

Raymond Albert Zebro, 76

Raymond Albert Zebro, 76, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, Jan. 17, 2013, at Health Center Northwest in Kalispell.

Ray was born on March 7, 1936. He was confirmed at St. Mary's Catholic Church in 1948. He graduated from Bruce High School in 1954 and served in the U.S. Air Force from 1954 to 1958. Ray attended business school from 1958 to 1960 and received a degree from the Institute of Banking in 1959.

Ray married Lois A. Ramberg in 1971. Ray started his career in the U.S. Air Force, was stationed in Germany, worked in business management and ended his career in sales before retiring in 2004. Ray enjoyed trap shooting, hunting, fishing, boating, skiing, camping, snowmobiling and spending time with family and friends. He was a UFO and alien enthusiast and loved building remote control and model airplanes. He also loved Harley Davidsons, crossword puzzles, the Green Bay Packers and old model cars.

Ray was a member of the Northwest Montana Trap Club, Lions Club and the Moose Lodge, a hunter safety instructor and a volunteer fireman.

Ray is preceded in death by his parents, Albert J. and Kathleen M. Zebro; his sister, Dorothy Fitzgerald; and his son-in-law, B.P. Rice.

He is survived by his wife, Lois A. Zebro; his sons, Gregory and Lisa Zebro, and Ryan and Rachel Zebro; his daughters, Michelle Rice, of Kalispell, and Kathleen R. Blake, of Green Bay, Wis.; and his grandchildren, Miranda A. Blake, Darien Zebro, Hunter Danz, Ross Zebro, Mackenzie Zebro, Asher Rice, Altas Rice and Veda Blair-Rice.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 10 a.m. at Risen Christ Catholic Church. Memorial contributions can be made in Ray's name to Wings Regional Cancer Support, P.O. Box 7852, Kalispell, MT 59904-7852.

Virginia Lee Zelezny, 90

Our friend Virginia Lee Zelezny, 90, died Wednesday, Oct. 23, 2013, at her home in Rollins.

She was born on Dec. 20, 1922, in Kent, Iowa, to William Briton and Freda Madge (Weable) Scarcliff.

Virginia married William F. Zelezny Sept. 14, 1949, and they were happily married for 64 years. They met while going to school at the State University of Iowa where Virginia became a registered nurse and Bill received his Ph.D. in physical chemistry.

Virginia spent many years working in the delivery room at hospitals around the country — Iowa, Ohio, Washington and Idaho — retiring from nursing in 1964. After Bill retired in 1980, the couple moved to Rollins to the Zelezny family homestead and became very involved in the community.

Virginia was an active member of the League of Women Voters, a dedicated member of the Methodist Church, and former treasurer and lifetime member of the Women of Rollins Club. For 26 years Virginia headed up Candidates Night along the West Shore of Flathead Lake in Lake County.

Some of the hobbies Virginia enjoyed were stamp collecting, gardening, music, reading, leatherwork, crewel, sewing and bird watching. Dogs had been an important part of Virginia's life and she often said, "There is no point of going to heaven if there are no dogs."

Virginia is survived by her husband, Bill; brother, Charles and Dexa Scarcliff, of Sacramento, Calif.; and nephew, Bill Scarcliff.

She was preceded in death by her parents, sister Elaine Langer, and niece Susan Scarcliff. Virginia's sense of humor and knowledge will be missed by many.

"It has been a pleasure knowing you, Virginia."

A celebration of Virginia's life will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Nov. 1, at the Lakeside Community Chapel in Lakeside.

Memorial contributions in Virginia's name are suggested to the Lakeside Community Chapel, P.O. Box 162, Lakeside, MT 59922.

John A. Zierow, 60

John A. Zierow, 60, of Kalispell, died Monday, Dec. 9, 2013, at University Hospital in Salt Lake City.

He was a retired millwright from Plum Creek.

He is survived by his wife, Beverley, and four children.

A private family service will be held this summer.

Betty 'Dolly' Zingleman, 76

Betty "Dolly" Zingleman, 76, of Watford City, N.D., passed away on March 19, 2013, in Watford City.

Funeral services for Betty will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 23, at the Garden Lutheran Church in Watford City, with Pastor Rob Favorite officiating. Interment will be in the Schafer Cemetery in Watford City, under the direction of the Fulkerson Funeral Home of Watford City. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at www.fulkersons.com.

Betty "Dolly" Andrea Johnston was born on April 8, 1936, to Andrew and Leva (Thompson) Johnston on the family farm north of Watford City. Dolly, as she was known by family, grew up playing in the rock cliffs on the Johnston Ranch with her brothers and sister. She attended Signal School through the eighth grade and then moved to Columbia Falls.

On May 27, 1956, she married George Zingleman in the Garden Lutheran Church. They moved to Columbia Falls and made their home there until 1979. While

of the Moose Lodge. While they lived in Montana, their two daughters were born, Monte and Dawn. In 1979, they moved to Watford City, where she resided until the time of her death.

Dolly is survived by her daughters, Monte and Geoff Gaukler of Grand Forks, N.D., and Dawn Pietron of Kalispell; her grandchildren, Danika, Keegan, Dawson, Megan, Madison and Reagan; her brothers, Jim and Elva Lou Johnston of Grassy Butte, N.D., Ted and Janice Johnston of Trenton, N.D., Punk and Phyllis Ellingson of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Babe and Rob Olson of Williston, N.D. Dolly is also survived by many caring nieces and nephews.

Dolly was preceded in death by her husband, George; her mother, Leva; father, Andrew; stepfather, Elmer Ellingson; and brother, Carroll.

Valentina Zotova, 65

Valentina Zotova, 65, died Monday, May 6, 2013, at the Whitefish Care and Rehabilitation Center.

She is survived by two children, Denis Agafonov and Tatyana Shestak.
