Hilda Irvin, 88

Hilda Irvin, 88, "joined her heavenly Father" on Monday, Feb. 14, 2011, in Kalispell.

Hilda was born May 16, 1922, in Germany, and grew up there before she immigrated to Montana with her family.

She married her beloved husband, William "Bill" Irvin.

Hilda was an outgoing woman with a big heart. She was a strong-minded, stubborn German and loved to have a good time. Her passion was putting on her boots while camping, to hike the hills and pick huckleberries so she could make homemade wines and pies.

She was blessed to be able to travel and see the world with her friends and family. She enjoyed entertaining family and friends, and she loved to dance and socialize. Hilda expressed her love for life by smiling and laughing often.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bill; sister, Melanie Collins; brother, Paul Basler; and her parents, Leo and Anna Basler.

She is survived by her daughter, Janet Rae, and husband, Ed Lasater, of Kalispell; sister, Gert Leary; grandchildren, Jesse Lasater, Justin and Amber Lasater; great-grandchild, Madison Lasater; stepchildren and their families; and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life for Hilda will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 18, at the Elks Lodge in Kalispell.

Friends may make a donations to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Montana Chapter, P.O. Box 2802, Great Falls, MT 59403.

Friends are encouraged to visit the website, www.buffalohillfh.com, to post notes of condolence and support for the family. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home is caring for the family.
