
Roger Clemens Ulbricht

Katherine Driessen Ulbricht and family will have a memorial remembrance for Roger Clemens Ulbricht, who died on Jan. 24, 2003, from 4 to 7 p.m. Sunday, March 16, in bay four of the Coeur d' Alene Resort in downtown Coeur d' Alene, Idaho.

Robert Jacob Underwood, 90

Robert Jacob Underwood, 90, passed away June 19, 2004, in Kalispell.

He was born Jan. 18, 1914, in Belle Fourche, S.D., to Jacob and Minnie Tolliver Underwood. His family moved to Cut Bank, where he lived until he moved to Whitefish in 1919.

He married Alice Hope of Whitefish on Jan. 20, 1937, and they lived in Port Angeles, Wash., where he was employed as chief warehouse clerk at Olympic National Park headquarters. The family returned to Whitefish in 1942, where he was employed by the Great Northern Railroad. He retired as engineer in 1974, and in 1975 moved to Florence, Ore., where he lived until returning to Whitefish in 2001.

He was a 50-year member of the Masonic Lodge, the Elks Lodge, the Stumptown Historical Society, and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Robert was preceded in death by his wife, Alice, in 1982; son Arlen in 1944; great-granddaughter Taylor Overton; and brothers Jesse Underwood and Gerald Underwood.

He is survived by his daughters, Jean and Heinz Henke of Kalispell, Arlene and Bob Dumluck of Whitefish, Linda and Doug Johnson of Eugene, Ore., and Barbara and Udo Gerz of Phoenix; 11 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; one great-great-granddaughter; and a nephew, Pat Underwood, and his wife Barbara of Manhattan, Mont.

Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 23, at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish, with the Rev. Jeff Teeple officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to Flathead Hospice or to Shodair Childrens Hospital.

Robert L 'Roy' Upham, 65

Robert L. "Roy" Upham, 65, of Suquamish, Wash., passed away on April 13, 2004, in Bremerton, Wash., after a long illness.

He was born in Polson, to Sammy and Robert Upham on Sept. 28, 1938, and he graduated from Polson High School in 1958.

Mr. Upham moved to Bainbridge Island in 1960. In the mid-1970s he established The Hobby Horse, a restaurant that became a social center on Bainbridge Island. Mr. Upham was an interior decorator, restaurateur and entrepreneur. Art and antiques were among his many interests.

He was preceded in death by his longtime partner, Monte Malvin.

He is survived by his companion, Wesley Jacobson, of Suquamish; a brother, Tim Jensen of Polson; and aunt, Beatrice Atkinson, also of Polson; nephews and nieces, Dan Hansard and family, Shane Hansard, and Rita Wemmer, all of Jordan; and many friends.

Cremation has taken place.

William Lloyd 'Bill' Ulrich, 82

William Lloyd "Bill" Ulrich, 82, passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 12, 2004, at Brendan House in Kalispell.

Bill was born on Feb. 24, 1922, in Flaxville, to Cyrus and Laura Cochrane Ulrich. He attended schools in the Flathead Valley.

Bill served in Europe with General Patton 3rd Army during World War II. He was honorably discharged in 1945.

After his tour of service he bought his own logging truck and began working in the woods.

In 1958, he joined the Kalispell Police Department until he retired. He was the owner and operator of Bill's Towing until 1976.

Bill enjoyed traveling, hunting and fishing. When out-of-town guests came, Bill was always delighted to show them the Flathead Valley. Bill loved playing cards and being in the company of good friends.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie, of Kalispell; children, DuWayne and his wife, Pat Ulrich, of Philipsburg, Vicki and her husband, Steve Gervais, of Spokane, and Kay and her husband, Dean Erickson, of Bonney Lake, Wash.; five grandsons, four stepgrandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be at 1 p.m. Monday, Oct. 18, at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Kalispell. The United Veterans of the Flathead Valley will do military honors in the church parking lot following the service.

Buffalo Hill Funeral Home and Crematory is caring for the family.