

Dennis Keith Galloway, 61

Dennis Keith Galloway, 61, of Kalispell, died Friday, May 23, 1997, in the Brendan House following a lengthy illness with Lupus.

He was born April 28, 1936, in Divide, to Hugh and Mary Galloway. When he was 2 weeks old, the family moved to Kila. He was raised and educated there. He worked on farms and ranches throughout his teen years.

In 1955 he went to Sidney to do ranch work. There, he met Caroline Zeller and they were married on October 15, 1955. They had six children.

He was a member of the Kalispell Eagles Lodge and served as president. He enjoyed woodcutting, bowling, and fishing.

He was preceded in death by two infant sons; three brothers, Donald, John, Hugh, Galloway Jr. and sister, Leah.

He is survived by his wife, Caroline, at the family home; sons Dennis W. Galloway and wife, Janet, of Kalispell, Arnold J. Galloway and wife, Mary, of Somerset, Texas, Robert D. Galloway and wife, Lori, of Great Falls and Craig E. Galloway and wife, Cindy, of Boise, Idaho; brothers Calvin and Kenneth Galloway, both of Kalispell, Lawrence Galloway, of Columbia Falls and Edwin Galloway, of Great Falls; sister Irene Wilson, of Whitefish; 12 grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Visitation will be 1-4 p.m. today and 9 a.m. to noon Tuesday at Johnson Mortuary. A funeral will be 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Johnson Mortuary. Bishop Carl Clark of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints officiating. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Vita Virginia Ganiere, 72

Vita Virginia Ganiere, 72, passed away Wednesday, July 23, 1997, at Heritage Place in Kalispell.

She was born Oct. 7, 1924, in Albert Lea, Minn., to Alfred and Pearl Fenholt Bertelson. She was raised and received her education there. After high school, she attended two years of business college in Albert Lea.

She married Roger Henry Ganiere on May 15, 1942, in Albert Lea. The couple came to the Flathead Valley in 1943. They lived in Columbia Falls for 10 years and Bigfork for 20 years and moved to Kalispell in 1982 where they lived until her passing.

She was a member of Lakeview Rebekah Lodge 112 and enjoyed knitting and crocheting. She adored her grandchildren and enjoyed spending time with them.

She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother.

She is survived by her husband, Roger, of Kalispell; two sons, James Ganiere and wife, Sharrie, of Moses Lake, Wash., and John Ganiere and wife, Donna, of Bigfork; five grandchildren, Kenneth Ganiere of Moses Lake, Robert Ganiere of Canutillo, Texas, Kristine Arndt of Tucson, Ariz., Michelle Ganiere of Saipan, Marriana Islands, Debra Ornelas of Clovis, N.M.; four great-grandchildren, and many other relatives and friends.

Memorial Services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Ron Pierce officiating. Ritualistic rights will be conducted by Lakeview Rebekah Lodge 112. A private urn burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens. Cremation and arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.

Randy F. Garland, 48

Randy F. Garland, 48, passed away Monday, June 16, 1997, at Kalispell Regional Medical Center.

He was born April 8, 1949, in Los Angeles, to Frederick and Myra Garland. He moved with his family to Page, N.D., when he was 6 months old. The family moved to Aurora, Colo., where he graduated from Aurora Colorado High School. He attended college in Gunnison, Colo., and then attended college in San Mateo, Calif.

After college he returned to Colorado where he went to work as project supervisor for Woods Brothers Construction out of Denver. He moved to Bigfork in 1980 and started his own construction company.

He married Claudia Barescu on Sept. 8, 1984, in Cape Cod, Mass. They made their home in Bigfork.

He loved the outdoors, especially camping, fishing and hunting. He loved working around his yard and it always looked neat and trimmed. He was also a very good gardener and every spring he looked forward to putting in his new garden.

He was a member of the Republican Party, the National Rifle Association and Bethany Lutheran Church in Bigfork.

He loved Alaska, and had traveled there on two separate occasions. He had even thought about moving to Alaska.

He was a very loving and caring person. He is going to be deeply missed by his family and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Claudia, of Bigfork; two daughters, Crystal and Stephanie of Bigfork; father, Fred Garland, of Bigfork; mother, Myra Garland, of Winnemucca, Nev.; and sister, Sandy Rotherham, of Springfield, Ill.

Memorial services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Bethany Lutheran Church in Bigfork, with the Rev. Wayne Pris officiating. Bigfork Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

3 Nov 1997 Margaret Garrison, 84

Margaret A. Garrison, 84, died Monday at her home in Libby.

Survivors include her husband Worth of Libby; two sons, John Kyes of Lakeside, and Marvin Kyes of Libby; a brother; six grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be Thursday from 4 to 8 p.m. and until 1:45 Friday at the Nelson & Vial Funeral Home.

Services will be Friday at 2 p.m. at the Nelson & Vial Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Don Belcher of St. Luke's Episcopal Church officiating.

Inurnment will be at a later date at All Saints of the Desert Episcopal Church Columbarium in Sun City, Ariz.

Remembrances may be made to the Libby Volunteer Ambulance or to David Thompson Search and Rescue.

Louise Gay, 96

Louise Swain Gay, 96, died Sunday, Oct. 5, 1997, at Heritage Place in Kalispell.

She was born March 31, 1901, in Philadelphia, Pa., to William and Jean Swain.

She is survived by her son,

Thomas A. Gay of Rollins.

She will be cremated and her ashes buried at the Washington Memorial Cemetery in Valley Forge National Park in Valley Forge, Pa. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Bernice Joan Gentri

Bernice Joan Gentri, passed away Tuesday, June 3, 1997, at her home in Kalispell.

She was born in Great Falls, to Ole and Harda Stenseth. She was a fashion model and fashion coordinator for the Broadway stores in Southern California for many years.

In 1962, she married John Marc Gentri, an Emmy award winning writer, producer and director. Together they hosted many radio and television talk shows. Of her various careers, the one she most enjoyed was the one she came home to — executive director of Glacier Country Tourism Commission, where she served from 1987 until her death.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1976.

She is survived by her children, Maria McNulty, of Stamford, Conn., Dr. John Gentri, of Spring Hill, Fla., Pina Jaroslow of Cheshire, Conn., Lisa Gentri of Helena, Christopher Gentri of Trumbull, Conn., Joseph Gentri of Missoula, and David Gentri of Missoula; a sister, Dolores Pipinich, of Marysville; a brother, Earl Jensen, of Twin Oaks, Calif.; 15 grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at Buffalo Hill Funeral Home with Deacon Fred Topp of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. The family requests memorials to Home Options Hospice, of Kalispell, or any organization that helps children of sexual assault recovery.

Leslie R. George, 72

Leslie R. George, 72, passed away Oct. 17, at his home on the east shore of Flathead Lake. Leslie was born March 5, 1925, to Leslie and Thelma George, in St. Louis, Mo.

After graduating from Ben Blewett High School, he served in the Navy during World War II in the South Pacific. He completed his bachelor's degree at York College in York, Neb. In 1957, he received his master's degree and worked as an educator in Nebraska. He completed his doctorate in education in 1985. He worked as a school administrator in Dannebrog, Papillion and Omaha, Nebraska, until his retirement.

On Aug. 17, 1946, he married Doris Joleen Gies, in Lincoln, Neb.

He loved to fish and golf and was a member of numerous organization, including OEA, OSEA, NSAAP and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He was preceded in death by a son, William, and daughter-in-law Darla, both in 1996.

He is survived by his wife, Joleen, at the family home; daughter Jo Ellen and husband, Steve Coleman, of Nebraska; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Tim and Jeannine Darnauer and four grandchildren.

Visitation for Leslie R. George will be 1-4 p.m., today, Oct. 19, at Johnson Mortuary. A funeral service will be 1:30 p.m., Monday, at the Johnson Mortuary Chapel, Pastor James Riach officiating. Burial with military rites will follow at Glacier Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements by Johnson Mortuary.

Aloysius Joseph Gerstenberger, 92

Aloysius Joseph Gerstenberger, 92, passed away Tuesday, April 22, 1997, in Kalispell.

He was born July 9, 1904, in Browerville, Minn., to Gregor and Paulina Hadash Gerstenberger. He was raised and received his early education in Browerville. He attended St. John's School and University in Collegeville, Minn. He received his bachelor of arts in education from Gonzaga University in Spokane, and did his post-graduate work at Montana State University in Missoula.

He began his teaching career in Havre, and taught there from 1929-1951.

He married Lillian L. Young on July 17, 1933 in Havre. They moved to Spokane in 1951, and he taught there in 1951 and 1952. They then moved to Kalispell, where he taught at Flathead County High School from 1952 until his retirement in 1969. He taught Latin and English.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Retired Teachers Association, and the AARP.

He enjoyed fishing and hunting.

He was preceded in death by his parents and eight brothers and sisters.

He is survived by his wife, Lillian, of the family home of Kalispell; a daughter, Judith Johnson, and husband, Tim, of Fort Langley, B.C., Canada; a son, Clayton Gerstenberger, and his wife, Ann, of Yakima, Wash.; two granddaughters, Janelle Johnson of Seattle and Judy Gerstenberger of San Francisco; and a grandson, David Gerstenberger, of Yakima.

Funeral mass will be at 10 a.m. Friday at St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Kalispell with the Rev. Kevin Ryan officiating. Burial will follow at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The family suggests memorials to St. Matthew's Catholic School, 602 S. Main Street, Kalispell, MT 59901. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.

Rose Gibbs, 86

Rose Catherine Gibbs, 86, died Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1997, at her home in Kalispell.

She was born Oct. 25, 1910, in Camino, Calif., to Edward E. and Julia Jones Berry. She grew up on her parent's apricot farm near Sacramento, Calif. She had two brothers and one sister. She attended San Jose State College and the University of California at Berkeley.

She met her husband, Paul Gibbs, while working during summer vacation at Fallen Leaf Lodge at Lake Tahoe, Nev. They were married in Reno, Nev. on Aug. 10, 1931. She and her husband engaged in farming and ranching for most of their lives, moving to the Kalispell area in 1945.

They enjoyed remodeling their homes and she became quite good at carpentry. They built their retirement home at Lynch Lake, doing most of the construction themselves.

She was a Brownie troop leader, a member of Eastern Star and a member of the Democratic party. She also served on the board of the Opportunity School for several years.

She enjoyed current events, reading, playing her piano, nature walks and travel. She was an enthusiastic and an accomplished seamstress and enjoyed knitting, crocheting and caring for her flower garden.

She was a gentle, loving spirit. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Her two brothers, R. E. Berry and Sidney E. Berry, both of Berkeley, Calif., and her sister, Mabel Skinner of Bakersfield, Calif., preceded her in death.

She is survived by her husband, Paul, at the family home in Kalispell; three sons, Theodore L. Gibbs of Graham, Wash., Dennis N. Gibbs and C. Clay Gibbs, both of Las Vegas, Nev.; daughter Judith Lyons of Kalispell; as well as several grandchildren; and great-grandchildren; also many nieces and nephews.

Cremation has taken place. She requested that no public services be held. A memorial for family and close friends will be held at a later date.

The family suggests memorials may be sent to Home Options, 1280 Burns Way, Kalispell, MT 59901.

Cremation and arrangements are by the Johnson Mortuary & Crematory.

§ Oct 1997 Louise Gidley, 75

Louise Gidley, 75, of Libby, died of natural causes Wednesday morning at her home in Libby.

She was born in Richey Oct. 6, 1922, to Charles Olson and Hazel Reed Olson. She married James L. Gidley May 28, 1941, at Sidney.

She was employed at Adkins Supermaket and later by Lincoln County, working in the treasurer's office and for the county superintendent of schools.

She was preceded in death by her husband, a grandson and a brother.

She is survived by two daughters including Colleen Gidley of Libby; two sons, Steve Gidley and Lance Gidley, both of Libby; a sister, Thea Buti of Libby; two brothers including Chuck Olson of Kalispell; two step-brothers including John Thede of Libby; a stepsister; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Visitation will from 2 to 8 p.m. today. Services will be Saturday, 11 a.m., at the Nelson & Vial Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will follow in the City of Libby Cemetery. Memorials may be made to Libby Volunteer Ambulance, P.O. Box 777, Libby MT 59923.

1997 Michael Gieb, 80

Michael Gieb, 80, died of heart failure Tuesday, April 29, in Sarasota Memorial Hospital in Sarasota, Fla.

He was born Jan. 24, 1917, to Michael and Katherina Gieb in Cleveland, Ohio. He was a graduate of Findley College in Findley, Ohio. He was an avid sportsman and played on the Findley varsity football and baseball teams. He later joined the Army Air Corps during World War II.

On July 24, 1946, he married Mildred L. Rishoi of Brookings, S.D., who preceded him in death in April 1989.

He was a high school teacher and coach until he was recalled to active duty during the Korean War. As a career military officer, he proudly served his country until his retirement from the U.S. Air Force in 1967 at Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, Wash., where he was the base administration officer.

He and his wife, Millie, then moved to their home at Savage Lake near Troy, where he lived until 1994. He then moved to Bigfork to live with his daughter, Chris, and her husband, Russ Miller. He had just recently moved to Sarasota.

He is survived by his daughters, Christine, and her husband, Russell Miller, of Bigfork, and Margaret McCurry of Oxnard, Calif.; granddaughters, Alison McCurry of Austin, Texas, Sarah and Theresa McCurry of Oxnard; two brothers, John Gieb of Olmsted Township, Ohio, and William Gieb of Strongsville, Ohio; and his very special friend, Dorothy Neubauer of Sarasota, Fla., and Highlands, N.C.

Cremation has taken place. His ashes will be buried at Milnor Lake Cemetery near Troy, on July 1 following services at Christ Lutheran Church in Libby. Services will be officiated by the Rev. Jack Shannon of Bethany Lutheran Church in Bigfork.

He was a very loving father, grandfather and a very special person and will be greatly missed.

Family suggests memorials be sent to the American Heart Association.

Fred W. 'Fritz' Giese, 68

Fred W. "Fritz" Giese died Wednesday, Aug. 20, 1997, at Kalispell Regional Medical Center.

He was born July 2, 1929, in Cut Bank. He resided in Libby.

He is survived by his children, Randall Giese and Lennia Holcomb; his grandchildren, Nicole Giese, Nathaniel Giese, and Johnna Holcomb; four siblings, Roland "Bolie," Durwood "Duke," Betty and Altona.

A memorial lunch is scheduled for 2 p.m. Friday at the VFW in Libby. The potluck lunch will be sponsored by the VFW Ladies Auxiliary. The Mint Bar will also host a reception for family and friends during the same time. Friends and family members are encouraged to attend the memorial lunch and reception.

At his request, no services are scheduled. Cremation will take place and interment will be in the Libby Cemetery in the veterans' section with his brother, Clifford Giese.

Russell Calvin Gilham, 16

Russell Calvin Gilham, 16, of Hungry Horse died Tuesday, Nov. 11, 1997, of heart failure due to an overdose of prescription medication.

He was born Jan. 19, 1981, in Browning, to Gary and Laurie Gilham. There he attended school until he moved to the Flathead area in 1990, where he attended the Canyon Elementary School in Hungry Horse, and Glacier Gateway and in Columbia Falls. In 1994, he moved to Shelby, where he attended the Shelby Middle School and Shelby High School. He moved back to Kalispell in 1996 and attended Flathead High School until last month, when he transferred to Columbia Falls High School.

Survivors include a great-grandmother, Dorothy Hanson in Columbia Falls; grandparents, Alan and Lois Gilham in Martin City, and Fred and Barbara Greiff in Everett, Wash.; father and stepmother, Gary Gilham and Ann Bickford in Martin City; mother and stepfather, Laurie Walter and John DeVera in Hungry Horse; brothers Nathaniel Gilham in Martin City and Clifford Gilham in Hungry Horse; sister Krystyn Gilham in Hungry Horse; stepbrothers, Michael George DeVera in Great Falls, John DeVera in Shelby, James DeVera in Kalispell, and John Bickford in Seldovia, Alaska; stepsisters, Lisa, Annie, and Chrissy Bickford in Martin City; stepniece, Samantha Anderson in Martin City; and numerous uncles, aunts and cousins.

He was preceded in death by several great-grandparents; his maternal grandfather, Cliff Walter; and an uncle, Vernon Gilham.

A memorial will be held at the Canyon Community Church in Coram today at 1 p.m., with interment following at the Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Lovetra Fagerland Gilleard, 84

Lovetra Fagerland Gilleard, 84, died Jan. 4, 1997.

She was born in Kalispell on April 4, 1912. She was the oldest of six brothers and sisters.

She married Elmer Fagerland in 1933. They and their two sons, Elmer Jr. and Bill, moved to Cut Bank in 1941. Elmer Sr. died in 1961. She then married Dr. Ray Gilleard of Columbia Falls in 1963. He also preceded her in death.

She is survived by her sons, Elmer Fagerland and his wife, Carolyn, and Bill Fagerland and his wife, Marlene, all of Edmonds, Wash.; four grandchildren, Paul Fagerland, Sharlene Barrett and her husband, Larry, Laurie Fagerland, and Laureen Fagerland; sisters June Richter, Billie Hansen and her husband, Harry, and the Rev. Wanda Christofferson; brother Jack McGlothlin and his wife, Coleene, of Cody, Wyo.; and a sister-in-law, Bernice McGlothlin of Cut Bank.

She was preceded in death by brothers Rex McGlothlin and Morris McGlothlin.

She was a longtime member of the Cut Bank Assembly of God Church and more recently the Columbia Fall Assembly of God Church.

She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Services will be on Thursday at 1 p.m. at the Cut Bank Assembly of God Church. Memorials may be made to either the Cut Bank Assembly of God Church or the Columbia Falls Church.

1997 Joyce B. Gillette, 88

Joyce B. Gillette, 88, of Missoula, died Wednesday, Oct. 22, at Community Medical Center in Missoula.

She was born Nov. 21, 1908, in Highmore, S. D., to John and Violet Eberlein. She had a younger sister, Marge Collins, of Broadus, and a younger brother, Russell Eberlein, of Rapid City, S. D. Both preceded her in death.

After graduating from high school, she attended Nettleton Business School in Sioux Falls, S. D. She went on to work as a legal secretary in Miller, S. D.

In 1929, she married Wayne Gillette. After living in various towns in Wyoming, North Dakota and Montana, they bought a drug store in Wolf Point, which they operated for 15 years. In 1962, they sold the drug store and moved to Missoula.

She was very active in the Senior Citizens' Center, teaching beginning bridge and serving as co-chairman to the bridge group for many years.

Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Marilyn and Oscar Hauge, of Missoula; grandchildren Brad Wright and wife, Heidi, of Kalispell, Blaine Wright, of Whitefish, and Beth Cole, of Missoula; great grandchildren, Madison Cole, Sam Cole and Molly Wright.

A memorial service will be 2 p.m., Tuesday, at the Malletta Family of Funeral Homes, Sunset Chapel, 7405 Mullan Road, Missoula. A reception will follow in the funeral home's community room.

Gordon R. Gilmond, 57

Gordon R. Gilmond, 57, died at his home in Evergreen on Thursday, Aug. 21, 1997, after a long battle with cancer.

He was born March 30, 1940, in Eureka to Anita and Wilfred "Bunny" Gilmond. He was raised and attended schools in Eureka, and entered the U.S. Navy in February of 1958.

After his discharge he worked and lived in various places, eventually returning to Eureka, where he worked in construction and logging.

On Nov. 9, 1978, he married Geri Rice. They lived in Eureka until coming to Kalispell in May of 1979, when he enrolled at Flathead Valley Community College. He later attended Montana State University in Bozeman for a short time. He then worked at various jobs in the Flathead Valley, eventually driving chip truck and working construction.

He was an avid fisherman and some of his best times were spent with his family. He enjoyed tying flies and riding his Goldwing motorcycle with his wife.

He was a beloved husband, father and friend. He will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

He was preceded in death by his father, "Bunny" Gilmond.

He is survived by his wife, Geri, at the family home in Evergreen; two sons, Darin of Kalispell and Michael of Missoula; two daughters, Nicole Gilmond of Cut Bank and Desiree Erickson of Enumclaw, Wash.; his mother, Anita Gilmond, and sister, Barbara Higl, both of Eureka; three grandchildren; and several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Faith Free Lutheran Church in Kalispell with the Rev. Steve Shipstead officiating. Austin Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Marie Gingery, 57

Marie Gingery, 57, of Hot Springs, passed away of natural causes on Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1997, at her home in Hot Springs.

She was born in Havre, on May 2, 1939. She was the youngest daughter of Anton and Helen Amundson. At age 2, she moved with her family to Kalispell where her parents took a homestead. She grew up in the Kalispell area and attended schools in Evergreen.

She married Robert Gingery in 1955, in Coeur d'Alene. She spent most of her married life in the Flathead Valley. She moved back to the family homestead in 1964 and lived there until she moved to Hot Springs in 1977.

She worked at the Hot Springs Convalescent Center until December of 1996. She enjoyed working with the elderly residents and the many friendships that she made through the years.

She loved the outdoors, the mountains and taking drives. She loved to fish, camp and picnic at Lake Mary Ronan and Glacier Park. She loved her family and enjoyed spending time with them.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Harold Amundson, and a daughter, Connie Marie Mock.

Survivors include five daughters, Roberta Jean Iacovoni of Midland, Mich., Vickie Lynn Pihlaja of Everett, Wash., Barbara Ann Richards of Wildomar, Calif., Pattie Jo Gingery of Alexandria, Va., and Leslie Dykstra of Hot Springs; three brothers, William Lefferson of Anchorage, and Donald Amundson and Tony Amundson, both of Kalispell; two sisters, Sadie Stroud of Grants Pass, Ore., and Louise Myles of Vancouver, Wash.; grandchildren, Kristina Anne Hemmah-Iacovoni, Kala Marie Mock, Terrance Michael Mock, Anthony Gordon Iacovoni, Michael Jesse Richards, and an unborn grandchild expected by her daughter, Barbara, in May; and a special friend, Gerald Berry, of Hot Springs.

Services will be held on Saturday at 4 p.m. at the Hot Springs Bible Church in Hot Springs. Arrangements are by Mosley-Shrider Funeral Home.

Evelyn Fosnes Glover, 75

Evelyn Fosnes Glover, 75, died Saturday at Kalispell Regional Medical Center. 3/1 Jan 1997

She was born in Landa, N.D., and over lived in North Dakota and Washington before settling in Montana.

In her early years, she was a telephone operator and subsequently worked for 14 years for Telco which later was sold to Mountain Paging.

She was preceded in death by her husband Raymond and two sisters.

Survivors are her daughter, Wani-ta Smith, and her husband, Larry, and beloved grandson, Leon; son, Raymond Glover, M.D. and daughter-in-law, Pam Gross, M.D.; sister, Nordis Hanson; two nieces; and one nephew.

A closed casket visitation will be from 1-6 p.m. today at Johnson Mortuary. Services are at Johnson Mortuary on Tuesday at 2 p.m. with internment at Conrad Memorial Cemetery immediately following the service. The service will be conducted by the Rev. Reiner.

1997

Viola Eve Gooding, 89

Viola Eve Gooding, 89, of Kalispell, died on Friday, Dec. 19, at Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She was born Jan. 28, 1908, in Colorado Springs, Colo. Her father worked on farms, in the wood products industry and owned a confectionery store. She was the oldest of three girls and also had a half-brother and half-sister.

She lived in Steamboat Springs during her childhood. She watered, fed and milked the cattle. She attended high school and married at age 17.

Her husband, Arthur Furrow, worked in the forest products industry in Colorado. They had four children. Three survive her: Allen Furrow, of Kalispell; Jo Cary, of Spokane and Edna Ford-White, of Albuquerque, N. M.

She and Arthur Furrow were divorced in 1940. In 1942, she married Arthur Parsons, who preceded her in death in 1944.

She married John Gooding in 1947. They lived in Victorville, Calif., until his death in 1964. She worked as a waitress, seamstress, bartender and hospital food server. She loved to travel, and play cribbage and poker.

In December, 1991, she moved to the Immanuel Lutheran Home.

According to her son, Allen, her greatest accomplishment was being a wonderful mother and providing almost everything single-handedly in raising and caring for her children.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

A graveside service will be 11 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 27, at Greenwood Cemetery in Spokane, under direction of Heritage Funeral Home. Local arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Matthew Goodwin, 16

Matthew Aaron Goodwin was born on March 9, 1981, in Chehalis, Wash., to Dennis and Mamie Knoll Goodwin. He died Sept. 22, 1997, in a single-vehicle accident.

He has an older brother, Daniel, 17, a younger brother, Gabriel, 13, and a younger sister, Judy, 14, all of Whitefish. His grandparents are James and Lorraine Knoll of Chehalis, and Robert and Elsie Goodwin of Centralia, Wash.

He was preceded in death by his grandma, Priscilla Goodwin, and a cousin, Caleb Husted.

He is survived by his parents, brothers, sister, grandparents, and aunts and uncles: Mike and Gail Knoll, Inis and Tom Baker, Larry and Dana Knoll, Tim and Kay Knoll, Joan and Wayne Pedersen, Chris and Clariece Knoll, Mary and Paul Husted, Nate and Brenda Knoll, Judy and Bart Roose, Donna Todd, Diana Dodson, Deloris Webb, Debbie and Steve Verley, and Denise and John Wood; cousins Bob and Sue Todd and their children, Heather and Amy; Jeff and Janine Todd, George and Dennis Johnson, Sara Verley, Tim Dodson, Amanda, Rachel, and Samantha Wood, Mike and Kristin Baker and son, Brycen, Julie and Jay Titchbourne and children, Kaydi and Braden, Josh and Daisy Baker and children, Ehryn, Ethan and Emmit, Jacob and Rachel Knoll, Heather Roe and children, Aubrey and Taryn, Andy and Jon Knoll, Luke, Jessica, and Kara Knoll, James and Sarah Russell and daughter, Jessica, Mary and Shawn Halverson and son, Cody, Chris and Raynah Pedersen, Samantha and Chris Knoll, Zachary and Hannah Husted, Jason, Renae, Kayla, and Liza Knoll, Marcus and Jared VanBemmel and Jeremy Roose.

He attended Whitefish Central

School and Whitefish High School through 10th grade. He was an active member of Whitefish Community Church of God, participating in many church and youth activities.

He committed his life to Jesus Christ at Senior High Bible Camp in July of 1996, and was baptized as a believer Sept. 8, 1996. The highlight of his summer was traveling with the Montana Light and Power Ministries "Powerhouse Tour," a two week drama, music, and evangelistic group of youth from around Montana.

He had a tough and tender spirit. He appeared rough on the outside, but those who knew him well knew him to be loving and tender-hearted inside.

He had a host of friends locally and around the state.

He loved motorcycles, driving his pickup and other equipment, and working outdoors. He took great joy in spending time with his cousins and friends.

Viewing will be at Austin Funeral Home on Thursday from 12 to 8 p.m. and Friday from 9 to 11 a.m.

Memorial Services will be held Friday at 1 p.m. at Whitefish Community Church of God, 5685 Highway 93 South, Whitefish, with the Rev. Larry L. Lautaret officiating.

Graveside services and burial will be at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls following the memorial service.

A dinner in the church fellowship hall will be served following interment. Family and friends are invited to share together during this time.

The family requests that memorials be made to Whitefish Community Church of God for the Youth and College Scholarship Fund.

A book of remembrances is being compiled for the family. Friends and family are asked to write something of their relationship with Matt to add to the book and bring it to the services.

Zelena Goodman, 81

Zelena Ella "Gary" Goodman, 81, of Longview, Wash., died Sept. 28, 1997, at the Hospice Care Center.

She was born April 8, 1916, in Hebron, N.D., to Jacob and Barbara Weisser Gramm. She lived in Kalispell from 1946 to 1963, and then moved to Longview.

She worked for Pennzoil Co. for many years as a records clerk. Favorite pastimes included attending vespers at Campus Towers, growing flowers, reading, solving crossword puzzles, cooking, spending time with her family and taking automobile rides. Her husband, Raymond H. Goodman, died in 1992.

Survivors include a son, R. Lowell Goodman of Kelso, Wash.; three sisters, Pauline Berry of Boise, Wash., and Helen Stetson and Irma Barbe, both of Missoula; five grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions may be made to Community Home Health and Hospice, P.O. Box 2067, Longview, WA 98632. Cremation has taken place.

Marlin Dean 'Bill' Graber, 72

Marlin Dean "Bill" Graber, 72, of Renton, Wash., died on Tuesday, Aug. 26, 1997, after a long illness with Alzheimer's disease.

He was born April 4, 1924, in Wisner, Neb., to Samuel and Elsie Graber. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy in June, 1943.

While stationed in the Navy in Spokane, he met Betty P. Morton. They were married in Cut Bank on March 5, 1946. They lived in Kalispell, where their children were born. He worked at Flathead Electric Co-op for 18 years.

In 1966, they moved to Vancouver, Wash., and later to Renton. He was in the Mercer Island Care Center in Washington at the time of his death.

He worked as an aircraft patrol observer for Bonneville Power in Vancouver and Seattle for 22 years before retiring. He was also a member of the the Masonic Lodge in Renton.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Betty Graber, and his brother, Vernon Graber.

He is survived by two daughters, Marilyn Becker of Renton and Marla Childers of Bigfork; five sons, Marlin Graber Jr. and Bruce Graber, both of Renton, Marvin Graber of Warren, RI, Dennis Graber of Vancouver, Wash., and Darrell Graber of Palmer, Alaska; one sister, Pat Wilkenson of Columbus, Neb.; and 19 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and many nieces, nephews and other relatives.

He was loved by those who knew him.

A funeral service will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Gary Morton, pastor of the Swan Chapel, officiating.

Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens with ritualistic Masonic rites. The family suggests memorials be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 201 S. Last Chance Gulch, P.O. Box 721, Helena, MT 59624-0721, and the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 1002, Kalispell, MT 59983-1002.

1997 Edith Fern Grant, 91

Edith Fern Grant, 91, died in Hot Springs, Thursday, Nov. 20.

She was born July 29, 1906, to Nicholas Walter and Ida Serles at the Serles home in the Pine Grove Community, five miles north of Kalispell. She attended the Pine Grove school for the elementary grades and graduated from the Normal Course at Flathead County High School in 1924. She taught a couple years in Flathead County rural schools.

In 1928, she married Donal Alverd Grant at Polson. They lived at Sonora, Calif., and Bellingham, Wash., then moved back to Montana. Over the years, they lived in Proctor, Hot Springs and Kalispell. After Edith's two daughters married, she went back to school. She obtained her bachelor of science degree in Elementary Education from Western Montana College of Education. She taught 18 more years in Flathead County at Battle Butte, Hodgson, Cayuse Prairie and her last 10 years teaching the fourth grade at Evergreen Elementary. When she retired in 1971, the Grants sold their home south of Kalispell and moved back to Hot Springs.

She was always active and interested in her community. She belonged to the Hot Springs Presbyterian Church, the Presbyterian Women's Organization, the Hot Springs Women's Club and held various offices in all three. She was a life member of the Hot Springs Senior Citizens and belonged to the Pend d'Orielle Retired Teachers.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Donal, in 1985; daughter Dorothy Holmberg; grandson David Mountjoy; two sisters and a brother.

She is survived by a daughter, Donaldeen Mountjoy and husband, Lewis, of Hot Springs; four grandchildren; seven great grandchildren and a brother, Walter Serles, of Kalispell.

A graveside service will be 3 p.m., Tuesday, at Conrad Memorial Cemetery, Pastor Kenneth Mottram officiating. The family suggests memorials be made to the John McCoy Scholarship Fund, c/o Alan McCoy, Lonepine, 59848. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Agnes Janet Greening, 87

Agnes Janet Greening, 87, a long-time Whitefish resident, passed away on Sunday, May 11, 1997 at North Valley Hospital.

She was born on Nov. 14, 1909, in Webster, N.D., to Kristian and Anna Tanner. She was raised in Camrose, Alberta, Canada, where she attended school until age 14. Her family moved to Seattle in 1924. She graduated from Franklin High School and Griffin Murphy Business College.

She moved to Whitefish in 1955, and worked for the Great Northern Railway for 30 years, retiring as chief clerk in 1976.

She married Paul Greening in 1960 and he preceded her in death in 1980.

She was loved and adored by her family, friends and coworkers.

She is survived by her daughters, Irene Arnold of Whitefish and Margit Scholz of Seattle. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Michael Peterson, Richard Allison, Gary Peterson, Danial Peterson, Julie Arnold, Susan Ramback, Karen Carratt and Christian Scholz; her great-grandchildren, Christine, Mathew and Seth Peterson, Rachael and Anna Peterson, Heath McHenry, Jason and Jessica Ramback, Sarah and Stephen Carratt; and her sister, Borghild Stokes, of Edmonds, Wash.

She was also preceded in death by her brothers, John and Reidar Tanner, and a sister, Margit Smith.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Austin Funeral Home with the Rev. John Bent of Christ Lutheran Church of Whitefish officiating. Burial will follow at Whitefish Cemetery.

The family has suggested remembrances be made to the memorial fund at North Valley Hospital Extended Care in her name.

1997 Mae Greve, 94

Mae Greve, 94, a long-time resident of Columbia Falls, died Wednesday, Sept. 17, at the North Valley Extended Care in Whitefish.

She was born May 30, 1903, in Selby, S.D., to Henry and Caroline Wolf. The family moved to Chester in 1912. She married John W. Greve in 1938 in Kalispell.

She is survived by numerous grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

A graveside service will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Ray Davis of the United Methodist Church will officiate. Arrangements are by Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls.

1997 Alfred H. Grina, 87

Alfred H. Grina, 87, of Kalispell, died at the Immanuel Lutheran Home on Thursday, Jan. 9.

He was born May 16, 1909, in Northwood, N. D., to Henry and Ingeborg Grina. He attended schools in Northwood and also a trade school in Fargo. He worked on farms in his youth and in 1932, moved to Kalispell.

On June 2, 1937, he married Matilda Torgerson in Shelby. He worked as a mechanic and fire guard in Glacier National Park. He worked for the Flathead County Road Department as a mechanic for 18 years, retiring in 1974. He was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church and the Kalispell Eagles Lodge.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, his wife in 1989 and a stepson, Romaine Evenson.

He is now survived by two stepsons, Gordon Evenson, of Kalispell and Duane Evenson, of Cincinnati, Ohio; brother Palmer Grina, of Northwood, N. D.; step grandchildren, Gordon Lynn Evenson, in Minnesota, Lora Lynn Evenson, of Missoula, and Sandra Jones, of Kalispell and three step great grandchildren.

A funeral will be 10 a.m., Monday, at Johnson Mortuary Chapel, Rev. Rick Nelson, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens. Visitation is 1-4 p.m., today, at Johnson Mortuary.

1997 Paul Grinde, 55

Paul Grinde, 55, died June 25 in Havre of natural causes.

He was born in Butte on July 17, 1941, to Owen and Evelyn and has lived in Havre since 1990. He worked on the Burlington Northern Railroad for 30 years. He spent 23 of those years in Whitefish. He followed several other family members in the career of railroading.

He served in the U.S. Navy from 1959 to 1961 and later attended Montana Tech and the University of Montana. He had an extreme passion for the outdoors and enjoyed sport fishing and hunting.

He is survived by his wife, Nona, of Havre; mother, Evelyn, of Whitefish; sister Marilyn Dues and husband, Mark, of Ohio; brother Eric and wife, Zippy, of Washington; nieces Andrea and Elena; nephew Lance and a number of aunts and uncles in the Flathead Valley.

A memorial service will be 2 p.m. Monday at Holland and Bonine Funeral Home in Havre. A service will also be held in Whitefish in July. Details will be announced later.

Memorials may be made to the Heart Association and to Alcoholics Anonymous.

1997 Dorothy Gullickson, 71

Dorothy Mae Gullickson, 71, passed away Thursday, Nov. 27, in Brendan House in Kalispell.

She was born Nov. 12, 1926 in Finley, N. D., to Julius and Evina Kastet. She was the youngest of five girls. Her sisters are Miss Marvin Esther Iverson, Senora Ronnigan Brakke, Clarice Hansen and Ruth Jensen. Though the years and miles may have separated them, the Norwegian blood and family pride always connected them. The times they were together were spent in reminiscing and joking with each other and a special love born of good and bad times.

She attended school in Sharon, N. D., and and jokingly called the rest of her education the school of hard knocks.

She married Leonard G. Gullickson on Nov. 4, 1950, in Moorehead, Minn. They started their life together in Finley, N. D. They had five children: Julie, Harold, David, Don and Mark.

As she journeyed through life she touched many people and many hearts. Her husband worked in construction and they moved often. They moved to Glasgow, where they worked on the construction of the Glasgow Air Force Base. They lived in Kings Springs, where she worked at the base and at the Glasgow Hotel. They then moved to Hinsdale, where they lived on a small ranch, raising cows and kids. She continued to drive to Glasgow to work at the hotel, where she worked with her good friend Dorothy Kolstad.

In 1965, the family moved to Kalispell, which then became a permanent home base. She owned and operated the Elm Court and El Rancho motels. In 1975, she left Kalispell for Alaska, where they managed a motel in Fairbanks and eventually worked as an innkeeper on the Alaska Pipeline.

She returned to Glasgow in 1978 and she worked for the Valley County Credit Union. The job started out as part-time but grew to a full-time managerial position. She always had a special love and interest in people and their problems, and through the years many people told of how she had touched their lives and made them feel someone cared.

Dorothy's life changed again in 1987, when Leonard died. She moved to North Bend, Wash., in 1988, to help her son Don with his family, although the family moved back to Montana and Dorothy stayed. She worked for PTI Communications. She loved her job in the high-tech world of communications.

Besides her work at PTI she helped three families with child care and worked in child care. She returned to Kalispell in 1994.

Of all the accomplishments in her life, she was most proud of her children. Mark was her youngest child and they had a special bond. Dorothy helped Mark through the years, but she also remembered when he was 4 years old and helped her: "Before he started school he helped me every day. He would help feed hay to the cows and do chores. He had his own special pitchfork, which was broken off at just the right height for him to help feed the cows. One day Leonard took the pitchfork and put a new handle on it. Mark was heartbroken, and and told Leonard that the other pitchfork was just his right height. So Leonard went and cut the handle back off and gave it back to Mark."

She is survived by a daughter Julie Burke and her husband, Don, of Glasgow; sons Harold and wife, Louise, of Scapoose, Ore., David and wife, Denise, of Kalispell; Don, of Kalispell, Mark, of Kalispell, and Mark, of Kalispell; seven grandsons and four granddaughters.

A funeral will be 11 a.m. Saturday, at Calvary Lutheran Church, Pastor Bob Nilsen officiating. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Mary Gunderson, 82

Mary P. Gunderson, 82, of Dayton, passed away from natural causes on Oct. 27, 1997, at Evergreen Health and Rehab Center in Polson.

She was born on Nov. 14, 1914, in Grand Forks, British Columbia, to Victor and Catherine Lacey. She grew up and attended schools in Helena, and graduated from Helena High School. She moved to Butte and worked at the Galen Hospital and as a housekeeper in Butte. She married John Emil Gunderson in January of 1945 in Butte. She moved to Great Falls to be near her daughter in the early 1970s. She then moved with her daughter to Billings, Tucson, Ariz., and eventually to Dayton.

She was a devout Catholic. She enjoyed reading and loved to spend time with her family and especially her great-granddaughter Nahtanha.

She was preceded in death by her husband and a son, John Victor Gunderson.

She is survived by her daughter and her husband, Greta and Grover Botkin of Dayton; granddaughter Lisa Sell of Laramie, Wyo.; great-granddaughter Nahtanha of Laramie; sisters, Anne Fickes of Long Beach, Calif., Stephanie Shabal of Hancock, Mich., Louise Sustarich of Chassell, Mich., and Margaret Cencich of Plymouth, Mich.

Memorials may be made to the Evergreen Health and Rehab Center in Polson. No services are planned. Cremation and arrangements are by Grogan Funeral Home of Polson.

Orvan Gunderson

Graveside services for Mr. Orvan Gunderson, of Mesa, Ariz., and formerly of Kalispell, will be at 11 a.m., Tuesday, at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Military honors will be conducted by local veterans organizations.

Friends will meet at the cemetery for the service.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. He was born in Rugby, N.D., He passed away on April 29, 1997, in Mesa.

He and his wife were married in May, 1940.

He was preceded in death by a son, Jerry, four brothers and three sisters.

He is survived by his wife, Minerva, of Mesa, Ariz., sister Viola Jacobson, of Scottsdale, Ariz., and several nieces and nephews. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

James Neil Guppy, 57

James Neil Guppy, 57, went home to be with his Lord early Tuesday morning, July 8, 1997, from his home in Kalispell after a short bout with cancer.

He was born Jan. 7, 1940, to Charles and Elizabeth Guppy in Jefferson City, Mo. He attended schools in California and Montana.

He was a mill worker for Pine Mountain Lumber Co. for several years in Yreka, Calif., before coming to Montana. He worked for Plum Creek Manufacturing Lumber Products as a millwright construction worker.

On Dec. 1, 1979, he married Sandy Sanderbrink.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Guppy.

He is survived by his wife, Sandy

Guppy, of Kalispell; his father, Charles Guppy, of Yreka, Calif.; sisters, Phyliss Gregg and husband of Alaska, Joyce Fernland and husband of Yreka; stepson Ray McCoshum and stepgrandchildren, Jodi McCoshum, James McCoshum and Jennifer McCoshum. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews and other relatives and numerous friends.

He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Services will be held at North Valley Baptist Church, 1750 Talbot Road, Columbia Falls, Friday, at 3:30 p.m.

Arrangements are by Buffalo Hill Funeral Home. The family requests that memorials be made to Hospice, 1280 Burns Way, #3, Kalispell, MT 59901.