

Judy Yates, 61

Judy Yates, 61, died Aug. 17, 1999, after fighting a battle with cancer. She was surrounded by the loving arms of her husband, Phil Yates of Kalispell; her daughter, Kim Fleming and her partner, Don Barta, of Kila; son Robin "Goose" Fleming and his partner, Nancy Grande, also of Kalispell; and her mother, Margaret Shirley of Kalispell.

She is also survived by her dear sister, Linda Miller and her husband, Arthur, of Richland, Wash.; her granddaughter, Amber Fleming of Kalispell; niece and nephew, Terri and Tracy Webb of Eureka; as well as four grandnieces, Desiree Lena, Brittany and Katie, all of Eureka; her dear friend and father-in-law, Les Shirley of Kalispell; and all of her wonderful friends and neighbors.

She was born in Skomokowa,

Wash., but spent most of her life in the Rexford/Eureka and Kalispell areas, with some time in California and 10 years in Missoula.

She was trained both as a barber and as a beautician and was very talented in both fields. She was a wonderful homemaker, a great cook, and an exceptionally talented crafter. All of her family and friends who have received her great knitting, crocheting, sewing, and quilting creations consider themselves lucky.

She was a great storyteller. She always considered her family to be the most important thing in her life, and she loved family gatherings and made sure they came often.

A memorial service for all of the family and friends is planned at the family home for later this fall; a notice will be made when details are finalized.
