in September of 1955.

The Deans raised twin sons and a daughter, Doug Dean of Missoula, Dave Dean of Florence, Ariz., and Lorraine Doherty of Libby. They have nine grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandson.

She was active in the Presbyterian Church, the Order of Eastern Star and P.E.O.

She was widely known as a fisherman, gardener and homemaker. Her sense of humor and desire to "go and be with the Lord" were known to all her family and friends. For many years the Deans spent winters in Mesa, and summers at Finley Point on Flathead Lake.

Local relatives are her sisters, Vivian Managhan and Ada Felsman of Kalispell; brother, Robert Smith of Ronan and granddaughter, Cathy Kelley and family of Lakeside.

Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday at the Immanuel Lutheran Home with nephew, the Rev. Doug Kelley, officiating. Private family graveside services and burial will follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

Peggy Harrison Dean, 76

Peggy Harrison Dean, 76, of Apache Junction, Ariz., died of heart failure on Sunday, June 29, 1997, in Billings.

She was born Jan. 13, 1921, in Pollock, S.D., to Frederick and Christina Stadel Schaffer. She was the eldest daughter of five children.

She married William D. Harrison on Aug. 16, 1940. They lived in Billings, Absarokee, Columbia Falls, Helena, and Apache Junction. William died in 1980.

On Oct. 5, 1984, she married Donald Irwin Dean. They lived in Apache Junction until her death.

She enjoyed a wide variety of activities, including fishing, hunting, shuffleboard, cards, crafts, traveling and socializing. She was active in the Eagles and community organizations. She was a great cook and during her life owned and operated a restaurant in Absarokee, and was the food service director at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls and the Mountain View Home for girls in Helena. Even after retirement, she continued feeding the world by running "steak fries" for friends and neighbors in Apache Junction.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Herbert Schaffer; her son, Fred Harrison; and her husbands.

She is survived by two brothers and sister-in-law, Gus and Verda Schaffer of Java, S.D., and Walter Schaffer of Red Oak, Iowa; a sister and brother-in-law, Violet and Loren Berndt, of Herreid, S.D.; three daughters and two stepchildren and their families, Dolly and Bud Grice of Ballantine, Mont., their children Bill, Jerry, Corina and Greg, Donna Reeves of Columbia Falls and her children, George, Kirk, Vickie, and Chuck Jr., and Bonnie and Robert Minto of Missoula and their children, Jenner, Lauren, and Amy, Barbara and Roger Hartwig of Othello, Wash., and their children, Julie, Jodi, and Michael, and Donald and Linda Dean of Chandler, Ariz., and their children, Patrick and Chelie; and 17 great-grandchildren.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral service at Our Saviors Lutheran Church at 11 a.m. on Thursday. The Rev. Thomas Gopp will officiate. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Visitation will be today until 8 p.m. at Columbia Mortuary. The family has suggested memorials be made to the donor's choice.

1997 Ralph DeGolier, 50

Ralph DeGolier, 50, died at his home in Lakeside on Saturday, May 24.

He was born Feb. 19, 1947, in Kalispell, to Gordon and Jewel DeGolier. He attended Evergreen School and graduated from Flathead High School in 1965. That year he entered the Army, serving in Vietnam.

In 1969, he married Lynne Sumter. They had a beloved son, Rob.

Ralph had heart problems for a number of years but in the last month felt so well that he made a trip to Arizona to visit friends and on Friday played his first round of golf in years. He was a very gentle soul who loved to visit with his friends and family, who enjoyed his humor.

He worked in various places in the Flathead and in Phoenix, Ariz., including Anaconda Aluminum Co., and most recently the Wilderness Treatment Center.

He is survived by his mother, of Lakeside; son Rob DeGolier, granddaughter Kayla DeGolier, sisters Gail Barranger and Gloria Shirliff, all of Kalispell and nieces and nephews Bryan and Kyle Barranger and Andy and Krystal Shirliff, all of Kalispell.

Visitation will be 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Tuesday, and 9 a.m. to noon on Wednesday at Johnson Mortuary. A funeral will be 2 p.m., Wednesday, at Johnson Mortuary Chapel, Rev. Marvin Northcutt, of Epworth Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery, with military honors provided by the United Veterans Organization.

Oscar Deitrick, 71

Oscar Deitrick, 71, of Kalispell, died May 23, 1997.

He was born May 27, 1925, to Christ and Carolina Deitrick in Hazelton, N.D., where he attended school.

He served in the Army during World War II.

He was employed by Plum Creek Timber Corp. for 20 years.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Ed, Herman, and Hank, and two sisters.

Survivors include his son, Brian, of Philadelphia; three sisters of Oregon City, Ore.; and nephew, Steve, of Kalispell.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at Johnson Mortuary.

1997 Arling S. Delhay, 81

Arling S. Delhay, 81, of Kalispell, died at the Brendan House, Thursday, Jan. 16.

He was born May 5, 1915, in Lincoln, Neb. He was a first lieutenant in the 357th Engineers of the U.S. Army. He earned several medals for foreign service in North Africa and Italy.

In 1942 he married Ruth Reichenbach. He was a bricklayer, as was his father and four brothers. As a 50-year member of the Bricklayers International Union, he was awarded a Gold Card. Many churches, schools, office buildings and his personal favorite, fireplaces, stand as tribute to his skill as a craftsman.

He loved the outdoors, hiking and snowshoeing in Glacier National Park, and also loved every animal he met. He was an ordained deacon of the Restored Church of Jesus Christ. He was a humanitarian and always had a kind word, offer of encouragement and time to help anyone and everyone.

In 1992, he and his wife, Ruth, celebrated their Golden wedding anniversary.

He is survived by his wife, at home; daughter Nancy, of Denver; brothers, Alfred, of California, Jerry, of Lincoln, Neb., and sisters Marguerite Barnes and Dorothy Koon, both of Lincoln.

Visitation is 1-4 p.m. today at Johnson Mortuary. The body will be forwarded to Lincoln Memorial Funeral Home for services. The family suggests memorials to the National Arbor Day Foundation, Nebraska City, Neb.; the Flathead Food Bank, 105 Sixth Ave. W. in Kalispell or the charity of the donor's choice.

1997 Sylvia Marie DeMello, 86

Sylvia Marie DeMello, 86, formerly of the Flathead Valley, died Wednesday, Nov. 19, in Oroville, Calif.

She was born Jan. 9, 1911, in Verona, Miss., to Fred and Marie Kaiser. She is survived by a son and three daughters in California.

Private graveside services were held in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Local arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

1997 Lorraine 'Rainey' Erma DeMoulin, 30

Lorraine "Rainey" Erma DeMoulin, 30, of Castle Rock, Colo., died at her home on April 17.

She was born in Kalispell on Jan. 18, 1967, to Loma Rae Stanesa and Robert E. Stubbs.

She was raised in Kalispell, attending Evergreen elementary school and Bigfork High School. She moved to Colorado in 1985.

In 1985, she married Michael David DeMoulin in Lakewood, Colo.

She was a homemaker who enjoyed crafts and collecting dolls. She was a member of the Church of the Rock in Castle Rock.

She is survived by her husband, her son, Michael Jr., daughter April Michell, all of Castle Rock; her mother and stepfather Loma Rae and Jim Stanesa, of Castle Rock; father Robert E. Stubbs; sister Laurie and her husband, Sam Brant, brother, Robbi Stubbs, and grandmother Shirley Stubbs, all of Kalispell; mother-in-law Patricia Ann Hugo, of Bigfork; great grandmother Florence DeMoulin, of Kenoshia, Wisc.; niece Heather Woodring and nephew Mathew Woodring, both of Kalispell and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Her loving heart and beautiful smile will be missed by her friends and family.

Services were held at the Church of the Rock on April 20, with Revs. J.R. Polhemus and Dave Dennis officiating.

Memorials may be made to the Rainey DeMoulin Memorial Fund, 1387 S. Sierra, Castle Rock, CO 80104.

Arthur Dennis Denton, 45

Arthur Dennis Denton, 45, of Lonepine, died Thursday, March 27, of heart disease at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was a Vietnam War veteran and worked across Montana and Wyoming, in oil fields, on construction and driving trucks. He enjoyed gardening and motorcycles.

Local survivors include his children Jonathan Denton, of Elmo, Lynelle Alsop, of Columbia Falls, and Melissa Denton, of Hot Springs; stepchildren including Sabian Miller, of Polson, Elizabeth and Skyla Miller, of Polson.

Visitation will be 1-8 p.m., today, Grogan Funeral Home in Polson. A funeral will be 10 a.m., Monday, at Polson Missionary Alliance Church, with Rev. Bill Putnam officiating. Burial will follow at Murray Memorial Cemetery in Lonepine. There will be a dinner and reception at the New Elmo Hall in Elmo. Memorials may be made to the American Heart Association.

Mary Rose Berner Dern, 83

Mary Rose Berner Dern, 83, passed away May 17, 1997, at Kalispell Regional Medical Center.

He was born Dec. 3, 1913, in Great Falls, to Mirko and Mary Taras Mandich. She moved with her family to Anaconda when she was younger and attended schools in the Anaconda area, graduating from Anaconda High School in 1931. She then attended Columbus School of Nursing in Great Falls, where she graduated with her registered nursing degree.

She married Lyle Berner on Feb. 20, 1941, in Great Falls, where they resided until moving to Kalispell in 1943. They lived on a farm on West Reserve for 14 years.

She worked for Dr. Gould and Dr. Wildgen for 15 years, and Dr. Ferree for two years.

Lyle passed away March 4, 1975. They had been married for 34 years.

On June 10, 1976 she married Clifford Dern. They made their home on Farm to Market Road for 15 years. She worked briefly for home health.

Clifford passed away Dec. 9, 1991. They had been married for more than 15 years.

She loved to work in her garden. She enjoyed raising flowers, especially roses, her favorite. She could always be talked into playing pinochle, one of her favorite games. She enjoyed the outdoors, and had spent lots of time camping.

One of her favorite things to do was baking. She loved to bake pies, bread, and one of her family's favorites, cinnamon rolls. She loved her family deeply, and enjoyed doing things for them. She is going to be greatly missed by her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands; a brother, Tom; and a sister, Kay.

She is survived by a son, Bob Berner, and his wife, Terri, of Kalispell; a daughter, Peggy Sorensen, and her husband, Stu, of Columbia Falls; two granddaughters, Dawn Everett and Terri Nix, both of Corpus Christi, Texas; three grandsons, Seth, Shaun and Shane Sorensen, all of Columbia Falls; and two great-grandsons, Baylor Nix and Zach Everett both of Corpus Christi.

Visitation will be held Wednesday from 3-7 p.m. at Buffalo Hill Funeral Home, Vigil services will be held at 7 p.m. Mass of Christian burial will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Joseph Sullivan of St. Richard's Catholic church officiating. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Memorials may be made to the Montana Eye Bank, 554 West Broadway, Missoula, MT 59802.

Fred John Desch, 83

Fred John Desch, 83, of Kalispell, died at Heritage Place on Thursday, March 20, 1997.

He was born Aug. 17, 1913, in Dayton, Ohio, to Fredrick and Marian Desch. When he was 3, the family moved to Polson to take up a home-site on Sunny Slope Hill. He remembered seeing buffalo around Kalispell as they came on the train. They boarded the boat at Somers and came across Flathead Lake to Polson. He received his schooling at Sunny Slope School and at Polson.

He ranched with his dad until he was inducted into the army when World War II broke out. He spent 4 1/2 years in the Army, 2 1/2 of those in Europe. He fought in the invasion of Normandy on Omaha Beach, in the Battle of Paris, and in the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium. By the end of the war, he was stationed in Austria.

After his discharge, he returned to Polson. On June 29, 1947, he married Jennie Zimmerman at Hamilton. In August, 1947, they moved to Kalispell and built their home. They lived here ever since.

He worked for Pacific Power for 30 years, retiring in 1978.

He belonged to the American Legion and Central Bible Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister.

He is survived by his wife Jennie; two sons, Richard Desch and wife, Linda, of Wolf Point, and John Desch and wife, Barbara, of Libby; five grandchildren, Jennifer Desch of Havre, Andy and Matthew Desch of Wolf Point, and Heidi and Daniel Desch of Libby; two sisters, Mrs. Floyd Skogen and Virginia Olsen; two brothers, Roy and Melvin Desch, both of Kalispell; and many nieces and nephews and friends.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Friday in the Johnson Mortuary chapel. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery where military honors will be conducted by local veterans organizations. Visitation will be Thursday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Friday from 9 a.m. until the service.

1997 Sharon Devitt, 52

Sharon Devitt, 52, died at the family home in Kalispell on Wednesday, Jan. 8, of coronary artery disease.

She was born Sept. 26, 1944, in Cut Bank, to Ray and Beatrice McVay. She moved with her family to Kalispell and graduated from the Flathead County High School on May 27, 1963.

On Sept. 28, 1963, she married Byron "Bill" Devitt, in Coeur d'Alene.

She is survived by her husband, Bill Devitt, at home; son Byron Ray Devitt and his wife, Vicki, and their three children in Phoenix, Ariz.; son Derrick Devitt, at home; daughter Lisa and her husband, Dan Hendricks, of Lake Havasu City, Ariz.; five sisters, Opal Rowell, of Lakeside, Mary Jo McVay, of Gig Harbor, Wash., Dorothy Burns, of Columbia Falls, Verona Johnson, of Missoula, and Lorraine Walden, of Columbia Falls; brother Ralph McVay, of Kalispell; two great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be 3 p.m., Monday, at Johnson Mortuary Chapel.

Emily Dey, 85

Emily L. Dey, 85, died Sunday, Nov. 30, 1997, at the Lakeview Care Center in Bigfork.

She was born May 22, 1912, in St. Paul, Minn., to Walter S. and Emily Somerfield Bassett. She was raised and received her education in Minnesota, living in various different towns.

She married Ernst L. Dey April 19, 1930, in St. Paul, Minn. They later moved to South Dakota, Wisconsin, and then to the Flathead Valley, where she had lived until the time of her passing. She enjoyed doing crafts. She and her husband were familiar to shoppers at the Farmers Market for many years.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and a daughter, Cindy in 1975.

She is survived by her seven children, four sons, William Dey and wife, Jean, of Wickenburg, Ariz.,

Michael Dey and wife, Doris, of Missoula, David Dey of Starbuck, Wash., and Rick Dey and wife, Cathy, of Gunnison, Utah; three daughters, Lois Ueland and husband, Norman, of Somers, Fritz Gunn of Fairbanks, Alaska, Dana Hellyer and husband, LaVerne, of Arlee; 23 grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; also three sisters and one brother.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Jan Witman of the Bigfork United Methodist Church officiating. Visitation will be Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel.

Burial will follow at C. E. Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements are by the Johnson Mortuary & Crematory.

Howard 'Jack' William Dickinson Jr., 66

Howard "Jack" William Dickinson Jr., 66, of Trego, died Saturday, Jan. 11, 1997, at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish due to complications following surgery.

He was born Jan. 1, 1931, in Kalispell, to Howard and Mabel Dickinson. He attended grade school in Trego and Fortine and high school in Eureka.

He began his logging career at the early age of 14 with his father and continued with his son until he retired in 1993.

He was very involved in being a loving father and a good neighbor. He was always there whenever there was a need or a want for his family or his community.

He enjoyed fishing and hunting and reveled in the enjoyment of his ability to outwalk his sons to the top of Dark Horse Mountain near Dillon.

He married Deloris Hilliker on May 25, 1963, at the Baptist Church in Eureka, and she preceded him in death on May 25, 1983. He was also preceded in death by his father, Howard, and his sister, Melva Osler.

He is survived by his three sons, Marvin and his wife, Charie, of Trego, Dean of Kalispell and Wade of Dillon; a daughter, Marla, of Trego; two grandsons, Colter Dickinson and Jacob Dickinson, both of Trego; his mother, Mabel Aemisigger, of Libby; a loving companion, Norma McKinney, of Trego; two sisters, Beverly Swing of Libby and Pat Deshazer of Eureka; three brothers, Harold "Buster" of Hawaii, Phillip of Whitefish, Barry of Columbia Falls; many nieces and nephews; and countless friends and neighbors who will miss his stories of life.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m., at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. David V. Kauffman of the Whitefish Christian Church officiating. Cremation will follow the services at the Hillside Crematory under the direction of Austin Funeral Home.

Otho Dillon Jr., 61

Otho "Jim" Dillon Jr., 61, died of cancer Oct. 6, 1997, at the Kalispell Regional Medical Center in Kalispell.

He was born Sept. 1, 1936, in Heber Springs, Ark., to Otho and Bertha Robison Dillon. He was raised and attended school in Burney, Calif.

He married Joan Oftedahl Nov. 12, 1961, at Calvary Lutheran Church in Kalispell. They were married for 29 years.

He was an iron worker for 20 years and retired from that profession. After retiring, he enjoyed owning and training race horses. His sons, John and Justin, rode for him and his daughter, Janis, trained for him.

He was a member of the Moose Lodge. He loved to fish and hunt and enjoyed the outdoors. His great love was racing horses with his children.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Clyde.

He is survived by his wife, Joan; three sons, John Dillon and wife, Sherry, of Spokane, Jeff Dillon and wife, Beccie, of Columbia Falls, and Justin Dillon, also of Kalispell; one daughter, Janis Schoepf and husband, Kyle, of Kalispell; two brothers, Ed Matlock and Bob Matlock of Cottonwood, Calif., three grandchildren, Tracy Caitlin and Kylee Schoepf, Shawn Dillon; also five step-grandchildren, Jestin and Trisha Sinclair, Amy, Jamie and Jimmie Watson.

Memorial services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel.

A luncheon for friends and family will follow at the Moose Lodge, #1922, 2158 Hwy 2 East, Kalispell. Cremation and arrangements are by the Johnson Mortuary & Crematory.

1597 Roger Dokken, 62

Monday, Sept. 1, Roger Dokken was fatally injured in a fall while hiking in Glacier National Park. He and a fellow hiker had just returned from a successful ascent of Mount Cleveland.

He was an avid hiker and skier. He hiked regularly with the Thursday "Over the Hill Gang," with his Boy Scout group and with other friends. Winter found him skiing on the Big Mountain and volunteering with the Dream Ski Program.

He was born in Leeds, N.D., Oct. 25, 1934, and grew up in Shelby. He received a bachelor of science degree in metallurgical engineering at Montana Tech in Butte; spent two years in the U.S. Army and later earned his master's and Ph.D. in metallurgical science from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He was employed by Union Carbide Corporation in Europe and the technical laboratory in Tarrytown, N.Y., for 27 years. In 1991 he retired and moved to Kalispell.

He is survived by his wife, Alice Alexander Pike Dokken; one daughter, Mary Pike Dokken Smith, her husband, Wesley and their son Trevor of Brewster, N.Y.; son John Pike Dokken and wife, Debra, of Winchester, Va.; and two sisters, JoLou Klingler of Gaithersburg, Md., and Margaret Bohl of Sarasota, Fla., and their husbands and children.

Cremation has taken place and a memorial service will be announced later. Memorial gifts may be given to the Dream Program for Handicapped Skiers or Boy Scout Troop 33 in care of Gene Thomas.

Buffalo Hill Funeral Home is in charge of cremation.

Charles F. Dolan, 71

18 June 1997
Charles F. Dolan, 71, died at his home in Kalispell on Wednesday.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth, at home, his mother, a daughter, two sisters, five grandchildren, a great-grandson, and other relatives.

The body was forwarded to Denver, where funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Monday at the Ft. Logan Chapel. Burial in the Ft. Logan National Cemetery will be at 11 a.m. on Monday. Local arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

E.J. 'Tony' Doney, 73

E.J. "Tony" Doney, 73, passed away Sunday Feb. 2, 1997, at Immanuel Lutheran Home.

He was born Nov. 14, 1923, in Hardin, to Everett and Mabel Doney. He lived most of his younger years in Missoula where he attended schools. He enlisted in the U.S. Army and served overseas during World War II. He spent 20 years with the Army Reserves.

He moved to the Flathead Valley in 1960, when he went to work for C and C Plywoods which is currently Plum Creek. He retired in 1989.

He loved to spend time dancing and visiting with his many friends.

He was member of the Eagles 234 and was a World War II veteran.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents and his parents.

He is survived by a very close personal friend, Dorothy Hartsoch, of Kalispell; sons, James Doney and John Doney; daughters, Judy Mapp, Lisa Lembo, and Susan Shutz; half-sister, Joy Hulett; a cousin, Merle Coughlin, of Rainier, Ore.; several grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and numerous cousins.

Memorial services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at Buffalo Hill Funeral Home. His ashes will be buried in Ovando this coming spring. A reception will follow the memorial service at the Eagles Lodge basement. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Jacqueline E. 'Jackie' Donahue, 77

Jacqueline E. "Jackie" Donahue, 77, beloved wife and mother, died peacefully at her home on Friday, Feb. 14, 1997.

She was born May 21, 1919, to Fred and Grace Brindle.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Marcella; four brothers, Joe, Bill, Leo and Boots; and a son, Jerry.

She graduated from Whitefish High School in 1937, and attended beauty college in Spokane.

She married James A. Donahue Sept. 2, 1940.

She will always possess a special place in the hearts of her family to whom she provided total and unconditional love and support. She will be warmly remembered for her quick wit, unique storytelling ability and an active sense of humor. She was an avid supporter of Whitefish youth sports and a lifelong member of St. Charles Catholic Church.

She is survived by Jim Donahue, her devoted husband of 56 years; her sons and daughter-in-law, Rick Donahue of Whitefish and Terry and Dede Donahue of Georgetown Lake; grandchildren Brett and Barbara Donahue of Boise, Idaho, and Jo Ann and Gary Hanvoid of Renton, Wash.; six great-grandchildren; niece, Joyce Gallo Bonner; nephews and their wives, Roger and Norma Brendel and Dan and Jan Donahue.

A memorial mass will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish.

Memorials may be made to Glacier Twins, Box 2007, Whitefish, Mont.

James A. Donahue, 80

James A. Donahue, 80, a longtime Whitefish resident, died Dec. 28, 1997, following a long illness.

He was born in Breckenridge, Minn., June 6, 1917, to George and Annie Donahue. He was one of 13 children.

In 1930, he went to work for the Great Northern Railroad as a brick mason and worked between Oregon and Wisconsin.

While working in Whitefish in 1940, he met and married Jacqueline Brendel. From that point on, he called Whitefish home.

He worked for the GNR until 1958, when he went to work with the Anaconda Aluminum Co. in Columbia Falls until his retirement in 1980.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 57 years, Jackie; one son, Jerry; and 11 brothers and sisters.

Survivors include his sons, Rick

Donahue of Whitefish and Terry and Dede Donahue of Anaconda; two grandchildren, Brett and JoAnn; and six great-grandchildren. Other survivors include many nieces and nephews, including Joyce Bonner, Roger Brendel and Dan Donahue of Whitefish. Also surviving is one sister, Mary Conway of St. Cloud, Minn., and one nephew, Ed Casey of Breckenridge, Minn.

He was a member of St. Charles Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus.

His main interests in life were his loving family and caring for his dog, Brandy, and following sports. He was an avid Bulldog fan and supporter of the Glacier Twins.

Memorials may be made to the Glacier Twins or St. Charles Church.

Memorial services will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at St. Charles Church in Whitefish.

Betty J. Donsbach WP 23 Jan 97

Betty J. Donsbach, 64, a resident of Whitefish, died Jan. 15, at the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

Donsbach was born March 3, 1932, in Bend, Ore. a daughter to Roy and LaVene (Carlton) Trowbridge.

She was married to William Donsbach, Jr. on Jan. 25, 1950 at Polson, Mont. They later divorced.

She was a wife and homemaker for 31 years. In 1988, she moved to Calif. where she was employed as a customer service representative from her brother-in-law, Kurt Donsbach. In April 1994, she returned to Whitefish to enjoy her retirement among her family and friends. She was a very loving, caring, and kind mother and grandmother who devoted much of her time to her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son Jeffrey in 1977, her brother Ken in 1996, grandson Joseph in 1991 and a sister Kathy. Surviving members of the family are her eight children, Richard Donsbach of Ramona, Calif.;

Donsbach

Darlene Donsbach of Richland, Wash.; Carol Jellison of Kalispell, Roger Donsbach and Ron Donsbach of Whitefish; Tim Donsbach of San Diego, Calif.; David Donsbach of Jamul, Calif.; Diana Donsbach-DeBusk of Flagstaff, Ariz.; five sisters Delores, Patricia, Sharon, Rose and Barbara; three brothers Keith, Tom and Vern and fourteen grandchildren.

Christian Wake services were held Friday, Jan. 17, at 7 p.m. at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Funeral mass was held on Saturday, Jan. 18, at 1 p.m. at the St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish.

1997 Frances Downen, 63

Frances B. Downen, 63, of Columbia Falls, died Monday evening, Sept. 22, at the Kalispell Regional Medical Center in Kalispell.

She was born Aug. 8, 1934, in Cass Lake, Minn., to William F. and Florence M. Bishop. She married Stan Downen on Oct. 31, 1959, in Columbia Falls.

She was a member of the DAV Auxiliary.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, one sister and a daughter, Tracey.

She is survived by her husband, Stan, of Columbia Falls; and her children, Dennis Howard and his wife, Jeanne, of Columbia Falls, Chad Downen, Keesha Downen, and Tamara Downen of Columbia Falls.

A rosary will be recited Friday at 7 p.m. at the Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls. A funeral service will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Columbia Mortuary. The Rev. Joe Pat Sullivan will officiate. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. Visitation will be Friday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls.

Edna Doyle, 82

Edna B. Doyle, 82, a Whitefish resident, passed away Sunday, Dec. 21, 1997, at the North Valley Hospital of natural causes.

She was born Sept. 17, 1915 in Talaquah, Okla. She worked in restaurants and cafes as a waitress and later as a bartender in the Whitefish and Cut Bank areas. After retirement she became an avid bingo player.

She will be greatly missed by all who knew her and loved her. A very special angel has left her friends and loved ones today.

She was preceded in death by her father and mother, Walter and Melvina Combs; five brothers; two sisters; son-in-law Bob Bell; daughter-in-law Joyce Doyle.

She is survived by sons, Richard

Doyle of Sheridan, Wyo., Ronald Doyle of Seattle, Randall Doyle of Tacoma, Wash.; daughter Jan Bell of Whitefish; close relatives, Monte Garrett of Kalispell, Irene Bagley of Meridian, Calif., Laura Jane Clayton and Sidney Derrick, both of Kalispell; 12 grandchildren; and 29 great-grandchildren.

Viewing will be 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Friday at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish.

Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Friday at the funeral home with the Rev. Ken Mottram, the Home Options Hospice chaplain, officiating.

Burial will follow at the C.E. Conrad Memorial Cemetery in Kalispell.

Joyce L. Doyle, 56

Joyce L. Doyle, 56, died June 4, 1997, in Rochester, Wash.

She was born March 28, 1941, in Townsend to Owen W. and Ruby Campbell Hoffman. She attended schools in Townsend and Kalispell.

She lived in Whitefish and in Kalispell, and on Oct. 18, 1957, married Ronald W. Doyle in Kalispell. They moved to Seattle in 1961, and she worked for Boeing Co. and later for King Electric. The couple lived in Marysville, Wash., for nine years, and she worked for Northwest Composit Co. They moved to Rochester three years ago.

She worked for National Seat Cover in Chehalis for a year, and worked at Weyerhaeuser Tree Farm in Rochester for the past six months.

She enjoyed working in her flower garden and traveling, as well as being around people.

Survivors include her husband, Ronald W. Doyle, in Rochester; three sons, Dan and Don Doyle in Seattle, and Dean Doyle in Oakville, Wash.; a sister, Betty Tecca, in Puyallup, Wash.; six grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father in July 1996; by her stepmother, Madelyn Hoffman, in April 1997; and by a grandson, Tyler Doyle, on Nov. 24, 1993.

Funeral services will be Saturday at Sticklin Funeral Chapel in Centralia, Wash. The Rev. Ray Snoko will officiate; cremation will follow.

Friends may call at Sticklin Funeral Chapel on Thursday and Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Elaine Driear, 82

Elaine Driear, 82, of Kalispell, died in the Heritage Place on Friday, Sept. 19, 1997.

She was born on July 19, 1915, the daughter of Leo and Ida Decker in Mobridge, S.D.

She grew up on a farm with her parents and brother, Albert, where she enjoyed riding horses and fishing for catfish in the Missouri River.

Following graduation from high school in South Dakota, she moved to Libby, where she met her husband, George Driear, and they were married on April 4, 1938, in Libby.

The couple moved to San Diego, Calif., where they both worked at a defense plant during World War II. She worked in the drafting department and became skilled at preparing detailed scale drawings of airplane parts.

Following the end of the war, they returned to Libby and then moved to Kalispell, where her husband worked for Pacific Power and Light Co. until his retirement.

She took great pride in her home and gardens and especially her role as a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and brother Albert.

She is now survived by one son, Ralph Driear, of Kalispell, and one daughter Gloria Morrill, of Carmichael, Calif.; five grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be 3 p.m. on Wednesday, at Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery with the Rev. Darold Reiner, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for services. Visitation will be at the Johnson Mortuary from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Tuesday. Arrangements are by the Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.

Christine Drown, 64

Christine Drown, 64, died Friday, at her home in Libby 19 April 1997

She was born in Pasadena, Calif., on Sept. 8, 1932, the daughter of Thomas and Margret Mieklejohn Guthrie. She was known to her family as Margie. She graduated from Marshall High School and continued her education at John Muir Junior College. Growing up with her sister Nancy, they enjoyed camping trips to the mountains, Sunday drives along the coast and ice skating with friends. She loved horseback riding and all types of sports.

She met Don Drown at age 14, and went steady with him until their engagement in 1950. They were married in Pasadena on Sept. 26, 1952, at the Chapel of Roses.

They lived in Pasadena and Azusa, Calif., for three years until moving to the Chico, Oroville, and Paradise area. They lived in the Bigfork area for 10 years.

She was devoted to her work as bookkeeper/teller at Valley and Flathead Banks. She retired from banking in 1966, and she and her husband moved to Libby to enjoy their retirement. She was well liked by all and made friends easily.

Survivors include her husband Don, of Libby; sons Lawrence Drown of Columbia Falls, Steven Drown of Newman Lake, Wash.; three daughters, Sandra Gustafson of Kalispell, Sharon Drown of Chico, Calif., Karen Sand, of Columbia Falls; a sister, Nancy Holt of Sequim, Wash.; seven grandchildren, Diana, Stacy, Robert, Lea, Christina, Elizabeth, and Jennifer; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday. Burial will take place in Paradise Cemetery in Paradise, Calif.

Merle Duncan, 91

Merle Duncan, 91, of Kalispell, passed away with cancer Monday, April 28, 1997, at Brendan House.

She was born Oct. 7, 1905, in Enid, Okla., to Louis Elmer and Alice Lu Craibill Duncan and came to Montana with her parents in March 1913. She attended country grade school in the North Joplin community of Montana and went to high school in Joplin and Cut Bank.

After high school, she attended Western Montana Normal School in Dillon, then began a teaching career. Between teaching assignments, she continued her education.

In the early 1930s, she was elected county superintendent of schools in Liberty County. She served in that capacity until the early 1940s when she resigned and took a teaching position in the Richmond, Calif., school system. In 1954, she came to Kalispell where she continued teaching until she retired.

After retiring, she continued to live in Kalispell in the summer and went to Mesa, Ariz., for the winter months.

She was a member of United Methodist Church of Kalispell and attended Velda Rose Methodist Church in Mesa.

She enjoyed painting, traveling, raising flowers and playing cards.

She is survived by her brother, Bob, of Lakeside; nephew, Bill Dalby, and his daughter, Jenny; and a number of cousins.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt of Epworth Methodist Church and the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey officiating. Burial will follow at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Visitation will be today until 6 p.m.

Dorothy Ethel Dunham, 87

Dorothy Ethel Dunham, 87, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital on Saturday, May 3, 1997.

She was born Nov. 3, 1909, in Wood Lake, Minn., to Henry Robert and Lulu Martha More Houston. She graduated from Flathead High School in 1928. She married Edward Dunham on April 3, 1929, in Kalispell.

She owned and operated the Meridian Dairy and Grocery along with her husband and her brother, Clinton Houston, until 1953.

She spent her last few years living at Buffalo Hill Terrace. She enjoyed nature and was very involved with her family, friends and church. She was a member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church for many years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ed; a daughter, Carol Brown; and two brothers, Clinton and Stanley Houston.

She is survived by one son, Dallas L. Dunham of Phoenix, Ariz.; a sister, Mildred Holloran, and a brother, Harley Houston, both of Kalispell; two grandsons, Rick Dunham of Tempe, Ariz., and Curtis Brown of San Antonio, Texas, and three granddaughters, Kathleen Pierce of Kalispell, Christina Miller of Rathrum, Idaho, and Theresa Janke of Greenacres, Wash.; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 3 p.m. at Bethlehem Lutheran Church with the Rev. Richard A. Nelson officiating. Burial will follow in Glacier Memorial Gardens in Kalispell. Viewing will be today until 6 p.m. and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.

The family suggests memorials be sent to Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 603 South Main, Kalispell, MT.

Robert Dunlap, 70

Robert J. Dunlap, 70, a former resident of Bigfork, died Thursday, June 5, 1997, in Newport, Ore.

Remembrance may be made to Pacific Communities Hospice, of Newport, Ore., or Demoss-Durdan Garden Chapel, 815 N.W. Buchanan Ave., Corvallis, Ore., 97330.

Loretta Dunn, 89

Loretta M. Dunn, 89, a former resident of Whitefish, died Oct. 26, 1997, in Helena, where she had resided for the past five and a half years.

She was born in Palouse, Wash., on Sept. 28, 1908, a daughter of Harvey and Maude Lowe Mael.

During her childhood the family moved many times throughout the Northwest.

Before her marriage to Albert "Buster" Dunn on Nov. 19, 1928, in Kalispell, she worked in the kitchen/dining room at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

She was an avid flower lover and raised hybrid iris for many years, both in Whitefish and Columbia Falls.

She was a member of the Lady

Trainmen of Whitefish.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one sister in infancy; two brothers; and her husband in 1963.

She is survived by a brother, Cecil Mael of Billings; daughter Joyce Jolly of Helena; two grandchildren, Douglas Jolly of Puyallup, Wash., and Shelley Zeleniak of Helena; four great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held on Wednesday, 2 p.m., at the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery with the Rev. David V. Kauffman of the Whitefish Christian Church officiating.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish. The casket will not open for visitation.

Walter Lee Dunn, 79

Walter Lee Dunn, 79, died March 31, 1997, in Sultan, Wash.

He was born March 9, 1918, in Dillon. He graduated from Flathead High School in 1936.

He served in the U.S. Army in World War II from 1942-46 and was highly decorated. He was awarded the Bronze Star for battle participation in the China Combat Zone, the Legion of Merit for exceptionally meritorious service, the Europe Theater ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Theater ribbon with one battle star, American Theater Ribbon, and World War II Victory Medal. On May 14, 1947, after discharge from the service, he received a foreign award, the Special Breast Order Yun Hui with Ribbon from the Chinese Government.

He graduated from Montana State College in Bozeman, with a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering in 1949 and earned a masters degree in public health from the University of California in 1953. He was a registered sanitarian of California, registered professor of engineering in Georgia in 1953, and was assistant professor, associate professor, professor, and professor emeritus of the College of Engineering at University of Washington from 1954-1983.

He was preceded in death by wife, Billie Sykes.

He is survived by beloved children, Sandra L. DuPuy of Kalispell and Dr. Michael J. Dunn of Lubbock, Texas; eight grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his beloved wife, Alice J. Dunn, and four children, Vickie A. Wordsworth, Sherrie L. Austin, Lesa M. Russell and Benjamin A. Clark; 15 more grandchildren; and one great-grandchild, all of the Seattle area.

He graduated from the Christian Writers Institute in Wheaton, Ill., in 1988. He also contributed to the Monroe Monitor and authored 110 columns, worked as the Beginning Writers Group Coordinator, Publisher of "A Window To Truth," Flathead High School Pow-Wow Newsletter for the Class 1936 and The Flathead Shadow.

His hobbies included reading, writing, his home personal computer, football and reclaiming his five acres on the Sultan River. He devoted his heart and talents to the Lord since his rebirth in Christ in 1979. He was an encourager to those he came in contact with and considered himself a servant in Christ.

Burial was April 4 in Sultan Cemetery in Sultan, Wash.

11 gnd 1997
Robert Louis Dusek, 72

Robert Louis Dusek, 72, of Whitefish, died Friday at North Valley Hospital after a long battle with cancer.

He was born Oct. 1, 1924, in Drake, N. D., the son of Henry and Rosa Dusek. He grew up on a farm north of Anamoose, N.D. He attended school through the eighth grade at Antelope Lake Township. He worked on the farm until he was 17 and then studied welding at National Youth Administration school in St. Paul, Minn. He then worked for Williams Brothers Boiler Co. in Minneapolis, building barges for the U.S. Navy. He returned to the farm for two years.

He tried various jobs, working for a timber company in Washington and then dock work in California, before returning to the family farm to help his parents. He went to work for the Great Northern Railroad in 1947 and retired 38 years later in 1985. He had worked as a welder, handyman, gang foreman, and finally as a mechanic.

He married Eleanore "Blondie" Delzer on Oct. 7, 1948, in Rugby, N.D. They had six children. The family lived in various places, including Alymer, N.D., New Rockford, N.D., and finally moving to Whitefish in 1969.

He was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Whitefish. He was an avid fisherman and hunter.

He loved the outdoors.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Dorothy.

He is survived by his wife, Eleanore, in Whitefish; children Darrel Dusek and wife, April, of Libby, Charlotte Henne, of Aurora, Ill.; Dianna Neugebauer and husband, Guy, in Moorcraft, Wyo., Beverly Dusek, in Whitefish, Gary Dusek, of Walla Walla, Wash., and Penny Black and husband, David, in Holland, Ohio. He is also survived by 11 grandchildren, Troy, Jonathan, and Erin Dusek, Rhonda Woehl, Tracy, Jessie, Jason and Jamie Henne, Robert Taylor, Shawn Dusek and Amanda Dusek; seven great-grandchildren, Joshua Dusek, Brandon and Kaitlyn Woehl, Morgan and Nina Henne, Brittany Henne, Sierra Vahl; two step-grandchildren and five step-great-grandchildren; sister Alice Peterman, in Fargo, N. D.; brothers Frank Dusek, near Anamoose, N. D. and Larry Dusek near Martin, N.D. and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

A memorial service will be 11 a.m., Tuesday, at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, with Rev. Don Browne officiating. Inurnment will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens in Kalispell. The family suggests memorials to hospice or the American Cancer Society.

Anita Sauvageau Duval, 92

Anita Marie Sauvageau Duval, 92, passed away Monday, Oct. 13, 1997, at Brendan House in Kalispell.

She was born on Oct. 16, 1904, in Wild Rice, N.D., to Rodolphe and Adeline Sauvageau. She was married to Leon E. Duval on Oct. 30, 1928, in Wild Rice.

She was preceded in death by her husband Leon in 1976; daughter Cecilia Richard; five brothers; five sisters; and three grandchildren.

She is survived by five daughters, Beatrice Jensen of Sandy, Utah, Joan Slyter of Kalispell, Celine "Sally" Hall of Kalispell, Rose Marie Gordon of Big Piney, Wyo., Mary Ann Mos of Nampa, Idaho; four sons, Lionel Duval of Hermiston, Ore., Clarence Duval of Chino Valley, Ariz., David Duval of Kalispell, and James Duval of Hungry Horse; 54 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Viewing will be from 4-7 p.m. today with a vigil service at 7 p.m. at Buffalo Hill Funeral Home. Mass of Christian burial will be at 2 p.m. Friday, at Risen Christ Catholic Church with the Rev. James Connor as celebrant. Burial will follow in Wild Rice, N.D. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Pearl Anna Dye, 92

Pearl Anna Dye, 92, formerly of Kalispell, died of a heart attack Sunday, April 20, 1997, in Lake Forest Park, Wash.

She was born April 13, 1906, in Minot, N.D., to Harry and Ethel Petry.

When she was 2 years old, she moved with her family to Conrad, then to Loma and Teton. She received her early education there, later moving to Great Falls where she completed her schooling.

She attended Mada DeGuile Beauty School in Minneapolis, where she graduated in 1925. She moved to Kalispell where she worked with her mother at Ethel's Beauty Shop until 1937, when she became owner of the shop known as Pearl's Beauty Nook. She retired and closed the shop on Jan. 1, 1980.

She was a member of Central Christian Church for more than 70 years.

She moved from Kalispell to Mountainlake Terrace, Wash., in January 1996, to be near her daughter.

On Jan. 15, 1926, she married Earl W. Dye in Kalispell and was preceded in death by him on Oct. 28, 1973. She was also preceded in death by a brother, John Petry; a sister, Edna Hansman; and a half-sister, Donna Brintnall.

She is survived by two daughters, Lois D. Smith and her husband, Art, of Orem, Utah, and Ina M. Klem and her husband, Roy, of Mountainlake; eight grandchildren; and 28 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday at Central Christian Church with the Rev. Terry Vanheyningen officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday for visitation.