

Terri (Pope) Quinlivan, 63

Terri (Pope) Quinlivan died April 30, 2023 following a brief battle with cancer. Terri was born and raised in Spokane, attended University High School, Spokane Community College and Eastern Washington University, earning a bachelor's degree in marketing. She met her husband, Mick, of 28 years while in Spokane. The couple also lived in Polson, Bozeman, Columbia Falls and Kalispell.

Terri loved all of nature, except spiders. She spent much of her time caring for several rescued pets, gardening, animal watching and reading under a shade tree. She cherished quality time with family and friends and will be dearly missed.

Terri is survived by her husband, Mick, of Kalispell; mother, Edie, of Vancouver, Washington; brother, Dave, of Ravensdale, Washington; and a gaggle of cousins, in-laws and close friends across the USA. A celebration of Terri's life will be held July 1, 2023, in Spokane.

Matthew Quist, 27

Matthew Thomas Quist, 27, passed away Aug. 8, 2023, in Missoula. He was born April 6, 1996, in Kalispell, to John and Mary Ann Quist.

Known for his boundless energy and sense of adventure, he spent his childhood exploring the woods around his home in Woods Bay, climbing the tallest trees, sledging down the steepest hills, and swimming in Flathead Lake. His natural athleticism led him to successfully compete in many sports, including basketball and track.

As a senior at Flathead High School, he won the 2014 Class AA state title in high jump, with a jump of 6-7, achieving a personal best of 6-9. He continued his athletic career at the University of Montana, qualifying for two NCAA Regional Championships and three Big Sky Conference Championships. He finished his high jump career with a personal record of 7-1.

During his time at the University, he developed a love of learning and academics. He graduated with a degree in political science in 2017 and began his master's degree in business administration. He was a student at large, participating as a member of the Board on Budget and Finance and the Student Political Action Committee. This participation excited a love of advocacy and involvement that led Matt to successfully run for ASUM senate.

He will forever be remembered for his extraordinary wit, his wonderful sense of humor, and his kind soul. He was deeply compassionate, always encouraging those around him with his bright uplifting smile and understanding eyes. A true friend to all, he wished the best for everyone he met.

He is survived by his mother and father, and his sister Elizabeth.

Visitation will be held at 10 a.m. on August 26, at Christ the King Parish in Missoula. The funeral mass officiated by Father Kirby Longo will begin at 11 a.m., followed by a reception. Burial will follow at Bigfork Community Cemetery.
