Ed "Quigs" Quigley, 56, "left the world's 'Last Best Place' for a better place" on Sunday, Jan. 19, 2003.

Ed was born June 25, 1946, in the Bronx borough of New York City to Ann and Joe Quigley.

He retired from IBM Corporation in 1999 after 33 years of service. Ed started with IBM in 1966 working in various locations in New York. In 1977, he transferred to the IBM Software Development Lab in San Jose, Calif.

While living in San Jose, he was blessed with the opportunity to meet the love of his life, Antoinette. In 1984, Toni (Antoinette) and Ed were married in Queen of Apostles Catholic Church in Saratoga, Calif. In 1989, Ed accepted a foreign assignment with IBM and moved to Brussels, Belgium, where they lived for four years; and they both enjoyed traveling and meeting many new friends.

In 1996, Ed accepted another IBM foreign assignment, and he and Toni packed up to live in Winchester, England, for two years. While living in Winchester, Ed and Toni hired a local Bigfork contractor and began building their dream home in Lakeside. The house was completed while they were still living in England and they moved to the Flathead in December 1997. For the past three years Ed was employed by VERITAS Software, and was fortunate enough to work out of his home for this California-based company.

Ed enjoyed the beautiful Flathead Valley and all of the wonderful activities that the area has to offer. He was current vice president of the Back Country Horseman of the Flathead and he really cherished the friendships that he developed within that organization, and enjoyed the opportunity to work with a group of such fine individuals.

Ed had a very special life filled with fond memories, a loving and caring wife, wonderful children and grandchildren and many, many friends.

Ed is survived by his loving wife, Toni; two children, daughter, Maryanne and her husband David Harper of Colorado Springs, Colo., and two grandchildren, Tyler and Sean, and son, Kevin Quigley and his wife Amy of Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif. He is also survived by two stepdaughters, Audrey Vowell and granddaughter, Cori, of Cupertino, Calif., and Brenda and her husband, John Padelt, of Ben Lomand, Calif.; and one brother, Joe Quigley, of Mill Valley, Calif.
