

Shawn T. Inman, 26

Shawn T. Inman, 26, died at Harms Hospital in American Falls, Idaho, due to a vehicle rollover on Jan. 24, 2000.

He was born on Sept. 13, 1973, to Thomas and Vicki Reynolds Inman at Havre. He attended schools in Chinook, and graduated from heavy equipment operations school in Portland, with a superior rating in 1995.

In the spring of 1996, he started working for Harp Line Construction in Kalispell, and he has been traveling with the company to different job sites all over the Western United States.

He loved snowmobiling, working on his older cars, golfing and had plans on starting to ice fish.

As a young boy, he loved traveling with grandpa Bob and eating Snicker candy bars and drinking cokes with him. He always had a big smile and greeting for everyone.

His first love was his family and daughter and second was his job and work.

He married Gretchen Severson in Chinook, on Jan. 24, 1998.

He is survived by his wife Gretchen of Billings; three-week-old daughter Madison Inman of Billings; father Thomas Inman and his wife Tawna Inman of Chinook; sisters, Tracie Inman, Katie Scott, Becky Scott, all of Chinook; stepson Tyler Brost of Cody, Wyo., with whom he loved playing basketball; grandparents, Robert and Nancy Inman and John and June Reynolds, all of Chinook; numerous uncles, aunts and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his mother Vicki Inman in September 1996.

Vigil services will be Thursday at 7 p.m. in St. Gabriel's Catholic Church. Mass will be recited there on Friday at 11 a.m. with burial following in Kuper Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials may be sent to the Madison RaeLynn Inman Trust at Western Bank, P.O. Box 9, Chinook, MT 59523.

Arrangements are by Edwards Funeral Home of Chinook.

Clarence Walker Isaacson, 92

Clarence Walker Isaacson, 92, of Polson, passed away on Nov. 20, 2000, at Evergreen Health and Rehabilitation in Polson.

He was born on March 7, 1908, to Haakon and Clara Isaacson in Sandle, N.D.

He grew up and attended schools in Grenora, N.D. He joined the Navy from 1926 to 1930, returned to North Dakota and then ranched with his brother around the Ophelm area. He met and married Eunice Chester on Oct. 7, 1934, in Hinsdale. He was also a barber in several locations. He spent many years as a carpenter and contractor. His work took him to North Dakota, central and eastern Montana. His retirement years were spent between Kalispell and Mesa, Ariz.

Music was a central part of his life from early days when his family enjoyed playing music together in the evenings. At age 67, he joined District 1 Old Time Fiddlers, he loved the jam sessions as well as competing in state contests, where he placed first twice and finished in the top five many times. Winters in Arizona were spent playing with a dance band. His old time waltz got everyone out on the floor.

He was a kind and gentle person who appreciated his many friends and acquaintances. He was a good listener, and had a quick wit and will be missed by all those who knew him.

He was preceded in death by Eunice, his beloved wife of 64 years.

He is survived by a son, Leon Isaacson of Kalispell; daughters, Janette Gipe and Marcia Ann Walker, both of Polson; grandchildren Greg Isaacson and Laura Isaacson, both of Orlando, Fla., Leah Gipe of Polson and Jeff Gipe of Gilbert, Ariz., Kathy Foss of Polson, and Kim Jessop of Pinesdale; and many, many great and great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Grogan Funeral Home with Rev. Paul Rowold officiating. Burial will be held at Lakeview Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of Grogan Funeral Home in Polson.

John A. Isakson, 73

John A. Isakson, 73, passed away Wednesday morning, March 22, 2000, following a short battle with cancer.

He was born to Erling and Bessie Isakson on April 15, 1926, in Kalispell. He grew up and lived in the Flathead Valley his entire life.

He married Elsie Schmitz in Kalispell. They resided in Olney, until their divorce in 1968.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Bessie Dickinson, and brother, Orville Isakson.

He is survived by his sister, Grace Howard, of Pueblo, Colo.; four children, Kristine Rose of Kalispell, Karen Pemble of Whitefish, Jack Isakson of Oceanside, Calif., and Kathleen Keyser of Woodbine, Ga.; three grandsons, John Billborough, Erik Isakson, and Kyle Rose; four granddaughters, Jeri, Linda, Ana, and Tami; three great-grandchildren, Steven, Tishelle, and Jacque; and many relatives and friends. He will be missed.

We love you Dad and Grandpa. God bless you.

At his request, there will be no services. He will be cremated and his ashes will be scattered at a later date and at which time there will be an announced memorial for family and friends.

Arrangements and cremation are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.
