

Jerry Richard Uhde, 49

Jerry Richard Uhde, 49, of Helena, formerly of Kalispell, died Jan. 19, 2000, in Helena. He was struck by a vehicle while walking to work.

He was born to Richard and Juanita Uhde on July 6, 1950, in Kalispell. After a government career which took him to many locations he moved to Helena in 1996, as assistant district director with the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

He is survived by his wife, Nuala, and son Mark. Jerry and Nuala were married in her homeland of Ireland in 1980.

He is also survived by his mother Juanita Uhde of Kalispell; his brothers, Randy Uhde of Vancouver, Wash., Jack Uhde of Toledo, Ore.; his sister, Sally Hagan of Kalispell, and their spouses and children; and an extended family of aunts, uncles and cousins, in Montana, Washington, Idaho and California.

He was a devoted husband, father and son and will be sorely missed.

A funeral liturgy in honor of Jerry will be Saturday, 10 a.m., at St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Kalispell.

Richard C. Ulery, 68

Richard C. Ulery, age 68, passed away Saturday, Sept. 2, 2000, at Kalispell Regional Medical Center. Richard was born Nov. 21, 1931, in Great Falls to William and Jennie Ulery.

He was raised and graduated from high school in Great Falls. Richard worked for the Coca Cola Bottling Co. for several years, then went to work for the Great Falls Gas Co. where he worked until his retirement. He married Rose Nagel on Oct. 7, 1956, in Great Falls. Richard was a gun enthusiast who for 35 years was a hunter safety instructor. In 1988, Richard moved to Columbia Falls. He loved the outdoors and canoeing, but most importantly he loved to help people, especially his many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by Rose Ulery of Great Falls; a son, Timothy Ulery of Phoenix, Ariz.; two daughters, Kathy Ulery of Great Falls and Suzanne Quandahl of Elgin, Ill.; a brother, Warren Ulery of Great Falls; three grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 9, at First English Lutheran Church in Great Falls. In lieu of flowers, the family suggest memorials be sent to F.E.L.C. organ restoration fund, 112 8th St. N, Great Falls, MT 59401. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Herbert 'Herb' Austin Ulrich, 89

Herbert "Herb" Austin Ulrich, 89, formerly of Somers, died Oct. 15, 2000, at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle following a brief illness.

He was born March 31, 1911, to Alva and Hattie Ulrich in Williams County, N.D. He moved to Somers while in grade school and worked in his father's charter truck and bus business.

He left there at age 18 and returned in 1943, after his marriage to Leola DeChaine, to help his father with the business. He drove the school bus from Lakeside to Kalispell until 1949. In 1950, the family relocated to Cashmere, and later Wenatchee, Wash., where he resided until his death.

A retired heavy equipment operator and member of Operating Engineers Local 302, he moved to Washington to help build the Alcoa Aluminum plant in Wenatchee and worked on many other projects throughout the region, including Interstate 90 and the Alcan Highway. He returned to Montana many times during his life to visit friends and enjoy the countryside.

He is survived by his wife, at home; his daughter, Dian Thompson, of Edmonds, Wash.; his granddaughter, Debbie Johnson, of Olympia, Wash.; and two sisters, Sallie Hansch and Joyce Fraser in California.

He was preceded in death by his son, James Ulrich; and brothers Teddy, Alan, and John Ulrich.

No services will be held locally.
